Deposit in escrow of direct obligations of the United States in an amount which, at maturity, together with interest to accrue thereon prior to the maturity date or the earliest ensuing redemption date of the outstanding bonds being refunded, will equal the total amounts of principal, interest, and any redemption premiums required to redeem or retire such outstanding bonds on such date or dates shall be sufficient to terminate the lien of such outstanding bonds on all funds except such escrow fund.

However, nothing in this section shall be construed as eliminating or impairing the requirements of any statute, rule, or ordinance relating to any official or other action or signatures necessary to authorize the withdrawal, payment, or disbursement of such public funds.

(b) If authorized in writing by the person entitled to the withdrawal, payment, or disbursement of public funds, such checks, warrants, or other instruments may provide for direct deposit of the public funds to the account of the person entitled to receive the same in any financial institution which is designated in writing by such person and which has lawful authority to accept such deposits. The written authorization of the person entitled to receive such public funds shall be filed with the appropriate governing board or officer. Direct deposit of public funds may be by any electronic or other medium approved for such purpose by the governing board or officer having jurisdiction or control of such public funds.

The 'office shall furnish such information to each affected state agency. The statement of intent shall act as additional directions to the 'office and each affected state agency relative to the purpose, objectives, and spending philosophy of the appropriations act.

(2) The 'department shall transmit to each state agency an approved budget for operational and fixed capital outlay expenditures, consistent with such information furnished by the Legislature pursuant to subsection (1), which shall be in a format and contain such information as prescribed by the 'department, consistent with the provisions of s. 216.023, or, in lieu thereof for lump sum appropriations, may require the submission of a detailed plan from the agency affected, consistent with the legislative appropriations acts. The 'department shall furnish each agency an approved annual salary rate for each budget entity containing a salary appropriation, based on an actual salary rate and consistent with information furnished pursuant to subsection (1). All subsequent approved budget amendment requests shall be processed by the 'Department of Administration within 30 days from receipt of request.

(3) A copy of such approved budgets or any subsequent amendments thereto shall be transmitted in writing to the chairmen of the legislative appropriations committees and to the Auditor General. The legislative appropriations committees may give their advice to the 'department or the commission on any matter contained in the approved budgets or amendments thereto.

(4) Each state agency shall develop the internal management procedures and budgets necessary to assure compliance with the approved budget.

(5) Any department under direct supervision of a member of the cabinet or of a board consisting of the Governor and members of the cabinet which contends that its approved budget is not consistent with legislative intent shall have the right to have the issue reviewed by the Administration Commission, which shall decide such issue by majority vote. The appropriations committees of the Legislature may advise the Administration Commission on the issue.

(6) The 'department shall certify the amounts approved for operations and fixed capital outlay, together with any relevant supplementary materials or information, to the Comptroller, and such certification shall be the Comptroller's guide with reference to the expenditures of each state agency pursuant to s. 216.192.

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the budgets for the legislative branch.

History.—s. 31, ch. 69-106; s. 8, ch. 69-82; s. 12, ch. 71-354; s. 11, ch. 77-352; s. 14, ch. 79-190.

(2) Any department under the direct supervision of a member of the cabinet or of a board consisting of the Governor and members of the cabinet which contends that the determination of the program plan by the 'Department of Administration pursuant to subsection (1) is contrary to the orderly implementation of legislative authorization shall have the right to have the issue reviewed by the Administration Commission, which shall decide such issue by majority vote. The appropriations committees of the Legislature may advise the Administration Commission on the issue.

(1) The 'department shall furnish the Comptroller an annual plan for the release of appropriations. Such releases shall at no time exceed the total appropriations available to a state agency, or the approved budget for such agency if less. The Comptroller shall enter such releases in his records in accordance with the release plan prescribed by the 'department, unless otherwise amended as provided by law. The 'department shall transmit a copy of the approved annual releases to the head of the state agency, the chairmen of the legislative appropriations committees, and the Auditor General. The Comptroller shall authorize all expenditures to be made from the appropriations on the basis of such releases and in accordance with the approved budget and not otherwise. Expenditures shall be authorized only in accordance with legislative authorizations. Nothing herein shall preclude periodic reexamination and revision by the 'department of the annual plan for release of appropriations and the notification of the parties of all such revisions.

(2) Any department under the direct supervision of a member of the cabinet or of a board consisting of the Governor and members of the cabinet which contends that the plan for releases of funds appropriated to it is contrary to an orderly implementation of legislative authorization shall have the right to have the issue reviewed by the Administration Commission, which shall decide such issue by majority vote. The appropriations committees of the Legislature may advise the Administration Commission on the issue.

(3) The 'department shall make releases within the amounts appropriated and as requested for all appropriations to the legislative branch, and the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to the legislative branch.

(4) The legislative appropriations committees may advise the Comptroller, the 'secretary, or the commission relative to the release of any funds under this section.

216.212 Budgets for federal funds; expenditure of federal funds restricted.—

(1) Every state agency, when making requests or preparing budgets to be submitted to the Federal Government for funds, equipment, material, or services, shall submit such request or budget to the 'department for approval before submitting it to the proper federal authority. However, the 'department may specifically authorize any agency to submit specific types of grant proposal directly to the Federal Government.

(2) When such federal authority has approved the request or budget, the state agency shall resubmit it for approval and release of funds as provided by ss. 216.181 and 216.192, unless funds have been included in the approved budget.

(3) Federal moneys appropriated by Congress to be used for state purposes, whether by itself or in conjunction with moneys appropriated by the Legislature, shall not be expended unless appropriated by the Legislature. However, the 'office may, after consultation with the legislative appropriations committees, approve the receipt and expenditure of funds from federal and other sources. The 'office shall budget and recommend the expenditure of federal funds in the 1981-1983 biennial budget. The chairmen of the legislative appropriations committees may waive these provisions as appropriate by written agreement. However, federal and other fund sources for the State University System which do not carry a continuing commitment on future appropri-

216.221 Appropriations as maximum; adjustments of budgets.—

(1) All appropriations shall be maximum appropriations, based upon the collection of sufficient revenues to meet and provide for such appropriations. It shall be the duty of the Governor, as chief budget officer, to insure that revenues collected will be sufficient to meet the appropriations and that no deficit shall occur in any state fund. If, in the opinion of the Governor, a deficit will occur, he shall so certify to the commission, and the commission may, by affirmative action, reduce all state agency approved budgets and releases a sufficient amount to prevent a deficit in any fund.

(2) The Comptroller shall also have the duty to insure that revenues being collected will be sufficient to meet the appropriations and that no deficit shall occur in any fund of the state. If, in his opinion, the revenues to be collected will be insufficient to meet appropriations, he shall report his opinion to the Governor in writing. In the event the Governor does not certify a deficit within 10 days from the Comptroller's report or in the event the commission does not act within 10 days from certification of a deficit by the Governor as provided by subsection (1), the Comptroller shall report his findings and opinion to the commission. The commission may, by majority vote, uniformly adjust all state agency operating budgets and releases by such percentage as may be necessary to prevent any deficit in any fund.

(3) All actions taken pursuant to this section shall be reported to the legislative appropriations committees, and the committees may advise the Governor, the Comptroller, or the commission concerning such action.

History.—s. 31, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 71-354.

216.231 Release of certain classified appropriations; approval of Administration Commission.—

(1) Any appropriation to the 'department which is classified as "emergency," or "deficiency," may be released only with the approval of the Governor and three other members of the Administration Commission. The state agency desiring the use of any such appropriation shall submit to the 'department application therefor in writing setting forth the facts from which the alleged need arises. The commission shall, at a public hearing, review such application promptly and approve or disapprove the same as the circumstances may warrant. All actions of the commission shall be reported to the legislative appropriation committees, and the committees may advise the commission relative to the release of such funds.

(a) The release of appropriated funds classified as "deficiency" shall be approved only when a General Revenue Fund appropriation for a state agency's operations is inadequate because the workload or cost of the operation exceeds that anticipated by the Legislature and a determination has been made by the Administration Commission that the deficiency will result in an impairment of an agency's activities to the extent that the agency is unable to carry out its program as provided by the Legislature in the general appropriations acts. These funds shall not be used to create any new agency or program, for increases of salary, or for the construction or equipping of additional buildings.

(b) The release of appropriated funds classified as "emergency" shall be approved only when an act or circumstance caused by an act of God, civil disturbance, natural disaster, or other circumstance of an emergency nature threatens, endangers, or damages the property, safety, health, or welfare of the state or its citizens, which condition has not been provided for in appropriation acts of the Legislature. Funds allocated for this purpose may be used to pay overtime pay to personnel of agencies called upon to perform extra duty because of civil disturbances or natural disasters and to provide the required state match for federal grants under the Federal Disaster Relief Act.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, moneys appropriated in any appropriations act for discretionary contingencies to the Governor may be expended at his discretion to promote general government and intergovernmental cooperation and to enhance the image of the state. All funds expended for such purposes shall be accounted for, and a report showing the amount expended, the names of the persons receiving same, and the purpose of each expenditure shall be annually reported to the Auditor General and the legislative appropriation committees.

History.—s. 31, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-84; s. 14, ch. 71-354; s. 15, ch. 77-352.

Note.—See s. 10, ch. 79-190, which transferred the powers, duties, and functions of the Department of Administration provided for in this section to the Executive Office of the Governor.

216.241 Initiation or commencement of new programs; approval.—No state agency shall initiate or commence any new program or make changes in its current programs that require additional state financing unless funds have been specifically appropriated therefor or unless the commission expressly approves such changes or new programs. No new programs may be initiated nor any changes made to existing programs that materially affect the policy direction of the program without first consulting with the legislative appropriations committees. All such approvals shall be reported to the legislative appropriations committees.

216.251 Salary appropriations; limitations.—

(1) The annual rate of salary of any officer or employee filling the position specifically named in an item in the appropriations acts shall be as provided in one of the following paragraphs:

(a) In the amount appropriated for such position;

(b) The amount appropriated in an item for the named positions in that item, shall be divided by the indicated number of such positions, and the resulting quotient shall be the annual rate of salary of each such position; or

(c) Within the amounts appropriated where such salary may be otherwise fixed pursuant to law.

(2)(a) The salary for each position not specifically indicated in the appropriations acts shall be as provided in one of the following subparagraphs:

1. Within the classification and pay plan provided for in chapter 110.

2. Within the classification and pay plan established by the Board of Trustees for the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind of the Department of Education and approved by the State Board of Education for academic and academic administrative personnel.

3. Within the classification and pay plan approved and administered by the Board of Regents for those positions in the State University System which are determined by the Board of Regents of the Division of Universities of the Department of Education to be teaching and research faculty positions and comparable administrative and professional positions.

4. Within the classification and pay plan approved by the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Joint Legislative Management Committee, or the Legislative Auditing Committee, as the case may be, for employees of the Legislature.

5. The salary of all positions not specifically included in this subsection shall be set by the commission.

(b) Salary payments shall be made only to employees filling established positions included in the agency's approved budgets and amendments thereto as may be provided by law. However, reclassification of established positions may be accomplished when justified in accordance with the established procedures for reclassifying positions.

History.—ss. 15, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 15, ch. 71-354.

216.262 Authorized positions.—

(1)(a) Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, the total number of authorized positions shall not exceed the total provided in the appropriations acts. In the event any state agency finds that the number of positions so provided is not sufficient to administer its authorized programs, it may file an application with the department, and, if the agency and the department certify there are no authorized positions available for addition, deletion, or transfer within the agency as provided in paragraph (b), the commission may, after a public hearing, authorize an increase in the number of positions for the following reasons only:

1. To implement or provide for continuing federal grants or changes in grants not previously anticipated;

2. To implement lump sum appropriations made by the legislature; however, the number of positions shall be limited to the number authorized in the appropriation act for each lump sum;

3. To meet emergencies, as determined by the department, that were not provided for in the appropriations acts;

4. To satisfy new federal regulation or changes therein;

5. To take advantage of opportunities to reduce operating expenditures or to increase the revenues of the state; and

6. To authorize positions which were not fixed by the Legislature through error in drafting the appropriations acts, after consultation with the chairmen of the legislative appropriations committees.

A copy of the application, the certification, and the final authorization shall be filed with the legislative appropriations committees and with the Auditor General. The legislative appropriations committees may advise the commission relative to any authorization for increasing the number of positions.

(b) The ¹department, under such procedures and qualifications as it deems appropriate, shall, upon agency request, delegate to any state agency or department authority to add and delete authorized positions or transfer authorized positions from one budget entity to another budget entity within the same division, and may approve additions and deletions of authorized positions or transfers of authorized positions within the state agency when such changes would enable the agency to administer more effectively its authorized and approved programs.

(c) No individual employed by a state agency may hold more than one employment during his normal working hours with the state, such working hours to be determined by the head of the state agency affected, unless approved by the ²department.

(d) No individual employed by a state agency may fill more than a total of one full-time equivalent established position, receive compensation simultaneously from any appropriation other than appropriations for salaries, or receive compensation simultaneously from more than one state agency unless approved by the ²department during each fiscal year.

(e) No perquisites shall be furnished by a state agency unless approved by the ²Division of Personnel during each fiscal year. Whenever a state agency is to furnish those things defined as perquisites herein, the ²Department of Administration shall approve the kind and monetary value of such perquisites before the same may be furnished.

(f) If goods and services are to be sold to officers and employees of a state agency rather than being furnished as perquisites, the kind and selling price thereof shall be approved by the ²department during each fiscal year before such sales are made. The selling price may be deducted from any amounts due by the state to any person receiving such things. The amount of cash so deducted shall be faithfully accounted for. This provision shall not apply to sales to officers or employees of items generally sold to the public and shall not apply to meals which may be provided without charge to volunteers under a volunteer service program approved by the ²department.

(2) The ¹department shall report all such approvals made pursuant to subsection (1) and the reasons for such approvals to the legislative appropriations committees and the Auditor General.

(3) The provisions of paragraphs (1)(c) and (d) shall not apply to an individual filling a position the salary of which has been specifically fixed or limited by law. Unless specifically authorized by law, an individual filling or performing the duties of a position the salary of which has been specifically fixed or limited by law shall not receive compensation from more than one appropriation, or in excess of the amount so fixed or limited by law, regardless of any additional duties performed by him in any capacity or position. However, this subsection shall not prohibit additional compensation from an educational appropriation to any person holding a position the salary of which is specifically fixed or limited by law, provided such compensation shall not exceed payment for more than one course of instruction during any one academic term and that such compensation is approved as provided in paragraphs (1)(c) and (d). Any compensation received by any person pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall not be computed as a part of average final compensation for retirement purposes under the provisions of chapter 121.

(4) No full-time position shall be filled by more than the equivalent of one full-time officer or employee, except as provided for in rules to be adopted by the ²Department of Administration.

If a new municipality is incorporated, the provisions of this par-interest on bonds, tax anticipation certificates, or any other form of indebtedness, and there shall be no other use restriction on revenues shared pursuant to this part. The state does hereby covenant with holders of bonds or other instruments of indebtedness issued by local governments prior to July 1, 1972, that it is not the intent of this part to affect adversely the rights of said holders or to relieve local governments of the duty to meet their obligations as a result of previous pledges or assignments or trusts entered into which obligated funds received from revenue sources which by terms of this part shall henceforth be distributed out of the revenue sharing trust funds.

TITLE; DECLARATIONS OF INTENT;
DEFINITIONS

- 220.01 Short title.
220.02 Legislative intent.
220.03 Definitions.

220.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Income Tax Code."

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.02 Legislative intent.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this code to impose a tax upon all corporations, organizations, associations, and other artificial entities which derive from this state or from any other jurisdiction permanent and inherent attributes not inherent in or available to natural persons, such as perpetual life, transferable ownership represented by shares or certificates, and limited liability for all owners. It is the intent of the Legislature to subject such corporations and other entities to taxation hereunder for the privilege of conducting business, deriving income, or existing within the state. This code is not intended to tax, and shall not be construed so as to tax, natural persons who engage in a trade or business or profession in this state under their own or any fictitious name, whether individually as proprietorships or in partnerships with others, estates of decedents or incompetents, or testamentary trusts. However, corporations or other taxable entities which are or which become partners with one or more natural persons shall not, merely by reason of being a partner, exclude from their net income subject to tax their respective share of partnership net income. This statement of intent shall be given preeminent consideration in any construction or interpretation of this code in order to avoid any conflict between this code and the mandate in Art. VII, s. 5 of the State Constitution that no income tax shall be levied upon natural persons who are residents and citizens of this state.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that the tax levied by this code shall be construed to be an excise or privilege tax measured by net income, and that said tax shall not be deemed or construed to be a property tax or a tax on property or a tax measured by the value of property for any purpose.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature that the income tax imposed by this code shall utilize, to the greatest extent possible, concepts of law which have been developed in connection with the income tax laws of the United States, in order to:

(a) Minimize the expenses of the Department of Revenue and difficulties in administering this code;

(b) Minimize the costs and difficulties of taxpayer compliance; and

(c) Maximize, for both revenue and statistical purposes, the sharing of information between the state and the Federal Government.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the tax imposed by this code shall be prospective in effect only. Consistent with this intention and the intent expressed in subsection (3), it is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature that:

(a) "Income," for purposes of this code, including gains from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of property, shall be deemed to be created for Florida income tax purposes at such time as said income is realized for federal income tax purposes;

(b) No accretion of value, no accrual of gain, and no acquisition of a right to receive or accrue income which has occurred or been generated prior to November 2, 1971, shall be deemed to be "property," or an interest in property, for any purpose under this code; and

(c) All income realized for federal income tax purposes after November 2, 1971, shall be subject to taxation in full by this state and shall be taxed in the manner and to the extent provided in this code.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that if there is included in any taxpayer's net income subject to tax under this code any item or items of income which are determined to be improperly so included because of a conflict with any federal statute, the Constitution of the United States, or the State Constitution, all such items of income shall be excluded from the net incomes of all taxpayers subject to tax under this code, but all other provisions of this chapter, and their application, shall not be invalidated or in any way impaired by such required exclusion of an item or items of income.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984; s. 1, ch. 72-278.

(k) "Returns" includes declarations of estimated tax required under this code.

(l) "State," when applied to a jurisdiction other than Florida, means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing.

(m) "Taxable year" means the calendar or fiscal year upon the basis of which net income is computed under this code, including, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, the period for which such return is made.

(n) "Taxpayer" means any corporation subject to the tax imposed by this code, and shall include all corporations for which a consolidated return is filed under s. 220.131.

(2) DEFINITIONAL RULES.—When used in this code and neither otherwise distinctly expressed nor manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(a) The word "corporation" or "taxpayer" shall be deemed to include the words "and its successors and assigns" as if these words, or words of similar import, were expressed;

(b) Any term used in any section of this code with respect to the application of, or in connection with, the provisions of any other section of this code shall have the same meaning as in such other section; and

(c) Any term used in this code shall have the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the Internal Revenue Code and other statutes of the United States relating to federal income taxes, as such code and statutes are in effect on January 1, 1979. However, if subsection (3) is implemented, the meaning of any term shall be taken at the time the term is applied under this code.

(3) FUTURE FEDERAL AMENDMENTS.—On or after January 1, 1972, when expressly authorized by law, any amendment to the Internal Revenue Code shall be given effect under this code in such manner and for such periods as are prescribed in the Internal Revenue Code, to the same extent as if such amendment had been adopted by the legislature of this state. However, any such amendment shall have effect under this code only to the extent that the amended provision of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account in the computation of net income subject to tax hereunder.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that all amendments to the Internal Revenue Code shall be given effect under the Florida Income Tax Code in such manner and for such periods as are prescribed in the Internal Revenue Code, to the same extent as if such amendments had been adopted by the Legislature of the state.

TAX IMPOSED; APPORTIONMENT

- 220.11 Tax imposed.
- 220.12 Net income defined.
- 220.13 Adjusted federal income defined.
- 220.131 Adjusted federal income; affiliated groups.
- 220.14 Exemption.
- 220.15 Apportionment of adjusted federal income.

220.11 Tax imposed.—

(1) A tax measured by net income is hereby imposed on every taxpayer for each taxable year commencing on or after January 1, 1972, and for each taxable year which begins before and ends after January 1, 1972, for the privilege of conducting business, earning or receiving income in this state, or being a resident or citizen of this state. Such tax shall be in addition to all other occupation, excise, privilege, and property taxes imposed by this state or by any political subdivision thereof, including any municipality or other district, jurisdiction, or authority of this state.

(2) The tax imposed by this section shall be an amount equal to 5 percent of the taxpayer's net income for the taxable year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.
cf.—s. 631.719 Credit for assessments paid by insurers.

220.12 Net income defined.—

(1) For purposes of this code, a taxpayer's net income for a taxable year which commences on or after January 1, 1972, shall be that share of its adjusted federal income for such year which is apportioned to this state under s. 220.15, less the exemption allowed by s. 220.14.

(2) For purposes of this code, a taxpayer's net income for a taxable year which begins before and ends after January 1, 1972, shall be that amount which bears the same ratio to the taxpayer's share of adjusted federal income which is apportioned to this state for the entire year as the number of days in such year after December 31, 1971, bears to the total number of days in such year, less a like proportion of the exemption allowed by s. 220.14, unless the taxpayer elects to compute net income for such taxable year in the manner and under the conditions provided in subsection (3).

(3)(a) If the taxpayer so elects, in the case of a taxable year beginning before and ending after January 1, 1972, there shall be taken into account in computing adjusted federal income, before apportionment, only those items earned, received, paid, incurred, or accrued after December 31, 1971, and the exemption provided by s. 220.14 shall be limited to that amount which bears the same ratio to the total exemption allowable under such section, determined without regard to this subsection, as the number of days in such year after December 31, 1971, bears to the total number of days in such year.

(b) The election provided by this subsection shall be made not later than the due date, including any extensions thereof, for filing taxpayer's return for the taxable year, in such manner as the department may by regulation prescribe. However, no such election shall be valid unless the director has given his written approval at the time of such filing or unless the director fails to object to said election in writing within 30 days after such filing.

(c) The method of computing adjusted federal income under this subsection shall be considered extraordinary and shall only be allowed by the director in special situations where the taxpayer has demonstrated that the method for determining net income which is prescribed in subsection (2) will not reasonably reflect that portion of the taxpayer's income attributable to the period after December 31, 1971.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.13 Adjusted federal income defined.—

(1) "Adjusted federal income" shall mean an amount equal to the taxpayer's taxable income as defined in subsection (2), or said taxable income of more than one taxpayer as provided in s. 220.131, for the taxable year, adjusted as follows:

(a) Additions.—There shall be added to such taxable income:

1. The amount of income tax paid or accrued as a liability to this state under this code which is deductible from gross income in the computation of taxable income for the taxable year;

2. The amount of interest which is excluded from taxable income under subsection 103(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or any other federal law, less the associated expenses disallowed in the computation of taxable income under subsection 265(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or any other law;

3. In the case of a regulated investment company or real estate investment trust, an amount equal to the excess of the net long-term capital gain for the taxable year over the amount of the capital gain dividends attributable to the taxable year.

(b) Subtractions.—

1. In computing the net operating loss deduction allowable for federal income tax purposes under s. 172 of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year, the net capital loss allowable for federal income tax purposes under s. 1212 of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year, the excess charitable contribution deduction allowable for federal income tax purposes under s. 170(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year, and the excess contributions deductions allowable for federal income tax purposes under s. 404 of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year, there shall be subtracted from taxable income, in order to arrive at adjusted federal income, such amounts as reflect the following limitations:

a. No deduction shall be allowed for net operating losses, net capital losses, and excess contribution deductions under ss. 170(d)(2) and 404 of the Internal Revenue Code which are carried forward from taxable years ending prior to January 1, 1972; and

b. The net operating loss, net capital loss, and excess contributions deductions under ss. 170(d)(2) and 404 of the Internal Revenue Code, respectively, allowable for any taxable year beginning before and ending after January 1, 1972, shall be limited to an amount which bears the same ratio to the taxpayer's net operating loss, net capital loss, and excess contributions deductions under ss. 170(d)(2) and 404 of the Internal Revenue Code, respectively, for the entire taxable year as the number of days in such year after

December 31, 1971, bears to the total number of days in such year, unless the taxpayer elects to account separately for income under s. 220.12(3) of this code, in which case the net operating loss, net capital loss, and excess contributions deductions under ss. 170(d)(2) and 404 of the Internal Revenue Code, respectively, allowable for such year shall be determined on the basis of the items actually earned, received, paid, incurred, or accrued after December 31, 1971; and

c. A net operating loss and a capital loss shall never be carried back as a deduction to a prior taxable year, but all deductions attributable to such losses shall be deemed net operating loss carryovers and capital loss carryovers, respectively, and treated in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same time periods as are prescribed for such carryovers in ss. 172 and 1212, respectively, of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. There shall be subtracted from such taxable income any amount included therein:

a. Under s. 78 or s. 951 of the Internal Revenue Code;

b. Which was derived from sales outside the United States, and from sources outside the United States as interest, as a royalty, or as compensation for technical or other services; and

c. Which was received as a dividend from a corporation which neither transacts any substantial portion of its business in the United States nor regularly maintains any substantial portion of its assets within the United States.

However, as to any amount subtracted under this subparagraph, there shall be added to such taxable income all expenses deducted on the taxpayer's return for the taxable year which are attributable, directly or indirectly, to such subtracted amount.

3. In computing "adjusted federal income" for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976, there shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of wages and salaries paid or incurred within this state for the taxable year for which no deduction is allowed pursuant to s. 280C of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to credit for employment of certain new employees).

(c) Installment sales.—

1. Unless there has been an election under subparagraph 2., any taxpayer which returns any portion of its income for federal income tax purposes under section 453 of the Internal Revenue Code, whether or not as a dealer, shall file its return under this code, and shall compute its adjusted taxable income, including income derived from transactions treated for federal tax purposes as installment sales, in accordance with the regular method by which the taxpayer accounts, under section 446(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, for transactions which are not installment sales. In preparing its return under this code, the taxpayer shall adjust taxable income, as defined in subsection (2), by excluding therefrom all installment sale income reported in the taxable year with respect to income realized from installment sales prior to January 1, 1972 and by including therein the full amount of all income realized from installment sales, under an accrual method of accounting, on or after said date. However, for a taxable year which begins before and ends after January 1, 1972, the ratio set forth in subsection 220.12(2) shall not be applied to the taxpayer's apportioned share of installment sale income in computing net income.

2. Any taxpayer which has elected for federal income tax purposes to report any portion of its income on the installment basis under section 453 of the Internal Revenue Code may elect so to return income from installment sales for purposes of this code. However, the election provided by this subparagraph shall only be allowed if:

a. The election is made not later than the due date, including any extensions thereof, for filing the taxpayer's return under this code, in such manner as the department may prescribe; and

b. The taxpayer consents in writing, at the time of its election, to the filing of its return without the adjustments to taxable income which are described in subparagraph 1.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, if the election is not made for the taxpayer's first taxable year under this code in which a portion of its income is so returned for federal tax purposes, an election under this subparagraph may be made at any time thereafter if the taxpayer files amended returns for all prior periods ending after January 1, 1972, and pays the additional tax that would have been due, including interest from the due date of the original return until the tax due on each amended return is paid, as though an original election under this subparagraph, adjusted as required under subparagraphs 4. and 5. had been timely made. By filing such amended returns, the taxpayer shall be deemed to have waived any statute of limitations defense and to have made the election as if it had been made on the original return.

3. If the taxpayer is a dealer or otherwise returns a portion of its income under section 453 of the Internal Revenue Code, an election under subparagraph 2. must be made for the taxpayer's first taxable year under this code in which a portion of its income is so returned for federal tax purposes, and said election shall apply to all subsequent taxable years for which installment sale treatment is elected for federal income tax purposes, unless the department consents in writing to the revocation of such election prior to the first taxable year for which such revocation would apply.

4. If an election is made under subparagraph 2., then, in lieu of returning the entire amount of installment sale income returned for federal income tax purposes, the taxpayer may include in income for each taxable year under this code only the amount of income which is specified in subparagraph 5., in which event the taxpayer shall also add to taxable income, as defined in subsection (2), all expenses deducted on its federal return for the taxable year with respect to installment sale income excluded from Florida net income under this provision, including collection costs and the expenses attributable to servicing sales contracts.

5. The amount to be included in taxable income under subparagraph 4. shall be limited to the sum of the following amounts:

a. An amount equal to 100 percent of the income derived from installment sale transactions consummated on or after January 1, 1972;

b. An amount equal to 70 percent of the income returned for federal income tax purposes in the taxable year which was derived from installment sale transactions consummated prior to January 1, 1972 and after December 31, 1970;

c. An amount equal to 50 percent of the income returned for federal income tax purposes in the taxable year which was derived from installment sale transactions consummated prior to January 1, 1971 and after December 31, 1968;

d. An amount equal to 25 percent of the income returned for federal income tax purposes in the taxable year which was derived from installment sale transactions consummated prior to January 1, 1969 and after December 31, 1966; and

e. An amount equal to 10 percent of the income returned for federal income tax purposes in the taxable year which was derived from installment sale transactions consummated prior to January 1, 1967.

6. The department may by regulation prescribe the methods or procedures for computing the amounts included and excluded from taxable income under subparagraphs 4. and 5.

(2) For purposes of this section, a taxpayer's taxable income for the taxable year shall mean taxable income as defined in section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code and properly reportable for federal income tax purposes for the taxable year, but subject to the limitations set forth in paragraph (1)(b) with respect to the deductions provided by sections 172 (relating to net operating losses), 170(d)(2) (relating to excess charitable contributions), 404(a)(1)(D) (relating to excess pension trust contributions), 404(a)(3)(A) and (B) (to the extent relating to excess stock bonus and profit-sharing trust contributions), 404(d) (relating to excess contributions under the 1939 code) and 1212 (relating to capital losses) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that, subject to the same limitations:

(a) "Taxable income," in the case of a life insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 802 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean life insurance company taxable income; however, the amount of said income determined under paragraph 802(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code which shall be taken into account for purposes of this code shall never exceed, cumulatively, the excess of amounts determined under said paragraph as of the close of the taxpayer's taxable year over the amount determined under said paragraph as of December 31, 1971;

(b) "Taxable income," in the case of a mutual insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 821(a) or (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean mutual insurance company taxable income or taxable investment income, as the case may be;

(c) "Taxable income," in the case of an insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 831(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean insurance company taxable income;

(d) "Taxable income," in the case of a regulated investment company subject to the tax imposed by section 852 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean investment company taxable income;

(e) "Taxable income," in the case of a real estate investment trust subject to the tax imposed by section 857 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean real estate investment trust taxable income;

(f) "Taxable income," in the case of a corporation which is a member of an affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated income tax return for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes, shall mean taxable income of such corporation for federal income tax purposes as if such corporation had filed a separate federal income tax return for the taxable year and each preceding taxable year for which it was a member of an affiliated group, unless a consolidated return for the taxpayer and others is required or elected under s. 220.131;

(g) "Taxable income," in the case of a cooperative corporation or association, shall mean the taxable income of such organization determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1381 through 1398 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(h) "Taxable income," in the case of an organization which is exempt from the federal income tax by reason of section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean its unrelated business taxable income as determined under section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(i) "Taxable income," in the case of a corporation for which there is in effect for the taxable year an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall mean the amount of income subject to tax at the corporate level under paragraph 1372(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for each taxable year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984; ss. 4, 7, ch. 72-278; s. 1, ch. 73-321; s. 6, ch. 74-324; s. 1, ch. 78-230.

220.131 Adjusted federal income; affiliated groups.—

(1) Subject to subsection (5), any corporation subject to tax under this code which is the parent company of an affiliated group of corporations may elect, not later than the due date for filing its return for the taxable year, including any extensions thereof, to consolidate its taxable income with that of all other members of the group subject to tax under this code and to return such consolidated taxable income hereunder, in which case all such other members must consent thereto in such manner as the department may by regulation prescribe. Any Florida parent company of an affiliated group of corporations may elect to consolidate its taxable income with all other members of the affiliated group, even though some of its members are not subject to tax under this code, provided:

(a) Each member of the group consents to such filing by specific written authorization at the time the consolidated return is filed;

(b) The affiliated group so filing under this code has filed a consolidated return for federal income tax purposes for the same taxable year; and

(c) The affiliated group so filing under this code is composed of the identical component members as have consolidated their taxable incomes in said federal return.

(2) Subject to subsection (5), the director may require a consolidated return for those members of an affiliated group of corporations which are subject to tax and which would be eligible to elect to consolidate their incomes under subsection (1), if the filing of separate returns for such corporations would improperly reflect the taxable incomes of said corporations or of said group.

(3) The filing of a consolidated return for any taxable year shall require the filing of consolidated returns for all subsequent taxable years so long as the filing taxpayers remain members of the affiliated group or, in the case of a group having component members not subject to tax under this code, so long as a consolidated return is filed by such group for federal income tax purposes, unless the director consents to the filing of separate returns.

(4) The computation of consolidated taxable income for the members of an affiliated group of corporations subject to tax hereunder shall be made in the same manner and under the same procedures, including all intercompany adjustments and eliminations, as are required for consolidating the incomes of affiliated corporations for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes in accordance with section 1502 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the amount shown as consolidated taxable income shall be the amount subject to tax under this code.

(5) No taxpayer may apportion adjusted federal income under s. 214.72 as a member of an affiliated group which files a consolidated return under this section on the basis of apportionment factors described in s. 214.71, and no taxpayer may apportion under s. 214.71 as a member of an affiliated group which files a consolidated return on the basis of an apportionment factor described in s. 214.72, but no taxpayer shall be barred from filing as a member of an affiliated group if it apportions adjusted federal income in the same manner as the parent company and all other filing members of the group.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.14 Exemption.—

(1) In computing a taxpayer's liability for tax under this code, there shall be exempt from the tax $5,000 of net income as defined in s. 220.12 or such lesser amount as will, without increasing the taxpayer's federal income tax liability, provide the state with an amount under this code which is equal to the maximum federal income tax credit which may be available from time to time under federal law.

(2) In the case of a taxable year for a period of less than 12 months, the exemption allowed by this section shall be prorated on the basis of the number of days in such year to 365.

(3) Only one exemption shall be allowed to taxpayers filing a consolidated return under this code.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, not more than one exemption under this section shall be allowed to the Florida members of a controlled group of corporations, as defined in section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1970, filing separate returns under this code. The exemption described in this section shall be divided equally among such Florida members of the group, unless all of such members consent, at such time and in such manner as the department shall by regulation prescribe, to an apportionment plan providing for an unequal allocation of such exemption.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.15 Apportionment of adjusted federal income.—Adjusted federal income as defined in s. 220.13 shall be apportioned to this state in accordance with part IV of chapter 214, and for the purpose of applying said part to this code:

(1) The term "sales" in paragraph 214.71(3)(a) shall mean all gross receipts of the taxpayer except interest, dividends, rents, royalties, and gross receipts from the sale, exchange, maturity, redemption, or other disposition of securities; except that:

(a) Rental income shall be included in the term "sales" whenever a significant portion of the taxpayer's business consists of leasing or renting real or tangible personal property;

(b) Royalty income shall be included in the term "sales" whenever a significant portion of the taxpayer's business consists of dealing in or with the production, exploration, or development of minerals; and

(2) The term "financial organization" in paragraph 214.71(3)(b) shall include any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, or investment company; and

(3) The term "everywhere" in part IV of chapter 214, which is used in the computation of apportionment factor denominators, shall mean "in all states of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of the foregoing"; and

(4) In lieu of the equally weighted three-factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales which is described in s. 214.71, there shall be used for purposes of the tax imposed by this code an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing 50 percent of the fraction, a property factor representing 25 percent of this fraction, and a payroll factor representing 25 percent of the fraction. However, upon application in accordance with paragraph (a), any taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of tax, in an amount determined under paragraph (b), if it can establish that the aggregate amount of its net income subject to tax under this code and in all other states for the taxable year exceeds 100 percent of the taxpayer's taxable income, as determined for federal income tax purposes, for the taxable year.

(a) Any taxpayer eligible for a refund under this subsection shall make application therefor in accordance with procedures set forth in part I of chapter 214. All applications for refund under this subsection shall be accompanied by a copy of the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year, copies of every return filed by the taxpayer in the states in which it has conducted business for the taxable year, and verification in the form of canceled checks or other receipts of the taxpayer's payments of the amounts shown to be due on the several returns filed with the refund application.

(b) The refund to which any taxpayer shall be entitled under this subsection shall be equal to 5 percent of the lesser of:

1. The excess of the amount subject to tax for the taxable year under this code over the amount which would have been subject to tax if the taxpayer had computed net income for purposes of this code on the basis of the apportionment fraction described in s. 214.71; or

2. The excess of the aggregate amount of net income subject to tax in Florida and in all other states for the taxable year over the amount of federal taxable income for the taxable year.

(c) For purposes of this subsection, the terms "net income subject to tax" and "amount subject to tax" shall mean the amount against which a rate or rates are applied in determining the taxpayer's dollar liability for tax in any jurisdiction.

220.21 Returns and records; regulations.— Every taxpayer liable for the tax imposed by this code shall keep such records, render such statements, make such returns and notices, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the department may from time to time prescribe. The director may require any taxpayer or class of taxpayers, by notice or by regulation, to make such returns and notices, render such statements, and keep such records as the director deems necessary to determine whether such taxpayer or taxpayers are liable for tax under this code.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.22 Returns; filing requirement.—

(1) A return with respect to the tax imposed by this code shall be made by every taxpayer for each taxable year in which such taxpayer either is liable for tax under this code or is required to make a federal income tax return, regardless of whether such taxpayer is liable for tax under this code.

(2) Every Florida partnership having any partner subject to tax under this code, shall make an information return setting forth:

- (a) All items of income, gain, loss, and deduction;
- (b) The names and addresses of all partners subject to tax hereunder who would be entitled to share in the net income of the partnership if distributed;

(2) A return or notice for a partnership shall be signed by any one of the general partners, and the fact that a partner has signed a return or notice shall be prima facie evidence that such partner was authorized to sign such document on behalf of the partnership.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.222 Returns; time and place for filing.—

(1) Returns required by this code shall be filed with the office of the department in Leon County or at such other place as the department may by regulation prescribe. All returns required for a DISC (Domestic International Sales Corporation) under paragraph 6011(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be filed on or before the 1st day of the 10th month following the close of the taxable year; all partnership information returns shall be filed on or before the 1st day of the 5th month following the close of the taxable year; and all other returns shall be filed on or before the 1st day of the 4th month following the close of the taxable year or the 15th day following the due date, without extension, for the filing of the related federal return for the taxable year, unless under subsection (2) one or more extensions of time, not to exceed 6 months in the aggregate, for any such filing is granted.

(2)(a) When a taxpayer has been granted an extension or extensions of time within which to file its federal income tax return for any taxable year, and if the requirements of s. 220.32 are met, the filing of a written request for such extension or extensions with the department shall automatically extend the due date of the return required under this code until 15 days after the expiration of the federal extension or until the expiration of 6 months from the original due date, whichever first occurs.

(b) The department may grant an extension or extensions of time for the filing of any return required under this code upon receiving a prior written request therefor if good cause for an extension is shown. However, the aggregate extensions of time under paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not exceed 6 months. No extension granted under this paragraph shall be valid unless the taxpayer complies with the requirements of s. 220.32.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984; s. 6, ch. 72-278; s. 3, ch. 74-324; s. 2, ch. 79-326.

220.23 Federal returns.—

(1) Any taxpayer required to make a return for a taxable year under this code may, at any time that a deficiency could be assessed or a refund claimed under this code in respect of any item reported or properly reportable on such return or any amendment thereof, be required to furnish to the department a true and correct copy of any return which may pertain to such item and which was filed by such taxpayer under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the event the taxable income, any item of income or deduction, or the income tax liability reported in a federal income tax return of any taxpayer for any taxable year is adjusted by amendment of such return or as a result of any other recomputation or redetermination of federal taxable income or loss, if such adjustment would affect any item or items entering into the computation of such taxpayer's net income subject to tax for any taxable year under this code, the following special rules shall apply:

(a) The taxpayer shall notify the department of such adjustment by filing either an amended return or such other report as the department may by regulation prescribe, which return or report:

1. Shall show the taxpayer's name, address, and employer identification number; the adjustments; the taxpayer's revised net income subject to tax and revised tax liability under this code; and such other information as the department may by regulation prescribe;

2. Shall be signed by a person required to sign the original return or by a duly authorized representative; and

3. Shall be filed not later than 60 days after such adjustment has been agreed to or finally determined for federal income tax purposes, or after any federal income tax deficiency or refund, abatement, or credit resulting therefrom has been assessed, paid, or collected, whichever shall first occur.

(b) If the amended return or other report filed with the department concedes the accuracy of a federal change or correction, any deficiency in tax under this code resulting therefrom shall be deemed assessed on the date of filing such amended return or report, and such assessment shall be timely, notwithstanding any other provision contained in part I of chapter 214.

(c) In any case where notification of an adjustment is required under paragraph (a), then notwithstanding any other provision contained in part I of chapter 214:

1. A notice of deficiency may be issued at any time within 2 years after the date such notification is given; or

2. If a taxpayer either fails to notify the department or fails to report a change or correction which is treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal income tax purposes, a notice of deficiency may be issued at any time;

3. In either case, the amount of any proposed assessment set forth in such notice shall be limited to the amount of any deficiency resulting under this code from recomputation of the taxpayer's income for the taxable year after giving effect only to the item or items reflected in the adjustment.

(d) In any case when notification of an adjustment is required by paragraph (a), a claim for refund may be filed within 2 years after the date on which such notification was due, regardless of whether such notice was given, notwithstanding any other provision contained in part I of chapter 214. However, the amount recoverable pursuant to such a claim shall be limited to the amount of any overpayment resulting under this code from recomputation of the taxpayer's income for the taxable year after giving effect only to the item or items reflected in the adjustment required to be reported.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.24 Declaration of estimated tax.—

(1) Every taxpayer shall make a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year, in such form as the department shall prescribe, if the amount payable as estimated tax can reasonably be expected to be more than $2,500. The term "estimated tax" shall mean the amount which the taxpayer estimates to be his tax under this code for the taxable year or, in the case of a taxable year of less than 12 months, an amount of tax determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department.

(2) A taxpayer may amend a declaration, under regulations prescribed by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.241 Declaration; time for filing.—A declaration of estimated tax under this code shall be filed on or before the first day of the fifth month of each taxable year, except that if the minimum tax requirement of subsection 220.24(1) is first met:

(1) After the third month and before the sixth month of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before the first day of the seventh month;

(2) After the fifth month and before the ninth month of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before the first day of the tenth month; or

(3) After the eighth month and before the twelfth month of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed for the taxable year on or before the first day of the succeeding taxable year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.242 Declaration as return.—All of the provisions of this part and of s. 214.21, relating to confidentiality, shall be applicable with respect to declarations of estimated tax unless manifestly inconsistent therewith. However, the declaration required of a preparer other than the taxpayer under subsection (3) of s. 220.22 shall not be required with respect to declarations of estimated tax.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.25 Auditor General; access to information received by department.—

(1) Any information received by the Department of Revenue in connection with the operation and enforcement of this code, including but not limited to information contained in returns and reports filed by persons subject to tax, shall be made available by the department to the Auditor General or his authorized agent in the performance of his official duties; however, no information shall be disclosed to the Auditor General or his authorized agent when such disclosure is prohibited by federal law. The Auditor General and his authorized agent shall be subject to the same requirements of confidentiality and subject to the same penalties for violation of the requirements as the department. The provisions of this section shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law unless the conflicting provision contains a specific exemption from this section.

(2) This section shall expire and cease to take effect on July 1, 1981.

220.31 Payments; due date.—

(1) Every taxpayer required to file a return under this code or a notification under subsection 220.23(2) shall, without assessment, notice, or demand, pay any tax due thereon to the department at the place fixed for filing, including payment to such depository institutions throughout the state as the department may by regulation designate, on or before the date fixed for filing such return, determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return, or notification, pursuant to regulations prescribed by the department.

(2) Except as to estimated tax payments under s. 220.33, the payment required under this section shall be the balance of tax remaining due after giving effect to the following:

(a) Any amount of tentative tax or estimated tax paid by a taxpayer for a taxable year pursuant to s. 220.32 or s. 220.33 shall be deemed to have been paid on account of the tax imposed by this code for such taxable year; and

(b) Any amount of a tax overpayment which is credited against the taxpayer's liability for the taxable year under s. 214.13 shall be deemed to have been paid on account of the tax imposed by this code for such taxable year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.32 Payments of tentative tax.—

(1) In connection with any extension of the time for filing a return under subsection 220.222(2), the taxpayer shall file a tentative tax return and pay, on or before the date prescribed by law for the filing of such return, determined without regard to any extensions of time for such filing, an amount estimated to be the balance of its proper tax for the taxable year after giving effect to any estimated tax payments under s. 220.33 and any tax credit under s. 214.13.

(2) The department shall by regulation prescribe the manner and form for filing tentative returns.

(3) Interest on any amount of tax due and unpaid during the period of any extension shall be payable as provided in s. 214.43.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.33 Payments of estimated tax.—A taxpayer required to file a declaration of estimated tax pursuant to s. 220.24 shall pay such estimated tax as follows:

(1) If the declaration is required to be filed on or before the first day of the fifth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the required filing of the declaration; the second and third installments shall be paid on or before the first day of the seventh and tenth months of the taxable year, respectively; and the fourth installment shall be paid on or before the first day of the next taxable year.

(2) If the declaration is required to be filed on or before the first day of the seventh month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of required filing of the declaration; the second installment shall be paid on or before the first day of the tenth month of the taxable year; and the third installment shall be paid on or before the first day of the next taxable year.

(3) If the declaration is required to be filed on or before the first day of the tenth month of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two equal installments: at the time of required filing of the declaration for such taxable year and on or before the first day of the next taxable year, respectively.

(4) If the declaration is required to be filed on or before the first day of the succeeding taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in full at the time of such required filing.

(5) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in s. 220.241 due to the grant of an extension of time for filing, subsections (1) through (4) of this section shall not apply, and there shall be paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time if the declaration had been filed within the time prescribed in s. 220.241 and without regard to the extension, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the time at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been so filed.

(6) If an amended declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased, as the case may be, to reflect the increase or decrease in the estimated tax occasioned by such amendment.

(7) The application of this section to taxable years of less than 12 months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.34 Special rules relating to estimated tax.—

(1) Any amount paid as estimated tax shall be deemed assessed upon the due date for the taxpayer's return for the taxable year, determined without regard to any extensions of time for filing such return.

(2) No interest or penalty shall be due or paid with respect to a failure to pay estimated taxes except the following:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (d), the taxpayer shall be liable for interest at the rate of 6 percent per year and for a penalty in an amount determined at the rate of 10 percent per year upon the amount of any underpayment of estimated tax determined under this subsection.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, the amount of any underpayment of estimated tax shall be the excess of:

1. The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to 80 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return were filed, 80 percent of the tax for such year, over

2. The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

(c) The period of the underpayment for which interest and penalties shall apply shall commence on the date the installment was required to be paid, determined without regard to any extensions of time, and shall terminate on the earlier of the following dates:

1. The first day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year; or

2. With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid.

For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subparagraph (b)1. for such installment date.

(d) No penalty or interest for underpayment of any installment of estimated tax shall be imposed if the total amount of all such payments made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were the lesser of:

1. An amount equal to the tax computed at the rates applicable to the taxable year, but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the return for, and the law applicable to, the preceding taxable year; or

2. An amount equal to 80 percent of the tax finally due for the taxable year; or

3. An amount equal to the tax shown on the taxpayer's return for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the taxpayer for the preceding taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of 12 months.

(e) For purposes of paragraphs (b) and (d), the term "tax" shall mean the excess of the tax imposed by this code over all amounts properly credited against such tax for the taxable year.

(f) The application of this subsection to taxable years of less than 12 months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department.

(g) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply with respect to any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1972.

(3) The department may provide by regulation for a credit against estimated taxes for any taxable year of any amount determined by the taxpayer or by the department to be an overpayment of the tax imposed by this code for a preceding taxable year.

ACCOUNTING

- 220.41 Taxable year.
- 220.42 Methods of accounting.
- 220.43 Reference to federal determinations.
- 220.44 Adjustments.

220.41 Taxable year.—

(1) For purposes of the tax imposed by this code and the returns required to be filed, the taxable year of a taxpayer shall be the same as the taxable year of such taxpayer for federal income tax purposes.

(2) If the taxable year of a taxpayer is changed for federal income tax purposes, the taxable year of such taxpayer for purposes of this code shall be similarly changed.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), if the department terminates the taxable year of a taxpayer under the provisions of chapter 214 relating to jeopardy assessments, the tax shall be computed for the period determined by such action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.42 Methods of accounting.—

(1) For purposes of this code, a taxpayer's method of accounting shall be the same as such taxpayer's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes, except as provided in subsection (3). If no method of accounting has been regularly used by a taxpayer, net income for purposes of this code shall be computed by such method as in the opinion of the department fairly reflects income.

(2) If a taxpayer's method of accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, the taxpayer's method of accounting for purposes of this code shall be similarly changed.

(3) Any taxpayer which has elected for federal income tax purposes to report any portion of its income on the completed contract method of accounting under Treasury Regulation 1.451-3(b)(2) may elect to return the income so reported on the percentage of completion method of accounting under Treasury Regulation 1.451-3(b)(1), provided the taxpayer regularly maintains its books of account and reports to its shareholders on the percentage of completion method. The election provided by this subsection shall be allowed only if it is made, in such manner as the department may prescribe, not later than the due date, including any extensions thereof, for filing a return for the taxpayer's first taxable year under this code in which a portion of its income is returned on the completed contract method of accounting for federal tax purposes. An election made pursuant to this subsection shall apply to all subsequent taxable years of the taxpayers unless the department consents in writing to its revocation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984; s. 9, ch. 72-278.

220.43 Reference to federal determinations.—

(1) To the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this code or forms or regulations prescribed by the department, each taxpayer making a return under this code shall take into account the items of income, deduction, and exclusion on such return in the same manner and amounts as reflected in such taxpayer's federal income tax return for the same taxable year.

(2) A final determination under the Internal Revenue Code adjusting any item or items of income, deduction, or exclusion for any taxable year shall be prima facie correct for purposes of this code to the extent such item or items enter into the determination of net income under this code.

(3) If there has been implementing legislation under subsection 220.03(3), and to the extent required in regulations prescribed by the department, any taxpayer making a return under this code may be required to indicate the item or items of income, deduction, and exclusion which would enter into the determination of income if this code were amended to incorporate the Internal Revenue Code as amended and in effect for such taxable year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

220.44 Adjustments.—If it appears to the director that any agreement, understanding, or arrangement exists between any taxpayers, or between any taxpayer and any other person, which causes any taxpayer's net income subject to tax to be reflected improperly or inaccurately, the director may adjust any item or items of income, deduction, or exclusion, or any factor taken into account in apportioning income to this state, to the extent necessary clearly to reflect the net income of such taxpayer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-984.

(1) When a levy is made by writ of execution, writ of attachment, or writ of garnishment upon any personal property, money, choses in action, or other property of a personal nature which may be exempt from levy and sale by any process upon which levy shall have been made, the debtor, if he wishes to claim such property as exempt from sale, as aforesaid, shall make or cause to be made, within 10 days from the date of the levy, an inventory of the whole of his personal property, affixing thereto true and correct cash valuations thereof; shall attach to such inventory an affidavit made by himself or his attorney or authorized agent that the inventory contains a true and correct list or schedule of all the personal property owned by him in this state, and the true cash value thereof; and shall in such schedule designate which property he claims to be exempt or wishes to have set aside as his exemption.

(2) The original of the inventory and affidavit shall be filed with the court which issued the writ. A copy thereof shall be served upon the judgment creditor or plaintiff or his attorney or agent, and one copy shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county through whose department service was made. Thereafter, the judgment creditor or his agent or attorney shall have 20 days to file any objection to the inventory and affidavit served by the debtor. In the event that the plaintiff or his agent or attorney do not file any contest or objection within the 20-day period, he shall be deemed to have admitted the truth of inventory or affidavit, and the judgment debtor shall be entitled to an order of the court exempting those items claimed by the defendant in the inventory. In the event of an objection being filed by the plaintiff or his attorney, the court shall set a hearing on said objection by notice of hearing of either party and shall thereafter hold a hearing to determine the validity of the objection claimed by the plaintiff.

(3) If notice of contest is filed as aforesaid, the court shall appoint a disinterested appraiser who is a citizen of the county and who, after having made oath before the court that he will faithfully appraise such property, shall appraise the same at its cash value and affix to the several items or property enumerated in the inventory or schedule its cash value, and the appraisement shall be signed and sworn to by the appraiser.

(4) Notice of the time and place of appraisement shall be given to the creditor or his attorney or agent at least 24 hours before the making of the appraisement. The appraiser shall be entitled to a reasonable fee as determined by the court, and the same shall be allowed as costs, but no costs shall be required of the debtor for the proceedings to appraise and exempt any property claimed by him to be exempt; however, any property owned by him, over and above the amount allowed by law as exempt, shall be liable to sale under such process and for the costs of this proceeding.

(5) During this period of time, the sheriff shall safeguard any property seized under the writ until a true copy of a court order has been delivered clearly stating which property has been exempted under the contested inventory and ordering the sale of the property which remains under levy. If more than 90 days elapse after delivery of the inventory or schedule and affidavit, and no court order has been received, then the sheriff shall sell the items under levy and shall remit these funds as provided in s. 56.275. The prevailing party at the time of the hearing may be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and shall be entitled to costs. The costs shall include, but not be limited to, appraisal fees, storage fees, and such other costs incurred as a result of said levy.

(6) No inventory or schedule to exempt personal property from sale shall be accepted prior to a levy on such personal property.

(3) RIGHTS OF PARENT, GUARDIAN, PUPIL, OR STUDENT.—The parent or guardian of any pupil or student who attends or has attended any public school, area vocational-technical training center, community college, or institution of higher education in the State University System shall have the following rights with respect to any records or reports created, maintained, and used by any public educational institution in the state. However, whenever a pupil or student has attained 18 years of age, or is attending an institution of postsecondary education, the permission or consent required of, and the rights accorded to, the parents of the pupil or student shall thereafter be required of and accorded to the pupil or student only, unless the pupil or student is a dependent pupil or student of such parents as defined in Title 26 U.S.C. s. 152 (section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954). The State Board of Education shall formulate, adopt, and promulgate rules whereby parents, guardians, pupils, or students may exercise these rights:

(a) Right of access.—

1. Such parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall have the right, upon request directed to the appropriate school official, to be provided with a list of the types of records and reports, directly related to pupils or students, as maintained by the institution which the pupil or student attends or has attended.

2. Such parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall have the right, upon request, to be shown any record or report relating to such pupil or student maintained by any public educational institution. When the record or report includes information on more than one pupil or student, the parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall be entitled to receive, or be informed of, only that part of the record or report which pertains to the pupil or student who is the subject of the request. Upon a reasonable request therefor, the institution shall furnish such parent, guardian, pupil, or student with an explanation or interpretation of any such record or report.

3. Copies of any list, record, or report requested under the provisions of this paragraph shall be furnished to the parent, guardian, pupil, or student upon request.

4. The State Board of Education shall establish rules to be followed by all public educational institutions in granting requests for lists, or for access to reports and records or for copies or explanations thereof under this paragraph. However, access to any report or record requested under the provisions of subparagraph 2. shall be granted within 30 days after receipt of such request by the institution. Fees may be charged for furnishing any copies of reports or records requested under subparagraph 3., but such fees shall not exceed the actual cost to the institution of producing such copies.

(b) Right of waiver of access to confidential letters or statements.—Such parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall have the right to waive the right of access to letters or statements of recommendation or evaluation, except that such waiver shall apply to recommendations or evaluations only if:

1. The parent, guardian, pupil, or student is, upon request, notified of the names of all persons submitting confidential letters or statements; and

2. Such recommendations or evaluations are used solely for the purpose for which they were specifically intended.

Such waivers may not be required as a condition for admission to, receipt of financial aid from, or receipt of any other services or benefits from, any public agency or public educational institution in Florida.

(c) Right to challenge and hearing.—Such parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall have the right to challenge the content of any record or report to which such person is granted access under paragraph (a), in order to insure that the record or report is not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the pupil or student and to provide an opportunity for the correction, deletion, or expunction of any inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate data or material contained therein. Any challenge arising under the provisions of this paragraph may be settled through informal meetings or discussions between the parent, guardian, pupil, or student and appropriate officials of the educational institution. If the parties at such a meeting agree to make corrections, to make deletions, to expunge material, or to add a statement of explanation or rebuttal to the file, such agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties, and the appropriate school officials shall take the necessary actions to implement the agreement. If the parties cannot reach an agreement, upon the request of either party, a hearing shall be held on such challenge under rules promulgated by the State Board of Education. Upon request of the parent, guardian, pupil, or student, the hearing shall be exempt from the requirements of s. 286.011. Such rules shall include at least the following provisions:

1. The hearing shall be conducted within a reasonable period of time following the request for the hearing.

2. The hearing shall be conducted, and the decision rendered, by an official of the educational institution or other party who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.

3. The parent, guardian, pupil, or student shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised under this paragraph.

4. The decision shall be rendered in writing within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the hearing.

5. The appropriate school officials shall take the necessary actions to implement the decision.

(d) Right of privacy.—Every pupil or student shall have a right of privacy with respect to the educational records kept on him. No state or local educational agency, board, public school, area vocational-technical center, community college, or institution of higher education in the State University System shall permit the release of personally identifiable records or reports of a pupil or student, or of any personal information contained therein, without the written consent of the pupil's or student's parent or guardian, or of the pupil or student himself if he is qualified as provided in this subsection, to any individual, agency, or organization. However, personally identifiable records or reports of a pupil or student may be released to the following persons or organizations:

1. Officials of schools, school systems, area vocational-technical centers, community colleges, or institutions of higher learning in which the pupil or student seeks or intends to enroll, and a copy of such records or reports shall be furnished to the parent, guardian, pupil, or student upon request.

2. Other school officials, including teachers within the educational institution or agency, who have legitimate educational interests in the information contained in the records.

3. The United States Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the United States Commissioner of Education, the Director of the National Institute of Education, the Assistant Secretary for Education, the Comptroller General of the United States, or state or local educational authorities who are authorized to receive such information subject to the conditions set forth in applicable federal statutes and regulations of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, or in applicable state statutes and rules of the State Board of Education.

4. Other school officials, in connection with a pupil's or student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid.

5. Individuals or organizations conducting studies for or on behalf of an institution or a board of education for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering pupil or student aid programs, or improving instruction, if such studies are conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of pupils or students and their parents by persons other than representatives of such organizations and if such information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose of conducting such studies.

6. Accrediting organizations, in order to carry out their accrediting functions.

7. For use as evidence in pupil or student expulsion hearings conducted by a district school board pursuant to the provisions of chapter 120.

8. Appropriate parties in connection with an emergency, if knowledge of the information in the pupil's or student's educational records is necessary to protect the health or safety, of the pupil, student, or other individuals.

Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit any educational institution from publishing and releasing to the general public directory information relating to a pupil or student if the institution elects to do so. However, no educational institution shall release, to any individual, agency, or organization which is not listed in subparagraphs 1.-8., directory information relating to the student body in general or a portion thereof unless it is normally published for the purpose of release to the public in general. Any educational institution making directory information public shall give public notice of the categories of information which it has designated as directory information with respect to all pupils or students attending the institution and shall allow a reasonable period of time after such notice has been given for a parent, guardian, pupil, or student to inform the institution in writing that any or all of the information designated should not be released.

(4) NOTIFICATION.—Every parent, guardian, pupil, and student entitled to rights relating to pupil and student records and reports under the provisions of subsection (3) shall be notified annually, in writing, of such rights and that the institution has a policy of supporting the law, the types of information and data generally entered in the pupil and student records as maintained by the institution, and the procedures to be followed in order to exercise such rights. The notification shall be general in form and in a manner to be determined by the State Board of Education, and may be incorporated with other printed materials distributed to pupils and students, such as being printed on the back of school assignment forms or report cards for pupils attending kindergarten or grades 1 through 12 in the public school system, and being printed in college catalogs or in other program announcement bulletins for students attending postsecondary institutions.

(1) EDUCATIONAL PLANNING.—

(a) The commissioner shall be responsible for all planning functions for the department, including collection, analysis, and interpretation of all data, information, test results, evaluations, and other indicators that are used to formulate policy, identify areas of concern and need, and serve as the basis for short-range and long-range planning. Such planning shall include assembling data, conducting appropriate studies and surveys, and sponsoring research and development activities designed to provide information about educational needs and the effect of alternative educational practices.

(b) Each district school board shall maintain a continuing system of planning and budgeting which shall be designed to aid in identifying and meeting the educational needs of students and the public. Provision shall be made for coordination between district school boards and community college boards of trustees concerning the planning for vocational and adult educational programs. The major emphasis of the system shall be upon locally determined goals and objectives, the state's plan for education, and the minimum performance standards developed by the Department of Education. The system shall be structured to meet the specific management needs of the district. The system of planning and budgeting shall insure that the budget adopted by the district school board reflects the plan the board has also adopted. Each district school board shall utilize its system of planning and budgeting to emphasize a system of school-based management in which individual school centers become the principal planning units and eventually to integrate planning and budgeting at the school level.

(2) COMPREHENSIVE MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS.—The commissioner shall develop and implement an integrated information system for educational management. The system shall support, as feasible, the management decisions to be made in each division of the department and at the individual school and district levels. Similar data elements among divisions and levels shall be compatible. The system shall be based on an overall conceptual design; the information needed for such decisions, including fiscal, student, program, personnel, facility, community, evaluation, and other relevant data; and the relationship between costs and effectiveness. By February 1, 1977, the commissioner shall develop and submit to the Legislature the conceptual design, the specifications, a costed implementation plan, and a phased schedule for development, installation, testing, and validation of a management information system for public school educational management. Phased implementation of this system shall begin no later than July 1, 1977. The system shall be managed and administered by the commissioner and shall include a district subsystem component to be administered at the district level. Each district school system with a unique management information system shall assure that compatibility exists between its unique system and the district component of the state system to the extent that all data required as input to the state system shall be made available in the appropriate input format.

(a) The specific responsibilities of the commissioner shall include the following:

1. Consulting with school district representatives in the development of the system design model and implementation plans for the management information system for public school education management;

2. Providing operational definitions for the proposed system;

5. Developing a standard transmittal format to be used for collection of data from the various levels of the system;

6. Developing appropriate computer programs to assure integration of the various information components dealing with students, personnel, facilities, fiscal, program, community, and evaluation data;

7. Developing the necessary programs to provide statistical analysis of the integrated data provided in subparagraph 6. in such a way that required reports may be disseminated, comparisons may be made, and relationships may be determined in order to provide the necessary information for making management decisions at all levels;

8. Developing output report formats which will provide district school systems with information for making management decisions at the various educational levels;

9. Developing a phased plan for distributing computer services equitably among all public schools and school districts in Florida as rapidly as possible. The first phase of the plan shall deal with data processing to meet state and district management needs and shall be submitted to the Legislature on or before February 1, 1977. The plan shall describe alternatives available to the state in providing such computing services and shall contain estimates of the cost of each alternative, together with a recommendation for action. In developing such plan, the feasibility of shared use of computing hardware and software by school districts, community colleges, and universities shall be examined. Laws or administrative rules regulating procurement of data processing equipment, communication services, or data processing services by state agencies shall not be construed to apply to local agencies which share computing facilities with state agencies;

10. Assisting the district school systems in establishing their subsystem components and assuring compatibility with current district systems;

11. Establishing procedures for continuous evaluation of system efficiency and effectiveness;

12. Initiating a reports-and forms-management system to ascertain that duplication in collection of data does not exist and that forms and reports are prepared in a logical and uncomplicated format, resulting in a reduction in the number and complexity of required reports, particularly at the school level; and

13. Initiating such other actions as are necessary to carry out the intent of the Legislature that a management information system for public school management needs be implemented.

(b) The specific responsibilities of each district school system shall include:

1. Establishing a district level reports-and forms-control management system by July 1, 1977.

2. With assistance from the commissioner, developing systems compatibility between the state management information system and unique local systems.

3. Providing, with the assistance of the department, inservice training dealing with management information system purposes and scope, a method of transmitting input data, and the use of output report information.

4. Establishing a plan for continuous review and evaluation of local management information system needs and procedures.

5. Advising the commissioner of all district management information needs.

6. Transmitting required data input elements to the appropriate processing locations in accordance with guidelines established by the commissioner.

7. Determining required reports, comparisons, and relationships to be provided to district school systems by the system output reports, continuously reviewing these reports for usefulness and meaningfulness, and submitting recommended additions, deletions, and change requirements in accordance with the guidelines established by the commissioner.

8. Being responsible for the accuracy of all data elements transmitted to the department.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the expertise in the state system of public education, as well as contracted services, be utilized to hasten the plan for full implementation of a comprehensive management information system.

230.2311 Legislative intent; early childhood and basic skills development programs; objectives; provisions.—

¹(1) The Legislature recognizes that the early years of a pupil's education are crucial to his future and that mastery of the basic skills of communication and computation is essential to the future educational and personal success of an individual. The first priority of the public schools of Florida shall be to assure that all Floridians, to the extent their individual physical, mental, and emotional capacities permit, shall achieve mastery of the basic skills. The term "basic skills," for the purposes of this section, means reading, writing, and arithmetic, and mastery of these skills shall be developed through basic programs in the following areas of learning: language arts, measurement, problem solving, art, music, physical education, science, and social studies. Early childhood and basic skills development programs shall be made available by the school districts to all students, especially those enrolled in kindergarten and grades 1 through 3, and shall provide effective, meaningful, and relevant educational experiences designed to give students at least the minimum skills necessary to function and survive in today's society.

(2) In implementing the intent of this section, each school district shall develop a program for early childhood and basic skills development. The early childhood and basic skills program shall be developed cooperatively by school administrators, teachers, parents, and other community groups or individuals having an interest in the programs or having expertise in the field of early childhood education or basic skills development.

(3) Each district's early childhood and basic skills development program shall assure that each student is enrolled in a program designed to meet his individual needs and that he achieves that level of mastery of the basic skills which his capacities permit. As a part of such program, each school district shall provide, or make provision for, special instruction in the basic skills areas for adults who have not mastered the basic skills or functional literacy requirements prescribed by s. 232.246.

(4) The early childhood and basic skills development program shall include, but not be limited to:

cluding direct individual and small group instruction in reading and computation skills.

(c) Use of personnel as described in paragraph (a) during instruction in computational skills and in reading skills.

(e) Emphasis on an individualized diagnostic approach to instruction.

(f) Use of prescriptive techniques designed to meet individual pupil needs, with special attention given to those pupils not performing up to the minimum reading standards approved by the State Board of Education.

(g) Emphasis on the basic skills development of each child, with attention given to the emotional and social development of each child.

(h) Defined measurable program objectives.

(i) Assessment of educational needs.

(j) Collection of pertinent demographic data and information about early childhood programs, such as children's centers; day care, preschool, and child care programs in either the public or private sector; and the way in which such programs may be integrated or coordinated with the district program.

(k) Allocation and coordination of all district resources with the objectives of the program.

(l) Staff development and inservice training, including a requirement that all teachers in the primary grades, kindergarten, and grades 1 through 3 have access to training in the use of aides, volunteers, and paraprofessionals in the classroom; in the recognition of language arts and computational needs; and in the application of prescriptive techniques in meeting such needs.

(m) Evaluation of the programs by the school board, school administrators, and teachers, and by parents and other appropriate lay groups such as school advisory committees established pursuant to s. 229.58.

(n) Use of parents in the classroom and for home visitations and parent education in order to strengthen the role of the family and the home in the education process and to develop a cooperative relationship between the family, the home, and the school.

The early childhood and basic skills development programs shall be implemented by the 1976-1977 school year.

(5) Each district school board, in consultation with the teacher education centers established in ss. 231.600-231.610 and in cooperation with the Department of Education, shall develop inservice training programs designed to enable teachers:

(a) To recognize language arts and computational needs, especially reading needs.

(b) To apply prescriptive techniques in meeting such needs.

(c) To use aides, volunteers, and paraprofessionals effectively in the classroom.

(6) Each district school board, in cooperation with the Department of Education, shall develop training programs for teacher aides and other personnel who serve in the early childhood and basic skills development program.

(7) As part of the early childhood and basic skills development program, each district school board shall provide for the periodic evaluation of all appropriate pupils in grades 1 through 3 in order to identify each pupil's instructional needs, especially how well they meet the minimum reading standards approved by the state board pursuant to ss. 229.565 and 229.57. Such evaluations shall be one of the major criteria used to determine the most appropriate prescriptive program for each pupil's instructional needs.

Note.—Section 16, ch. 79-385, provides that, if ch. 231 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-385 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

230.2312 Florida Primary Education Program.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT; PURPOSE.—

(a) It is the finding of the Legislature that a comprehensive prescriptive program of primary education, kindergarten through grade 3, is needed in order to improve the results of public education in this state in all grades in years to come. The Legislature therefore declares this intent to require the Department of Education and each district school board to implement such a program for kindergarten through grade 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the program shall be a comprehensive improvement of public education in kindergarten through grade 3 and shall provide appropriate education opportunities for students in the critical early years that more fully meet the unique needs, talents, interests, and abilities of each student. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the program shall include an appropriate level of educational services so that the probability of success in future educational experiences will be improved. No part of this act is intended to require or imply a requirement affecting the individual district's decisions to group, mix, or otherwise assemble students for the purpose of instruction.

(b) The objectives of the Florida Primary Education Program shall include assurance that each student shall have an individualized program to permit the development to his maximum potential and that all students who have completed the third grade of the public educational system shall have achieved a level of competence in the basic skills, as required by s. 229.565, sufficient for increased success in their educational experiences throughout life. The program shall be designed to build upon the early childhood and basic skills development program required by s. 230.2311, with emphasis upon expanding the services for kindergarten through grade 3 students so that existing and potential learning problems are identified and individual needs are met prior to the intermediate grades, thereby developing the basic framework for continued progress of the student, commensurate with his ability, with a reduced risk of failure and less remediation in intermediate and secondary years. The program, or an approved alternative, which shall provide for an increase in the number of teachers and other instructional personnel in the primary classroom, kindergarten, and grades 1 through 3, shall be the kindergarten through grade 3 basic program within the Florida Education Finance Program as defined in chapter 236.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(a) "Program" means the Florida Primary Education Program.

(b) "Preventative strategies" means the use of those instructional strategies which shall serve a student with identified or potential learning problems which are considered correctable. Such strategies shall be provided as deemed most appropriate for correcting the identified or potential learning problems.

(c) "Developmental strategies" means the use of those instructional strategies which shall serve a student appearing to be developing emotionally, mentally, socially, and educationally at his expected potentiality. Instructional strategies shall be directed toward assuring the continuation of expected development.

(d) "Enrichment strategies" means the use of those instructional strategies which shall serve a promising learner, defined as one who can emotionally, socially, mentally, and educationally accept exceptional challenges and who has demonstrated proclivities toward creativity and would most likely benefit from additional query or investigative activities.

(e) "Primary specialist" means a person designated as such by the principal of each school who possesses the competencies provided for in subsection (6).

(f) "Expectancy age formula" means a formula to predict potential academic performance.

(3) IMPLEMENTATION.—The implementation of the Florida Primary Education Program shall be the responsibility of the Commissioner of Education, with penalties for discrepancies and deficiencies to be applied as required by s. 229.565(3). Each district school board shall provide a program, with assistance from the Department of Education, which shall include at least the following:

(a) A screening program such that all public school students in kindergarten through grade 3 shall be screened prior to the end of the eighth week of their initial public school experience in Florida. Educational screening shall be performed with the classroom teacher acting as the primary screening agent, with final decisions for assessment to be made by the principal after considering the recommendations of the teacher and any school-based or itinerant resource persons who are involved. With the assistance of the primary specialist, the classroom teacher's observation of the student's academic and behavioral performance shall be given primary consideration for initial recommendations for implementation of the developmental strategies or referral for further assessment in the Florida Primary Education Program or referral for exceptional student education evaluation. Consideration shall also be given to the use of a screening instrument or instruments which shall provide objective data regarding prereading readiness, precomputational skills, auditory discrimination, visual perception, auditory perception, kinesthetic skills, motor skills, or any other data deemed necessary at the classroom level for making sound recommendations. A listing of suggested screening, identification, and assessment instruments, along with descriptions, interpretations, suggested techniques and uses, and other information deemed necessary for the classroom teacher and resource persons in educational screening, shall be developed by the Department of Education with the assistance of selected district school-based personnel and shall be updated annually, or as needed, and disseminated for use by teachers, resource persons, and other appropriate personnel.

(b) Procedures whereby, after initial screening by the classroom teacher, assisted by the primary specialist, each student shall receive the individual developmental strategies or be referred for exceptional student education evaluations as prescribed by state board rules or recommended for further assessment for receiving preventative or enrichment instructional strategies of the program.

(c) Procedures whereby each student shall be provided further assessment in the program if such assessment is recommended by the classroom teacher and primary specialist, if approved by the principal. Performance on screening instruments shall be considered as a part of the criteria for recommendation for further assessment. In recommending for further assessment a student who has been screened, the following criteria shall be considered: teacher observation of behavioral and emotional adjustment to school environment and observation of the student's performance on assigned tasks, and relative scores on standardized or other tests, with particular attention to scores in the upper or lower quartile, based on an expectancy age formula. A student shall be recommended for exceptional student education evaluation if the child is performing $1\frac{1}{2}$ grades or more above or below grade placement if applicable or has scored in the upper or lower decile on standardized or other tests, and if teacher observation of assigned task performance and teacher observation, according to a standardized checklist of behavioral characteristics, indicate that direct referral for exceptional student evaluation is in the best interest of the student.

(d) Procedures whereby identification and assignment of the preventative or enrichment instructional strategies to a student shall be of a flexible nature, based on results obtained in assessment beyond initial screening and involving a school staffing committee appointed by the principal, including at least the classroom teacher and a primary specialist. Areas to be considered by the school staffing committee shall include: rate of mental development; achievement in basic skills as defined by s. 230.2311; information processing ability; visual motor perception; and behavioral and social adjustment. Direct referral by the school staffing committee of the student for exceptional student education evaluation may be recommended.

(e) Procedures for identification and assignment of the preventative instructional strategies to a student which shall include, but not be limited to the following: below grade level performance if applicable; scoring in lowest quartile on suggested identification and assessment tests, based upon an expectancy age formula; and teacher observation of classroom performance on assigned tasks and observation of social and behavioral adjustment. An instructional plan for any student demonstrating a need for the preventative instructional strategies shall be prepared stating the nature of the identified correctable learning problem or potential problem, the educational specific strategies that will be utilized for correction of such problem, and the length of time projected before redesigning the program of the student. The school staffing committee, when appropriate, shall recommend to the principal an assignment change for the student from the preventative instructional strategies or shall recommend the child for exceptional student education evaluation, with a report substantiating such a recommendation to become a part of the student's records.

(f) Procedures for assignment of the enrichment instructional strategies to the student shall include, but not be limited to: grade level performance; scoring in the top quartile on suggested identification and assignment tests, based upon an expectancy age formula; and teacher observation of performance on assigned tasks and observation of social and behavioral adjustment. Activities and instructional strategies shall provide stimulation for accelerated learning, and necessary follow-up evaluation shall be provided by the teacher and resource personnel to assure that each student assigned to the enrichment instructional strategies is challenged appropriately. If the student does not respond to enrichment and accelerated activities as anticipated, the school staffing committee, when appropriate, shall recommend to the principal the reassignment of the student from the enrichment instructional strategies assignment to another program or shall recommend the student for exceptional student education evaluation, with a report substantiating such a recommendation to become a part of the student's records.

(4) HEALTH SCREENING.—Health screening services and related referrals and follow-up shall be provided by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to s. 402.32. For the purpose of implementing s. 402.32 and the Florida Primary Education Program, the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Commissioner of Education shall cooperatively develop written procedures for screening services, referral, and follow-up to be made available to school districts and each child-serving agency under the direct or indirect jurisdiction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services whereby responsibilities of each public school, each such agency, and the district school boards shall be delineated. Such procedures shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Use of a standard student information records system by all public schools for each student's cumulative record to be maintained by the school district. Such system shall include basic health data resulting from services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, including screening services and results, referral, and follow-up, as well as educational decisions made as a result of such screening, referral, and follow-up.

(b) Collection and reporting of the information required in paragraph (a) on a school-level aggregate basis for use by school personnel and on a school district aggregate basis, on a school district-by-district basis, and on a statewide basis which will point out duplication of services provided by any agency under the direct or indirect jurisdiction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and services that need to be performed.

(c) Such district and aggregate data shall be incorporated in a report to the appropriate education and health and rehabilitative services committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate to be prepared by the Commissioner of Education or his designee by February 1981, and annually thereafter. The Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall prepare a companion report which shall specify remedies taken or to be taken to correct duplication of services or the establishment of needed services and shall provide any information deemed appropriate for improving the delivery of required services.

(5) DISMISSAL CRITERIA.—Third grade students may be eligible for promotion from the Florida Primary Education Program to grade 4 upon satisfactory attainment of the minimum student performance standards required by s. 229.565. At the end of grade 3, there shall be three alternatives provided for each student:

(a) The student has met the minimum performance standards and shall enter the fourth grade;

(b) The student shall continue in an extension of the program experience for no more than 1 year in order to have an additional opportunity to meet the minimum performance standards of grade 3 at which time he shall progress according to the district's student progression plan; or

(c) The student shall be referred to exceptional student education if it appears that he requires the services of exceptional student education.

(6) STAFF.—

(a) Staff development programs shall be implemented by each district school board designed to enable the kindergarten through grade 3 instructional staff to be aware, to understand, and to meet the individual needs of students. Inservice training plans shall be a part of the master inservice plan required by s. 236.0811 and training shall include, but not be limited to, teachers, administrators, support personnel, aides, and volunteers, as needed. Each district school board may permit participation in inservice training programs by nonpublic school teachers where space is available. The content of the staff development and inservice programs for instructional staff shall include, but not be limited to, improving competencies in the following areas:

1. Early childhood test administration and interpretation.

10. Ability to suggest educational strategies, materials, and techniques for each child to parents and other support personnel working with each child.

11. Ability to use observation techniques in screening, identification, ongoing reevaluation, and planning for each child.

(b) A role definition and set of required competencies for the primary specialist who shall be a teacher and who shall not, under any circumstances, be used in an administrative or quasi-administrative role, shall include at least the following:

1. The competencies addressed in paragraph (a), plus a minimum of 3 years' successful teaching or other appropriate school-level experience.

2. Ability to assist in the coordination of all services and program elements in the Florida Primary Education Program, including screening and identification processes, ongoing evaluation, assignment of children in appropriate programs, and services of other personnel in a team approach.

9. Ability to support and assist the classroom teacher in implementing teaching strategies, identifying appropriate activities, organizing and managing the classroom, selecting materials, and identifying specific needs of children.

(c) Preservice teacher education programs shall be developed to meet the requirements of the Florida Primary Education Program as a condition for program approval for the teacher training institutions, s. 231.17, and other criteria as required by state board rules.

(7) FUNDING.—

(a) Each district shall have the Florida Primary Education Program or an approved alternative fully operative by the beginning of the school year 1981-1982. First priorities in 1979-1980 shall be given to staff development of kindergarten through grade 3 personnel, with emphasis on screening and preventative instructional strategies and reduction of class size.

(b) The Florida Primary Education Program or an approved alternative shall be the basic program for kindergarten through grade 3 pursuant to s. 236.081, and the cost factor shall be computed so as to enable school districts to adequately implement the program. Beginning with the 1979-1980 biennium and for each year thereafter, s. 236.081(1)(c) notwithstanding, the cost factor for the K-3 basic program shall be provided for in the appropriations act. The cost factor shall be sufficient to generate the amount of dollars appropriated for the K-3 basic program, which is in addition to the amount generated by multiplying the cost factor of 1.234 by the number of full-time equivalent students in the K-3 program times the base student allocation as specified in the appropriations act.

(c) Staff development for the Florida Primary Education Program or an approved alternative shall be provided from that amount allocated per full-time equivalent student pursuant to s. 236.081(3).

(d) In meeting the expenditure requirements set forth in s. 237.34, each district shall, within resources available, provide primary specialists so that no district shall provide less than one specialist and no individual school shall have less than the equivalent of one-half specialist, and no more than one full-time specialist shall be required for any individual school, unless an alternative method of providing these services is approved by the Primary Education Council according to law and guidelines established.

(e) Up to $5 per kindergarten through grade 3 full-time equivalent unweighted student may be used in the calculation of meeting the expenditure requirement of s. 237.34 for funds expended by the district for activities which are planned to directly increase the involvement of the parent or guardian in his child's learning process and which enable the parent or guardian to improve the child's motivation and desire for success in learning or otherwise assist the child in achieving school-related academic success.

(8) REPORTING.—The commissioner shall annually provide the Primary Education Council and the appropriate education committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate a district-by-district accounting of the extent to which expenditure requirements have been met as required by s. 237.34 and shall include in the report the remedies taken or to be taken for any expenditure deficiencies noted and to be corrected as required by said section and s. 229.565. The personnel of each school district shall cooperate fully with legislative staff and the council as they make inquiries and observations and collect data that may be necessary for determining the extent to which the program is being implemented as prescribed by law, assist in implementation of legislative intent, and transmit annually to the Legislature recommendations for legislative changes that may be needed for achieving the intent of this act.

(9) PRIMARY EDUCATION PROGRAM PLANS.—

(a) Each district, by March 1, 1980, shall submit to the Primary Education Council a plan for implementation of the Florida Primary Education Program in the manner and format prescribed by the council which will assure the educational outcomes and objectives specified in subsection (1).

(b) Any district which elects to do so may develop an alternative to the primary education model which will assure the educational outcomes and objectives specified in subsection (1). The alternative plan shall be developed in the manner and format prescribed by the council and submitted by March 1, 1980.

(c) Any district not obtaining approval of the required primary education program plan or alternative program plan by June 30, 1980, may be denied revenues that would be generated by that portion of the Florida Education Finance Program K-3 cost factors in excess of 1.234 for the 1980-1981 fiscal year or any part of the year deemed appropriate by the council. A district may apply to the council for approval to update or amend an approved plan for a school year provided that such application is made 60 days prior to the beginning of the next fiscal year or at such earlier date as may be required by the council.

(d) Upon recommendation of the council, the commissioner shall provide the necessary technical assistance to any district that requests such services or if the council recommends such assistance for planning and implementing an adequate primary education program.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-288.

230.2313 Student services programs.—

(1) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Student Services Act."

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature to articulate the functions served by each of the components of a program of student services. It is further the intent of the Legislature that each school district develop a plan for providing student services to all public school students in the district. This plan shall be designed to insure effective use of available resources and avoid unnecessary duplication.

(3) A "student services program" is defined as a coordinated effort which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Guidance services, which shall include, but not be limited to, the availability of individual and group counseling to all students; orientation programs for new students at each level of education and for transferring students; consultation with parents, faculty, and out-of-school agencies concerning student problems and needs; utilization of student records and files; supervision of standardized testing and interpretation of results; the following up of early school dropouts and graduates; a school-initiated system of parental involvement; an organized system of informational resources on which to base educational and vocational decision-making; and educational and job placement.

(b) Psychological services, which shall include, but not be limited to, evaluation of students with learning or adjustment problems; evaluation of students in exceptional-child education programs; consultation and counseling with parents, students, and school personnel; a system for the early identification of learning potential and factors which affect the child's educational performance; a system of liaison and referrals, with resources available outside of the school; and written policies which assure ethical procedures in psychological activities.

(c) Visiting teacher and school social work services, which shall include, but not be limited to, providing casework to assist in the prevention and remediation of problems of attendance, behavior, adjustment, and learning and serving as liaison between the home and school by making home visits and referring students and parents to appropriate school and community agencies for assistance.

(d) Occupational and placement services, which shall include, but not be limited to, the dissemination of career education information, placement services and follow-up studies, and instruction in employability skills. The occupational and placement specialist shall serve as liaison between employers and the school.

(4) Each school district shall develop a plan which insures that individual student services are coordinated in a manner utilizing such techniques as differentiated staffing as to make maximum use of the contribution of each service.

(5) The State Board of Education is authorized to adopt regulations to carry out the intent of this legislation. Regulations shall include, but need not be limited to:

(a) A description of the present student services program at all educational levels for which the school board is responsible, including ratio of students to personnel.

(b) Identification of alternative student services personnel who do not meet traditional graduate school requirements and who may be used by the school board in providing the recommended guidance services, including, but not limited to, paraprofessionals, teachers, parents, and representatives of business and industry.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 75-244; s. 14, ch. 76-223.

230.2315 Educational alternative programs.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The Legislature finds and declares that the maintenance of a healthy learning environment is essential to the educational process and the general welfare of the school population. The Legislature further finds that traditional school programs which do not meet certain students' individual needs and interests may encourage these students to become disruptive or disinterested in school. Therefore, it is the intent of this act that educational alternative programs be established throughout the state which programs will assist students in preparing for their roles in the community; reduce the incidence of disruptive behavior and truancy in the public schools; reduce the number of students referred to special services or agencies; and, generally, offer alternatives to conventional education which will meet the needs and interests of those students now poorly served by the public school system. It is further the intent of the Legislature that such alternatives be positive rather than punitive and emphasize each student's abilities in order to ensure the full realization of the potential of such student.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—Educational alternative programs are programs designated to meet the needs of students who are disruptive or unsuccessful in a normal school environment. Such programs shall be in one or more of the following forms:

(a) Learning centers which specialize in subject areas such as occupational skills, communication, and the performing arts and which students may attend on either a full-time or part-time basis.

(b) Crisis intervention centers and in-school suspension programs which provide a temporary intervention program for students who experience difficulty in the normal classroom environment because of behavioral problems and for whom teachers are unable to provide an appropriate educational program.

(c) Any other alternative to suspension or expulsion approved by the district school board.

(3) ADMINISTRATION.—Each district school board may establish one or more educational alternative programs. The programs shall be coordinated with social service, law enforcement, prosecutorial, and juvenile justice agencies in the school district. These agencies are authorized to exchange information contained in student records, criminal justice records, and juvenile justice records. School districts and other agencies receiving such information shall use the information only for official purposes connected with the certification of students for admission to and for the administration of the educational alternative programs, and such agencies shall maintain the confidentiality of such information unless otherwise provided by law or regulation.

(4) ELIGIBILITY OF STUDENTS.—Pursuant to rules adopted by the State Board of Education, a student may be eligible for an educational alternative program if the student is disruptive, unsuccessful, or disinterested in the regular school environment as determined by grades, achievement test scores, referrals for suspension or other disciplinary action, and rate of absences.

(5) REVIEW OF PLACEMENT.—The parents or guardians of a student shall be entitled to an administrative review of any action by school district personnel relating to placement of the student in an alternative program, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 120. The placement of any student in an alternative program shall be reevaluated by the district upon completion by the student of a court-adjudicated detention or punishment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-415.

230.232 Pupil assignment; powers and duties of school boards.—

(1) The school boards of the several districts are hereby authorized and directed to provide for the enrollment in a public school in the district of each child residing in such district who is qualified under the laws of this state for admission to a public school and who applies for enrollment in or admission to a public school in such district. The authority of each such board in the matter of the enrollment of pupils in the public schools shall be full and complete. No pupil shall be enrolled in or admitted to attend any public school in which such child may not be enrolled pursuant to the rules, regulations, and decisions of such board.

(2) In the exercise of authority conferred by subsection (1) upon the school boards, each such board shall provide for the enrollment of pupils in the respective public schools located within such district so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety, education and general welfare of such pupils. In the exercise of such authority the board shall prescribe school attendance areas and school bus transportation routes and may adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as in the opinion of the board shall best accomplish such purposes. The school boards shall prescribe appropriate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this subsection and other applicable laws of this state and to that end may use all means legitimate, necessary and proper to promote the health, safety, good order, education, and welfare of the public schools and the pupils enrolling therein or seeking to enroll therein. In the accomplishment of these objectives the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board may include, but be not limited to, provisions for the conduct of such uniform tests as may be deemed necessary or advisable in classifying the pupils according to intellectual ability and scholastic proficiency to the end that there will be established in each school within the district an environment of equality among pupils of like qualifications and academic attainments. In the preparation and conduct of such tests and in classifying the pupils for assignment to the schools which they will attend, the board shall take into account such sociological, psychological and like intangible social scientific factors as will prevent, as nearly as practicable, any condition of socio-economic class consciousness among the pupils attending any given school in order that each pupil may be afforded an opportunity for a normal adjustment to his environment and receive the highest standard of instruction within his ability to understand and assimilate. In designating the school to which pupils may be assigned there shall be taken into consideration the request or consent of the parent or guardian or the person standing in loco parentis to the pupil, the available facilities and teaching capacity of the several schools within the district, the effect of the admission of new students upon established academic programs, the effect of admission of new pupils on the academic progress of the other pupils enrolled in a particular school, the suitability of established curriculum to the students enrolled or to be enrolled in a given school, the adequacy of a pupil's academic preparation for admission to a particular school, the scholastic aptitude, intelligence, mental energy or ability of the pupil applying for admission and the psychological, moral, ethical, and cultural background and qualifications of the pupil applying for admission as compared with other pupils previously assigned to the school in which admission is sought. It is the intention of the legislature to hereby delegate to the district school boards all necessary and proper administrative authority to prescribe such rules and regulations and to make such decisions and determinations as may be requisite for such purposes.

(3) The parent or guardian of any child, or the person standing in loco parentis to any child who shall apply to the appropriate public school official for the enrollment of any such child in any public school within the district in which such child resides, and whose application for such enrollment shall be denied may, pursuant to rules and regulations established by the school board, apply to such board for enrollment in such school and shall be entitled to a prompt and fair determination by such board in accordance with chapter 120. The majority of such board shall be a quorum for the purpose of holding any hearing and passing upon such application, and the decision of the majority of the members present at any hearing shall be the decision of the board. If the board shall find that such child is entitled to be enrolled in such school or if the board shall find that the enrollment of such child in such school will be for the best interest of such child and will not interfere with the proper administration of the school or with the proper instruction of the pupils there enrolled and will not endanger the health or safety of the pupils there enrolled, the board shall direct that such child be enrolled in and admitted to such school. If the board finds that the child is not entitled to be enrolled in such school or that his enrollment in such school would not be for the best interest of the child or that his enrollment would seriously interfere with the proper administration of such school or with the proper instruction of the pupils there enrolled or that the child's admission to such school would endanger the health or safety of the children there enrolled, the board shall deny the petition for enrollment and direct the enrollment of the child in such other school in the district as shall be determined by the board to be best adapted or qualified to serve the best interests of the child and of the public school system.

(4) The school boards of the public schools of Florida are authorized and empowered to conduct surveys within their respective districts to determine the attitudes and feelings of the citizens of their respective communities with the subsequent purpose of formulating plans to maintain, preserve and improve the public school system of Florida.

(5) The school boards are authorized and empowered to create and appoint citizens committees and study groups from their districts to assist in the aforementioned surveys and plans.

(6) The school boards shall be authorized to employ special counsel to assist the school board's attorney in representing the board in any litigation involving rules and regulations and rulings and decisions of the board under the provisions of this section.

(7) The provisions of this law are severable, and if any section or provision of this law shall be held to be in violation of the Constitutions of Florida or of the United States, such decision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of this law.

§230.234 Legal services for employees; reimbursement for judgments in civil actions.—The school boards of the several districts are authorized to provide legal services for officers and employees of said boards who are charged with civil or criminal actions arising out of and in the course of the performance of assigned duties and responsibilities. The school board shall provide for reimbursement of reasonable expenses for legal services for officers and employees of said boards who are charged with civil or criminal actions arising out of and in the course of the performance of assigned duties and responsibilities upon successful defense by the employee or officer. However, in any case in which the officer or employee pleads guilty or nolo contendere or is found guilty of any such action, the officer or employee shall reimburse the board for any legal services which the board may have supplied pursuant to this section. A school board may also reimburse an officer or employee of the school board for any judgment which may be entered against him in a civil action arising out of and in the course of the performance of his assigned duties and responsibilities. Each expenditure by a school board for legal defense of an officer or employee, or for reimbursement pursuant to this section, shall be made at a public meeting with notice pursuant to s. 120.53(1)(d). The providing of such legal services or reimbursement under the conditions described above is declared to be a district school purpose for which district school funds may be expended.

Note.—Section 16, ch. 79-385, provides that, if ch. 231 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-385 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

230.24 Superintendent; election and term of office.—The superintendent shall be elected for a term of 4 years or until the election or appointment and qualification of his successor.

230.66 Industry services training program.—

(1) There shall be established under the Department of Education a supplemental program to provide training to meet the employment needs of industry and the needs of the citizens of Florida for employment in jobs created by new, expanding, and diversified industry in the state. These needs shall be identified by the Division of Economic Development of the Department of Commerce, other state and local agencies, and business interests in the state.

The program prescribed in this act shall be concerned only with training for skilled and semiskilled operations requiring learning time of 1 year or less and each such training program shall terminate when training needs have been met.

(4) The Department of Education shall administer the programs and shall provide for technical and engineering services, curriculum development, instructional services, information and research, general program administration, central warehousing and transportation of equipment and supplies and overall program direction and shall provide an adequate staff to carry out an effective training program for industry.

(5) Training programs under the provisions of this act may be carried out on the basis of agreements between the district school board or the community college board of trustees, or both such boards, and the department. Under such agreements, the district school board or the community college board of trustees, or both such boards, may make available the facilities of vocational-technical programs, community colleges, or temporary rented facilities and shall pay all instructional salaries in accordance with the salary schedule established by the state agency in agreement with the district school board or the community college board of trustees, or both such boards, without consideration of the duly adopted salary schedule of the district school board or community college board of trustees for regular instructional personnel, except that service of teachers employed in such training programs as temporary employees shall not be counted as years of service toward a continuing contract. 230.67 Job placement and follow-up services.—

(1) The basic purpose of education is to prepare students to become productive, employable, and self-supporting members of society, and the problem of transition from school to work is of critical importance. Despite this fact, the public school system does not now provide job placement services or adequate employment counseling for students leaving the public school, either as graduates or as dropouts. Lack of such services is a significant factor in the high rate of youth unemployment which is consistently more than three times as high as the unemployment rate for all ages.

(2) On or before September 1, 1974, each district school board shall establish and maintain job placement and follow-up services for students graduating or leaving the public school system, including area vocational-technical centers. Follow-up studies may be conducted which will include:

(a) All students graduating or leaving the public school system, including area vocational-technical centers; or

(b) A statistically valid random sample of all students graduating or leaving the public school system, including area vocational-technical centers, which random sample shall be stratified to reflect the appropriate vocational programs of such student.

(3) The State Board of Education shall develop and prescribe alternative methods by which school boards are to provide placement and follow-up services. When possible, this responsibility shall be given to guidance counselors and occupational and placement specialists.

(4) It shall be the further responsibility of the job placement personnel to make written recommendations to the district school board concerning areas of curriculum deficiency having an adverse effect on the employability of job candidates.

231.36 Contracts with instructional staff.—

(1) Each person employed as a member of the instructional staff in any district school system or as supervisor or principal shall be properly certificated and shall be entitled to and shall receive a written contract as specified in chapter 230. A supervisor or principal may receive a written contract for an initial period not to exceed 3 years, subject to annual review and renewal. After the first 3 years, the contract may be renewed for a period not to exceed 3 years and shall contain provisions for dismissal only for just cause, in addition to such other provisions as are prescribed by the school board. Periods of service as a supervisor or principal prior to July 1, 1974, or such service in another district or state, may be recognized by the school board to satisfy the requirements of the initial written contract referred to herein.

(2) Any person so employed on the basis of a written offer of a specific position by a duly authorized agent of the school board for a stated term of service at a specified salary and who accepted such offer by telegram or letter or by signing the regular contract form who shall violate the terms of such contract or agreement by leaving his position without first being released from his contract or agreement by the school board of the district in which he is employed, shall be ineligible for employment in the school system of the state or any district therein for the period of 1 year from the date of such violation. The school board shall take official action on such violation and furnish a copy of the proceedings to the certification section of the State Department of Education, whereupon the certificate of the violator shall be considered as invalid for the period of 1 year from the date of violation.

(3)(a) The school board of each district shall provide continuing contracts as prescribed herein. Each member of the instructional staff, excluding supervisors and principals, in each district school system, except in districts operating under local, special or general tenure laws with stated population application, who:

1. Holds a regular certificate based at least on graduation from a standard 4-year college, or as otherwise provided by law;

2. Has completed 3 years of service in the same district of the state during a period not in excess of 5 successive years, such service being continuous except for leave duly authorized and granted;

3. Has been reappointed for the fourth year; and
4. Has been recommended by the superintendent for such continuing contract based on successful performance of duties and demonstration of professional competence shall be entitled to and shall be issued a continuing contract in such form as may be prescribed by regulations of the state board.

(b) The continuing contract shall be effective at the beginning of the school fiscal year following the completion of all requirements or, starting on July 1, 1968, at the beginning of the school fiscal year in which all requirements are completed on or before September 1.

(c) The period of service provided herein may be extended to 4 years when prescribed by the school board and agreed to in writing by the employee at the time of reappointment or as provided by s. 231.351.

(d) A school board may issue a continuing contract to a new member of the instructional staff provided such individual has previously held a continuing contract in the same or another district within this state.

(e) Each person to whom a continuing contract has been issued as provided herein shall be entitled to continue in his position or in a similar position in the district at the salary schedule authorized by the school board without the necessity for annual nomination or reappointment until such time as the position is discontinued, the person resigns, or his contractual status is changed as prescribed below.

(f) Continuing contract status earned by any member of the instructional staff prior to assuming a position as supervisor or principal shall be retained in the position in which it was attained. Upon release from a position as supervisor or principal, the employee shall be entitled to reassignment to the same or a similar position in which continuing contract status was attained, at the classification level and salary range that would have been earned had the position been held continuously.

(g) Any person who has previously earned continuing contract status as a supervisor or principal in the school district shall be continued in that status until such time as the position is discontinued, the person resigns, or his contractual status is changed by mutual agreement or as prescribed below.

(h) School boards are authorized to enter into continuing contracts with principals and supervisors who were employed as principals or supervisors on or before July 1, 1974, and who otherwise meet the requirements of paragraph (a). However, this authorization shall expire July 1, 1977. If a district school board elects not to exercise the authority in this paragraph, no showing of just cause shall be required.

(4) Any member of the district administrative or supervisory staff and any member of the instructional staff, including any principal, who is under continuing contract, may be dismissed or may be returned to annual contract status for another 3 years in the discretion of the school board, when a recommendation to that effect is submitted in writing to the school board on or before April 1 of any school year, giving good and sufficient reasons therefor, by the superintendent, or by the principal if his contract is not under consideration, or by a majority of the school board. The employee whose contract is under consideration shall be duly notified in writing by the party or parties preferring the charges at least 5 days prior to the filing of the written recommendation with the school board, and such notice shall include a copy of the charges and the recommendation to the school board. The school board shall proceed to take appropriate action. Any decision adverse to the employee shall be made by a majority vote of the full membership of the school board. Any such decision adverse to the employee may be appealed by him in writing to the Department of Education, through the Commissioner of Education, for review; provided such appeal is filed within 30 days after the decision of the school board, and provided further that the decision of the department shall be final as to sufficiency or insufficiency for discontinuation of the continuing contract status.

(5) Should the school board have to choose from among its personnel who are on continuing contracts as to which should be retained, among the criteria to be considered shall be educational qualifications, efficiency, compatibility, character, and capacity to meet the educational needs of the community. Whenever a school board is required to or does consolidate its school program at any given school center by bringing together pupils theretofore assigned to separated schools, the school board may determine on the basis of the foregoing criteria from its own personnel, and any other certificated teachers, which teachers shall be employed for service at this school center, and any teacher no longer needed may be dismissed. The decision of the board shall not be controlled by any previous contractual relationship. In the evaluation of these factors the decision of the school board shall be final.

(6) Any member of the district administrative or supervisory staff and any member of the instructional staff, including any principal, may be suspended or dismissed at any time during the school year; provided that the charges against him must be based on immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, gross insubordination, willful neglect of duty, drunkenness, or conviction of any crime involving moral turpitude. Whenever such charges are made against any such employee of the school board, the school board may suspend such person without pay, but if charges are not sustained he shall be immediately reinstated, and his back salary shall be paid. In cases of suspension by the school board or by the superintendent, the school board shall determine upon the evidence submitted whether the charges have been sustained and, if said charges are sustained, either to dismiss said employee or fix the terms under which said employee may be reinstated. If such charges are sustained by a majority vote of the full membership of the school board and such employee is discharged, his contract of employment shall be thereby canceled. If the employee is under continuing contract, any such decision adverse to him may be appealed by him in writing to the Department of Education, through the Commissioner, for review; provided such appeal is filed within 30 days after the decision of the school board, and provided further that the decision of the department shall be final as to sufficiency of the grounds for dismissal.

(7) The school board of any given district may, at its own discretion:

(a) Grant to a person who has served as superintendent in that district, at the completion of his service as superintendent, a continuing contract as a classroom teacher. Service as superintendent shall be construed as continuous teaching service in the public schools of this state.

(b) Grant to a classroom teacher holding a continuing contract status who has served as school board member in that district, at the completion of his service as school board member, a continuing contract as classroom teacher. Service as school board member shall be construed as continuous teaching service in the public schools of this state.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any member who has retired may interrupt retirement and be reemployed in any public school. Any member so reemployed by the same district from which he retired may be employed on the same contractual basis that existed immediately prior to retirement; however, he shall not be eligible to renew membership in the teacher retirement system.

(9) Any teacher who is employed in a cooperative education program in this state may be immediately placed on continuing contract with the school board wherein the cooperative education program is produced if, at the time of employment, such person is on a continuing contract in a district which is participating in support of the particular cooperative education program in which the person is employed; provided that if at the time of reappointment of personnel, during the first 3 years, said person is not recommended for continued employment in the cooperative education program, he shall automatically revert to continuing contract status in the district of immediate prior employment; and provided further, that in meeting the requirements for a continuing contract prescribed herein prior successive years of service rendered in any district participating in the support of the particular cooperative education program may be counted as years of probationary service for a continuing contract with the school board wherein the cooperative education program is produced.

§231.39 Provisions for leave of absence.—Any member of the instructional and administrative staff may secure leave of absence during the year when it is necessary to be absent from duty as prescribed by law and, under certain conditions, may receive compensation during such period of absence. Any such leave of absence shall be classified as sick leave, illness-in-line-of-duty leave, professional leave, or personal leave. Subject to the provisions in the sections which follow, school boards shall prescribe regulations governing the granting of leaves of absence during the year. School boards shall also have authority to prescribe regulations to provide for more extended leaves of absence as follows:

(1) EXTENDED PROFESSIONAL LEAVE.—Extended leave for professional development may be granted for a period not to exceed 1 year to any member of the instructional and administrative staff who has served satisfactorily and successfully in the schools of the district; provided, that partial compensation may be authorized only when the person has served in the district for at least 3 years or when the leave is granted for additional study in accordance with policies of the school board relating to a program of staff development.

(2) MILITARY LEAVE.—Military leave shall be granted without pay, except as provided by s. 115.07, to employees of a school board who are required to serve in the Armed Forces of the United States or this state in fulfillment of obligations incurred under selective service laws or because of membership in reserves of the Armed Forces or National Guard, and may be granted at the discretion of the school board without pay to an employee volunteering for military duty. (1) ELIGIBILITY.—Any member of the instructional staff or any other employee of a district school system employed on a full-time basis in the public schools of the state who is unable to perform his duty in the school because of illness, or because of illness or death of father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, child, other close relative, or member of his own household and consequently has to be absent from his work shall be granted leave of absence for sickness by the superintendent or by someone designated in writing by him to do so.

1. Each member of the instructional staff employed on a full-time basis shall be entitled to 4 days of sick leave as of the first day of employment of each contract year, and shall thereafter earn 1 day of sick leave for each month of employment, which shall be credited to the member at the end of that month and which shall not be used prior to the time it is earned and credited to the member. However, the member shall be entitled to earn no more than 1 day of sick leave times the number of months of employment during the year of employment. Such leave shall be taken only when necessary because of sickness as herein prescribed. Such sick leave shall be cumulative from year to year. There shall be no limit on the number of days of sick leave a member of the instructional staff may accrue, except that at least one-half of this cumulative leave must be established within the district granting such leave.

However, such absences for personal reasons shall be charged only to accrued sick leave, and leave for personal reasons shall be non-cumulative.

c. During the next 3 years of service, the daily rate of pay multiplied by 45 percent times the number of days of accumulated sick leave.

d. During and after the 10th year of service, the daily rate of pay multiplied by 50 percent times the number of days of accumulated sick leave.

"Normal retirement," as used in this subsection, shall mean retirement under plan A, B, C, D, or E of the Teachers' Retirement System or any other plan established by the Legislature with either full or reduced benefits as provided by law or mandatory retirement due to the attainment of the age of 70 years. "Normal retirement" shall not be interpreted to include disability retirement.

(b) Claim must be filed.—Any member of the instructional staff who finds it necessary to be absent from his duties because of illness, as defined in this section, shall notify the principal of his school if possible before the opening of school on the day on which he must be absent, or during that day except for emergency reasons recognized by the school board as valid. Any member of the instructional staff shall, before claiming and receiving compensation for the time absent from his or her duties while absent because of sick leave as prescribed in this section, make and file by the end of the school month following his return from such absence with the superintendent of the district in which he is so employed a written certificate which shall set forth the day or days absent, that such absence was necessary, and that he is entitled or not entitled to receive pay for such absence in accordance with the provisions of this section; provided, however, that the school board of any district may prescribe regulations under which the superintendent may require a certificate of illness from a licensed physician or from the county health officer.

(c) Compensation.—Any full-time employee having unused sick leave credit shall receive full-time compensation for the time justifiably absent on sick leave; provided that no compensation may be allowed beyond that which may be provided in subsection (3).

(3) SICK LEAVE POOL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a school board, based upon the maintenance of reliable and accurate records by the district school system showing the amount of sick leave which has been accumulated and is unused by employees in accordance with this section, may, by rule, establish a plan allowing participating full-time employees of a district school system to pool sick leave accrued and allowing any sick leave thus pooled to be disbursed to any participating employee who is in need of sick leave in excess of that amount he has personally accrued. Such rules shall include, but not be limited to, the following provisions:

(a) Participation in the sick leave pool shall at all times be voluntary on the part of employees.

(b) Any full-time employee shall be eligible for participation in the sick leave pool after 1 year of employment with the district school system; provided that such employee has accrued a minimum amount of unused sick leave, which minimum shall be established by rule.

(c) Any sick leave pooled pursuant to this section shall be removed from the personally accumulated sick leave balance of the employee donating such leave.

(d) Participating employees shall make equal contributions to the sick leave pool. There shall be established a maximum amount of sick leave which may be contributed by an employee to the pool. After the initial contribution which an employee makes upon electing to participate, no further contributions shall be required except as may be necessary to replenish the pool. Any such further contribution shall be equally required of all employees participating in the pool.

(e) Any sick leave time drawn from the pool by a participating employee must be used for said employee's personal illness, accident, or injury.

(f) A participating employee shall not be eligible to use sick leave from the pool until all of his sick leave has been depleted. There shall be established a maximum number of days for which an employee may draw sick leave from the sick leave pool.

(g) A participating employee who uses sick leave from the pool shall not be required to re contribute such sick leave to the pool, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(h) A participating employee who chooses to no longer participate in the sick leave pool shall not be eligible to withdraw any sick leave already contributed to the pool.

(i) Alleged abuse of the use of the sick leave pool shall be investigated and, on a finding of wrongdoing, the employee shall repay all of the sick leave credits drawn from the sick leave pool and be subject to such other disciplinary action as determined by the school board to be appropriate. Rules adopted for the administration of this program shall provide for the investigation of the use of sick leave utilized by the participating employee in the sick leave pool.

231.601 Purposes, intent, and policy.—

(1) The purposes of this act are to declare a new state policy for the education of teachers and to provide support for the developmental and operational activities required to implement the new policy.

(2) The most important influence the school can contribute to the learning of any student is the attitudes, skills, knowledge and understanding of the teacher. If any change is desired in the nature or quality of the educational programs of the schools it will come about only if teachers play a major role in the change. Teachers can best assist with improving education when they directly and personally participate in identifying needed changes and in designing, developing, implementing, and evaluating solutions to meet the identified needs. Historically, the responsibility for operating programs for preservice teacher education has been assigned to colleges and universities, and responsibility for operating programs for in-service teacher education has been assigned to district school boards.

(3) The education of teachers is inherently a career-long process. It is commonly accepted that teacher education is best carried out through the collaborative efforts of the colleges and universities, the schools, and the community. Because of their nature, the most appropriate laboratories for teacher education are the schools and the community.

(4) Effective July 1, 1973, the responsibility for operating programs for preservice and in-service teacher education is assigned jointly to the colleges and universities, to the district school boards, and to the teaching profession, with the colleges and universities having the primary responsibility for operating preservice programs, the school districts having primary responsibility for operating in-service programs, and the teaching profession having the responsibility for providing information to make each institution's program meaningful and relevant. In order to facilitate collaboration between colleges and universities and school districts, ensure appropriate involvement and participation of teachers, and establish procedures for joint utilization of resources available for preservice and in-service teachers, the State Board of Education shall issue regulations providing for the establishment of teacher education centers in school districts. There shall be no limitation on the number of centers which may be established in each district. Among the purposes of the teacher education centers shall be:

(a) To augment present college and university teacher education programs;

(b) To augment present school district in-service teacher education programs; and

(c) To provide time and opportunity for preservice and in-service teachers to interact with faculty and staff of the colleges and universities and school districts in their common search for the most beneficial educational experiences for students.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that this act be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes as far as legally and practically possible.

History.—s. 42, ch. 73-338; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§231.603 Establishing teacher education centers.—

(1) To effectuate the purposes of this act, the State Board of Education shall adopt and plan regulations providing for the establishment of teacher education centers. Each teacher education center shall be planned, financed and staffed jointly by one or more school districts and by one or more colleges or universities. Community colleges may participate in appropriate phases of teacher education center activities.

(1) The school board of each district shall require each pupil who is otherwise entitled to admission to kindergarten or the first grade to present a statement from the county health officer or from a licensed practicing physician certifying that such pupil has no contagious or communicable disease which would warrant such pupil's exclusion from the public schools.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply if:

(a) The parent or guardian of the child objects in writing that the administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, or

(b) A competent medical authority certifies in writing that the child should be exempt from the required immunization for medical reasons, or

(c) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services determines that according to recognized standards of medical practice any required immunization is unnecessary or hazardous.

Children entitled to such certificates and the conditions upon which they may be issued are as follows:

(1) PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DISABILITY.—Any child whose physical, mental, or emotional condition is such as to prevent his successful participation in regular or special education programs for exceptional children; provided, that before issuing a certificate of exemption for physical, mental, or emotional disability, the superintendent shall require the submission of a statement from the county health officer, if a licensed physician, in counties having such an officer, and in other counties from a licensed practicing physician or qualified psychological examiner designated by the district certifying that the child is physically or mentally incapacitated for school attendance; provided, further, that if appropriate programs are not available within the school system, arrangements shall be made with adjoining districts or other appropriate agencies, residential schools, or approved nonpublic schools providing appropriate programs and services as determined by the Department of Education under regulations prescribed by the state board. Any child so exempt from educational provisions shall immediately be reported to the department.

(2) DISTANCE EXEMPTION.—Children from 6 years of age to 10 years of age, inclusive, unless deaf, blind, or seriously crippled, who, because of distance and lack of public transportation, would be compelled to walk more than 3 miles by the nearest traveled route to the school or to the nearest publicly maintained school bus route to attend a public school, and children 11 years of age or older, unless deaf, blind, or seriously crippled, who, because of distance and lack of public transportation, would be compelled to walk more than 4 miles by the nearest traveled route to the nearest school or the nearest publicly maintained school bus route to attend a public school.

232.07 Employment certificates and special employment certificates authorized for certain children.—

(1) ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES.—Upon application of the child in person and presentation of an employer's statement, the superintendent of each school district, or an attendance assistant or principal of a school authorized by the superintendent in writing, may issue on his own initiative or on the recommendation of the principal the following certificates:

(a) Special certificates of employment.—Special certificates of employment may be issued to children 12 years of age or older and under 16 years of age for employment during vacation or out-of-school hours.

(b) Employment certificates for school exempt children.—Employment certificates may be issued to children 12 years old or older and under 16 years of age who are exempt from school attendance under the provisions of ss. 232.01, 232.06, and 450.161 when, in the opinion of the person issuing such certificate, such action is in the best interest of the child.

(c) Employment certificates for hardship cases.—Employment certificates may be issued to children 14 or 15 years of age when all the following conditions have been satisfactorily met:

1. The child, accompanied by his parent, shall appear and make application in person.

2. The parent shall file a written statement upon a form prescribed by the state board showing that the employment of the child is necessary for the support and maintenance of the family and that the child has a satisfactory position, and shall give such additional facts in regard to the income, expenditures, and financial situation of the family as shall be needed in substantiating such statement.

3. A statement signed by the principal or teacher in charge of the school last attended by the child and certifying that the child has completed the eighth grade of the public schools, or its equivalent, shall be submitted. Such statement shall give the age and date of birth of the child as shown on the records of the schools and the name and address of the parent. If such a statement cannot be obtained, the child may be examined by the superintendent to determine whether he meets the required educational standards. A record of each such examination shall be kept in the files of the superintendent.

4. A certificate signed by a physician designated by the school board shall be submitted stating that such physician has personally examined the child and that, in his opinion, the child is of good physical development for his age, is of sound health, and is physically qualified to perform the work for which he is to be employed. Such physical examination and such expression of opinion shall be based upon forms and standards prescribed jointly by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the State Board of Education. In a district in which the school board has not designated a physician for that purpose, such an examination may be made and certified to only by a licensed practicing physician authorized by the school board to make the examinations and issue such certificate. The superintendent shall, after considering the statement of the parents and such facts as he may obtain from his own subsequent investigation, determine whether the employment of the child is necessary for the support and maintenance of the family. If he determines this matter in the affirmative and finds that the child meets the other qualifications prescribed herein, he shall forthwith issue an employment certificate, or, if he shall determine this matter in the negative, he shall file in his office an order setting forth his reasons for refusing to issue such certificate. The superintendent shall cancel an employment certificate issued in hardship cases when:

a. He has been notified by return of employment certificate that the job has terminated;

b. He has ascertained that such employment is no longer regular or in an amount sufficient to justify absence from school, as determined under regulations prescribed by the state board; or

c. It is unnecessary for the maintenance and support of the family.

(2) STATEMENT OF EMPLOYER.—No certificate shall be issued under this section until the person into whose service the child is to enter shall state in writing, upon forms prescribed by the state board, that the employer desires to employ the child and explains the nature of the occupation for which the child is to be employed. A parent may be considered as the employer.

(3) HEALTH CERTIFICATES.—The Department of Education is authorized:

(a) To waive the health certificate requirement when the department determines that such certificates are not relevant to the performance of the employment being sought; or

(b) To require additional health certificates as it deems necessary for the protection of the child.

(4) EVIDENCE OF AGE.—Evidence of the age of the child shall be obtained as prescribed in s. 232.03 or by presentation of a valid Florida driver's license.

(5) FORMS.—Special certificates of employment shall differ in form and color from employment certificates. All certificates shall be issued in triplicate upon a form prescribed by the state board, one copy to be mailed to the employer, one copy to be sent within 1 week thereafter to the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security, and one copy to be filed in the office of the superintendent. The copy of the employment certificate furnished to the employer shall be returned by the employer to the superintendent within 10 days after he ceases to employ the child regularly, and the certificate shall then cease to be valid. However, the employer may, if he desires, retain the copy of the certificate for his records and notify the superintendent by written notice delivered to the superintendent that he is no longer employing the child regularly.

232.08 Age certificates authorized for children who have reached 16 years of age.—The superintendent, or an attendance assistant or principal of a school authorized by the superintendent in writing to do so, shall, upon application and submission of evidence as prescribed in s. 232.03, issue age certificates for employment purposes upon a form prescribed by the state board, which certificates shall be different in form and color from employment certificates and special employment certicates and shall be issued to children who are 16 years of age or older.

232.09 Parents responsible for attendance of children.—Each parent of a child within the compulsory attendance age shall be responsible for such child's school attendance as required by law. The absence of a child from school shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section; provided, that no parent of a child shall be held responsible for such child's nonattendance at school under any of the following conditions:

(1) WITH PERMISSION.—The absence was with permission of the head of the school; or

(2) WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE OR UNABLE TO CONTROL.—The absence was without the parent's knowledge, consent, or connivance; or that he or she has made a bona fide and diligent effort to control and keep the child in school and that he or she is unable to do so; in which cases the child shall be dealt with as a dependent child; or

(3) FINANCIAL INABILITY.—That he or she was unable financially to provide necessary clothes for the child, which inability was reported in writing to the superintendent prior to the opening of school or immediately after the beginning of such inability; provided, that the validity of any claim for exemption under this subsection shall be determined by the superintendent subject to appeal to the school board; or

(4) SICKNESS, INJURY, OR OTHER INSURMOUNTABLE CONDITION.—That attendance was impracticable or inadvisable on account of sickness or injury, attested to by a written statement of a licensed practicing physician, or was impracticable because of some other stated insurmountable condition as defined by regulations of the state board; or

(5) DISTANCE EXEMPTION.—That attendance was impossible because of the distance of the home of the child from the nearest school and the lack of transportation at public expense, as set forth in s. 232.06.

232.10 Absence must be explained.—Whenever a child of compulsory school attendance age is absent without the permission of the person in charge of the school, the parent of the child shall, as soon as practicable after learning of the absence, report and explain the cause of such absence to the teacher or principal of the school. If the parent of the child knows of the absence, failure to make such report and explanation shall be prima facie evidence of the child's being absent with the consent or connivance of the parent.

History.—s. 610, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(181).

232.13 Exceptional children; reports to superintendents.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall direct its field workers to review their case records on or before March 31 of each year and to report to the superintendent of each district the names and other pertinent information for all exceptional children in the district whose conditions, in their opinion, require special educational services.

Note.—Former s. 232.38.

232.16 Superintendent responsible for enforcement.—The superintendent shall be responsible for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. In a district in which no attendance assistant is employed, the superintendent shall have those duties and responsibilities and exercise those powers assigned by law to attendance assistants.

History.—s. 616, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(187); s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 99, ch. 72-221.

232.17 Attendance assistants; qualifications; compensation; duties.—Provisions for the employment, qualifications, compensation, and duties of attendance assistants shall be as follows:

(1) EMPLOYMENT AND QUALIFICATIONS OF ATTENDANCE ASSISTANTS.—The school board, upon the recommendation of the superintendent, may employ and fix the compensation, including reimbursement for travel, of a sufficient number of qualified attendance assistants to guarantee regular attendance at school of all children of the district within compulsory school age requirements who are not herein exempted from attendance.

(2) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ATTENDANCE ASSISTANTS.—The duties and responsibilities of the attendance assistant shall be exercised under the direction of the superintendent and shall be as follows:

(a) Maintain records.—Pupil accounting records, unless maintained by others assigned by the superintendent, shall be kept by attendance assistants. These records shall be on forms approved pursuant to regulations of the state board.

(b) Investigate nonenrollment and unexcused absences.—In accordance with procedure established by the state board, attendance assistants shall investigate cases of nonenrollment and unexcused absences from school of all children within the compulsory school age.

(c) Give written notice.—Under the direction of the superintendent the attendance assistant shall give written notice, either in person or by registered mail, to the parent when no valid reason is found for a child's nonenrollment or absence from school, requiring enrollment or attendance within 3 days from the date of notice. If such notice and requirement should be ignored the attendance assistant shall report the case to the superintendent, and that official as hereinafter provided shall take such steps as are necessary to bring criminal prosecution against the parent, guardian, or other person having control.

(d) Return child to parent.—The attendance assistant shall visit the home or place of residence of a child and any other place in which he is likely to find any child who is required to attend school when such child is absent from school during school hours, and, when such child shall have been found, shall return him to his parent or to the principal or teacher in charge of the school, or to the private tutor from whom absent.

(e) Visit home.—The attendance assistant shall visit promptly the home of each child of school age in his attendance district not in attendance upon the school, and of any child who should attend the Florida State School for the Deaf and the Blind, and who is reported as not enrolled in that school or as absent without excuse. If no valid reason is found for such nonenrollment or absence from such school or schools he shall give written notice to the parent, requiring the child's enrollment or attendance as prescribed above. He shall secure the written approval of the president of the Florida State School for the Deaf and the Blind before he directs or requests the parents of any child to take or send such child to that school. Ten days' notice must be given in the case of a child who is ordered sent to that school. On refusal or failure of the parent to meet such requirement, the attendance assistant shall report the same to the superintendent, and that official shall proceed to take such action as is prescribed in s. 232.19(2).

(f) Report to the Division of Labor.—The attendance assistant shall report to the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security or to any person acting in similar capacity who may be designated by law to receive such notices, all violations of the Child Labor Law that may come to his knowledge.

(g) Right to inspect.—The attendance assistant shall have the same right of access to, and inspection of, establishments where minors may be employed or detained as is given by law to the Division of Labor only for the purpose of ascertaining:

1. Whether children of compulsory school age holding employment certificates for work in that establishment are actually employed there and are actually working there regularly;

2. Whether children of compulsory school age without employment certificates are employed in the establishment;

3. Whether the nature of the work being done by the child is substantially the same as that described by the employer in the statement required to be made by him in s. 232.07(3).

The attendance assistant shall, if he finds unsatisfactory working conditions or violations of the Child Labor Law, report his findings to the Division of Labor or its agents. The superintendent may, on recommendations based on such inspection by the attendance assistant, cancel the employment certificate of any child employed or supposed to be employed in that establishment.

(h) Record of visits.—The attendance assistant shall keep an accurate record of all children returned to schools or homes, of all cases prosecuted, and of all other service performed. A written report of all such activities shall be made monthly to the school board and shall be filed in the office of the superintendent.

(2) NONENROLLMENT AND NONATTENDANCE CASES.—In each case of nonenrollment or of nonattendance upon the part of a child who is required to attend some school, when no valid reason for such nonenrollment or nonattendance is found, the superintendent shall institute a criminal prosecution against the child's parent.

(3) HABITUAL TRUANCY CASES.—In case a child becomes an habitual truant, the attendance assistant shall file with the Circuit Court a complaint alleging the facts, and the child shall be dealt with as a dependent child according to the provisions of chapter 39.

(4) ATTENDANCE REGISTER AS EVIDENCE.—The register of attendance of pupils at a public, parochial, denominational, or private school, or of pupils taught by a private tutor, kept in compliance with rules and regulations of the state board, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts which it is required to show. A certified copy of any rule or regulation and a statement of the date of its adoption and promulgation by the state board shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the provisions of such rule or regulation and of the date of its adoption or promulgation.

232.245 Pupil progression.—

(1) By July 1, 1977, each district school board shall establish a comprehensive program for pupil progression which shall be based upon an evaluation of each pupil's performance, including how well he masters the minimum performance standards approved by the state board.

(2) The district program for pupil progression shall be based upon local goals and objectives which are compatible with the state's plan for education and which supplement the minimum performance standards approved by the State Board of Education. Particular emphasis, however, shall be placed upon the pupil's mastery of the basic skills, especially reading, before he is promoted from the 3rd, 5th, 8th, and 11th grades. Other pertinent factors considered by the teacher before recommending that a pupil progress from one grade to another shall be prescribed by the district school board in its rules.

232.246 General requirements for high school graduation.—

(1) Beginning with the 1978-1979 school year, each district school board shall establish standards for graduation from its schools which shall include as a minimum:

(a) Mastery of the minimum performance standards in reading, writing, and mathematics for the 11th grade, established pursuant to ss. 229.565 and 229.57, determined in the manner prescribed after a public hearing and consideration by the state board;

(b) Demonstrated ability to successfully apply basic skills to everyday life situations as measured by a functional literacy examination developed and administered in a manner prescribed after a public hearing and consideration by the state board; and

(c) Completion of a minimum number of academic credits, and all other applicable requirements prescribed by the district school board pursuant to s. 232.245.

(2) The standards required in subsection (1), and any subsequent modifications thereto, shall be printed in the Florida Administrative Code even though said standards are not defined as rules.

(3) The state board shall, after a public hearing and consideration, make provision for appropriate modification of testing instruments and procedures for students with identified handicaps or disabilities in order to ensure that the results of the testing represent the student's achievement, rather than reflecting the student's impaired sensory, manual, speaking, or psychological process skills, except when such skills are the factors the test purports to measure.

(4) A student who meets all requirements prescribed in subsection (1) shall be awarded a standard diploma in a form prescribed by the state board; provided that a school board may, in lieu of the standard diploma, award differentiated diplomas to those exceeding the prescribed minimums. A student who completes the minimum number of credits and other requirements prescribed by paragraph (1)(c), but who is unable to meet the standards of paragraph (1)(a) or paragraph (1)(b), shall be awarded a certificate of completion in a form prescribed by the state board. However, any student who is otherwise entitled to a certificate of completion may, in the alternative, elect to remain in the secondary school on either a full-time or a part-time basis for up to 1 additional year and receive special instruction designed to remedy his identified deficiencies. This special instruction shall be funded from the district's state compensatory education funds.

(5) The public hearing and consideration required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) and in subsection (3) shall not be construed to amend or nullify the requirements of security relating to the contents of examinations or assessment instruments and related materials or data as prescribed in s. 232.248.

232.247 Special high school graduation requirements for certain exceptional students.—A student who has been properly classified, in accordance with rules established by the state board, as "educable mentally retarded," "trainable mentally retarded," "deaf," "specific learning disabled," or "emotionally handicapped" shall not be required to meet all requirements of s. 232.246 and shall, upon meeting all applicable requirements prescribed by the school board pursuant to s. 232.245, be awarded a special diploma in a form prescribed by the state board; provided, however, that such special graduation requirements prescribed by the school board shall include minimum graduation requirements as prescribed by the state board. Nothing provided in this section, however, shall be construed to limit or restrict the right of an exceptional student solely to a special diploma. Any such student shall, upon proper request, be afforded the opportunity to fully meet all requirements of s. 232.246 through the standard procedures established therein and thereby qualify for a standard diploma upon graduation.

cf.—s. 232.2481 Graduation and promotion requirements for publicly operated schools.

232.248 Confidentiality of assessment instruments.—All examination and assessment instruments, including developmental materials and work papers directly related thereto, which are prepared, prescribed, or administered pursuant to ss. 229.57, 232.245, 232.246, and 232.247 shall be exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07 and from ss. 229.781 and 230.331. Provisions governing access, maintenance, and destruction of such instruments and related materials shall be prescribed by rules of the state board.

232.2481 Graduation and promotion requirements for publicly operated schools.—

(1) Each state or local public agency, including the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the Board of Regents, boards of trustees of community colleges, the Department of Corrections, and the Board of Trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, which agency is authorized to operate educational programs for students at any level of grades kindergarten through 12 shall be subject to all applicable requirements of ss. 232.245, 232.246, 232.247, and 232.248. Within the content of these cited statutes each such state or local public agency shall be considered a "district school board."

(2) The Commissioner of Education shall establish procedures to extend the state-administered assessment program to school programs operated by such state or local public agencies in the same manner and to the same extent as such program is administered in each district school system.

History.—s. 7, ch. 79-213.

232.25 Pupils subject to control of school.—Subject to law and rules and regulations of the state board and of the school board, each pupil enrolled in a school shall, during the time he is being transported to or from school at public expense, during the time he is attending school, and during the time he is on the school premises, be under the control and direction of the principal or teacher in charge of the school, and under the immediate control and direction of the teacher or other member of the instructional staff or of the bus driver to whom such responsibility may be assigned by the principal. However, the state board or the district school board may, by rules and regulations, subject each pupil to the control and direction of the principal or teacher in charge of the school during the time he is otherwise en route to or from school or is presumed by law to be attending school.

History.—s. 625, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(196); s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 1, ch. 71-255.

232.26 Authority of principal.—

(1)(a) Subject to law and to the rules of the state board and the district school board, the principal in charge of the school or his designated representative shall develop policies by which he may delegate to any teacher or other member of the instructional staff or to any bus driver transporting students of the school such responsibility for the control and direction of students as he may consider desirable.

(b) The principal or his designated representative may suspend a student only in accordance with the rules of the district school board, and each suspension shall be reported in writing within 24 hours, with the reasons therefor, to the student's parent or guardian and to the superintendent. A good faith effort shall be made by the principal to employ parental assistance or other alternative measures prior to suspension, except in the case of emergency or disruptive conditions which require immediate suspension. No student who is required by law to attend school shall be suspended for unexcused absence or truancy. The principal or his designated representative may suspend any student transported to or from school at the public expense from the privilege of riding on a school bus, giving notice in writing to the student's parent or guardian and to the superintendent within 24 hours. School personnel shall not be held legally responsible for suspensions of students made in good faith.

(c) The principal or his designated representative may recommend to the superintendent the expulsion of any student who has committed a serious breach of conduct, including, but not limited to, willful disobedience, open defiance of authority of a member of his staff, violence against persons or property, or any other act which substantially disrupts the orderly conduct of the school. Any recommendation of expulsion shall include a detailed report by the principal or his designated representative on the alternative measures taken prior to the recommendation of expulsion.

(d) The principal or his designated representative shall include an analysis of suspensions and expulsions in the annual report of school progress.

(2) Any pupil enrolled as a student who is formally charged with a felony by a proper prosecuting attorney for the unlawful possession or sale of any substance controlled under chapter 893 shall, following an administrative hearing upon notice to the parents or parent or guardian of said pupil provided by the principal of the school pursuant to rules promulgated by the State Board of Education, if such suspension is recommended, be suspended from all classes of instruction until the determination of his guilt by a court of competent jurisdiction. If adjudicated guilty of a felony, the pupil shall be automatically expelled. Any pupil subject to discipline or expulsion for unlawful possession or use of any substance controlled under chapter 893 may be entitled to a waiver of the discipline or expulsion if he divulges information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who supplied such controlled substance to him, or if he voluntarily discloses his unlawful possession of such controlled substance prior to his arrest. Any information divulged which leads to such arrest and conviction shall not be admissible in evidence in a subsequent criminal trial against the pupil divulging such information.

(3) Any pupil subject to discipline or expulsion for unlawful possession or use of any substance controlled under chapter 893 may receive a waiver of the discipline or expulsion if the pupil commits himself, or is referred by the court in lieu of sentence, to a state-licensed drug abuse program and successfully completes the program.

232.27 Authority of teacher.—Subject to law and to the rules of the district school board, each teacher or other member of the staff of any school shall have such authority for the control and discipline of students as may be assigned to him by the principal or his designated representative and shall keep good order in the classroom and in other places in which he is assigned to be in charge of students. If a teacher feels that corporal punishment is necessary, at least the following procedures shall be followed:

(1) The use of corporal punishment shall be approved in principle by the principal before it is used, but approval is not necessary for each specific instance in which it is used. The principal shall prepare guidelines for administering such punishment which identify the types of punishable offenses, the conditions under which the punishment shall be administered, and the specific personnel on the school staff authorized to administer the punishment.

(2) A teacher or principal may administer corporal punishment only in the presence of another adult who is informed beforehand, and in the student's presence, of the reason for the punishment.

(3) A teacher or principal who has administered punishment shall, upon request, provide the pupil's parent or guardian with a written explanation of the reason for the punishment and the name of the other adult who was present.

232.275 Liability of teacher or principal.—Except in the case of excessive force or cruel and unusual punishment, a teacher or other member of the instructional staff, a principal or his designated representative, or a bus driver shall not be civilly or criminally liable for any action carried out in conformity with the state board and district school board rules regarding the control, discipline, suspension, and expulsion of students.

History.—s. 6, ch. 76-236.

232.28 Authority of school bus drivers.—

(1) The principal shall delegate to the school bus driver such authority as may be necessary for the control of pupils being transported to and from school, or school functions, at public expense.

(2) Any pupil who persists in disorderly conduct on a school bus shall be reported to the principal by the driver of the bus and may be suspended by the principal of the school he attends from being transported to and from school, and school functions, at public expense.

(3) The school bus driver shall preserve order and good behavior on the part of all pupils being transported but he shall not suspend the transportation of or give physical punishment to any pupil, or put any pupil off the bus at other than the regular stop for that pupil, except by order of the parent or the principal in charge of the school the pupil attends; provided, that should an emergency develop due to the conduct of pupils on the bus, the bus driver may take such steps as are reasonably necessary to protect the pupils on his bus.

232.36 Sanitation of schools; state regulations.—The State Board of Education and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall jointly adopt and promulgate all needful rules and regulations having to do with sanitation of school buildings, grounds, shops, cafeterias, toilets, school buses, laboratories, rest rooms, first aid rooms, and all rooms or places in which pupils congregate in pursuit of the school duties or activities and the school board shall see that such rules and regulations are enforced. Additional rules and regulations not in conflict with state rules and regulations may be adopted by the school board and enforced through the superintendent.

(2) A secret society shall be interpreted to be a fraternity, sorority, or other organization whose active membership is comprised wholly or partly of pupils enrolled in the public schools of the state and which perpetuates itself wholly or partly by taking in additional members from the pupils enrolled in public schools on the basis of the decision of its membership rather than on the right of any pupil who is qualified by the rules of the school to be a member of and take part in any class or group exercise designated and classified according to sex, subjects included in the course of study, or program of school activities fostered and promoted by the school board and superintendent or by principals of the schools.

(3) This section shall not be construed to prevent the establishment of an organization fostered and promoted by the school authorities, or which is first approved and accepted by the school authorities, and whose membership is selected on the basis of good character, good scholarship, leadership ability and achievement. Full information regarding the charter, principles, purposes, and conduct of any such accepted organization shall always be available to all students and instructional personnel of any school where same may be organized.

A district school board, school athletic association, or school of the state may add a surcharge to the fee charged for admission to athletic events as a means of producing revenue to purchase such insurance or to provide self-insurance. 233.055 Remedial reading education plan.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This section shall be known and may be cited as "The Florida Remedial Reading Education Act of 1971."

(2) COMMISSIONER'S PLANNING BUDGET.—The Commissioner of Education shall develop and transmit at least 30 days prior to the 1972 regular session of the Legislature, to members of the State Board of Education, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the chairmen of the Senate and House committees on education a detailed plan for implementing a remedial reading program. The plan shall include provisions for maximum participation by the school districts and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in the development of remedial reading programs. The plan shall be in detail for the 1972-1973 fiscal year, and the funds for projects for 1972-1973 shall be included in the legislative budget of the state board submitted to the Governor as chief budget officer of the state for the 1972-1973 fiscal year.

(3) REMEDIAL READING PROGRAM.—

(a) In the event that funds for projects are included in the 1972-1973 budgets, the State Board of Education shall adopt policies and regulations by which each school board and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may apply to the Department of Education for funds to be used in a remedial reading program. The application shall contain a comprehensive plan for the use of such funds, which shall:

1. Include pretesting and post-testing of reading level and ability;
2. Describe what programs, teaching methods, or techniques will be used, such as programmed tutoring, individualized instruction, or any other method of demonstrated success;
3. Provide for control groups at each level to enable a measurement of the effectiveness of the remedial programs; and

4. Demonstrate that the school board has fully utilized all other sources of revenue and the assistance of all volunteer aid offered by individuals and public and private organizations and has effectively coordinated same.

(b) Priority funding will be given to those programs which:

1. Offer the greatest likelihood of remedying the difference between current reading level and chronological age average attainment;

2. Serve the largest number of pupils; and

3. Utilize to the maximum other sources of funds.

(4) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDED.—Upon the request of any school board, the department shall provide such technical assistance to the school board as is necessary to develop and submit a plan for a remedial reading program. The department may use its own staff or such consultants as may be necessary to accomplish this purpose.

(5) COMMISSIONER'S REPORT.—The Commissioner of Education shall transmit to members of the State Board of Education, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the chairmen of the House and Senate committees on public school education an appraisal of the funded programs as to effectiveness, efficiency, and utilization of resources. This appraisal shall include an evaluation of current reading ability in the public schools and the change made in status during the past year.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 71-273; s. 42, ch. 77-147.

233.056 Instructional programs for visually handicapped and hearing-impaired students.—

(1) The Division of Public Schools of the Department of Education is authorized to establish a coordinating unit and instructional materials center for visually handicapped and hearing-impaired children and youth to provide staff and resources for the coordination, cataloging, standardizing, producing, procuring, storing, and distributing of braille, large print, tangible apparatus, captioned films and video tapes, and other specialized educational materials needed by these students and other exceptional students. The coordinating unit shall have as its major purpose the improvement of instructional programs for visually handicapped and hearing-impaired students and may, as a second priority, extend appropriate services to other exceptional students, consistent with provisions and criteria established, to the extent that resources are available.

(2) The unit shall be operated either directly by the Division of Public Schools or through a contractual agreement with a local education agency, under rules adopted by the State Board of Education.

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The Legislature recognizes that reading is one of the communication skills which facilitates learning in all areas of the curriculum. It further recognizes the need for coordination of reading programs in public schools. In order to make this possible, the Legislature intends to authorize the employment of reading resource specialists.

(2) READING RESOURCE SPECIALISTS.—A person is eligible to serve as a reading resource specialist if:

(a) He has met the specialization requirement for certification in reading as provided by rule of the State Board of Education;

(b) He has had a minimum of 3 years' teaching experience; and

(c) In the judgment of the district school board, he possesses the qualifications and necessary experience to serve in such capacity.

Nothing herein shall prevent the appointment of such persons to serve in a dual capacity.

3. Evaluations by district instructional materials councils, professional associations, and individuals shall be submitted in such form and manner as shall be prescribed by the state council. Each instructional material shall be ranked numerically as to its choice in relation to all other materials of the same type evaluated, and no two textbooks in the same subject area may receive the same numerical rating.

4. District instructional materials councils, professional associations, and individuals who evaluate instructional materials and submit their findings and recommendations to the state council shall do so in accordance with the guidelines provided in subsection (4).

(4) EVALUATION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS.—To evaluate carefully all instructional materials submitted, to ascertain which instructional materials, if any, submitted for consideration best implement the curricular objectives of the schools of the state. The state instructional materials councils shall be prohibited from conducting their assigned duties until such written statements are on file with the Commissioner of Education.

weighted in accordance with the full-time equivalent student percentage of each district. No instructional materials shall be evaluated or recommended for adoption unless each of the district councils shall have been loaned the specified number of samples.

(g) In addition to relying on statements of publishers or manufacturers of instructional material, any council may conduct, or cause to be conducted, an independent investigation as to the compliance of submitted materials with the requirements of this section.

(h) In the event that, after good faith acquisition of instructional materials by a district school board the instructional materials are found to be not in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, and the school board is unable to acquire other instructional materials which meet the requirements of this subsection in time for them to be used as intended, the school board may use the acquired materials, but only for that academic year.

Such discussions shall be limited to official meetings of the council and in accordance

When all bids or proposals have been carefully considered, the department shall, from the list of suitable, usable, and desirable instructional materials reported by the state instructional materials council, select and adopt instructional materials for each grade and subject field in the curriculum of public elementary and secondary schools in the state in which adoptions are made and in the subject areas designated in the advertisement, which adoption shall continue for the period specified in the advertisement, to begin on the ensuing April 1. Such adoption shall not prevent the extension of a contract as provided in subsection (2). The department shall always reserve to itself the right to reject any and all bids or proposals if it is of the opinion that any or all bids, for any reason, should be rejected. The department may ask for new sealed bids from publishers or manufacturers whose instructional materials were recommended by the state instructional materials council as suitable, usable, and desirable; specify the dates for filing such bids and the date on which they shall be opened; and proceed in all matters regarding the opening of bids and the awarding of contracts as required by the terms and provisions of this chapter. In all cases, bids or proposals shall be accompanied by a cash deposit or certified check of from $500 to $2,500, as the department may direct. Any publisher or manufacturer to whom any contract shall be let under the provisions of this chapter shall be required to give bond in such amount as the department shall deem advisable, payable to the state, conditioned for the faithful, honest, and exact performance of the contract. The bond shall further provide for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees in case of recovery in any suit upon the same. The surety on the bond shall be a guaranty or surety company authorized by the laws of the state to do business in the state; however, the bond shall not be exhausted by a single recovery but may be sued upon from time to time until the full amount thereof shall be recovered, and the department may at any time, after giving 30 days' notice, require additional security or additional bond. The form of any bond or bonds or contract or contracts under the provisions of this chapter shall be prepared and approved by the Department of Legal Affairs.

(3) REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE CONTRACT.—The Department of Education may, from time to time, make any necessary regulations, not contrary to the provisions of this chapter, to secure the prompt and faithful performance of all contracts, and it is expressly provided that, should any contractor fail or refuse to furnish instructional materials as provided in this chapter or otherwise break his contract, the department may sue on the bond hereinbefore required in the name of the state, in the courts of the state having jurisdiction, and recover damages on the bond given by the contractor for failure to furnish instructional materials, the sum recovered to inure to the state general revenue fund.

Upon receipt of such notice, the State Comptroller shall issue warrants against the textbook bid trust fund payable to the unsuccessful bidders in the amounts deposited under the provisions of s. 233.15 and forward such warrants to the department for distribution to the unsuccessful bidders.

(c) One copy of each contract and an original of each bid, whether accepted or rejected, shall be preserved in the office of the Department of Education for at least 5 years beyond the termination of the contract.

 - (b) Written proof of the use of the learner-verification and revision process during prepublication development and postpublication revision of the materials in question. For purposes of this section "learner verification" is defined as the empirical process of data gathering and analysis by which a publisher of curriculum material has improved the instructional effectiveness of that product before it reaches the market and then continues to gather data from learners in order to improve the quality and reliability of that material during its full market life. Failing such proof, if the publisher wishes to submit material for adoption, he must satisfy the state instructional materials selection council that he will systematically gather and utilize learner-verification data to revise the materials in question to better meet the needs of learners throughout the state. Such text revision should be interpreted as including specific revision of the materials themselves, revision of the teachers' materials, and revision of the teachers' skill through retraining, it being the intent of the legislature that learner-verification and revision data shall include data gathered directly from learners; may include the results of criterion-referenced and group-normed tests, direct learner comments, or information gathered from written questionnaires from individual or small group interviews; and not preclude the use of secondary data gathered from teachers, supervisors, parents, and all appropriate participants and observers of the teaching-learning process.

(6) Reduce automatically the price of said instructional materials to any governing board to the extent that reductions are made elsewhere in the United States.

(7) Provide any instructional materials free of charge in the state to the same extent as that received by any state or school district in the United States.

(8) Guarantee that all copies of any instructional materials sold in Florida shall be at least equal in quality to the copies of such instructional materials that are sold elsewhere in the United States and shall be kept revised, free from all errors, and up-to-date as may be required by the state board.

(9) Agree that any supplementary material developed at the district or state level does not violate the author's or publisher's copyright, provided such material is developed in accordance with the doctrine of fair use.

(10) Not in any way, directly or indirectly, become associated or connected with any combination in restraint of trade in instructional materials or enter into any understanding, agreement, or combination to control prices or restrict competition in the sale of instructional materials for use in the state.

(11) Maintain, or contract with, a depository in the state and maintain there an inventory sufficient to receive and fill orders for instructional materials.

(12) Grant, without prior written request, for any copyright held by the publisher or its agencies automatic permission to the Department of Education or its agencies for the reproduction of textbooks and supplementary materials in Braille or large print or in the form of sound recordings, for use by visually handicapped students.

(13) Upon the willful failure of the publisher or manufacturer to comply with the requirements of this section, be liable to the state board in the amount of three times the total sum which the publisher or manufacturer was paid in excess of the price required under subsections (5) and (6) and in the amount of three times the total value of the instructional materials and services which the district board is entitled to receive free of charge under subsection (7).

233.255 Production and dissemination of educational materials and products by department.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that when educational materials and products are developed by or under the direction of the Department of Education, through research and development or other efforts, including those subject to copyright, patent, or trademark, they shall be made available for use by teachers, students, administrators, and other appropriate persons in the state system of education at the earliest practicable date and in the most economical and efficient manner possible.

(2) To accomplish this objective the department is authorized to publish, produce, or have produced educational materials and products and to make them readily available for appropriate use in the state system of education. The department is authorized to charge an amount adequate to cover the essential cost of producing and disseminating such materials and products in the state system of education and is authorized to sell copies for educational use to nonpublic schools in the state and to the public.

(3) All proceeds from the sale of such educational materials and products shall be remitted to the Treasurer and shall be kept in a separate fund to be known as the "Educational Media and Technology Trust Fund" and, when properly budgeted as approved by the Legislature and the Executive Office of the Governor, used to pay the cost of producing and disseminating educational materials and products to carry out the intent of this act.

(4) In cases in which the materials or products are of such nature, or the circumstances are such, that it is not practicable or feasible for the department to produce or have produced materials and products so developed, it is authorized, after review and approval by the Department of State, to license, lease, assign, sell, or otherwise give written consent to any person, firm or corporation for the manufacture or use thereof, on a royalty basis, or for such other consideration as the department shall deem proper and in the best interest of the state; the department is authorized and directed to protect same against improper or unlawful use or infringement and to enforce the collection of any sums due for the manufacture or use thereof by any other party.

(5) Nothing herein stated shall be construed to allow the Department of Education to enter into the business of producing or publishing textbooks, or the contents therein, for general use in classrooms.

233.30 School board cooperative libraries.—Each school board may, at its discretion, make contracts or agreements with county or community groups or organizations for a cooperative program or programs of library establishment, maintenance, and use, and all such contracts or agreements with county or community groups or organizations shall provide that such cooperative school and county or school and community libraries shall be established on public school property and shall continue under the supervision and control of such school board; and such part of the costs therefor as may, by contract or agreement, be properly chargeable to such school board shall be defrayed out of available district general school funds or, under limitations prescribed by law, other funds which may be or may become available for such purposes.

233.33 Announcement of adoption of instructional materials.—The Department of Education, as soon as practicable after it has adopted instructional materials and completed all contracts and approved bonds for the faithful performance of contracts for furnishing or supplying instructional materials for use in the public schools of the state, shall issue a statement announcing such fact to the people of the state.

233.34 Use of instructional materials allocation; instructional and instructional-related materials, library, and reference books.—

(1) On or before July 1 each year, the commissioner shall certify to the superintendent of each district the estimated allocation of state funds for instructional materials, computed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 236 for the ensuing fiscal year.

(2) Each school district shall use the annual allocation for the purchase of instructional materials included on the state-adopted list. However, up to 50 percent of the annual allocation may be used for the purchase of instructional materials, including library and reference books, not included on the state-adopted list and for the repair and renovation of textbooks and library books.

(3) Each district school board shall adopt policies, and each superintendent shall implement procedures, that will assure the maximum use by the students of the materials herein authorized.

(4) District school boards are authorized to issue purchase orders subsequent to May 1 in an aggregate amount not to exceed 90 percent of the current year's allocation, for the purpose of expediting the delivery of instructional materials which are to be paid for from the ensuing year's allocation.

(5) In any year in which the total allocation for a district has not been expended or obligated prior to June 30, the district shall carry forward such unobligated amount and shall add this amount to the next year's allocation.

History.—s. 734, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(246); s. 17, ch. 59-282; s. 5, ch. 65-420; ss. 15, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 1, ch. 71-62; s. 1, ch. 73-337; ss. 39, 40, ch. 73-338; s. 13, ch. 74-337; s. 2, ch. 78-405.

233.37 Schools to continue to use instructional materials until unserviceable.—When a change of instructional materials has been made for any subject, each superintendent shall designate which schools of his district shall use the old instructional materials which he has on hand or in the schools of his district, and all such instructional materials shall continue to be used until they are in such physical condition as to make them unsuitable for further use or until the content is obsolete. The superintendent shall not requisition copies of newly adopted instructional materials for those pupils for whom copies of old instructional materials are available. Under rules and regulations of the state board, the district school board may dispose of the instructional materials of the old adoption when they have become unserviceable, upon such terms and conditions as shall yield their fair salvage value.

233.38 Exchange of textbooks.—To effectuate economical and expeditious distribution of textbooks to the several districts of the state for use in the public schools, the Department of Education is directed to arrange for exchange of books among the several districts in accordance with their respective needs, and to that end, the superintendents in the several districts shall, upon direction from the department, crate and ship such books as shall be designated to such districts in the state as the department may determine, and the department may, when it deems advisable, direct surplus books in any district to be shipped to some central point to be designated by it to be held or distributed as the need therefor shall arise.

233.39 Renovation and repair of textbooks.—The Board of Education shall prescribe rules and regulations under which the Department of Education shall, whenever requested to do so by any superintendent, make necessary arrangements for the renovation and repair of books which could thereby be put into serviceable condition. All proper expense in connection with such renovation and repair is declared to be a proper charge against the appropriation for the purchase of instructional materials by the school district. The state board, in order to assist district school boards in obtaining the most economical services, shall formulate and prescribe such rules and regulations for the letting of contracts for the renovation and repair of books used in the public schools of the state as in its judgment may be practicable and economically feasible. The Department of Education shall enter into such contracts upon the basis of competitive bids from responsible firms who must, prior to contract award, have on hand in their plants the equipment necessary to perform the work of rebinding specified by the department. For the purpose of rebinding, textbooks shall be classified by the department as to size, and such classification shall be the basis for bids from rebinding firms. Bids from rebinding firms shall be on the basis of minimum quantities of 100 books in each classification. No such contract shall be entered for the renovation and repair of books used in the public schools of this state when the cost of renovation and repair exceeds the original acquisition cost of such books or the cost of replacing such books, whichever is the lesser. However, nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the inmates of the state prison from repairing and renovating any public school textbooks or library books. Any suit of any nature instituted under the provisions of this section shall be brought in the name of the state, and any amount recovered by reason of such suit shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

233.45 Penalty for school officers dealing in textbooks.—No superintendent, school board member, or any person officially connected with the government of or direction of public schools, or teacher thereof, shall receive during the months actually engaged in performing duties under his contract any private fee, gratuity, donation, or compensation, in any manner whatsoever, for promoting the sale or exchange of any schoolbook, map, or chart in any public school, or be an agent for the sale, or the publisher of any school textbook or reference work, or be directly or indirectly pecuniarily interested in the introduction of any such textbook, and any such agency or interest shall disqualify any person so acting or interested from holding any school office whatsoever, and the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, that this section not be construed as preventing the adoption of any book written in whole or in part by a Florida author.

(1) MONEY COLLECTED FOR LOST OR DAMAGED BOOKS.—It shall be the duty and responsibility of each principal to collect from each pupil or his parent the purchase price of any instructional material the pupil has lost, destroyed, or unnecessarily damaged and to report and transmit such amounts so collected to the superintendent. If such material so lost, destroyed, or damaged has been in school use for more than 1 year, a sum ranging between 50 and 75 percent of the purchase price of the book shall be collected. Such sum shall be determined by the physical condition of the book.

(2) SALE OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS.—The principal, when requested by the parent of a pupil in the school where he is employed, shall sell to such parent any instructional materials used in the school. All such sales shall be made under regulations prescribed by the school board.

TRANSPORTATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

- 234.01 Purpose.
- 234.02 Safety and health of pupils.
- 234.03 Tort liability; liability insurance.
- 234.041 School buses; unlawful to simulate color or use secondhand buses without effecting certain changes.
- 234.051 School buses.
- 234.061 Designation of routes and nontransportation zones.
- 234.071 Survey required.
- 234.091 General qualifications.
- 234.101 Specific requirements.
- 234.111 School buses to stop at crossings.
- 234.112 School bus stops.
- 234.211 Use of school buses for public purposes.

234.01 Purpose.—School boards, after considering recommendations of the superintendent, shall provide transportation for each pupil who should attend a public school when, and only when, transportation is necessary to provide adequate educational facilities and opportunities which otherwise would not be available and to transport pupils whose homes are more than a reasonable walking distance, as defined by regulations of the state board, from the nearest appropriate school. No state funds shall be paid for the transportation of pupils whose homes are within 2 miles from the nearest appropriate school. In each case in which transportation of pupils in the opinion of the school board is impracticable, the school board is authorized to take steps for making available educational facilities as are authorized by law and as, in the opinion of the school board, are practical.

History.—s. 801, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(260); s. 8, ch. 29754, 1955; s. 94, ch. 65-239; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 11, ch. 71-164; s. 106, ch. 72-221.

234.02 Safety and health of pupils.—Maximum regard for safety and adequate protection of health shall be primary requirements which shall be observed by school boards in routing buses, appointing drivers, and providing and operating equipment, in accordance with all requirements of law and regulations of the state board.

(1) Each school board shall designate and adopt a specific plan for adequate examination, maintenance, and repair of transportation equipment. Examination of the mechanical condition of each school bus shall be made by a capable mechanic at least once each month that the bus is in operation.

(2) The superintendent shall notify the school board of any school bus which does not meet all requirements of law and regulations of the state board, and the school board shall, if such school bus is in an unsafe condition, withdraw it from use as a school bus until the bus meets said requirements. The Department of Education may inspect or have inspected any school bus to determine whether the bus meets requirements of law and regulations of the state board. The department may, after due notice to a school board that any school bus does not meet certain requirements of law and regulations of the state board, rule that such bus shall be withdrawn from use as a school bus, this ruling to be effective forthwith or upon a date to be specified therein, whereupon the school board shall withdraw same from use as a school bus until the bus meets requirements of law and regulations of the state board and until the department has officially revoked its said ruling. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, general purpose urban transit systems are declared qualified to transport children to and from school.

(3) The routing and scheduling of school buses shall be planned in such a manner as to eliminate, whenever reasonably possible, the necessity for children to stand while a school bus is in motion. When circumstances of an emergency nature temporarily necessitate transporting children while standing in school buses, such buses shall proceed at such a reduced rate of speed as shall maximize safety of the students, taking into account existing traffic conditions. Each school board is responsible for prompt relief of the emergency condition by providing additional equipment, bus rerouting, bus rescheduling, or other appropriate remedial action. Under no circumstances shall children be permitted to stand in a number exceeding one child per handhold, excluding the rear two handholds.

234.03 Tort liability; liability insurance.—

(1) Each district school board shall be liable for tort claims arising out of any incident or occurrence involving a school bus or other motor vehicle owned, maintained, operated, or used by such school board to transport persons, to the same extent and in the same manner as the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions is liable for tort claims under s. 768.28, except that the total liability to persons being transported for all claims or judgments of such persons arising out of the same incident or occurrence shall not exceed an amount equal to $5,000 multiplied by the rated seating capacity of the bus or other vehicle, as determined by rules of the State Board of Education, or $100,000, whichever is greater. The provisions of s. 768.28 shall apply to all claims or actions brought against school boards, as authorized in this subsection.

(2) Each school board may secure and keep in force a medical payments plan or medical payments insurance on school buses and other vehicles. If a medical payments plan or insurance is provided, it shall be carried in a sum of no less than $500 per person.

(3) Expenses, costs, or premiums to protect against liability for torts as provided in this section may be paid from any available funds of the school board.

(4) If vehicles used in transportation are not owned by the school board, such school board is authorized to require owners of such vehicles to show evidence of adequate insurance during the time that such vehicles are in the services of the school board.

(5) This section does not apply to causes of action accruing before October 1, 1978.

234.041 School buses; unlawful to simulate color or use secondhand buses without effecting certain changes.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person, except a governmental unit or agency operating as provided by law, to use on the public highways of the state any bus of an orange or yellow color known as school bus chrome, or any color purporting to resemble the color of a school bus, when said vehicle has ceased to be so used, or is used for the transportation of passengers other than school pupils, unless and until said bus has been changed from said colors to some other color by repainting and unless and until all signs and insignia which mark or designate it as a school bus have been removed therefrom. However, in school districts contracting for buses from an outside source or in school districts operating specially designed or equipped buses for the transporting of the handicapped, those buses may be used on a temporary or irregular basis to transport persons other than students within the county with the express consent of the school board.

(2) Any person violating any provision hereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

234.051 School buses.—School buses shall be defined and meet specifications as follows:

(1) DEFINITION.—For the purpose of the school code, a "school bus" is defined as a motor vehicle regularly used for the transportation of pupils of the public schools to and from school or to and from school activities, and owned, operated, rented, or leased by any school board, excepting:

(a) Motor vehicles of the type commonly called pleasure cars and carrying eight pupils or less; and

(b) Motor vehicles subject to, and meeting all requirements of, the Public Service Commission and operated by carriers operating under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission, but not used exclusively for the transportation of public school pupils.

(2) SPECIFICATIONS.—Each school bus with a total seating space of more than 10 lineal feet which is rented, leased, purchased, or contracted for purchase, and each school bus with a total seating space of more than 10 lineal feet shall meet the specifications as prescribed by regulations of the state board.

(3) STANDARDS FOR LEASED VEHICLES.—A motor vehicle owned and operated by a county or municipal transit authority which is leased by the school board of the local school district for transportation of public school students shall meet such standards as shall be established by the State Board of Education for the purpose of implementing this act. A school bus authorized by a school board to carry passengers other than school pupils shall have the words "School Bus" and any other signs and insignia which mark or designate it as a school bus covered, removed, or otherwise concealed while said passengers are being transported.

Nontransportation zones shall be designated annually prior to the opening of school and the designation of bus routes for the succeeding school year. Each school board, after considering recommendations from the superintendent, shall specifically designate the route to be traveled regularly by each school bus, and each route shall meet the requirements prescribed by regulations of the state board.

History.—s. 106, ch. 72-221.

234.071 Survey required.—Each school board shall arrange, at intervals of not more than 10 years or as provided by regulations of the state board, for a survey of school transportation routes. The report based on the survey shall show the location of all schools, the location of transported pupils, the bus routes, and such other information as may be required by regulations of the state board. The school board may request assistance of the Department of Education in carrying out the survey or may utilize such other agency as may be approved under regulations of the state board. The survey report shall be filed with the superintendent, and a copy of such survey report with supporting maps shall be filed with the Department of Education within 60 days thereafter. Within 90 days following the filing of the survey report with the department, the superintendent shall provide the department with a plan for putting the recommendations of the survey into effect. This plan may include justifiable alternatives to those recommendations contained in the survey report.

History.—s. 106, ch. 72-221.

Each such agreement shall provide for reimbursement of the school district, in full or in part, for the proportionate share of fixed and operating costs incurred by the school district attributable to the use of such buses pursuant to such agreement.

(2) The governing body or state agency or agencies established or identified pursuant to Pub. L. No. 89-73 shall indemnify and hold harmless the school district from any and all liability of the school district by virtue of the use of such buses pursuant to an agreement authorized by this section. Corporations not for profit, established or identified pursuant to Pub. L. 235.193 Coordination of planning with local governing bodies.—

(1) It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state to require the coordination of planning between the school boards and local governing bodies to ensure that plans for the construction and opening of public educational facilities are coordinated in time and place with plans for residential development and concurrent with other necessary services.

(2) A school board, upon the request of a local governing body within its district, shall submit in writing to the local governing body an official statement clearly showing the capability, or lack thereof, of the existing public school facilities in an area being considered for development, redevelopment, or additional development to absorb additional students without overcrowding such facilities.

(3) If there are no public school facilities in existence in the area of proposed development, the school board is required to provide the local governing body with the projected delivery date of such facilities in that area.

(4) The local governing body is empowered to reject development plans when public school facilities made necessary by the proposed development are not available in the area which is proposed for development or are not planned to be constructed in such area concurrently with the development.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-458.

235.195 Cooperative development and use of facilities by two or more boards.—

(1) Two or more boards, including district school boards, community college boards of trustees, the Board of Trustees for the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, and the Board of Regents, desiring to cooperatively establish a common educational facility to accommodate students shall:

(a) Adopt and submit to the commissioner a joint resolution of the participating boards indicating their commitment to the utilization of the requested facility.

(b) Request the commissioner to have an educational plant survey conducted by the office to determine the need.

(c) Designate the exact location of the educational plant and which board is to assume responsibility for the operation, maintenance, and control of the proposed plant.

(2) The commissioner shall cause the requested educational plant survey to be conducted within 90 days after receiving the joint resolution and substantiating data and shall evaluate the findings of the survey in terms of the benefits to be obtained, the programs to be offered, and the estimated cost of the proposed plant. The commissioner shall then present his evaluation of the request to the State Board of Education and, if his evaluation is in favor of the project, shall request the approval of the state board for the project. Upon approval of the project by the state board, the commissioner shall include each approved project in the annual comprehensive budget for educational facilities, including an estimated cost for completing each project not to exceed 50 percent of the cost of the project after the participating boards have made the necessary commitment to finance the remaining one-half. Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Funds may not be expended on any project unless specifically authorized by the Legislature in the General Appropriations Act; however, the participating boards shall, through cooperative efforts, provide the site for such facility.

(3) The use of modular and relocatable facilities shall be considered, where appropriate, in all facilities established pursuant to this section.

(4) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules necessary to carry out the intent of this section.

235.211 Educational facilities design and construction techniques.—

(1) RELOCATABLE FACILITIES REQUIRED.—Upon the request of a board, the state board shall provide relocatable educational facilities for use at centers where there is an immediate need for student stations or where there is reason to believe the student population will not remain stable in the near future years. The state board shall make recommendations to the boards for the use of relocatables under the circumstances described herein.

(a) The office is empowered and directed to provide systems-based, modular, relocatable facilities and to purchase, or contract for the purchase of, such modular relocatable facilities. The ownership of such facilities shall rest with the state board, and they shall be loaned to boards for use as instructional facilities on a student-station-need basis. Requests for use of these facilities shall be based on the relative numbers of students in excess of capacity. Any amount of the funds earmarked in the general appropriation act for relocatable facilities and not committed for that purpose by March 1 of the fiscal year shall revert to the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund.

(b) In choosing the facility which best meets the needs of the boards, the following factors shall be considered:

1. Portability;
2. Reconstructibility;
3. Demountability;
4. Durability of components;
5. Life span of the total system;
6. Simplicity, standardization, and ease of replacement of components;
7. Flexibility of interior spatial relationships;
8. Flexibility of external configurations;
9. Adaptability to solar energy systems;
10. Minimum foundation work;

11. Interfaceability with existing, conventional construction; and

12. Maximum recoverability of components when the facility is relocated.

(c) As student populations stabilize, and as the need for these facilities for instructional purposes decreases for whatever reason, the office is authorized to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the facilities to the boards, other state agencies, or others, to the best possible advantage of the state. Funds accruing from the sale or lease of these facilities shall become part of the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund.

(d) The office may require that relocatable facilities be provided at educational centers where there is reason to believe that student population is unstable or is projected to decline in future years.

(2) COMMUNITY EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES.—

(a) Each school district, community college, or state university may submit a request to the commissioner for funds from the trust fund to construct community educational facilities. Such request shall contain the following provisions:

1. A detailed statement of the facilities to be constructed. Such statement shall include an analysis of the relationship of educational and community use of the facility.

2. The estimated number of students and community residents who are to utilize the facility.

3. The estimated cost of the facility.

4. A resolution or other appropriate indication of intent to participate in the funding and utilization of the facility from a noneducational governmental agency, including community, public, and educational broadcasting stations. Such indication shall include a commitment by such governmental agency to provide at least one-half of the cost of the facility. Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Funds may not be expended on any project unless specifically authorized by the Legislature in the General Appropriations Act.

(b) As provided by s. 235.41, the commissioner, through the office, shall review such request for allocation and, upon determining compliance with the requirement of paragraph (a) and such other provisions as deemed appropriate, provide the State Board of Education with recommendations for the joint funding of capital outlay projects involving both educational and noneducational governmental agencies from the trust fund.

(3) PROTOTYPE DESIGN CRITERIA TO BE PROVIDED.—The state board shall provide prototype design criteria for the development of educational facilities for the purpose of providing school boards, boards of trustees, and the Board of Regents with the means of constructing sound educational facilities more rapidly.

(a) The office is empowered and directed to develop prototype educational criteria, performance specifications, and design relationships for the several program-grade groups which shall be provided to each school board or board of trustees or the Board of Regents by the office. These prototype design criteria shall be developed and distributed to the appro-appropriate board within 6 months of the effective date of this act.

(b) Program-grade groups are facilities delineated by the programs or grades which they are designed to house. Prototype design criteria shall be developed for the following program-grade groups:

1. Elementary schools and kindergartens;
2. Middle or junior high schools;
3. Senior high schools;
4. Vocational-technical facilities;
5. Community colleges; and
6. Universities.

(c) The design criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following items for each program-grade group:

1. Minimum and maximum square footage requirements for different functions and areas and the procedures for determining the gross square footage for each educational facility to be funded in whole or in part by the state;

2. Minimum performance criteria for all systems, including mechanical, electrical, heating, cooling, ventilating, plumbing, and structural systems, which for the Board of Regents shall be prescribed by the Department of General Services;

3. Energy-efficiency and energy-conservation requirements, which for the Board of Regents shall be prescribed by the Department of General Services;

4. Spatial relationships of the different functions of the plant and facility and traffic flow and patterns; and

5. Prototype design and criteria relating specifically to:

- a. Instructional areas.
- b. Core areas, which include administrative suites, guidance and counseling facilities, record storage areas, first aid facilities, faculty areas, media centers, libraries, and food and student centers.
- c. Special instructional areas, such as exceptional education facilities, language and science laboratories, and physical education facilities.
- d. Ancillary facilities.
- e. Community service areas for initial design and instructional spaces that can be converted to community service areas should the student population decline.

(d) The office shall annually review, revise, update, and improve the state board-approved design criteria, based upon the latest educational, technological, and construction developments so that the prototypes shall be representative of the most advanced procedures available. The office shall annually provide each school board or board of trustees or the Board of Regents with a copy of the updated prototype design criteria for each program-grade group.

(4) LEASING AUTHORIZED.—The office may require or approve the utilization of rented or leased facilities. Facilities may also be acquired by lease-purchase agreement, and any capital outlay funds available are hereby authorized to be expended for such purposes.

(5) CONSTRUCTION TECHNIQUES AND FINANCING MECHANISMS.—Pursuant to state board rules, the office shall require boards to employ procedures for the design and construction of new facilities, or major additions to existing facilities, that will include, but not be limited to, the latest developments in construction, in order to insure that educational facilities are constructed rapidly and economically. The following concepts may be included in the requirements of the office:

(a) Systems building process.—An approach to construction that combines the organization and programming, planning, design, financing, manufacturing, construction, and evaluation of buildings under single or highly coordinated management into an efficient total process. A total building system is an interdependent group of building subsystems forming a unified whole. The systems building process requires the standardization and multiple reuse of building subsystems for maximum compatibility and interfaceability of different structures and facilities.

(b) Fast-track construction scheduling.—A method which involves the bidding and awarding of certain building subsystems after approval of preliminary design, and before final document completion. Fast-track construction reduces construction time by permitting early subsystems manufacture and erection; it can improve cost and price control and eliminate extensive design development time by planners and designers.

(c) Construction management.—A process whereby a single or highly coordinated authority is responsible for all scheduling and coordination in both design and construction phases and is generally responsible for the successful, timely, and economical completion of the construction project.

(d) Turnkey bidding.—A method whereby the contractor agrees to complete construction to the user's specifications and requirements at a previously agreed cost.

(e) Design and build bidding.—A procedure which requires that an architect, contractor, or engineer bid the entire design and construction of a project and which requires that the owner hire a single source for the project completion and be responsible for the development of performance specifications and technical criteria.

(f) The use of modular, prefabricated, and standardized components.

Notwithstanding anything above, a board shall be authorized to utilize its own procedures, designs, construction techniques, and materials upon a showing to the office that such proposal will result in equivalent educational facilities without an increase in cost or a delay in construction.

History.—s. 8, ch. 73-345; s. 8, ch. 74-374; s. 9, ch. 75-292; s. 13, ch. 77-458; s. 2, ch. 78-428.

235.212 New construction; window placement; solar energy systems.—In the design and construction of new permanent educational facilities, a district school board shall consider the placement of adequate windows sufficient to utilize the natural Florida climate for both light and ventilation in case of power shortages. A district school board shall also install solar energy systems in the public schools whenever feasible.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-277.

235.221 High priority facilities construction; use by school districts; conditions and procedures.—

(1) A district school board may request funds to meet urgent construction needs.

(2) Those districts in need of such facilities shall:

(a) Have the facilities recommended in an up-to-date educational plant survey.

(b) Present evidence that existing cash will not provide the resources necessary to construct these facilities.

(c) Adopt an official resolution requesting funding from the trust fund in an amount which shall not exceed 7 times the most recent annual allocation of the school board under provisions s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, as amended, and s. 235.435 and which, when added to the district's current fixed capital outlay funds available, will provide sufficient funds with which to fund the above needs.

(d) Officially waive 80 percent of any future annual allocations from the trust fund until such time that the total amount of the advancement is repaid. However, the office shall calculate each school board's remodeling needs pursuant to s. 235.435, and shall annually waive repayment of the advance funding in an amount equal to that board's remodeling and safety-to-life-correction needs, not to exceed 20 percent of the board's projected annual allocation.

(3) Each board desiring to participate in securing approval for funding as described herein shall submit the required evidence and resolutions to the Office of Educational Facilities Construction.

(4) The State Board of Education shall either approve or disapprove each recommended project within 30 days after receipt of the recommendations from the office. Upon approval by the State Board of Education, the boards having approved projects shall be officially notified of such approval and, upon receipt of such notification, shall be authorized to enter into contract as soon as possible thereafter for the approved facilities.

History.—s. 7, ch. 76-280; s. 69, ch. 77-104; s. 14, ch. 77-458.

235.26 State Uniform Building Code for Public Educational Facilities Construction.—The office is directed to recommend to the state board for approval rules prescribing a mandatory, uniform, statewide building code for the construction of public educational facilities. The office shall recommend and the state board shall adopt, as part of the State Uniform Building Code for public school construction, flood plain management criteria in compliance with the rules and regulations at 24 C.F.R., Parts 1909-1925, established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to 42 U.S.C. ss. 4001-4128. Wherever the words "Uniform Building Code" appear, they shall mean the "State Uniform Building Code for Public Educational Facilities Construction." It shall not be the intent of the Uniform Building Code to inhibit the use of new materials or innovative techniques; nor shall it specify or prohibit materials by brand names. The code shall be flexible enough to cover all phases of construction which will afford reasonable protection for public safety, health, and general welfare. The office may secure the service of other state agencies or such other assistance as it may find desirable in the revision of the code.

(1) UNIFORM BUILDING CODE.—All educational facilities constructed by a board shall incorporate the State Uniform Building Code for Public Educational Facilities Construction and shall be exempt from all state, county, district, municipal, or local building codes, interpretations, building permits and assessments of fees for building permits, and ordinances. Any inspection by local or state government shall be based on the Uniform Building Code as prescribed by the office. Each board shall provide for periodic inspection of the proposed educational plant during each phase of construction to determine compliance with the Uniform Building Code. The Uniform Building Code shall incorporate as part of its minimum standards the applicable provisions of the State Minimum Building Codes.

(2) CONFORMITY TO UNIFORM BUILDING CODE STANDARDS REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL.—A board shall not approve any plans for the construction, erection, renovation, repair, or demolition of any educational facility unless these plans conform to the requirements of the Uniform Building Code. It shall also be the responsibility of the office to develop, as a part of the Uniform Building Code, standards relating to:

(a) Prefabricated or factory-built facilities which are designed to be portable, relocatable, demountable, or reconstructible; are used primarily as classrooms; and do not fall under the provisions of ss. 320.821-320.832.

(b) The sanitation of educational plants and the health of occupants of educational plants.

(c) The safety of occupants of educational plants as provided in s. 235.06.

(d) The physically handicapped.

(e) An energy performance index which shall be a number describing the energy requirements at the building boundary of a facility, per square foot of floor space, under defined internal and external ambient conditions over an annual cycle. As experience develops on the energy performance achieved by the facility, the energy performance index will serve as a measure of building performance with respect to energy consumption and as a guide for the revision of the energy performance index used in the design of future facilities. The energy performance index will consider the energy efficiency of the facility so as to minimize the consumption of energy used in the operation and maintenance of the facility. The office may adopt standards for the energy performance index or portions thereof already established by the Department of General Services under ss. 255.251-255.256.

(f) The performance of life-cycle cost analyses on alternative architectural and engineering designs to evaluate their energy efficiencies.

1. The life-cycle cost analysis shall be the sum of:

a. The reasonably expected fuel costs, over the life of the building, that are required to maintain illumination, water heating, temperature, humidity, ventilation, and all other energy-consuming equipment in a facility; and

b. The reasonable costs of probable maintenance, including labor and materials, and operation of the building.

2. For computation of the life-cycle costs, the office shall develop standards that shall include, but not be limited to:

a. The orientation and integration of the facility with respect to its physical site.

b. The amount and type of glass employed in the facility and the directions of exposure.

c. The effect of insulation incorporated into the facility design and the effect on solar utilization of the properties of external surfaces.

d. The variable occupancy and operating conditions of the facility and subportions of the facility.

e. An energy consumption analysis of the major equipment of the facility's heating, ventilating, and cooling system, lighting system, and hot water system and all other major energy-consuming equipment and systems as appropriate.

3. Such standards shall be based on the best currently available methods of analysis, including such methods as those of the National Bureau of Standards, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and other federal agencies and professional societies and materials developed by the Department of General Services and the office. Provisions shall be made for an annual updating of standards as required.

(3) ENFORCEMENT BY BOARD.—It is the responsibility of each board to insure that all plans and educational plants meet the standards of the Uniform Building Code and to provide for the enforcement of this code in the areas of their jurisdiction. Each board shall provide for the proper supervision and inspection of the work. Each board is authorized to employ a chief building official or inspector and such other inspectors and personnel as may be necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this code. Boards may also utilize local building department inspectors who are certified as provided herein to enforce this code. Inspectors shall show evidence of certification by the office as having met the requirements of the office for Uniform Building Code inspectors. Plans or facilities that fail to meet the standards of the Uniform Building Code shall not be approved.

(4) ENFORCEMENT BY OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES CONSTRUCTION.—As a further means of insuring that all educational facilities hereafter constructed or materially altered or added to conform to the Uniform Building Code standards, each board which undertakes the construction, erection, alteration, renovation, repair, purchasing, or leasing of any educational plant, the cost of which exceeds $50,000, shall see that the approval of the office is obtained as herein provided. No public educational funds may legally be expended for the construction, erection, alteration, renovation, repair, purchasing, or leasing of any educational facility unless the provisions of this section are observed and until the board has received a written statement from the office, within the time limits as provided in this section, that approval has been granted.

(5) OFFICE APPROVAL.—

(a) Before the contract has been let for the construction, the board shall require the superintendent or president to submit to the office, in accordance with state board rules, two copies each of:

1. Educational specifications.
2. Phase I documents, to include schematic drawings and proposals.
3. Phase II documents, to include:
 - a. Preliminary drawings and proposals; and
 - b. Preliminary specifications.
4. Phase III documents, to include:
 - a. Completed contractual documents;
 - b. Energy efficiency studies; and
 - c. Life-cycle cost analyses.

The board shall not proceed with any proposed construction until the written approval of the office is received. The office shall, in writing, approve, disapprove, make recommendations, or otherwise act on the educational specifications and phase documents submitted by a board within 30 calendar days of the official receipt of each set of phase documents by the office. If the board does not receive written notice within the time prescribed above, then it shall proceed as if written approval had been received. The State Board of Education is empowered and directed to adopt rules providing for exceptions to the steps required for approval for state board-approved prototype design criteria, reuse of previously approved district plans, and other plans and proposed minor renovations or construction projects which do not necessarily require detailed documentation and intense review by the office. Approval of phase III documents shall be effective for a 3-year period after the date of such approval.

(b) In reviewing plans for approval, the office shall take into consideration:

1. The desirability and need for the new facility.
2. The educational planning.
3. The functional and architectural planning.
4. The location on the site.
5. Plans for future expansion.
6. The type of construction.
7. Sanitary provisions.
8. Conformity to Uniform Building Code standards.
9. The structural design and strength of materials proposed to be used.
10. The mechanical design of any heating, air conditioning, plumbing, or ventilating system.
11. The electrical design of educational plants.
12. The energy efficiency and conservation of the design.
13. Life-cycle cost considerations.
14. The construction of special facilities for physically handicapped persons.

(6) STATE BOARD OF APPEALS.—The State Board of Education shall be the final board of appeals for all questions, disputes, or interpretations involving the Uniform Building Code, and any board shall prepare in writing its reasons for objecting to decisions made by Uniform Building Code inspectors or the office.

(7) ANNUAL REVIEW AND UPDATE; DISSEMINATION.—The office is authorized to annually review, update, and revise the Uniform Building Code. The office shall publish and make available to each board at no cost copies of the code and each amendment and revision thereto. The office shall make additional copies available to all interested persons at a price sufficient to recover costs.

(8) FALLOUT SHELTERS.—

(a) After the effective date of this act, the school board may require the architect concerned in the initial design, stages of design, and construction of new educational facilities to apply for technical advice and counsel on fallout shelter slanting and cost-reduction techniques available without cost through the Department of Community Affairs.

(b) When the school board concerned determines the application of fallout shelter slanting and cost-reduction techniques to be feasible and economical for the inclusion of a fallout shelter in the proposed educational facility, the design and construction of such educational facility may include fallout protection which meets the minimum standards for such protection as prescribed by the Department of Community Affairs.

(c) School authorities of the state and its political subdivisions are authorized to modify existing educational structures to incorporate fallout shelters, and the Department of Community Affairs shall make available to such authorities the same professional services as set forth in paragraph (a). Such authorities are further authorized to participate in such federal assistance programs as may be available to assist local authorities in providing fallout protection in educational facilities.

(9) LEGAL EFFECT OF CODE.—The State Uniform Building Code for Public Educational Facilities Construction shall have the force and effect of law and shall supersede any other code adopted by a board or any other building code or ordinance for the construction of educational facilities, whether at the local, county, or state level, and whether adopted by rule or legislative enactment. All special acts or general laws of local application are hereby repealed to the extent that they conflict with this section.

(10) LOCAL LEGISLATION PROHIBITED.—After July 1, 1974, pursuant to s. 11(a)(21), Art. III of the State Constitution, there shall not be enacted any special act or general law of local application which proposes to amend, alter, or contravene any provisions of the State Building Code adopted under the authority of this section.

History.—s. 926, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(312); s. 12, ch. 29754, 1955; s. 10, ch. 59-371; s. 117, ch. 65-239; s. 1, ch. 67-106; ss. 15, 18, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 1, ch. 70-196; s. 6, ch. 70-399; s. 9, ch. 74-374; s. 1, ch. 77-280; s. 15, ch. 77-458; s. 1, ch. 78-290; s. 1, ch. 79-71; s. 103, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Chapter 74-374, which created subsection (9), was passed by the requisite three-fifths vote in both houses. See s. 11(a)(21), Art. III, State Const. cf.—s. 288.33 School buildings; financing construction.

235.30 Supervision and inspection.—Before the construction or alteration of, or addition to, any building is started, the board shall provide for the proper supervision and necessary inspection of the work.

History.—s. 930, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(316); s. 1, 69-300; s. 16, ch. 77-458.

235.31 Advertising and awarding contracts; day labor projects; prequalification of contractor.—

(1) As soon as practicable after any bond issue has been voted upon and authorized or funds have been made available for the construction, repair, alteration, or otherwise for the improvement of any educational facility, and after plans for the work have been approved by the office, the board, after advertising the same in the manner prescribed by law, shall award the contract for such building or improvements to the lowest responsible bidder. However, the board may, within its discretion, reject all bids received, if it deems the same expedient, and may readvertise, calling for new bids. For constructing, renovating, and remodeling, or otherwise improving educational facilities at a cost not exceeding $50,000, the board may arrange for the work to be done on a day-labor basis.

(2)(a) As an option to the provisions prescribed above, boards may elect to come under the rules prescribed by the State Board of Education for the prequalification of bidders of educational facilities construction.

(b) As another option, boards may negotiate with contractors in accordance with the provisions of this subsection only for construction associated with the extensive repair, alteration, remodeling, renovation, or improvement of any existing educational plant, but not for the expansion of the facility.

(c) If any board elects either or both of the above options, it shall publish for at least 30 days a notice of the board's intent to elect said option in a local newspaper having general circulation throughout its district, after which a public hearing shall be held.

(d) The board shall adopt rules to implement the state board rules with regard to the prequalification of bidders. The board shall submit a copy of the rules and procedures adopted to the office, and these shall be approved by it.

(e) The board shall not adopt, nor shall the office approve, any procedure or requirement for the prequalification or certification of contractors which may operate to restrict responsible competition or to prevent the submission of a bid by, or prohibit the consideration of a bid submitted by, any responsible contractor, whether resident or nonresident of the district wherein the work is to be performed. Such rules shall operate only to limit competition to parties able to promptly perform the conditions of the contract and to respond in damages in case of default.

(3)(a) The board may negotiate a contract with a contractor for services, as provided in subsection (2), at compensation which the board determines is fair, competitive, and reasonable. In making such determination, the board shall conduct a detailed analysis of the cost of the services required, in addition to considering their scope and complexity. For all lump-sum or negotiated contracts estimated to cost over $50,000, the board shall require the contractor receiving the award to execute a truth-in-negotiation certificate stating that wage rates and other factual unit costs supporting the compensation are accurate, complete, and current at the time of contracting. Any contract under which such a certificate is required shall contain a provision that the original contract price and any additions thereto shall be adjusted to exclude any significant sums when the board determines the contract price was increased due to inaccurate, incomplete, or noncurrent wage rates and other factual unit costs. All such contract adjustments shall be made within 1 year following the end of the contract.

(b) Should the board be unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with the contractor first considered to be qualified at a price the board determines to be fair, competitive, and reasonable, negotiations with that contractor shall be formally terminated. The board shall then undertake negotiations with another qualified contractor. Failing accord with the next qualified contractor, the board shall terminate negotiations. The board shall then undertake negotiations with another qualified contractor until their original list is exhausted or a selection is made.

(c) Should the board be unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with any of the originally selected contractors, it may select additional contractors and continue negotiations in accordance with this subsection until an agreement is reached.

(4) Any person or firm desiring to bid or negotiate for the performance of any contract which the board proposes to let must first be certified by the board as qualified pursuant to law and rules of the State Board of Education. The board shall be required to act upon the application for qualification within 30 days after the same is presented. Upon receipt of such application, the superintendent or president acting on behalf of said board shall cause the same to be examined and the statements therein to be verified and, after obtaining whatever technical assistance is needed, shall determine whether the applicant shall be recommended for certification to the board. If the applicant is found to possess the prescribed qualifications, the superintendent or president shall recommend to the board that a certificate of qualification be issued. The board, acting on the recommendation of the superintendent or president, may issue a certificate of qualification valid for such period of time as it shall prescribe, but not to exceed 1 year; however, the board may revoke such certificate of qualification for cause.

(5) The board shall require all applicants to furnish the superintendent or president a statement under oath, on such forms as the board may prescribe, setting forth detailed information with respect to the applicant's competence, past performance record, experience, financial resources, and capability, in conformity with state board rules, together with such other information as the board may deem necessary. The state board rules may require that said application be accompanied by a current financial statement prepared by a public accountant certified in the state and in accordance with standard reporting requirements prescribed by the said board. Financial information as may be required by such rules shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone except members of the board and its staff who may elect to adopt such rules as herein after provided.

(6) The certificate of qualification shall contain a statement fixing the actual amount of work, in terms of estimated cost, which the applicant will be permitted to have on contract with the board and not completed at any one time and may contain a statement limiting such applicant to the submission of bids, or to negotiation, upon a certain class of work. Subject to the foregoing restrictions, the certificate of qualification shall authorize the holder to bid on all work on which bids are taken, or negotiate on all work on which contracts are negotiated, by the board during the period of time therein specified.

(7) Any applicant for a certificate of qualification aggrieved by the action of the board may, within 10 days after receiving notification of such action, request in writing a reconsideration by the board of the application and submit additional evidence of qualification. The board shall thereupon reconsider the application and may adhere to, modify, or reverse its original action. The board shall act upon any request for reconsideration within 30 days after the filing thereof, and shall immediately notify the applicant of the action taken.

(8) No contractor shall be qualified to bid or negotiate when an investigation by an agent or designee of the board discloses that such contractor is delinquent on a previously awarded contract by said board, and, in such case, the certificate of qualification may be suspended or revoked by the board. The board may suspend, for a specified period of time, or revoke for good cause any certificate of qualification. Any person or firm found delinquent on a contract or whose certificate is revoked or suspended shall be given the same benefit of appeal and reconsideration as provided in the case of an applicant refused an original certificate.

(9) All general laws, population acts, special acts, or local acts authorizing the exercise of power in conflict with the provisions of this section are hereby repealed.

235.32 Substance of contract; contractors to give bond; penalties.—Upon accepting a satisfactory bid, the board shall enter into a contract with the party or parties whose bid has been accepted, and such contract shall contain the drawings and specifications of the work to be done or the material to be furnished; the time limit in which the construction is to be completed; the time and method by which payments are to be made upon said contract; and the penalty to be paid by the contractor for any failure to comply with the terms of said contract. The contractor shall furnish the board with a performance bond, issued by a surety company licensed to do business in Florida, for 100 percent of the contract price. The contractor shall also furnish a payment bond in accordance with s. 255.05, as a guaranty against the involvement of the board in actions to obtain payment for materials, supplies, or labor used directly or indirectly by contractors or subcontractors. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if 25 percent or more of the costs of any construction project is paid out of a trust fund established pursuant to 31 U.S.C. s. 1243(a)(1), laborers and mechanics employed by contractors or subcontractors on such construction will be paid wages not less than those prevailing on similar construction projects in the locality, as determined by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended. Any and all persons, firms, or corporations who shall construct any part of any educational plant, or addition thereto, on the basis of any unapproved plans or in violation of any plans approved in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the State Board of Education relating to building standards or specifications shall be subject to forfeiture of bond and unpaid compensation in an amount sufficient to reimburse the board for any costs which will need to be incurred in making any changes necessary to assure that all requirements are met and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, for each separate violation.

235.321 Changes in construction requirements after award of contract.—

(1) After the award of a construction contract no changes may be made other than those which result from conditions which were not foreseen at the time of the award of contract. When any one change increases or decreases the scope of the original contract, the proposal to change shall be supported by accurate cost data establishing the fair and current market value of the labor, materials, equipment, and incidentals required to accomplish the change, plus or minus a reasonable margin to represent the contractor's profit and overhead. Cost data shall be in sufficient detail to enable any qualified architect or engineer to confirm the accuracy of such proposal. Before the board shall act on the proposal to change the contract, the accuracy of the supporting cost data shall be certified to the board by the architect or engineer in charge of the work, who shall also certify that the prices quoted are both fair and reasonable and in proper ratio to the cost of the original work contracted for under benefit of competitive bidding.

(2) A record copy of all change orders shall be filed with the office by the board as may be prescribed by rules of the State Board of Education.

(3) The board may, at its option and by written policy duly adopted and entered in its official minutes, authorize the superintendent or president or other designated individual to approve change orders in the name of the board for preestablished amounts. Approvals shall be for the purpose of expediting the work in progress and shall be reported to the board and entered in its official minutes.

235.33 Payments.—

(1) The final payment shall not be made until the building has been inspected by the architect or other person designated by the school board for that purpose and until he has issued a written certificate that the building has been constructed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and approved change orders and until the school board, acting on these recommendations, has accepted the building. After acceptance by the school board, a duplicate copy of this written certificate, duly certified as having been accepted by the local board, shall be filed with the Department of Education.

(2) Boards shall have full authority and responsibility for all decisions regarding educational plant construction contracts and payments.

Expenditures may also be made for sanitary and utility improvements and for the installation, operation, and maintenance of traffic control and safety devices upon, or in the vicinity of, any existing or proposed educational plant. The boards of county commissioners, municipal boards, and other agencies and boards of the state may plant or maintain trees, flowers, shrubbery, and beautifying plants upon the grounds of any educational plant, upon approval of the superintendent or president or designee. Payment by a board for any improvement set forth in this section shall be authorized in any amounts agreed to by the board. Any payments so authorized to be made shall not be mandatory unless the specific improvement and costs have been agreed to prior to the improvement's being made.

(2) The provisions of any law, municipal ordinance, or county ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, the provisions of this section shall regulate the levying of assessments for special benefits on school or community college districts and the directing of the payment thereof. Any municipal ordinance or county ordinance making provision to the contrary is void and shall be of no effect.

(2) Fixed capital outlay budget requests for public broadcasting stations and instructional television and radio facilities shall be submitted to the Executive Office of the Governor and the Commissioner of Education in the form prescribed by s. 216.043 and shall be submitted as specified in s. 216.023. The commissioner may include any recommendations for these purposes in the legislative budget request for fixed capital outlay.

235.41 Legislative budget request; educational facilities assessment.—

(1) The State Board of Education, through the office, shall develop a uniform, comparable system for determining total fixed capital outlay needs, inventorying existing facilities, and conducting utilization studies, and for any other procedure deemed appropriate in arriving at the amounts required to fund net unmet needs as reflected in the integrated comprehensive budget request required by this section.

(2) The commissioner, through the office, shall submit to the Legislature an integrated, comprehensive budget request for educational facilities construction and fixed capital outlay needs for the public schools, the community colleges, the institutions in the State University System, the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, and the state system of public education. The request shall include information necessary to develop the budget request by the commissioner required in subsection (3).

(3) The commissioner, through the office, shall submit an integrated, comprehensive budget request to the Executive Office of the Governor and to the Legislature no later than 90 days prior to the legislative session each fiscal year. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 216.043, the integrated, comprehensive budget request shall include:

(b) Estimated encumbrances to be made in the current fiscal year from actual capital outlay fund balances brought forward from the preceding fiscal year as unencumbered.

(c) Estimated capital outlay appropriations to be made from the current fiscal year revenues, listed separately to indicate those appropriations that will be encumbered throughout the fiscal year and those that will remain unencumbered at the end of the fiscal year.

(d) Estimated capital outlay funds to be disbursed in the current fiscal year from:

1. Fund balances brought forward from the preceding fiscal year.

2. Appropriations to be made from the current fiscal year revenues.

(e) Estimated undisbursed capital outlay funds remaining at the end of the current fiscal year from:

1. Fund balances brought forward from the preceding fiscal year, listed separately as encumbered and unencumbered.

2. Appropriations to be made from the current fiscal year revenues, listed separately as encumbered and unencumbered.

(f) A 5-year assessment of fixed capital outlay needs for education.

(g) A list of fixed capital outlay needs, and a request for fixed capital outlay funds, for the ensuing fiscal year for the state system of public education, reflecting the actual ability of the various boards to encumber and disburse the funds requested.

(h) Recommendations for the priority of expenditure of funds in the state system of public education, with reasons for the recommended priorities.

(i) Other recommendations which relate to the effectiveness of the educational facilities construction program.

235.42 Educational plants construction funds; Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund; allocation of funds.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that effective July 1, 1977, and each fiscal year thereafter, the plan for capital projects for the state system of public education shall be for the ensuing 5 years and shall be referred to as the 5-year capital projects program. To implement this 5-year program, there is created a continuing annual appropriation to the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund of all receipts and revenues from the Gross Receipts Tax as authorized in s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, and the proceeds from all bonds issued pursuant to that authority, as authorized by the Legislature.

(2) The Commissioner of Education shall, in administering the 5-year capital projects program, determine the annual and aggregate resources of the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund and shall recommend to the state board approval of the 5-year capital projects program. The state board shall annually authorize the capital projects plan for each participating board; however, total approved encumbrances and disbursements of the 5-year capital projects program in each fiscal year shall not exceed an amount that would prevent the state board from meeting the encumbrances and disbursement requirements for that year for approved capital projects. In addition, the commissioner shall have, and shall exercise, the authority to inform each participating board of the time certain when approved capital projects may be, in whole or in part, subjected to contractual obligations, and until such notification is received from the commissioner the participating board shall not incur obligations for capital projects to be funded from the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund. The State Board of Education shall adopt rules to implement the 5-year capital projects program.

(3) To provide for maximum use of funds available and to expedite the construction of authorized plants, the office, with the approval of the State Board of Education, is empowered and directed to transfer appropriations and moneys among and within the authorized capital projects, within the meaning, and as required by, paragraph 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, as amended, appropriated from the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund. This transfer authority shall include appropriations authorized in prior years and certified forward by the Executive Office of the Governor pursuant to s. 216.301.

(4) The commissioner, through the office, shall administer the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund. The commissioner shall provide for the timely distribution of moneys necessary to meet the disbursement requirements of the boards to plan or construct facilities which have been approved by the State Board of Education. Records shall be maintained by the office to identify legislative appropriations, State Board of Education allocations, encumbrance authorizations, disbursements, advances, transfers, investments, sinking funds, and revenue receipts by source. The Department of Education shall pay the administrative costs of the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund from the funds which comprise the trust fund.

(5)(a) The Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund shall be comprised of the following sources, which are hereby appropriated to the trust fund:

1. Proceeds, premiums, and accrued interest from the sale of public education bonds and that portion of the revenues in excess of the debt service and reserve requirements which accrues from the gross receipts tax as provided by s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, interest on investments, and federal interest subsidies.

2. All student building fees and capital improvement fees collected, or to be collected, by the Board of Regents, except that portion that may be required for debt service and reserve requirements.

3. That portion of federal revenue sharing funds appropriated for educational facilities construction.

4. Any other funds for educational facilities construction, including all federal grants and donations.

5. All capital outlay funds previously appropriated and certified forward pursuant to s. 216.301.

(b) There is hereby appropriated from the trust fund all certifications forward to this fund and all previous allocations by the Board of Regents from student building and capital improvement fees.

However, any funds required by law to be segregated or maintained in separate accounts shall be segregated or maintained in such manner that the relationship between program and revenue source is retained. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed so as to limit the use by the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund of the resources of funds so segregated or maintained.

(6) Upon the request of each board, the office shall distribute to the board an amount sufficient to cover capital outlay disbursements anticipated from encumbrance authorizations for the following month. Encumbrance of these capital outlay funds shall be made pursuant to the most recent survey conducted under rules prescribed by the State Board of Education, to determine the capital outlay requirements of each board.

(7) The office may authorize each board to enter into contracts for a period exceeding 1 year, within amounts appropriated and budgeted for fixed capital outlay needs; but any contract so made shall be executory only for the value of the services to be rendered, or agreed to be paid for, in succeeding fiscal years. This subsection shall be incorporated verbatim in all executory contracts of a board.

(8) No board shall, during any fiscal year, expend any money, incur any liability, or enter into any contract which, by its terms, involves expenditure of money in excess of the amounts appropriated and budgeted or in excess of the cash that will be available to meet the disbursement requirements. Prior to entering into an executory, or any other, contract, the boards shall obtain certification from the office that moneys will be available to meet the disbursement requirements. Any contract, verbal or written, made in violation of this subsection shall be null and void, and no payment shall be made thereon.

(9) The State Board of Administration is authorized to invest the trust funds of any state-supported retirement system, and any other state funds available for loans to the trust fund at a rate of interest that is no less favorable than would have been received had such moneys been invested in accordance with authorized practices.

(10) Boards authorized to participate in the trust fund are district school boards, the community college boards of trustees, the Trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, the Board of Regents, and other units of the state system of public education.

(11) Authorized boards needing more capital outlay funds than are currently available may make application to the office for approval to participate in advance funding from the trust fund. The board's application shall include the following information:

- (a) Proof that the educational plant or fixed capital outlay need has been authorized by law.

- (b) Certification that:

1. The educational plant or fixed capital outlay need is intended to be financed from the sale of bonds pursuant to subsection 9(a)(2) or 9(d), Art. XII of the State Constitution, or from currently authorized appropriations; and

2. Sufficient allocations have been made but that insufficient funds are currently available to award a contract.

- (c) A schedule of the cash disbursements necessary and a schedule of the repayment of advances and any interest, where applicable, to the trust fund.

(12) When borrowed funds as authorized in subsection (9) above are commingled with working capital trust funds and advanced to a board, that board shall be charged a rate of interest on the total amount advanced sufficient to discharge a proportionate amount of the debt service of the borrowed funds.

(13) The office, after determining that the request for advanced funding is eligible, shall recommend the board's request to the State Board of Education for approval. When approved by the State Board of Education, the office shall certify this action to the requesting board. Upon receipt of this certification and an encumbrance authorization from the office, the board is authorized to enter into contracts. The board shall certify to the office that insufficient funds are available to the board to pay progress payments to contractors when such payments are due within the next 30 days and request a disbursement from the trust fund. The office, after determining that the request is reasonable, shall request the State Comptroller to issue a warrant payable to the requesting board, and such warrant shall be promptly transmitted. The office is empowered to provide for the release of funds to authorized boards so as to assure that the funds are expended in the most effective and efficient manner practicable. The intent of the Legislature is to assure that facilities to provide needed adequate student stations for all students be constructed as rapidly as possible. Except as provided in s. 235.221, agencies that have received cash disbursements from the trust fund shall repay the total amount of such advancements plus accrued interest, if any, from the proceeds of the next authorized sale of bonds or revenue certificates in which that agency participates or from any cash receipts deposited in the trust fund that have been allocated to that agency.

(14) A board may also make application for funding from the trust fund for projects financed pursuant to the provisions of ss. 235.195, 235.211(2), and 235.221.

(15) The office shall recommend, and the state board shall adopt, rules to implement the provisions of this section.

235.4235 Financing of approved capital projects.—

(1) As moneys become available, pursuant to s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, as amended, the State Board of Education, through the office, may allocate moneys among capital projects in such amounts as the state board in its discretion shall deem appropriate. However, no allocation to any one group of capital projects shall exceed the total amount appropriated in the general appropriations act.

(2) The capital projects are to be financed in accordance with s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, as amended, or from other legally available state funds or grants, donations, or matching funds, or by a combination of such funds.

(3) The sum designated annually by the Legislature is the maximum sum to be expended from funds accruing under s. 9(a)(2), Art. XII of the State Constitution, as amended. However, funds appropriated from this source and remaining unexpended from previously authorized capital projects, along with grants, donations, and matching funds from other sources, may be added to such maximum sums for any item or category, when so approved by the State Board of Education.

235.43 Organization of certain functions of the Department of Education.—

(1) The commissioner shall have the discretion to internally organize those functions of the Department of Education which relate to the construction of educational facilities as he sees fit in order to achieve maximum efficiency. However, pursuant to such organization the commissioner shall transfer:

(a) The following functions and programs of the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education of the Department of Education from the division to the office:

1. Architectural facilities planning;
2. Educational facilities planning;

3. Facilities development and evaluation;
4. School surveys; and
5. School plant management.

(b) The following functions and programs of the Division of Vocational, Technical, and Adult Education of the Department of Education from the division to the office:

1. Vocational-technical facilities planning and development; and

2. Vocational-technical facilities construction.

(c) The functions and programs of the Commissioner of Education relating to capital outlay and debt service from the commissioner to the office.

(2) All statutory powers, duties, functions, records, personnel, property, and unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds which are part of the above functions and programs of the divisions are hereby transferred to the office. The transfer of segregated funds shall be made in such manner that the relation between program and revenue source as provided by law is retained.

History.—s. 14, ch. 74-374.

235.435 Funds for comprehensive educational plant construction and debt service.—The annual allocation from the Public Education Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund to each board, including the Board of Regents, for comprehensive construction and debt service shall be determined as follows:

(1) Pursuant to rules of the state board, the commissioner shall determine annually the projected educational plant and annual debt service needs for each board. In determining the needs of the state system of public education, the office shall recommend, and the commissioner shall use, equitably uniform standards for all types of like space, regardless of the level of education. These standards shall also establish a uniform utilization rate of 85 percent of all postsecondary classrooms, based on 45 hours per week Monday through Friday. The commissioner shall include at least the following elements:

(a) Projected student membership for the next 5-year period.

(b) Projected number of unhoused students.

(c) Costs of correcting the deficiencies which produce unsafe, unhealthy, or unsanitary environments; air conditioning; remodeling; and renovations.

(d) Current construction cost data as determined by the state board. Information for determining construction cost data shall be prescribed by the office and shall be taken from an item analysis of educational plant expenditures as reported in the board's annual financial report to the commissioner.

(e) Five-year projected cost of amortizing the annual payment of the ad valorem bonded indebtedness of the district.

(f) Cost of site acquisition and improvement.

(g) Amount of additional resources available pursuant to the provisions of s. 9(a)(2) and (d), Art. XII of the State Constitution as amended in 1974.

(h) Amount of funds from other sources available and earmarked for capital outlay purposes. However, funds available and earmarked for capital outlay purposes from the current tax levied on nonexempt property by the district school board for operating expenses shall not be considered in determining the unmet need until the school board encumbers or expends such funds.

(i) District housing index.
(j) Square footage requirements for program groups.

(k) Special instructional facilities needed to improve the program at an educational center, but not necessarily to increase the student stations of the center.

(l) Amount of funds derived from voted ad valorem taxes in excess of 10 mills which were expended for construction projects which would have been funded by the state under provisions of this section during the 5 years immediately prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, except that those funds utilized for payment on bonded indebtedness shall not be included in the calculations required by this subsection.

¹(m) Relocatables shall be included in the inventory of educational facilities for boards, including the Board of Regents, but shall be rated at one-half of actual student capacity for purposes of the inventory and future needs determination as provided under this section and s. 235.15. Relocatables acquired or constructed and in use prior to 1975 shall be rated at zero student capacity. Application of this paragraph in the determination of available student capacity shall occur at the next regularly scheduled educational plant survey as required under s. 235.15, but no later than October 1, 1984.

(2) The commissioner shall determine annually the amount allocated to each board from the funds appropriated for the purpose of implementing this section as follows:

(a) Determine the costs of the projected educational plant needs, the 5-year projected debt service needs, and the expenditures of ad valorem taxes in excess of 10 mills, for each district, as determined in subsection (1).

(b) Determine the projected additional resources available under the provisions of s. 9(d), Art. XII of the State Constitution as amended in 1972 and the projected amount available to each board from other fund sources allocated for educational plants.

(c) From the costs of the projected educational plant and 5-year projected debt service needs for each board subtract the projected additional resources available and add the expenditure of ad valorem taxes in excess of 10 mills, as determined in paragraph (a). The result shall represent the estimated cost of unfunded educational plant and debt service needs for each board.

(d) The funds appropriated annually for the purpose of implementing this section shall be allocated to the respective boards in proportion to their percentage of the state total of unfunded educational plant and debt service needs as determined above for the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year for which the funds are appropriated.

(3) Funds accruing to a board from the provisions of this section shall be expended on needed projects as shown by a survey or surveys under rules of the state board. Funds allocated to each board in fiscal years prior to 1977-1978 may be spent on projects as defined in this subsection. The priority of expenditure by boards shall be as follows:

(a) Classrooms, special instructional facilities, and remodeling necessary to provide needed student stations at either a new or existing center, as determined by the board, based on student population projections and the educational plant survey; sites or additions to sites and site improvement, incident to new construction or to make a site addition usable; restoration and correction as required by s. 235.06 of deficiencies which produce an unsafe, unhealthy, or unsanitary environment for occupants of educational facilities, except that, based upon the need as determined by the commissioner in the formula calculations, up to one-tenth of a board's annual allocation shall be expended on restoration and correction of such deficiencies. Pursuant to rules of the state board, the office shall determine what percentage of a board's total capital outlay need is generated by needed remodeling of existing facilities. The office is directed to develop a facility depreciation formula for adoption by the state board. In addition, a board may repay the principal on loans for capital projects as provided in s. 237.161.

(b) Special instructional and auxiliary facilities needed to improve the program at an educational plant, but not necessary to increase the student stations; remodeling of existing buildings which would substantially improve the utility of the space; replacing, remodeling, or adding to the existing heating, cooling, lighting, and sanitary facilities at an educational plant. Any facilities described above shall qualify as first priority when constructed as a part of a new educational center or as an addition to an existing educational center, if more than one-half of the facility to be constructed is designated as first priority. When an existing educational plant is determined to be unsuitable pursuant to the survey conducted under s. 235.15, the board may, by resolution, designate the plant as an historic education facility and may use funds generated for renovation and repair pursuant to paragraph (a) to restore the facility for use by the board. The board shall agree to pay all renovation costs in excess of funds generated through the State Board of Education depreciation formula applied to that facility. The board shall further agree that the plant shall continue to house students.

(c) Energy projects, including studies of the energy efficiency of existing facilities and renovations designed to increase the energy efficiency of existing facilities.

(d) Library books and equipment.

(e) All other formula-generated projects.

(f) All nonformula-generated projects; however, any funds earmarked for a board for nonformula-generated items shall be deducted from that board's entitlement for formula-generated items calculated pursuant to this section.

(g) Debt service for district bonds serviced by voted ad valorem taxes.

(4) Each board that is allocated funds under this section shall submit to the commissioner a projection of its schedule of eligible capital outlay disbursements for specified periods, as prescribed by rules of the state board. Upon approval by the commissioner, the comptroller shall disburse the funds. Prior to the distribution of the initial funds pursuant to this section the commissioner shall determine the board's needs pursuant to paragraphs (2)(a), (b), and (c) and update the state facilities inventory subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(5) Funds accruing to a board from the provisions of this section shall only be expended on construction projects that utilize state board-approved design criteria as provided by law or that utilize plans previously approved by the department and used by the district which conform to the standards of the Uniform Building Code for Public Educational Facilities Construction and have not been substantially or materially altered since approval was granted by the department.

(6) In the event that a change, correction, or recomputation of data during any year results in a reduction or increase of the calculated amount previously allocated to a board, the allocation to that board shall be adjusted correspondingly. If such recomputation results in an increase or decrease of the calculated amount, such additional or reduced amounts shall be added to or reduced from the boards' future appropriations. However, no change, correction, or recomputation of data shall be made subsequent to 2 years following the initial annual allocation.

- 236.012 Intent.—The intent of the Legislature is:
- (1) To guarantee to each student in the Florida public educational system the availability of programs and services appropriate to his educational needs which are substantially equal to those available to any similar student notwithstanding geographic differences and varying local economic factors.
- (2) To increase the authority and responsibility of districts for deciding matters of instructional organization and method and to encourage district initiative in seeking more effective and efficient means of achieving the goals of the various programs.
- (3) To assume a greater share of the responsibility for state funding of educational plant construction by providing a systematic plan whereby each district will be able to meet the increasing needs for satisfactory educational plant construction for all students; to maximize the availability of satisfactory student stations to meet the current and projected needs of the districts; and to remove the necessity of involuntary multiple daily sessions.
- (4) To encourage innovations in educational facilities design, construction techniques, and financing mechanisms for the purpose of reducing costs and creating a more satisfactory environment for learning, and to direct the department to continue the study of developments in the building industry, including the latest developments in construction methods and materials, in design, and in concepts such as turnkey bidding, prefabricated construction, modular relocatable units, and standardized components.
- (5) To facilitate a more thorough analysis of the state's financial support of public education and to provide a more accurate basis for educational management.

- 236.013 Definitions.—Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 228.041, the following terms shall be defined as follows for the purpose of this act:
- (1) "Bonded indebtedness" is the total outstanding bonds issued by the individual districts which are to be amortized by ad valorem tax levy.
- (2) A "full-time equivalent student" in each program of the district is defined in terms of full-time students and part-time students as follows:
- (a) A "full-time student" is one student on the membership roll of one school program or a combination of school programs listed under the cost factors in s. 236.081(1)(c) for:

1. Five school days or the equivalent, in a standard school, comprising not less than 25 net hours for students in or at the grade level of 4 through 12 and adult, or not less than 20 net hours for students in or at the grade level of kindergarten through grade 3, or

2. Five school days or the equivalent, in a double-session school or a school utilizing an experimental school calendar approved by the Department of Education, comprising not less than the equivalent of 22½ net hours in grades 4 through 12 or not less than 17½ net hours in kindergarten through grade 3.

(b) A "part-time student" is a student on the active membership roll of a school program or combination of school programs listed in s. 236.081(1)(c) who is less than a full-time student.

(c) A "full-time equivalent student" is:

1. A full-time student in any one of the programs listed under the cost factors in s. 236.081(1)(c); or a. A full-time student, except postsecondary and adult students and senior high school students enrolled in adult education when such courses are required for high school graduation, in a combination of programs listed under the cost factors in s. 236.081(1)(c) shall be a fraction of a full-time equivalent membership in each special program equal to the number of net hours per week for which he is a member, divided by 25; the difference between that fraction or sum of fractions and twenty-five twenty-fifths of the week for each full-time student shall be presumed to be the balance of the student's time not spent in said special education programs and shall be recorded as time in the appropriate basic program.

2. A combination of full-time or part-time students in any one of the programs listed under the cost factors in s. 236.081(1)(c) which is the equivalent of one full-time student based on the following calculations:

b. A student in the basic half-day kindergarten program of not less than 12½ net hours shall earn one-half of a full-time equivalent membership.

c. A half-day kindergarten student in a combination of programs listed under the cost factors in s. 236.081(1)(c) shall be a fraction of a full-time equivalent membership in each special program equal to the number of net hours or major portion thereof per week for which he is a member divided by 25; the difference between that fraction and twelve and one-half twenty-fifths of the week for each full-time student in membership in a half-day kindergarten program shall be presumed to be the balance of the student's time not spent in said special education programs and shall be recorded as time in the appropriate basic program.

d. A part-time student, except postsecondary and adult, shall be a fraction of a full-time equivalent membership in each basic and special program equal to the number of net hours or major fraction thereof per week for which he is a member divided by 25.

e. All postsecondary and adult students and senior high school students enrolled in adult education when such courses are required for high school graduation shall be a portion of a full-time equivalent membership in each special program equal to the net hours or major fraction thereof per fiscal year for which he is a member, divided by 900.

3. A student who lacks three credits or less for graduation and who is in membership for only that portion of the school day or of the school year necessary to earn such credits, pursuant to s. 228.041(13), shall be considered a full-time equivalent student. A student shall attend class at least three periods a day during the semester the student is in membership. The difference between actual membership and computed membership of such student shall be reported in the basic program of grades 10, 11, and 12.

4. A student in membership in a program scheduled for more or less than 180 school days shall be a fraction of a full-time equivalent membership equal to the number of days more or less in proportion thereto times the applicable computations set forth in subparagraphs 1. and 2.; however, for the purposes of this subparagraph, membership in programs scheduled for more than 180 days shall be limited to:

- a. Special programs for exceptional students;
- b. Special vocational-technical programs;
- c. Special adult general education programs;
- d. Alternative education programs provided for students in Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services residential care facilities;
- e. The Florida Primary Education Program or an approved alternative as provided in s. 230.2312, for those students who were receiving the preventative instructional strategies for all of the last 45 days of the 180-day term and in need of such additional instruction;
- f. Basic programs of educational alternatives; and
- g. Other basic programs offered for promotion or credit instruction as defined by rules of the state board.

5. The department shall determine and implement an equitable method of equivalent funding for experimental schools and for schools operating under emergency conditions, which have been approved by the department under the provisions of s. 228.041(13) to operate for less than the minimum school day.

(3) For the purpose of calculating the "current operation program," a student is in membership until he withdraws or until the close of the sixth consecutive school day of his absence, whichever comes first.

(4) A "utilization factor" is the ratio between the total number of student stations and the rated number of students that can be housed in that facility.

(5) The "Florida Education Finance Program" includes all programs and costs as provided in s. 236.081.

236.014 Special laws and general laws of local application prohibited.—

(1) Pursuant to s. 11(a)(21) of Art. III of the State Constitution, the Legislature hereby prohibits special laws and general laws of local application pertaining to:

(b) The Florida Education Finance Program as enacted in 1973 or as subsequently amended.

(2) The department shall determine whether any district has received additional funds subsequent to June 30, 1973, as a result of any special law or general law of local application described in subsection (1) and shall deduct an amount equal to any such additional funds from allocations to that district.

236.02 Minimum requirements of the Florida Education Finance Program.—Each district which participates in the state appropriations for the Florida Education Finance Program shall provide evidence of its effort to maintain an adequate school program throughout the district and shall meet at least the following requirements:

(1) ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS.—Maintain adequate and accurate records including a system of internal accounts for individual schools, and file with the Department of Education in correct and proper form on or before the date due as fixed by law or regulation, each annual or periodic report which is required by regulations of the state board.

(2) MINIMUM TERM.—Operate all schools for a term of at least 180 actual teaching days or the equivalent on an hourly basis as specified by rules of the State Board of Education each school year; however, the state board may prescribe procedures for altering, and, upon written application, may alter, this requirement during a national or local emergency as it may apply to an individual school or schools in any district or districts if, in the opinion of the board, it is not feasible to make up lost days, and the apportionment may, at the discretion of the State Board of Education and in the event the board determines that the reduction of school days is caused by the existence of a bona fide emergency, be reduced for said district or districts in proportion to the decrease in the length of term in any such school or schools. Under no circumstances shall a strike, as defined in s. 447.203(6), by employees of the school district be considered an emergency.

(3) EMPLOYMENT POLICIES FOR INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL.—Notify in writing all instructional personnel concerning reemployment by the times prescribed by law; provide written continuing contracts for all personnel entitled to such contracts as prescribed by law; provide each other member of the instructional staff, at least 1 month before schools begin, or before assuming his position if he is not employed until after that date, with a written contract providing for the payment of a definite salary as prescribed by law; require 12 calendar months of service for such principals and other special instructional personnel as prescribed by regulations of the state board, and 10 months to include not less than 196 days of service, excluding Sundays and other holidays, for all other members of the instructional staff, any such service on a 12-month basis to include reasonable allowance for vacation or further study as prescribed by the school board in accordance with regulations of the state board; and pay all instructional personnel according to a schedule adopted by the school board to include:

(a) All personnel shall be paid in accordance with payroll period schedules adopted by the school board and included in the official salary schedule.

236.022 Projected study of alternative methods of school finance.—

(1) The Department of Education, the Executive Office of the Governor, and the Department of Revenue are authorized and directed, in cooperation with the Legislature and the State Board of Education, jointly to investigate and study alternative methods of public school finance. The departments shall conduct such studies with the goal of full implementation of such an alternative method on or before July 1, 1980, and shall consider the intent of the Legislature as stated above. The Department of Education shall make annual reports to the Legislature of its findings and may submit such proposed legislation and constitutional amendments as it deems necessary and proper.

(2) The Department of Education is authorized to seek and obtain the full and complete cooperation of any state agency in the course of its study. All such agencies are directed to cooperate to the fullest reasonable extent.

(3) The Department of Education is authorized to seek and obtain complete cooperation and assistance of the United States Commissioner of Education under Pub. L. No. 93-380, Section 842, Part D, Title VIII of the Education Amendments of 1974 (45 CFR Part 156—Assistance to States for state equalization plans) in planning, designing, and carrying out studies of alternative methods of public school finance.

History.—ss. 23-25, ch. 75-284; s. 109, ch. 79-190.

236.023 Cost of delivering equivalent educational services; Cost-of-Education Index.—

(1) The Department of Education, in cooperation with expert researchers in the field of public school finance and other fields of research as needed, shall conduct a study making a thorough analysis of each of the following:

(a) The relationship between the cost of living in each school district as measured by the Florida Price Level Index, and the cost of living for the professional and support personnel in each district.

(b) The variations in real wages necessary for each school district to attract and retain professional and support public school personnel of equal quality.

(c) The variations in nonsalary expenditure per pupil necessary for each school district to provide equivalent quantity and quality of educational materials and services.

(d) The variations in the cost of delivering equivalent educational services per pupil in each district resulting from differences in pupil population density and scale of operation.

(e) The variations in each school district in the cost among the educational program categories identified in the Florida Education Finance Program and the relationship between:

1. The cost of living for school district personnel.
2. The cost of nonsalary expenditures.
3. The cost per pupil resulting from pupil population density and operational scale.
4. The diversity of the ethnic and language background of the pupils of the district.

(2) Using the information derived from the analysis conducted pursuant to subsection (1), the department shall develop a Cost-of-Education Index for use in the Florida Education Finance Program. Such index, if used, shall guarantee, to a greater degree than the Florida Price Level Index, to each student in Florida's public schools the availability of programs and services appropriate to his education needs which are substantially equal to those available to any similar student.

(3) The department shall submit a written progress report to the Legislature at the end of each 6 months of the study. The Cost-of-Education Index shall be submitted to the Legislature on or before April 1, 1981.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-373.

236.0711 Employment and compensation of instructional personnel during specific emergencies.—

In the event of an epidemic, strike, mass walkout, substantial numbers of teacher resignations or other urgent condition a school board upon recommendation of the superintendent may find and declare that an emergency exists because there is not a sufficient number of certified teachers to continue the normal operation of the schools within the district. In said event the school board may upon recommendation of the superintendent employ, contract with and compensate for instructional services rendered any person who shall be deemed qualified by regulations of the school board. In such event a state certificate to teach shall not be required for such employment, contract or compensation.

History.—s. 2, ch. 68-1; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 22, ch. 73-345.

236.081 Funds for operation of schools.—The annual allocation from the Florida Education Finance Program to each district for operation of schools shall be determined as follows:

(1) COMPUTATION OF THE BASIC AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR OPERATION.—The following procedure shall be followed in determining the annual allocation to each district for operation:

(a) Determination of full-time equivalent membership.—During each of several school weeks during the fiscal year, a program membership survey of each school shall be made by each district by aggregating the full-time equivalent student membership of each program by school and by district. The department shall establish the number and interval of membership calculations, except that for basic and special programs such calculations shall not exceed nine for any fiscal year. The district's full-time equivalent membership shall be computed and currently maintained in accordance with regulations of the state board.

(b) Determination of base student allocation.—The base student allocation shall be determined annually by the Legislature and shall be that amount prescribed in the current year's General Appropriations Act.

(c) Determination of programs.—Cost factors based on desired relative cost differences between the following programs are hereby established for the fiscal years 1979-1980 and 1980-1981. However, the application of cost factors in part-time programs for exceptional students shall be limited to a maximum of twelve twenty-fifths of a student membership in a given program during a week. The criteria for qualification for the special programs, including maximum case loads for part-time programs, shall be determined by regulations of the state board. However, the district may apply to the department for an exemption to the maximums set above, and the department may grant such exemptions when district size or program dispersal would place an undue burden on the district. Cost factors for special programs for exceptional students shall be used to fund programs, approved by the department, as provided by law for exceptional students under the minimum age for enrollment in kindergarten.

(d) Allocation of full-time equivalents.—The department is authorized and directed to review all district programs in the areas of educational alternatives, exceptional student programs, special vocational-technical programs, and special adult general education programs. First priority in the assignment of full-time equivalent student membership shall be based on the request of the districts as submitted and approved by the department. Any unassigned full-time equivalent membership shall be allocated to those districts submitting supplemental requests, with priority to those districts with the lowest incidence of programs to students identified to be in need of such special programs.

1. The assigned weighted full-time equivalent student membership in special programs for exceptional students, educational alternative programs, part-time programs, special vocational-technical programs, and special adult general education programs, including adult basic education and adult high school, in any school fiscal year shall not exceed the maximum prescribed in the current year's General Appropriations Act for such programs. The Department of Education is directed to review the method of projecting enrollment and determining incidence in all special programs for exceptional students, special vocational-technical programs, and special adult general education programs and to report, at least 60 days prior to each regular session of the Legislature, a 3-year projected enrollment of full-time equivalent students in these programs.

2. In administering the maximums, the department shall review each district's program and needs with each scheduled student membership survey and may reassign the authorized weighted membership within the maximums provided. In any district in which, after the final assignment, the actual full-time equivalent membership multiplied by the appropriate cost factors exceeds the assigned maximum, such excess full-time equivalent student membership shall be computed at a cost factor of 1.00.

3. With respect to special programs for the visually handicapped part-time (sub-subparagraph (c)2.g.), upon request of a school board in any district or multi-district area in which there are five or more students receiving an appropriate program, the Department of Education may assign three unweighted full-time equivalent students for the special program until such time as more than three full-time equivalent students are generated.

4. When a student has been properly classified as an exceptional student pursuant to s. 230.23(4)(m) and is eligible for a full-time special program for exceptional students identified in subparagraph (1)(c)2. and, as a condition of such student's individualized educational plan, is assigned to a basic program on a part-time basis with required special services, aids, or equipment, the basic program cost factor for such student shall be doubled for the purpose of generating weighted full-time equivalent membership for time served in the program.

(e) Determination of the basic amount for current operation.—The basic amount for current operation to be included in the Florida Education Finance Program for each district shall be the product of the following:

1. The full-time equivalent student membership in each program, multiplied by
2. The cost factor for each program, adjusted for the maximum as provided by paragraph (c), multiplied by
3. The base student allocation.

(f) Determination of sparsity supplement.—

1. Annually, in an amount to be determined by the Legislature through the General Appropriations Act, there shall be added to the basic amount for current operation of qualified districts a sparsity supplement which shall be computed as follows:

except that districts with a sparsity index of 1,000 or less shall be computed as having a sparsity index of 1,000 and districts having a sparsity index of 7,308 and above shall be computed as having a sparsity factor of zero.

2. The district sparsity index shall be computed by dividing the total number of full-time equivalent students in all programs in the district by the number of senior high school centers in the district, not in excess of three, which centers are approved as permanent centers by a survey made by the Department of Education.

(2) DETERMINATION OF DISTRICT COST DIFFERENTIALS.—The commissioner shall annually compute for each district the current year's district cost differential. The district cost differential shall be calculated by adding each district's price level index as published in the Florida Price Level Index, prepared by the Executive Office of the Governor, for the most recent 3 years and dividing the resulting sum by 3. The result for each district shall be multiplied by 0.008 and to the resulting product shall be added 0.200; the sum thus obtained shall be the cost differential for that district for that year.

(3) INSERVICE EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL TRAINING EXPENDITURE.—Of the amount computed in subsections (1) and (3), $5 per full-time equivalent student shall be expended for educational training programs as determined by the district school board as provided in s. 236.0811. If a district has an approved teacher education center, at least $3 of the $5 shall be expended as provided in ss. 231.600-231.610. Funds as provided herein may be expended only for the direct support of inservice training activities as prescribed below:

(a) Salaries and benefits of:

1. Personnel directly administering the approved inservice training program.
2. School board employees while such personnel are conducting an approved inservice training program.

3. Substitutes for personnel released to participate in an approved inservice training program or an inservice council activity.

(b) Other direct operating expenses, excluding capital outlay, required for administering the approved inservice training program, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Inservice training materials for approved inservice training activities.
2. Data processing for approved inservice training activities.
3. Telephone for the approved inservice training program.
4. Office supplies for the personnel administering the approved inservice training program.
5. Duplicating and printing for approved inservice training activities.
6. Fees and travel and per diem expenses for consultants used in conducting approved inservice training activities.
7. Travel and per diem expenses for school district personnel attending approved inservice conferences, workshops, or visitations to schools.
8. Rental of facilities not owned by the school board for use in conducting an approved inservice training program.

(c) Compensation may be awarded under this subsection to employees engaged in inservice training activities which are outside of, or in addition to, regular hours of duty assignments or a regular day of a contract period for which regular compensation is provided. No moneys shall be authorized under this subsection for additional salaries and benefits constituting dual compensation to employees participating in inservice activities if such activities are within regular hours of duty assignments or within a regular day of a contract period for which regular compensation is provided.

(d) Funds may be expended to pay tuition or registration fees for college courses provided the course is identified in the district's approved master plan and the employee does not receive college credit.

(4) COMPUTATION OF DISTRICT REQUIRED LOCAL EFFORT.—The amount that each district shall provide annually toward the cost of the Florida Education Finance Program shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Estimated and final calculations:

1. The Department of Revenue on or before July 10 shall certify to the Commissioner of Education its most recent estimate of the nonexempt assessed valuation of each school district for the current calendar year based on the latest available data obtained from the local property appraisers. The commissioner, upon receipt of the data, shall calculate each district's required local effort by computing 95 percent of the district's nonexempt assessed valuation and multiplying this product by the millage rate prescribed in that year's General Appropriations Act.

2. The Department of Revenue shall, upon receipt of the official final tax roll from each of the property appraisers, certify to the commissioner the total assessed valuation of nonexempt property in each school district, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b). Upon receipt of the data, the commissioner shall recalculate each district's required local effort.

fort by computing 95 percent of the assessed valuation of nonexempt property included in the final tax roll and multiplying this product by the millage rate prescribed in that year's General Appropriations Act. This revised calculation shall be the official required local effort for that district in that fiscal year. For the purpose of this subparagraph, the official final tax roll shall be the tax roll on which the tax bills are computed and mailed to the taxpayers.

(b) In those instances in which:

1. There is litigation either attacking the authority of the property appraiser to include certain property on the tax assessment roll as taxable property or contesting the assessed value of certain property on the tax assessment roll; and
2. The assessed value of the property in contest involves more than 10 percent of the total nonexempt assessment roll, the assessed value of the property in contest shall be excluded from the nonexempt assessed valuation for school purposes for purposes of computing the district-required local effort.

(c) Following final adjudication of any litigation on the basis of which an adjustment in nonexempt valuation was made pursuant to paragraph (b), the department shall recompute the required local effort for each district for each year affected by such adjustments, utilizing nonexempt valuations approved by the court, and shall adjust subsequent allocations to such districts accordingly.

(5) CATEGORICAL PROGRAMS.—The Legislature hereby provides for the establishment of selected categorical programs to assist in the development and maintenance of activities giving indirect support to the programs previously funded. These categorical appropriations may be funded as general and transitional categorical programs. It is the intent of the Legislature that no transitional categorical program shall be funded for more than 4 fiscal years from the date of original authorization or from July 1, 1973, whichever is later. Such programs are as follows:

(a) General.—

1. Comprehensive school construction and debt service as provided by law.
2. Community schools as provided by law.
3. School lunch programs as provided by law.
4. Instructional material funds as provided by law.
5. Student transportation as provided by law.
6. Student development services as provided by law.
7. Diagnostic and learning resource centers as provided by law.
8. Comprehensive health education as provided by law.

(b) Transitional.—

1. Bilingual program as provided by law.

(6) TOTAL ALLOCATION OF STATE FUNDS TO EACH DISTRICT FOR CURRENT OPERATION.—The total annual state allocation to each district for current operation shall be distributed periodically in the manner prescribed by regulations of the state board and shall be calculated as follows:

(a) The basic amount for current operation, as determined in subsection (1), multiplied by the district cost differential factor as determined in subsection (2), plus the amount for the decline in full-time equivalent students as determined in subsection (7), less the required local effort as determined in subsection (4). If the funds appropriated for the purpose of funding the total amount for current operation as provided in this paragraph are not sufficient to pay the state's requirement in full, the department shall prorate the available state funds to each district in the following manner:

1. Determine the percentage of proration by dividing the sum of the total amount for current operation, as provided in this paragraph for all districts collectively, and the total district required local effort into the sum of the state funds available for current operation and the total district required local effort.

2. Multiply the percentage so determined by the sum of the total amount for current operation as provided in this paragraph and the required local effort for each individual district.

3. From the product of such multiplication, subtract the required local effort of each district, and the remainder shall be the amount of state funds allocated to the district for current operation.

The Department of Education is authorized to increase the base student allocation to the school districts if available funds exceed allocated amounts.

(b) The amount thus obtained shall be the net annual allocation to each school district. However, if it is determined that any school district received an underallocation or overallocation for any prior year because of an arithmetical error, assessment roll change, full-time equivalent student membership error, or any allocation error revealed in an audit report, the allocation to that district shall be appropriately adjusted. No amount appropriated to fund the Florida Education Finance Program for fiscal year 1975-1976 shall be expended for any other prior year adjustment.

(c) The amount thus obtained shall represent the net annual state allocation to each district; however, notwithstanding any of the provisions herein, each district shall be guaranteed a minimum level of funding in the amount and manner prescribed below:

1. The department shall determine the value per full-time equivalent student for the prior fiscal year for each district as follows: Divide the total number of full-time equivalent students included in the prior year Education Finance Program into the sum of:

a. The prior year's state allocation for: Current operation, as provided in paragraphs (6)(a) and (b), less student transportation, as provided in subsection 236.083(7); and

b. The calculated yield of the actual nonvoted millage levied by the district during the prior fiscal year on 95 percent of the prior calendar-year nonexempt assessed valuation of the district for school purposes.

2. The amount determined in subparagraph 1. shall be multiplied by the number of full-time equivalent students included in the final estimated computation of the current Education Finance Program.

3. The amount determined in subparagraph 2. shall be the minimum level of funding for each district for the current fiscal year. Such amount shall include the following:

a. The state allocation for current operation, as provided in paragraph (a), exclusive of all categorical programs; and

b. The calculated yield of the maximum nonvoted millage as prescribed in s. 236.25 during the current fiscal year on 95 percent of the current calendar-year nonexempt assessed valuation of the district for school purposes.

4. In any district in which the amount determined in subparagraph 2. does not equal or exceed the sum of the sources specified in subparagraph 3., the state share of this total shall be increased in an amount sufficient to assure that each district receives the amount determined in subparagraph 2.

(7) DECLINE IN FULL-TIME EQUIVALENT STUDENTS.—The full-time equivalent student membership in each program multiplied by the cost factor for each program, adjusted for the maximum, shall be compared to this calculation for the prior year. In those districts where there is a decline in weighted full-time equivalent students, the decline is to be multiplied by the base student allocation and then multiplied by a factor of 0.5.

236.0811 Educational training.—

(1) Each school board shall develop and maintain an educational training program. Funds appropriated to school districts for the purposes of this section shall be used exclusively for educational training programs meeting criteria established by the Department of Education. When a district has an approved teacher education center, the inservice programs shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Teacher Education Center Act of 1973 (ss. 231.600-231.610), as amended.

(2) Pursuant to rules of the State Board of Education, each district shall develop and submit to the commissioner for approval a 5-year master plan for inservice educational training. The plan shall be based on an assessment of the district's inservice educational training needs conducted by a committee which shall include parents, classroom teachers, and other educational personnel. The plan shall be updated annually by July 1 and shall include inservice activities for all district employees, from all fund sources.

236.0815 Inclusion of certain students within basic program.—A student who has completed the credit requirements for graduation prescribed by the school board pursuant to s. 232.246, but has not mastered the basic skills or functional literacy requirements therein, and is being provided special instruction designed to remedy his identified deficiencies, shall not be reported in membership in the basic program of grades 10, 11, and 12 as provided by s. 236.081 beyond his senior year. The additional educational services provided these students shall be funded from the district's receipts of state compensatory education funds.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-74; s. 5, ch. 79-213.

236.082 Preliminary distribution.—For the 1973-1974 fiscal year and each year thereafter, the procedure for determining the monthly dollar distribution to each district prior to the first membership survey shall be based on one-twelfth of the amount the department may reasonably expect the district to receive during that fiscal year. Such payments are to be advances and shall not affect the district's entitlement for the fiscal year.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-345.

236.083 Funds for student transportation.—The annual allocation to each district for transportation to the public schools of students in kindergarten through grade 12 and exceptional students shall be determined as follows:

(1) Subject to the regulations of the state board, each district shall determine the membership of students who are transported:

(a) By reason of living 2 miles or more from school;

(b) By reason of being physically handicapped, regardless of distance to school; and

(c) By reason of being vocational and exceptional students transported from one school center to another.

(2) Subject to the regulation of the state board, each district shall determine and report one-half of the round-trip route mileage required to transport students to and from school and one-half of the round-trip mileage on routes between school centers required to transport exceptional students and vocational students to and from centers where appropriate programs are provided. One-half of the round-trip route mileage shall be computed by adding:

(a) The loaded miles of each school bus route as designated in accordance with s. 234.061 and served by a bus as defined by regulations of the state board, except that miles traveled for a side route to pick up students living within 1½ miles of the main trunk route and miles traveled to transport students to evening schools and enrichment programs shall not be added; and

(b) Fifty percent of the miles of the bus route traveled without students.

(3) A density index for each district shall be computed by the department annually by dividing the membership of transported students as determined in subsection (1) by the bus route mileage as determined in subsection (2).

(4) The allocation for each district for a 180-day school term shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Allowable per student cost} = \frac{239.92}{\text{the density index of the district}} + 30.95$$ except that the districts with a density index of 1.70 students per route mile or less will be computed as having a density index of 1.70, and districts with a density of 4.70 or more students per route mile will be counted as having a density index of 4.70. This formula shall be recomputed annually by the Department of Education on the basis of the latest available data and submitted annually to the Legislature prior to the convening of the regular annual session. The allocation to each district for transportation shall be determined by multiplying the allowable cost per student by the membership of all students who are transported as determined in subsection (1).

(5) If a district operates schools more or less than 180 days, the allocation per student for transportation to such schools shall be calculated by multiplying the quotient of the days the schools operate divided by 180 days times the allocation per student determined in subsection (4). The allocation for each district for transportation of students in membership more or less than 180 days shall be determined by multiplying the allowable cost per student determined in this subsection by the membership of such students who are transported.

(6) When authorized by rules of the state board, an allocation of 15 cents per mile shall be allowed for miles traveled by passenger cars with students providing for transportation of isolated students.

(7) The total allocation to each district for transportation of students shall be the sum of the amounts determined in subsections (4), (5), (6), and (10). If the funds appropriated for the purpose of implementing this section are not sufficient to pay the requirements in full, the Department of Education shall prorate the available funds on a percentage basis.

(8) No district shall use funds to purchase transportation equipment and supplies at prices which exceed those determined by the department to be the lowest which can be obtained, as prescribed in s. 229.79.

(9) Pursuant to rules adopted by the State Board of Education, a district school board may submit to the Commissioner of Education a proposed plan to use school buses on a pilot-project basis for the conveyance of the elderly or the physically or mentally handicapped. A pilot project shall be developed in the following manner:

(a) The superintendent of any school district wishing to participate shall prepare an itemized statement of the estimated total cost of the pilot project and a copy of the resolution of the school board indicating its intention to provide at least one-fourth of the total cost of the project, either directly or through the use of federal funds or other public or private resources. The school board may impose fares for the transportation services provided through the pilot project. Any school district proposing to establish a pilot project shall plan cooperatively with other institutions, agencies, and organizations in the district which provide or are in need of transportation services for the elderly or the physically or mentally handicapped.

(b) The commissioner shall review and approve, disapprove, or resubmit to the school board for modification each proposed plan. For the 1978-1979 fiscal year, the commissioner shall approve pilot projects in up to five school districts and shall authorize distribution of funds in an amount not to exceed three-fourths of the total cost of the proposed pilot projects.

(10) Funds allocated or apportioned for the payment of student transportation services may be used to pay local general purpose transportation systems for transportation of students to and from school. Subject to the rules of the State Board of Education, each school district shall determine and report the number of assigned students using general purpose transportation to transport students to school for the first time on any school day and the one-way miles on routes between school centers required to transport exceptional students and vocational students to centers where appropriate programs are provided. The allocation to each district for such transportation shall be determined by multiplying the allowable cost per student by the membership of students who are transported by general purpose transportation. The allowable cost per student shall be equal to the round-trip fare charged by the general purpose transportation system or the allowable cost per student riding a school bus, whichever is less.

236.0841 Student enrichment and remedial programs.—Each school district may provide any amount from current operation funds of the Florida Education Finance Program for salaries of personnel who are employed, pursuant to regulations of the state board, to provide supplementary enrichment and remedial activities. The enrichment and remedial activities, when offered, shall be provided students during periods of time supplemental to or beyond the required 180 days of instruction.

History.—s. 27, ch. 74-227.

236.088 Basic skills and functional literacy compensatory supplement.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Compensatory Education Act of 1977."

(2) PURPOSE AND INTENT.—The purpose of this section is to provide supplemental funds to each school district to be used for the sole purpose of providing direct remedial instruction to those students enrolled in the K-12 program who have need of special educational assistance in order that their level of educational attainment may be raised to that appropriate for their age. It is the intent of the Legislature that each school district shall utilize the instructional programs which in the professional opinion of the teacher will be most effective and that the effectiveness of this program shall be evaluated in terms of the increase in student achievement in the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and writing as measured by pretest and post-test of each student receiving special educational assistance from the funds provided by this section.

(3) ALLOCATION OF FUNDS.—The funds appropriated annually for this section shall be allocated proportionately to each school district on the basis of the number of students in grades 3, 5, 8, and 11 whose scores on the statewide student assessment tests are at the 25th percentile or below.

(4) DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.—

(a) To be eligible to receive funds under this section, a school district shall describe in writing its compensatory education program. The description shall include all special remedial and compensatory instruction to be provided by the district from all fund sources. The district description shall include a description of the program to be conducted at each separate school or location in the district and shall include the estimated number of students to participate in the program; the estimated number of teachers, volunteers, and others to be utilized in the program; and the estimated budget for each such program.

(b) The programs provided by funds received under this section shall meet the following criteria:

1. Each participating student shall be determined by the school district on the basis of the district's assessment tests to need special educational assistance in order that the student's level of educational attainment in basic skills may be raised to that appropriate for children of the student's age.

2. The program is based on performance objectives related to educational achievement in the basic skills and provides supplementary services designed to meet the special educational needs of each participating student.

3. The program is evaluated in a manner consistent with the performance objectives and includes a pretest and post-test for each participating student.

4. The state and local funds expended in the program shall be accounted for separately from all other funds expended by the district. Expenditures shall be reported as a categorical program in the manner prescribed by the State Board of Education.

5. The program shall be conducted in a manner which shall permit the exclusion of instructional staff members employed through the use of funds in this program from the comparability requirements of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

6. The program shall be approved by the Commissioner of Education within 60 days of receipt of the program description, and the department shall forward funds to the district.

7. Each application by a district for a grant under the state compensatory education program shall contain an assurance that the use of the grant funds will not result in a decrease in the use for educationally deprived children of state, local, or federal funds which, in the absence of funds under the compensatory education program, have been made available for the education of such children. No project under the state compensatory education program shall be approved unless the state funds for the compensatory education program will not be used to supplant other state, local, or federal funds being used for the education of such students.

(5) ADMINISTRATION.—

(a) The Division of Public Schools shall be utilized as needed to provide technical assistance to districts and to carry out the department's responsibilities for reviewing, monitoring, and evaluating the programs conducted under this section.

(b) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules which in its opinion are necessary to assure that the programs in each school district are carried out in a manner consistent with the purpose and intent of this section. The Commissioner of Education shall prepare, on or before January 10 of each year, a report which shall show the number of students participating in programs under this section, the extent to which student achievement increased, the programs which appear to be most successful, and an analysis of the expenditure of funds by district. Said report shall be transmitted to the State Board of Education and the presiding officers of the Legislature.

(c) Beginning with the 1978-1979 school year, the Commissioner shall evaluate the cost effectiveness of the district compensatory education programs. Of the district programs which have been in operation for 2 or more years, state funding shall be terminated for the five programs which are determined to be the least cost effective each year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-392.

236.089 Allocations for student development services.—The Department of Education shall allocate an amount as prescribed annually by the Legislature to each district in the same ratio as the full-time equivalent student membership in the program categories established in s. 236.081(1)(c), exclusive of special adult general education programs of the state for the prior year, for student development services. These services may include any or all of the following: career education, elementary guidance counselors, occupational specialists, and placement specialists.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-430.

236.122 Allocation for instructional materials.—The department is authorized to allocate and distribute to each district an amount as prescribed annually by the Legislature for instructional materials for student membership in basic and special programs in grades K-12, which will provide for growth and maintenance needs. For purposes of this section, unweighted full-time equivalent students enrolled in the laboratory schools in the state university system are to be included as school district students and reported as such to the department. The annual allocation shall be determined as follows:

(1) The growth allocation for each school district shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Subtract from that district's projected full-time equivalent membership of students in basic and special programs in grades K-12 used in determining the initial allocation of the Florida Education Finance Program, the prior year's full-time equivalent membership of students in basic and special programs in grades K-12 for that district.

(b) Multiply any such increase in full-time equivalent student membership by the allocation for a set of instructional materials, as determined by the department, or as provided for in the General Appropriations Act.

(c) The amount thus determined shall be that district's initial allocation for growth for the school year. However, the department shall recompute and adjust the initial allocation based on actual full-time equivalent student membership data for that year.

(2) The maintenance of the instructional materials allocation for each school district shall be calculated by multiplying each district's prior year full-time equivalent membership of students in basic and special programs in grades K-12 by the allocation for maintenance of a set of instructional materials as provided for in the General Appropriations Act. The amount thus determined shall be that district's initial allocation for maintenance for the school year; however, the department shall recompute and adjust the initial allocation based on such actual full-time equivalent student membership data for that year.

(3) In the event the funds appropriated are not sufficient for the purpose of implementing this section in full, the department shall prorate the funds available for instructional materials after first funding in full each district's growth allocation.

236.13 Expenditure of funds by school board.

—All state funds apportioned to the credit of any district shall constitute a part of the district school fund of that district and shall be budgeted and expended under authority of the school board of that district subject to the provisions of law and regulations of the state board.

236.24 Sources of district school fund.—

(1) The district school fund shall consist of funds derived from the district school tax levy; state appropriations; appropriations by county commissioners; local, state, and federal school food service funds; any and all other sources for school purposes; national forest trust funds and other federal sources; and gifts and other sources.

(2) The school board shall have the power at all times to invest district school funds in bonds of the United States Government or any instruments of indebtedness fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to interest and principal by the United States Government, in the bonds of the same district, and in State Board of Education bonds of any district.

XII of the Constitution of 1885, as amended; converted to statutory law by s. 10, Art. XII of the Constitution as revised in 1968; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 145, ch. 72-221; s. 2, ch. 73-137.

236.25 District school tax.—

(1) Each school board desiring to participate in the state allocation of funds for current operation as prescribed by s. 236.081(6) shall levy no more than 8 mills of tax on the nonexempt assessed valuation for school purposes of the district, except that for fiscal year 1979-1980 the levy shall be no more than 6.75 mills, exclusive of millage voted under the provisions of ss. 9(b) and 12 of Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(2) These taxes shall be certified, assessed, and collected as prescribed in s. 237.091 and shall be expended as provided by law.

(3) All levies and collections of ad valorem taxes made for the support of public schools prior to the effective date of this section are hereby approved, ratified and confirmed.

(4) Nothing in chapter 75-284, Laws of Florida, shall in any way be construed to increase the maximum school millage levies as provided for in subsection (1).

236.29 Apportionment and use of district school fund.—

The district school fund shall be apportioned, expended and disbursed in the district solely for the support of the public schools of the district as prescribed by law; provided, however, that the district school fund shall also be used to pay the principal and interest on bonds legally issued and payable from said fund, together with other proper items of debt service against such fund, including any necessary refunding expense as prescribed by regulations of the State Board of Education. The school board shall, before the maturity of such bonds or other indebtedness and before interest due dates, deposit with the paying agent or make available, as designated in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or other legal evidences of indebtedness, sufficient funds with which to pay all principal and interest when due; provided, that when such funds have been so deposited with the paying agent or made available, all interest on the indebtedness represented by the maturing bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness shall cease as of their maturity dates; and provided, further, that if any such bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness are not presented for payment within 6 months after the date on which they mature, the funds shall be returned to the school board and shall be placed by said board in the district school fund and the school board shall pay said bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness from said fund when presented for payment. Any holder of bonds, coupons or other indebtedness claiming interest after maturity on account of the fact that funds were not deposited with the paying agent or made available to pay such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness at maturity, shall be required to produce evidence in the form of a letter from the paying agent or the school board of the district, respectively, acknowledging that the bonds, coupons and other evidences of indebtedness upon which interest is claimed were presented for payment, that no funds were available for the payment thereof, that such bonds, coupons and other evidences of indebtedness were presented for payment at least annually thereafter and that no funds were available to pay such indebtedness. The paying agent or the school board of the district, whichever has the duty of holding the funds, shall, upon request of the holder of defaulted bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness, furnish to such holder the letter required herein. When such evidence is presented the district school fund shall be liable for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness from maturity until paid at the rate prescribed on the face thereof. If at any time any bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness are reduced to judgment, the district school fund shall be responsible for past due interest only at the rate prescribed by the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and any rate of interest in excess of that amount shall be illegal and invalid. Such judgments shall bear interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum until paid. When any proposal for refunding the indebtedness against said district school fund has been prepared and approved by the Department of Education, as required by law, and when the holders of at least 80 percent of the outstanding indebtedness against said fund have agreed in writing to the refunding plan, the school board shall be authorized to pay, out of the district school fund, from and after that date, on the original and refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness only the rate of interest which has been agreed upon for the refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and no owner or holder of a bond, coupon or other evidence of indebtedness shall be entitled to a higher rate of interest after that date; provided, that such owner or holder shall be given the option by the school board of receiving payment in cash for all principal and interest due on the bonds and coupons or other evidence of indebtedness he holds at the same rate at which the remaining indebtedness has been refunded.

236.31 District millage elections.—The school board, pursuant to resolution adopted at a regular meeting, shall direct the county commissioners to call an election at which the electors within the school districts may approve an ad valorem tax millage as authorized in s. 9, Art. VII of the State Constitution. Such election may be held at any time, except that not more than one such election shall be held during any 12-month period. Any millage so authorized shall be levied for a period not in excess of 2 years or until changed by another millage election, whichever is the earlier. In the event any such election is invalidated by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidated election shall be considered not to have been held.

(2) FORM OF BALLOT.—The school board, at its option, may determine whether to use paper ballots or automatic voting machines for said election. On the ballot, the school board may propose a single millage or two millages, with one for operating expenses and another for a local capital improvement reserve fund. When two millage figures are proposed, each millage shall be voted on separately. (5) RESULTS OF ELECTION.—When the school board proposes one tax levy for operating expenses and another for the local capital improvement reserve fund, the results shall be considered separately:

(a) The tax levy for operating expenses receiving the majority of all votes for such tax levies cast by the qualified electors, or, in case no one levy receives a majority, that levy for which, together with the votes cast for higher levies, a majority of the votes are cast, shall become the levy for operating expenses for the district.

XII of the State Constitution of 1885 as amended, together with any other funds directed to be placed therein by regulations of the State Board of Education, and other similar funds which are to be used for capital outlay purposes within the district.

236.36 Proposals for issuing bonds.—Whenever the residents of a school district in this state shall desire the issuance of bonds by such school district for the purpose of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing, or otherwise improving buildings or school grounds, or for any other exclusive use of the public schools within such school district, they shall present to the school board a petition signed by not less than 25 percent of the duly qualified electors residing within the school district, setting forth in general terms the amount of the bonds desired to be issued, the purpose thereof, and that the proceeds derived from the sale of such bonds shall be used for the purposes set forth in the petition. The requirement for such petition may be dispensed with and the proposition of issuing bonds for the purposes as herein outlined may be initiated by the school board of the said district; however, nothing contained in this section shall repeal any of the provisions of ss. 100.201-100.221, 100.241, 100.261-100.341, and 100.351.

236.37 Procedure of school boards with reference to proposals for issuing bonds.—It shall be the duty of the school boards of the several districts of Florida to plan the school financial program of the district so that, insofar as practicable, needed capital outlay expenditures can be made without the necessity of issuing bonds. Whenever the school board of any district proposes an issue of bonds or has received any petition proposing the issuance of bonds, as provided in s. 236.36, the said board shall forthwith proceed as follows:

(1) The school board, after considering recommendations submitted by the superintendent, shall determine whether in its opinion the projects for which bonds are proposed to be issued are essential for the school program of the district.

(2) If the proposed projects are deemed essential by the school board or if the proposed projects are rejected in whole or in part, the school board shall, if practicable, prepare a plan for carrying out the projects, or at least part of the projects, with current funds which have been or can be set aside for that purpose.

(3) If the school board determines that any portion of the projects cannot be carried out so that all costs can be met from the proceeds of a special district millage voted for that purpose or from district current funds which are not needed for salaries of teachers or other necessary expenses of operating the schools or from such funds which can reasonably be expected to be available by the time the projects are completed, or cannot be completed on the basis of a loan against district current funds, approved in accordance with s. 237.27, the school board shall then determine the amount of bonds necessary to be issued to complete the projects as proposed for the district and shall adopt and transmit to the Department of Education a resolution setting forth the proposals with reference to the projects and the proposed plan for financing the projects, said resolution to be in such form and contain such information as may be prescribed by the State Board of Education. If the department shall determine that the issuance of bonds as proposed is unnecessary or is unnecessary in the amount and according to the plan proposed, and shall notify the school board accordingly, the school board shall then amend its resolution to conform to the recommendation of the department, and no further action shall be taken for a period of at least 1 year on the proposal for a bond issue unless, within 30 days thereafter, a petition signed by at least 35 percent of the qualified electors within the district is received by the school board requesting that an election be called to vote bonds for the purposes set forth and in an amount which shall not exceed the amount of bonds proposed by the school board. If such a petition is received by the school board, as provided herein, or if the resolution proposing a bond issue has been approved by the department, the school board shall then proceed at its next ensuing meeting to adopt a resolution authorizing that an election be held for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued as proposed.

236.38 Publication of resolution.—It shall be the duty of the school board, when the resolution proposing a bond issue has been approved by the Department of Education or when such a proposal has been rejected by the Department of Education and a new petition signed by 35 percent of the qualified electors of the district has been presented, and when the resolution authorizing an election has been adopted as set forth above, to cause such resolution to be published once each week for 4 successive weeks in some newspaper published in the district. This resolution may also include a notice of election as prescribed in s. 236.39.

236.39 Notice of election; qualifications of electors.—The said school board shall also at the meeting, at which is passed the resolution provided for in s. 236.37 order that an election shall be held in said school district to determine whether or not there shall be issued by said district the bonds provided for in said resolution, in which election only the duly qualified electors thereof who are freeholders shall vote, and prior to the time of holding said election the said school board shall cause to be published once each week for 4 successive weeks in a newspaper published in the district a notice of the holding of said election which shall specify the time and place or places of the holding thereof. The resolution, prescribed in s. 236.37, may be incorporated in and published as a part of the notice prescribed in this section.

236.40 Conduct of election; form of ballot; appointment of inspectors; canvassing returns.—The election, provided for in s. 236.39, shall be held at the place or several places in said district where the last general election was held throughout said district, unless the school board shall otherwise order; and the school board shall appoint inspectors for the election and cause to be prepared and furnished to said inspectors the ballots to be used at said election; the form of ballots for such election shall be: "For bonds" or "Against bonds." The inspectors shall make returns to the said school board immediately after the said election, and the said school board shall hold a special meeting as soon thereafter as practicable for the purpose of canvassing said election returns and shall determine and certify to the result thereof.

236.41 Result of election held.—If it shall appear by the result of said election that a majority of the votes cast shall be "For bonds," the school board shall be authorized and required to issue the bonds authorized by said election for the purposes specified in the resolution as published, not to exceed the amount therein named; but, if the majority of the votes cast shall have been "Against bonds," no bonds shall be issued.

236.42 If election adverse, no second election within 6 months.—If the result of the said election shall be adverse to the issuance of said bonds, no election shall be held for such purpose within 6 months thereafter; except, however, in the event such election shall result or shall have resulted in an equal number of votes being cast for the issuance of said bonds as shall be cast adverse to issuance of bonds, the school board may call and order another or second election within said district to have determined the question of whether the bonds specified in the original petition and resolution shall be issued by said district, after giving notice as provided for by s. 236.39, and it shall not be necessary to have presented to said school board further petitions to order said second election.

236.43 Receiving bids and sale of bonds.—

(1) In case the issuance of bonds shall be authorized at said election, or in case any bonds outstanding against the district are being refunded, the school board shall cause notice to be given by publication in some newspaper published in the district that said board will receive bids for the purchase of the bonds at the office of the superintendent of said district. The notice shall be published twice and the first publication shall be given not less than 30 days prior to the date set for receiving the bids. Said notice shall specify the amount of the bonds offered for sale and shall state whether the bids shall be sealed bids or whether the bonds are to be sold at auction, shall give the schedule of maturities of the proposed bonds and such other pertinent information as may be prescribed by regulations of the state board. Bidders may be invited to name the rate of interest which the bonds are to bear or the school board may name rates of interest and invite bids thereon. In addition to publication of notice of the proposed sale as set forth above, the school board shall also notify in writing at least three recognized bond dealers in the state and shall also at the same time notify the Department of Education concerning the proposed sale, enclosing a copy of the advertisement.

(2) All bonds and refunding bonds issued as provided by law shall be sold to the highest and best bidder at such public sale unless sold at a better price or yield basis within 30 days after failure to receive an acceptable bid at a duly advertised public sale; provided, that at no time shall bonds or refunding bonds be sold or exchanged at less than par value except as specifically authorized by the department; and provided, further, that the school board shall have the right to reject all bids and cause a new notice to be given in like manner inviting other bids for such bonds, or to sell all or any part of such bonds to the state board at a price and yield basis which shall not be less advantageous to the school board than that represented by the highest and best bid received. In the marketing of said bonds the school board shall be entitled to have such assistance as can be rendered by the Governor, the State Treasurer, the Commissioner of Education, or any other public state officer or agency. In determining the highest and best bidder for bonds offered for sale, the net interest cost to the school board as shown in standard bond tables shall govern; provided, that the determination of the school board as to the highest and best bidder shall be final.

236.44 Bidders to give security.—The school board may require of all bidders for said bonds that they give security by bond or by a deposit to said school board that the bidder shall comply with the terms of the bid, and any bidder whose bid shall be accepted shall be liable to the school board for all damages on account of the nonperformance of the terms of such bid or to a forfeiture of the deposit required by said school board.

236.45 Form and denomination of bonds.—

The school board may prescribe the denomination of the bonds to be issued and such bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons in the discretion of the board. The form of the bonds to be issued may be prescribed by the state board on the recommendation of the Department of Legal Affairs. The schedule of maturities of the proposed bonds shall be so arranged that the total payments required each year, including the payments on other bonds outstanding against the district, shall be as nearly equal as practicable. The schedule shall provide that all bonds are to be retired within a period of 20 years from the date of issuance unless a longer period is required and has been specifically approved by the Department of Education. All bonds issued hereunder which bear interest in excess of 2.99 percent shall be callable on terms prescribed by the school board beginning not later than 10 years from the date of issuance.

236.46 Investment of fiduciary funds in bonds; security for deposit of public funds.—

School district bonds authorized and issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be lawful investments for fiduciary and trust funds including all funds in the control of trustees, assignees, administrators, and executors, and may be accepted as security for all deposits of public funds.

History.—s. 1046, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(365).

236.47 Records to be kept and reports to be made.—

The school board shall maintain a complete record of all bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, which record shall show upon what authority the bonds are issued, the amount for which issued, the persons to whom issued, the date of issuance, the purpose or purposes for which issued, the rate of interest to be paid, and the time and place of payment of each installment of principal and interest. This record shall be so arranged as to show the amount of principal and interest to be paid each year and shall also show the annual or semiannual payments which are made and the bonds which are canceled. In addition the superintendent shall file with the Department of Education in accordance with regulations of the state board reports giving such information as may be required regarding any bonds which may be issued as provided herein.

When an issue of bonds for any school district shall be authorized in the manner provided under the terms of this chapter, such bonds shall, in the discretion of the school board, be subject to validation in the manner provided for in chapter 75. In lieu of validation as set forth in that chapter, the school board may, in its discretion, submit to the Department of Legal Affairs all information relating to the issuance of bonds as provided in said chapter 75, and an approving opinion of the Department of Legal Affairs shall be sufficient evidence that the bonds are valid. Bonds reciting that they are issued pursuant to the terms of this chapter shall, in any action or proceeding involving their validity, be conclusively deemed to be fully authorized thereby, to have been issued, sold, executed, and delivered in conformity therewith, and with all other provisions of law applicable thereto, and shall be incontestable, anything herein or in other statutes to the contrary notwithstanding, unless such action or proceeding is begun before or within 30 days after the date upon which the bonds are sold, paid for and delivered.

236.49 Proceeds; how expended.—The proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be held by the school board and shall be expended by the board for the purpose for which said bonds were authorized for said school district, and shall be held and expended in the manner following:

(1) The school board shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the proceeds arising from the sale of each issue of bonds in a separate bond construction fund account in the school depository.

(2) All or any part of the fund derived from the proceeds of any such bond issue that in the judgment of the school board is not immediately needed may be placed on time deposit in the school depository or invested in securities issued by or guaranteed by the United States Government, or in the following securities of the district maturing not later than the time when the funds are reasonably expected to be needed:

(a) In instruments of indebtedness of the United States Government or in any bonds or obligations which shall then be fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to principal by the United States Government, at the then current market price of such bonds or other obligations; provided, that any such bond or other obligation purchased under the authority hereof shall be surrenderable at par and accrued interest not later than 1 year next after the date of the purchase of the same.

(b) In any bonds issued by the district; provided, such bonds are not in default and can be obtained at a price which will result in a net saving to the taxpayers of the district.

(c) In any obligations of the school board approved by the state board or Department of Education in accordance with the provisions of s. 237.161.

(d) In any bonds issued by the State Board of Education.

236.50 Disposition of surplus of bond issue.—

Should there remain any of the proceeds of the sale of school district bonds after the purpose and object for which the said bonds were issued shall have been carried out and performed by the school board, the surplus then shall be held by the school board and expended for the exclusive use of the public schools within the school district as said school board may deem reasonable and proper.

236.51 Additional bond issues.—After the issuance by any school district of bonds in the manner authorized in this chapter, the qualified electors of such school district may thereafter, from time to time, in the manner herein provided for, authorize one or more additional bond issues as they may determine upon.

History.—s. 1051, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(370).

236.52 Source and use of district interest and sinking fund.—The district interest and sinking fund of any school district shall comprise the proceeds of the tax levied for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of bonds outstanding against the district as provided in this chapter and in addition such funds as may accrue to the credit of the district interest and sinking fund from interest on deposits, investments or other sources. The district interest and sinking fund in each district shall be used to pay the principal and interest on bonds legally issued against the district and other proper items of debt service against such district, including any necessary refunding expense as prescribed by regulations of the State Board of Education. The school board shall, before the maturity of bonds and before interest due dates, deposit with the paying agent or make available, as designated in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, sufficient money of the district interest and sinking fund with which to pay all principal and interest when due; provided, that when such money has been so deposited with the paying agent or made available, all interest on the indebtedness represented by the maturing bonds or coupons shall cease as of their maturity dates; and provided, further, that if any such bonds or coupons are not presented for payment within 6 months after the date on which they mature, the money shall be returned to the school board and shall be held by said board as a reserve fund in the account of the district interest and sinking fund until the bonds and coupons are presented for payment. Any holder of bonds or coupons claiming interest after maturity shall be required to produce evidence in the form of a letter from the paying agent or the school board of the district, respectively, acknowledging that the bonds or coupons upon which interest is claimed were presented for payment upon maturity, that no funds were available for the payment thereof, that such bonds or coupons were presented for payment at least annually thereafter and that no funds were available to pay such bonds or coupons. The paying agent or the school board of the district, whichever has the duty of holding the money shall, upon request of the holder of defaulted bonds or coupons, furnish to such holder the letter required herein. When such evidence is presented, the district interest and sinking fund shall be liable for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds and coupons from maturity until paid at the rate prescribed on the face of the bonds. If at any time any bonds or coupons are reduced to judgment, the district interest and sinking fund shall be responsible for past due interest only at the rate prescribed by the bonds and any rate of interest in excess of that amount shall be illegal and invalid. Such judgments shall bear interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum until paid. When any proposal for refunding the indebtedness against any district has been prepared and approved by the Department of Education, as required by law, and when the holders of at least 80 percent of the outstanding indebtedness represented by the bond issue have agreed in writing to the refunding plan, the school board shall be authorized to pay, from and after that date on the original and refunding bonds from the district interest and sinking fund, only the rate of interest which has been agreed upon for the refunding bonds and no owner or holder of a bond or coupon shall be entitled to a higher rate of interest after that date; provided, that such owner or holder shall be given the option by the school board of receiving payment in cash for all principal and interest due on the bonds and coupons he holds at the same rate at which the remaining bonds and coupons have been refunded.

236.55 Interest and sinking funds may be invested in certain bonds, warrants and notes.—The school board shall have the power at all times to invest the interest and sinking funds collected for the retirement of any bonds of any school district in bonds issued by the United States Government or any bonds fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to interest and principal by the United States Government, in the bonds of another school district of the same county, in loans of the school board or of any district in the county incurred under the provisions of s. 237.27, or in any district general school fund bonds, warrants or notes of said district as authorized by the state board or Department of Education. Said bonds, warrants or notes shall be of such date and maturity that they will mature on or before the date of maturity of the district's bonds with whose sinking fund they have been purchased. Such bonds, warrants or notes shall be purchased at par or less, except when purchase of any such bonds or warrants at a price above par is specifically approved on the basis of an application therefor submitted to the Department of Education. The school board shall have authority at any time to use the interest and sinking fund of any district for purchasing for the purpose of canceling and retiring bonds outstanding against the interest and sinking fund of said district at any price which will result in a net saving to the taxpayers of the district; provided, always, that the school board shall have the right to keep the interest and sinking fund on deposit earning the rate of interest agreed upon until such time as within its judgment it may be able to invest it in bonds, warrants or notes to better advantage as herein provided for.

236.56 Disposition of balance in interest and sinking fund.—If all principal and interest outstanding against any school district shall have been paid, and there shall still remain a balance in the interest and sinking fund to the credit of that district, the board shall, by resolution, authorize this balance to be transferred to the credit of the district school fund.

(1) In aid of the provisions of s. 18, Art. XII of the State Constitution of 1885 as adopted by s. 9(d) of Art. XII, 1968 Revised Constitution and the additional provisions of s. 9(d), the State Board of Administration may upon request of the State Board of Education, act as fiscal agent for the State Board of Education in the issuance and sale of any or all bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, including any refunding of bonds, certificates or interest coupons thereon which may be issued pursuant to the above cited provisions of the state constitution and upon request of the State Board of Education the State Board of Administration may take over the management, control, bond trusteeship, administration, custody and payment of any or all debt service or other funds or assets now or hereafter available for any bonds or certificates issued for the purpose of obtaining funds for the use of any school board or to pay, fund or refund any bonds or certificates theretofore issued for such purpose. The State Board of Education may from time to time provide by its duly adopted resolution or resolutions the duties said fiscal agent shall perform as authorized by this section and such duties may be changed, modified or repealed by subsequent resolution or resolutions as the State Board of Education may deem appropriate, provided, however, that such changes shall only affect the duties of the State Board of Administration as fiscal agent and shall in no wise affect or modify the paramount constitutional authority of the State Board of Education nor affect, modify or impair the contract rights of persons holding or owning said obligations so authorized to be issued.

(2) No such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall ever be issued by the State Board of Administration until after the adoption of a resolution requesting the issuance thereof by the State Board of Education for and on behalf of the district for which such obligations are to be issued.

(3) All such bonds or certificates issued pursuant to this act shall be issued in the name of the State Board of Education but shall be issued for and on behalf of the school board requesting the issuance thereof and shall be issued pursuant to any rules or regulations adopted by the State Board of Education which are not in conflict with the provisions of s. 18 of Art. (4) The proceeds of any sale of original bonds or original certificates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the particular construction account for which said original bonds or original certificates were issued and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the State Board of Education and withdrawals from said construction accounts shall be made only upon warrants signed by the State Comptroller, countersigned by the Governor of the state, and drawn upon the State Treasurer. Such warrants shall be issued by the Comptroller only when the vouchers requesting such warrants are accompanied by the certificates of the State Board of Education to the effect that such withdrawals are proper expenditures for the cost of the particular construction account against which the requested warrant is to be drawn.

(5) The State Board of Administration shall annually determine the amounts necessary to meet the debt service requirements of all bonds or certificates administered by it pursuant to this section and shall certify to the State Board of Education said amounts needed. The State Board of Education, upon being satisfied that said amounts are correct, shall pay said amounts direct to the State Board of Administration for application by said State Board of Administration as provided under the terms of the resolutions authorizing the issuance of said bonds or certificates and as provided in s. 18 of Art. XII of the State Constitution of 1885 as adopted by s. 9(d) of Art. XII, 1968 Revised Constitution, and the additional provisions of s. 9(d).

(6) The expenses of the State Board of Administration incident to the issuance and sale of any bonds or certificates issued under the provisions of the constitution and under the provisions of this section shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds or certificates or from the funds distributable to each county under the provisions of s. 18(a) of Art. XII of the Constitution of 1885 as adopted by s. 9(d) of Art. XII, 1968 Revised Constitution. XII of the State Constitution of 1885 as adopted by s. 9(d) of Art. XII, 1968 Revised Constitution.

(7) The provisions of this section contemplate that it will aid the State Board of Education and better serve the purposes contemplated by s. 18 of Art. XII of the State Constitution of 1885 as adopted by s. 9(d) of Art. XII, 1968 Revised Constitution, and the additional provisions of s. 9(d) and not be inconsistent therewith.

(1) For the purpose of administering the provisions of s. 9(d), Art. XII of the State Constitution as certificates are issued, computed in accordance with the statutes in force in the school fiscal year preceding the school fiscal year in which such bonds or certificates are issued.

(3) The provisions of this section are not intended to, and shall not, be applicable to, or confer any rights on, any district to payments from said motor vehicle license taxes except to the full extent necessary to pay all principal of and interest on, and reserves for, bonds or certificates so issued by such school board and by said State Board of Education for and on behalf of such districts, in each future school fiscal year as the same shall mature and become due; and except for such purpose, all payments of the amounts of said motor vehicle license taxes distributable under the provisions of s. 18, Art. (1) The school board of any district proposing a tax levy for current operating purposes no greater than the minimum tax levy required to participate in the Florida Education Finance Program shall cause a summary of its tentative budget, including the proposed millage levies as provided for by law, to be advertised one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district, or to be posted at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper. The advertisement shall state that the school board will meet on a day fixed in the advertisement, not earlier than 1 week and not later than 2 weeks from the date of the advertising, for the purpose of a public hearing concerning the tentatively adopted budget. The school board shall meet upon the date fixed in the advertisement for the public hearing and from day to day thereafter, if it deems necessary, for the purpose of continuing the public hearings and making whatever revisions in the budget it may deem necessary. The school board shall then adopt the budget for the district for the current fiscal year, and shall require the superintendent to transmit forthwith two copies of the adopted budget to the Department of Education for approval as prescribed by law and regulations of the state board.

(2) Any school board proposing to establish a tax levy for operating purposes in excess of the millage required of the district to participate in the Florida Education Finance Program shall, in addition to the requirements in subsection (1), place an additional advertisement in the same newspaper which shall be one-quarter page in size and printed in at least 18-point type size. The advertisement shall contain the millage required to be levied by the school board, the millage proposed by the board, and the date, time, and place of the meeting and shall state that a public hearing will be held on the issue. The advertisement required in this subsection may appear simultaneously with the one required in subsection (1), and the public hearings required in subsection (1) and this subsection may be held concurrently. However, separate motions shall be made and separate votes recorded on the establishment of the millage and on the adoption of the proposed budget. The provisions of this section shall govern the procedures of the school board in establishing the millage rates and the method of adopting the budget, the provisions of s. 200.065 or chapter 120 to the contrary notwithstanding.

237.091 Levying of taxes.—

(1) After the budget has been approved as official by the Department of Education, and upon receipt of the certificate of the property appraiser giving the assessed valuation of the county and of each of the special tax school districts, the school board shall determine by resolution the amounts necessary to be raised for current operating purposes and for each district bond interest and sinking fund and the millage necessary to be levied for each such fund, including the voted millage. A certified copy of said resolution shall thereupon be filed with the county property appraiser, and the school board shall also order the property appraiser to assess the several millages certified by said school board against the appropriate taxable property in the school district.

(2) The property appraiser shall then assess the taxes as ordered by the school board. Tax millages so assessed shall be clearly designated and separately identified as to source on the tax bill for other county taxes.

(3) The collector shall collect said taxes and pay over the same promptly as collected to the district school depository or depositories to be used as provided by law; provided, that all taxes authorized herein shall be assessed and collected on railroad, street railroad, sleeping car, parlor car, and telegraph company property in the manner now provided by law.

(4) The school board shall determine the millages to be levied by dividing the applicable assessed valuation, as finally certified by the property appraiser after equalization, into the amount budgeted to be received from taxes before 5 percent is deducted, using the nearest fraction of a mill or decimal equivalency ordinarily used in the district. If the assessed valuations are not equalized until after the budget becomes official and it is thereupon determined that the legal millage will not be sufficient to produce the amount estimated from taxes, the budget will be valid, notwithstanding the deficiency of taxes. The millage shall conform to the millage authorized by law.

However, if the actual receipts during any year is less than budgeted receipts, and any obligations are thereby incurred which cannot be met before the close of the year, such obligations shall be paid and accounted for in the ensuing fiscal year in the manner prescribed by regulations of the state board and shall be payable out of the first funds available for that purpose. In the event any suit is brought wherein the relief sought would require any change or alteration in any part of the official budget or, if brought before the budget becomes official, would require a change in the rate or expenditure of the preceding year, the Department of Education shall be made a party to said suit. If said suit is instituted without the department being named a party thereto, the same shall abate, and the court, on its own motion or on motion of any interested party, shall enter an order staying the cause until such time as the department is made a party thereto. If the department is not made a party thereto within a reasonable period, the suit shall be dismissed, either on the court's own motion or on motion of any interested party.

Note.—Former s. 237.25.

237.151 Current loans authorized under certain conditions.—At any time the current school funds on hand are insufficient to pay obligations created by the school board of any district, in accordance with the official budget of the district, the school board is authorized to negotiate a current loan to pay these obligations, providing for the repayment of that loan from the proceeds of revenues reasonably to be anticipated during the fiscal year in which the loan is made as prescribed below; provided, that the school board shall, whenever possible, so arrange its expenditures as to make the incurring of current loans unnecessary; provided further, that when it is deemed necessary, for the benefit of the schools of the district, for a current loan to be negotiated, the school board shall arrange for a loan only in the amount actually needed and for the repayment of the loan at the earliest date practicable.

(2) OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS NOT AFFECTED.—Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed to invalidate any outstanding debt of any district as now existing and now due, or to become due, or as requiring any school board to pay the same in full before being permitted to borrow 80 percent on the estimate for the next ensuing year.

(3) EVENTUALITY OF TAX LITIGATION; FINANCING OF OUTSTANDING BONDS.—In the event that the county tax roll is subjected to litigation and the tax collector is prevented from collecting taxes on that roll, the following shall apply:

of this section shall not apply if the collection of taxes is delayed beyond May 1.

(b) The school boards of the several districts of the state are authorized and empowered to borrow money, to be repaid from the district school fund for operating purposes and the district interest and sinking fund, at a rate not to exceed 6 percent per annum, for the purposes of paying any and all lawful operating expense and required debt service necessary for the outstanding bond issues of such districts at the times that the funds are needed to prevent the bonds or interest payments from being in default. However, the amount of money so borrowed shall be limited to the amount of the district school fund and district interest and sinking fund tax receipts included in the official school budget for that year or the amount necessary to be borrowed to meet such obligations, whichever amount is the lesser. Any funds borrowed pursuant to the authority of this subsection shall, insofar as possible, be repaid during the fiscal year in which the loan was made. However, any such loan unpaid at the end of the fiscal year shall be repaid from the first available revenue in the next succeeding year.

237.161 Obligations for a period of 1 year.—The school board of any district is authorized only under the following conditions to create obligations by way of anticipation of budgeted revenues accruing on a current basis without pledging the credit of the district or requiring future levy of taxes for certain purposes for a period of 1 year; provided, however, that such obligations may be extended from year to year with the consent of the lender for a period not to exceed 4 years:

(1) PURPOSES.—The purposes for which such obligations may be incurred within the intent of this section shall include only the purchase of school buses for transportation of pupils, the purchase of land for school sites and the erection, alteration or addition to school plants, the purchase of school plant equipment and the adjustment of insurance on school property on a 5-year plan, as provided by regulations of the state board.

(2) OBLIGATIONS MAY NOT EXCEED ONE-FOURTH OF DISTRICT AD VALOREM TAX REVENUE FOR OPERATIONS FOR THE PRECEDING YEAR.—No obligation of the nature prescribed herein may be incurred by any school board when such proposed obligations exceed one-fourth of the revenue received during the preceding year for the district school fund for operating expense of the district.

(3) SCHOOL BOARD TO SUBMIT PROPOSAL.—When the school board of any district proposes to incur obligations of the nature authorized in this section, the school board shall adopt and spread upon its minutes a resolution giving the nature of the obligations to be incurred, stating the plan of payment and providing that such funds will be budgeted during the period of the loan, from the current revenue to retire the obligations maturing during the year. This plan of payment shall not extend over a period longer than 1 year. The school board shall then cause a copy of the resolution to be prepared and sent to the Department of Education for approval.

(4) DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION MAY APPROVE OR REJECT PROPOSAL.—The Department of Education may approve the proposal for incurring obligations authorized under subsection (1) of this section, only when in its opinion the proposal is reasonable and just and the expenditure needed and when district finances will in its opinion permit the retirement when due of this indebtedness as proposed; provided that the department shall not approve more than two such applications for any district during any 1 year. When in its opinion there is any doubt regarding the merit or justification of the proposal or regarding the ability of the school board to retire the obligations proposed, the department shall reject the proposal and the school board shall not incur the obligation as proposed.

(5) INTEREST-BEARING NOTES AUTHORIZED.—The school board of any district for which the department has authorized the incurring of the obligations as provided in this section, shall issue interest-bearing notes for the obligations. The notes shall provide the terms of payment and shall not bear interest in excess of the rate authorized in s. 236.68. No additional obligations of a similar nature may be incurred against the funds of any school district when notes authorized under this subsection are still outstanding and unpaid when such proposed obligations together with the unpaid notes outstanding exceed one-fourth of the revenue of the preceding year, as defined in subsection (2) of this section.

237.171 Provisions for retirement of existing indebtedness which is unfunded or in default.—In any district in which there is any indebtedness outstanding against the district school fund which has not yet been funded, or at any time any such indebtedness is in default as to principal or interest, the school board shall proceed as follows:

(1) PLAN FOR RETIRING INDEBTEDNESS TO BE PROPOSED.—The school board shall prepare and propose a plan for retiring any unfunded indebtedness or any such indebtedness which is in default so that no creditor having a valid claim will be given a preferred status. This plan shall be so prepared as to show the funds needed for operating the schools on the most economical basis practicable, the amount of any other obligations which must be met each year, the total funds available each year for the entire school program, and the funds that can reasonably be spared for retirement of indebtedness without needlessly handicapping the school program and which can be budgeted each year for the retirement of such indebtedness.

(2) PROPOSAL TO BE SUBMITTED TO DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.—The proposal for funding and retiring all such indebtedness, when approved by the school board, shall be submitted to the Department of Education for consideration. The school board shall not attempt to retire any such indebtedness until this procedure has been followed and until it has had the benefit of the recommendations of the department. Upon receiving the proposal, the department shall determine the minimum funds which are, in its opinion, necessary for the operation of the school program in the district; shall determine what funds remain for retirement of indebtedness each year; shall determine whether the proposed plan is in accordance with these facts, and, if it is not, shall propose modifications in the plan in accordance with the facts. The recommendations of the department shall then be submitted to the school board for consideration.

(3) WHEN PLAN TO BE EFFECTIVE.—The plan for retiring indebtedness, herein prescribed, shall become effective when the school board and the department jointly agree upon the amount of funds necessary for operating the schools and the amount which can be budgeted each year for retiring indebtedness. When this plan has been agreed upon, it shall become the duty of the school board to see that the amount approved for retiring indebtedness is incorporated in the budget each year, and the department shall see that this amount has been incorporated before the budget is approved, or, if such an amount can not reasonably be incorporated in the budget, as shown by evidence submitted by the school board, determine the respects in which the plan should be modified, and to see that the budget includes the amount for retiring indebtedness which can reasonably be included.

(4) FUNDING OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS.—

(a) The school board of each district in the state having an outstanding indebtedness legally incurred and constituting an obligation or obligations payable from the district school fund is authorized to issue and sell interest-bearing coupon warrants in a sum or sums not to exceed the total amount of such indebtedness. Such coupon warrants shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 6 percent per annum, shall be payable either annually or semiannually, and shall be in such form and denomination as the school board issuing the same shall prescribe. None of such warrants shall be issued to run for a longer period of time than 10 years from the date of issue. Such warrants shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one, and each warrant shall have attached thereto interest coupons, each coupon bearing the number of its warrant and representing or calling for an annual or semiannual, as the case may be, payment of interest on its warrant.

(b) Each such warrant shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the school board issuing the same, and shall have the seal of said school board affixed thereto, and the interest coupons attached thereto shall be signed by, or bear the printed or lithographed facsimile signature of said chairman and secretary. Each warrant and interest coupon shall be dated and shall bear the due date. Such warrants and interest coupons shall be issued upon, and payable from, the fund designated on the face thereof. The fund so designated shall be the district school fund. All funds derived from the sale of interest-bearing coupon warrants, as herein provided, shall be used for the purpose of retiring the indebtedness for payment of which said warrants were issued, and for no other purpose, and any funds remaining from the sale of such warrants shall be applied to retiring the interest-bearing coupon warrants from which such funds were derived.

(5) FUNDING OR REFUNDING OTHER TYPES OF INDEBTEDNESS.—Any proposed plan for refunding any type of outstanding and legally incurred school indebtedness, not covered by this section, shall be submitted to the Department of Education for approval under regulations of the state board. No such indebtedness may be refunded and no plan for refunding such indebtedness may be approved, unless the plan provides for retiring the indebtedness in reasonably equal annual installments over the period of years covered, unless other obligations to be retired during any of these years make adjustments necessary. No indebtedness of any type may be refunded on a sinking fund basis. The school board shall provide that all refunding warrants, notes or bonds shall be callable, upon proper notice, beginning not more than 10 years following the date of refunding. If any indebtedness outstanding against the county or district current school funds cannot be retired over a period of 10 years as prescribed in this section, or cannot be funded or refunded by issuing interest-bearing coupon warrants, the Department of Education is authorized to cooperate with the school officials of the district in developing a practicable plan for refunding such indebtedness and, when such a plan has been developed, may approve an agreement with the district school officials for refunding such indebtedness to be retired over a period of time which shall not exceed a maximum of 20 years; and, if necessary, for refunding the indebtedness by issuing interest-bearing notes. Any funding or refunding obligations issued, as prescribed herein, are not and shall not be deemed to be additional bonds within the meaning of the Constitution and Laws of Florida, and it shall not be necessary for such obligations to be submitted to, or approved by, a vote of the people of the district. In preparing and carrying out such a plan for funding or refunding the school indebtedness, the school board and superintendent shall follow the procedures prescribed in this section, supplemented by regulations of the state board, except for the modifications which are herein authorized.

237.181 School funds to be paid to treasurer or into depository.—Every tax collector, or other person having moneys which by law go to any district school fund shall at least once each month pay the same over to the depository or depositories designated by the school board for such purpose, and shall provide the school board with a duplicate of the deposit slip. Every officer having moneys which by law go to any state school fund, shall pay the same to the State Treasurer, and the Treasurer shall see that these moneys are deposited to the credit of the proper state school fund.

Note.—Former s. 237.30.

237.191 Bonds required.—Each official and school board employee who is responsible in any manner for handling or expending school funds or property shall be adequately bonded at all times in the amounts and in a manner prescribed by regulations of the state board. The school board shall pay the premiums on all required bonds. All bonds under this section shall be filed with the Department of State. All bonds required of school employees shall be approved by the superintendent under regulations of the school board and shall be filed with the school board. Bonds of school officials or school employees shall not be required to be approved by the county commissioners.

History.—s. 167, ch. 72-221.
cf.—s. 113.04 Fidelity bond premiums.

237.201 School contractors.—Contractors paid from school funds shall give bond for the faithful performance of their contracts in such amount and for such purposes as prescribed by law or by regulations of the school board or of the state board relating to the type of contract involved. It shall be the duty of the school board to require from every contractor a bond adequate to protect the school and school funds involved.

History.—s. 167, ch. 72-221.
cf.—s. 113.04 Fidelity bond premiums.

237.211 School depositories; payments into and withdrawals from depositories.—

(1) SCHOOL FUNDS TO BE PAID INTO DEPOSITORIES; TRIPPLICATE RECEIPTS TO BE ISSUED.—The tax collector, the clerk of the circuit court, the superintendent, and all other persons having, receiving, or collecting any money payable to the school district shall promptly pay the same to the bank or banks selected by the school board to receive funds for that purpose. No bank shall be so selected unless it is qualified as an approved depository as provided by law. Each bank receiving any school money as provided herein shall make a receipt for same in triplicate of which one copy shall be carefully preserved and kept by the bank, one copy shall be given to the person from whom money was received, and one copy shall be given to the school board.

(2) FUNDS ON DEPOSIT WITH EACH DEPOSITORY; OVERDRAWING ACCOUNTS PROHIBITED.—The school board shall require an accurate and complete set of accounts to be maintained in the books and records for each fund on deposit in each district school depository. Each such account shall show the amount subject to withdrawal, amount deposited, amount expended, and balance thereof. In compliance with the provisions of this subsection, a school board may maintain a separate checking account for each such fund or may utilize a single checking account for the deposit and withdrawal of moneys from all funds and segregate the various funds on the books and records only. No check or warrant shall be drawn in excess of the balance to the credit of the appropriate fund.

(3) HOW FUNDS DRAWN FROM DEPOSITORIES.—All money drawn from any district school depository holding same as prescribed herein shall be upon a check or warrant drawn on authority of the school board as prescribed by law. Each check or warrant shall be signed by the chairman or, in his absence, the vice chairman of the school board and countersigned by the superintendent, with corporate seal of the school board affixed. However, as a matter of convenience, the corporate seal of the school board may be printed upon the warrant and a proper record of such warrant shall be maintained. The school board may by resolution, a copy of which must be delivered to the depository, provide for internal funds to be withdrawn from any district depository by a check duly signed by at least two bonded school employees designated by the board to be responsible for administering such funds. However, the superintendent of schools, after having been by resolution specifically so authorized, may transfer funds from one county depository to another or within a county depository for investment purposes by written instructions signed by the superintendent or his designee.

(4) FORM OF WARRANTS; DIRECT DEPOSIT OF FUNDS.—The school board is authorized to establish the form or forms of warrants, which are to be signed by the chairman or, in his absence, the vice chairman of the school board and countersigned by the superintendent, for payment or disbursement of moneys out of the school depository and to change the form thereof from time to time as the school board deems appropriate. If authorized in writing by the payee, such school board warrants may provide for the direct deposit of funds to the account of the payee in any financial institution which is designated in writing by the payee and which has lawful authority to accept such deposits. The written authorization of the payee shall be filed with the school board. Direct deposit of funds may be by any electronic or other medium approved by the school board for such purpose. The State Board of Education shall adopt rules prescribing minimum security measures that must be implemented by any school board prior to establishing the system authorized in this subsection.

237.34 Cost accounting and reporting.—

(1) COST ACCOUNTING.—Each district shall account for expenditures of all state, local, and federal funds on a school-by-school and a district-aggregate basis in accordance with the manual developed by the department or as provided by law. The method used by each district when recording and reporting cost data by program shall be reviewed and approved by the department in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board. All districts, in cooperation with the department, shall plan mutually compatible programs for the refinement of cost data and the improvement of the accounting and reporting system.

(c) The commissioner shall present to the Legislature, 90 days prior to the opening of the regular session each year, a district-by-district report of the expenditures reported pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b). The report shall include total expenditures, a detailed analysis showing expenditures for each program, and such other data as may be useful for management of the educational system. The commissioner shall also compute cost factors for each district reflecting actual expenditures relative to the base student allocation for each of the programs as provided in paragraph 236.081(1)(c).

(3) PROGRAM EXPENDITURE REQUIREMENTS.—

(a) For each program and broad program category established in paragraph 236.081(1)(c), each district shall expend at least 80 percent of the funds generated by each of the programs listed herein on the aggregate total school costs for such programs; except that, in kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3, 90 percent of the funds generated must be spent on the aggregate total school costs for such programs:

1. Kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3.
2. Grades 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9.

(b) Funds for inservice training established in s. 236.081(3) and for categorical programs established in s. 236.001(5) shall be expended for the costs of the identified programs in accordance with the rules of the state board; however, in addition to the $5 per full-time equivalent student required for inservice training pursuant to s. 236.081(3), the following may be expended for inservice training and used in meeting the expenditure requirements of this section, notwithstanding any requirements set forth in ss. 231.600-231.610 relating to the administration of and expenditure of funds for teacher education center activities:

1. Up to $6 per kindergarten through grade 3 full-time equivalent unweighted student for fiscal year 1979-1980.

3. Up to $2 per kindergarten through grade 3 full-time equivalent unweighted student for fiscal year 1981-1982.

(c) In the event a district fails to meet any of the expenditure requirements as set forth herein, the commissioner shall notify the superintendent of the district involved and shall require that the school board make provision for correcting the deficiency in the subsequent year's operating budget. The com-

(1) The general administration and the responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system and for making effective the provisions of this chapter are vested in the Division of Retirement of the Department of Administration. Subject to the limitation of this chapter, the division shall, from time to time, establish rules and regulations for the administration and transaction of the business of the retirement system and shall perform such other functions as are required for the execution of this chapter.

(2) The division shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuation of the various funds created by this chapter and for checking the experience of the retirement system.

(3) The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal adviser of the division.

(4) The division shall employ such agents, servants and employees as in its judgment may be necessary to carry out the terms and provisions of this chapter and shall provide for their compensation. Among the employees of the division shall be an actuary who shall be the technical adviser of the division on matters regarding the operation of the funds created by the provisions of this chapter and who shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith.

(5) In the year 1943 and at least once in each 5-year period thereafter, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation of the mortality, service and salary experience of the members and beneficiaries as defined in this chapter, and shall make a valuation of the various funds created by the chapter, and having regard to such investigation and valuation, the division shall adopt such mortality and service tables as shall be deemed necessary, and shall certify the rates of contribution payable under the provisions of this chapter.

(6) The actuary shall make an annual valuation of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the retirement system on the basis of the tables adopted by the division in accordance with the requirements of this section, and shall prepare an annual statement of the amounts to be contributed by the state in accordance with s. 238.09.

238.05 Membership.—

(1) The membership of the retirement system shall consist of the following:

(a) All persons who were teachers at any time during the school years 1936-1937 through 1938-1939 shall become members as of July 1, 1939, unless, prior to December 1, 1939, any such teacher shall file with the board of trustees on a form prescribed by such board a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system and a duly executed waiver of all present and prospective benefits which would otherwise inure to him on account of his participation in the retirement system; provided, that all persons who were not eligible for membership in the retirement system at the time the system became effective and who are now eligible to membership by reason of the redefinition of the word "teacher," and by reason of having served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school year 1936-1937 through 1942-1943 shall become members as of July 1, 1943, unless prior to December 1, 1943, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided, that all persons who become eligible for membership in the retirement system by reason of the redefinition in s. 238.01, of the word "teacher," and who served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school years 1936-1937 through 1944-1945, shall become members as of July 1, 1945, unless prior to December 1, 1945, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided also that all persons who become eligible for membership in the retirement system by reason of the redefinition in subsection (4) of s. 238.01, of the word "teacher" and who served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school years 1936-1937 through 1946-1947 shall become members as of July 1, 1947, unless prior to December 1, 1947, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be kept in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided, however, that any person who has heretofore filed a nonelection waiver blank shall not be required to make another such election; provided, further, that any person who heretofore has elected not to become a member shall until July 1, 1949, have the option of becoming a member.

(b) All persons who became or who become teachers on or after July 1, 1939, except as provided in paragraph (a) and subsection (5) hereof, shall become members of the retirement system by virtue of their appointment as teachers. However, employees who are not members of the teaching or professional staff shall only become members of the retirement system by filing a notice with the division of their election to become members.

(2) A teacher whose membership in the retirement system is contingent on his own election and who has elected not to become a member, may thereafter apply for and be admitted to membership and receive credit for prior service; provided no such teacher shall receive credit for service prior to such election unless he is admitted to membership as of a date before May 1, 1959. Credit for service rendered prior to July 1, 1939, shall be for continuous employment only except that one period of absence of not more than 5 years will be allowed in computing such prior service credit, provided, however, that a teacher admitted to membership prior to January 1, 1955, shall receive credit for all prior service and if he has retired, his retirement allowance shall be increased effective July 1, 1961. A teacher admitted to membership under this provision must pay into the Annuity Savings Trust Fund prior to his retirement contributions plus regular interest thereon based upon all salary received as a teacher prior to and after July 1, 1939.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in s. 238.07 (9) membership of any person in the retirement system shall cease if he shall be continuously unemployed as a teacher for a period of more than 5 consecutive years; or upon the withdrawal by a member of his accumulated contributions as provided in s. 238.07(13), or upon retirement; or upon death; provided that the adjustments prescribed below are to be made for persons who enter military, naval or other armed services of the nation during a period of war, or national emergency, and for persons who are granted leaves of absence. Any member of the retirement system who within 1 year before the time of entering the military, naval or other armed services of the nation was a teacher, as defined in s. 238.01, or was engaged in other public educational work within the state, and member of the Teachers' Retirement System at the time of induction, or who has been or is granted leave of absence, shall be permitted to elect to continue his membership in the Teachers' Retirement System and membership service shall be allowed for the period covered by service in the Armed Forces of the nation or by leave of absence under the following conditions:

(a) A person who has been granted leave of absence shall file with the division before his next contribution is due an application to continue his membership during the period covered by his leave of absence, and if such application is filed, shall make his contribution to the retirement system on the basis of his last previous annual salary as a teacher, and shall, prior to retirement, pay in full to the system such contributions with accumulated regular interest and such contributions with interest may be paid at one time or in monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual payments in his discretion.

(b) A person who enters or who has entered the armed services of the nation may either continue his membership according to the plan outlined under paragraph (a) above or, in lieu thereof, may file with the division at any time following the close of his military service an application that his membership be continued and that membership service be allowed for not more than 5 years of his period of service in the Armed Forces of the nation during any period of war or national emergency; provided that any such person shall, prior to retirement, pay in full his contributions with accumulated regular interest to the retirement system for the period for which he is entitled to membership service on the basis of his last previous annual salary as a teacher, such contributions with interest to be paid to the division at one time or in monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual payments in his discretion.

(c) Any person who served in the Armed Forces of the United States in World War I, or who served as a registered nurse or nurse's aide in service connected with the Armed Forces of the United States during the period of World War I, who is now a member of the Teachers' Retirement System and who, at or before the time of entering the Armed Forces or the service of the care and nursing of members of the Armed Forces of the United States, was a teacher as defined in s. 238.01, shall be entitled to prior service and out-of-state prior service credit in the Teachers' Retirement System for his period of such service.

(4) The division may in its discretion deny the right to become members to any class of teachers who are serving on a temporary or any other than a per annum basis, and it may also in its discretion make optional with members in any such class their individual entrance into membership.

(5) Any person may, at his option, choose not to become a member of the Teachers' Retirement System when:

(a) This person is qualified for retirement under the Judicial Retirement System, but subsequently accepts a position within the meaning of this chapter.

(b) An election is made to the division not to become a member within 60 days of appointment to a teaching position as defined in this chapter or within 60 days from the date this law becomes effective.

(c) Any election hereunder will not affect any rights accrued in the retirement system to which the person belongs.

238.06 Membership application, creditable service and time for making contributions.—

(1) Under such rules and regulations as the Division of Retirement shall adopt, each teacher upon becoming a member shall file with the division an application showing date of birth and such other necessary information as the division may require for the proper operation of the retirement system. Until such application is filed no teacher nor his beneficiary shall be eligible to receive any benefits under this chapter. If a member has been a teacher in Florida, he shall itemize on such application all service as a teacher rendered prior to the date of establishment of the retirement system, including service in a similar capacity in other states rendered by him prior to July 1, 1939, for which he claims credit. Persons not eligible to membership in the retirement system as of July 1, 1939, and now eligible to membership shall file with the division an application and shall meet with all other requirements prescribed above. All such persons shall be entitled to prior service credit for the years prior to July 1, 1939, as prescribed in subsection (4) of this section. Any person made eligible to membership in the retirement system by provisions of this law may elect:

(a) To make no contributions for the school years between 1939-1940 and 1952-1953, inclusive, and if he so elects, shall be entitled to no membership credit for those years except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(b) To make contributions with accumulated regular interest to the retirement system on or before the time of retirement of such member for such years after July 1, 1939, as he served as a teacher, at the prescribed rate on the basis of his salary for those years, and if such contributions are made, he shall be entitled to membership service credit for such years.

(2) With respect to plans A, B, C, or D as set forth in s. 238.07, any member of the retirement system may elect to contribute to the retirement system an amount which shall be equivalent to the difference between the amount such member has contributed and the amount he would have contributed had the provisions of s. 238.01(14) been in effect July 1, 1939, and such election must be made and the amount paid into the retirement system on or before the time of the retirement of such member.

(3) The division shall fix and determine by appropriate rules and regulations how much service in any year is the equivalent of a year of service, but in no case shall it allow any credit for a period of absence without pay of more than a month's duration nor shall it allow credit for more than 1 year of service for all service in any school year.

(4) Subject to the above restriction and to such other rules and regulations as the division shall adopt, the division shall verify, as soon as practicable after the filing of the application, the statement of service therein claimed and shall issue to each person who becomes a member or any person with prior teaching service in the state who becomes a member of the retirement system, a prior service certificate certifying the length of service with which he is credited on the basis of his statement of service. Such prior service credit shall include credit for service rendered prior to date of establishment as a teacher within the state or in a similar capacity outside the state but not more than 10 years of credit for service outside the state shall be included. Credit for prior service outside the state may be claimed only by a person employed as a teacher in the state prior to July 1, 1939; provided that any person who became a member of the system after July 1, 1939, but prior to July 1, 1955, and remained a member for 10 years shall be entitled to receive out-of-state prior service credit for a period not exceeding 10 years; provided that any person with out-of-state service who became a member of the system after July 1, 1939, but prior to July 1, 1955, and remained a member for 10 years shall be entitled to receive membership service credit for a period of not exceeding 10 years, including credit for the period covered by service in the Armed Forces of the nation during World War II; provided such member was a public school teacher within one year before entering the armed services; and provided he resumed teaching, if such member shall, prior to retirement, make contribution to the retirement system with accumulated regular interest thereon in an amount equal to the contribution he would have made if such service had been rendered in the state subsequent to July 1, 1939; provided that no member who receives, or who is entitled to receive, a pension or annuity from any other state or county or municipality or other taxing district shall receive out-of-state prior service credit or membership service credit as set forth above; provided, however, that the change in this subsection shall not affect the rights of persons who have retired when this amendment to the law takes effect; provided, however, that any person who becomes a member of the system on or after July 1, 1955 and who has moved from another state to Florida, and becoming employed in a category covered by the Teachers' Retirement System, must teach in the state for 5 years before being entitled to receive any out-of-state service credit. After having been employed within the state for a period of 5 years, a teacher may establish and receive credit for 1 year of out-of-state service for each additional year of service credit within the state, with a maximum of 10 years out-of-state credit allowed. In order to establish and receive this out-of-state credit, a teacher, who became a member of the system on or after July 1, 1955, but prior to October 1, 1963, must pay into the retirement system prior to retirement total contributions equal to 8 percent (plus accumulated regular interest thereon), of such out-of-state compensation as the teacher received during those years of out-of-state service for which the teacher receives out-of-state credit, provided, however, that contributions on out-of-state salary received prior to July 1, 1939, will not be required of any member in this category retiring on or after July 1, 1969. In order to establish and receive this out-of-state credit, a teacher who becomes a member of the retirement system on or after October 1, 1963, must pay into the retirement system prior to retirement, total contributions which are in addition to the regular membership contributions and which, when accumulated with regular interest thereon, are equal to the actuarial equivalent at the time of retirement of the monthly benefit which becomes payable at retirement on account of out-of-state credit. In the event that such accumulated additional contributions at time of retirement are less than the actuarial equivalent at time of retirement of the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of:

(a) The monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, and

(b) The ratio that such deficiency bears to the actuarial equivalent of the monthly benefit attributable to the out-of-state credit.

If such accumulated additional contributions are in excess of the actuarial equivalent at time of retirement of the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, such excess shall be paid in a lump sum to the member at time of retirement. No person may receive retirement benefits for less than 10 years of service credit earned in Florida.

(5) Any person who is a member of the Teachers' Retirement System, and who has been employed as an employee of any county in Florida or any county board of public instruction of Florida or the state or the United States Department of Agriculture at Welaka, Florida, shall upon payment of accumulated contributions for the years subsequent to July 1, 1939, receive credit for both prior and membership service for all years in which such person was employed by any county in Florida or any county board of public instruction of Florida or the state or the United States Department of Agriculture at Welaka, Florida, toward retirement in the Teachers' Retirement System; provided, such contributions shall be paid on or before the date of the retirement of such member.

(6) So long as membership continues, a prior service certificate shall be final and conclusive for retirement purposes as to such prior service credit, unless modified by the division upon application made by the member within 1 year after the date of issuance or modification of a prior service certificate or upon the discovery by the division of error or fraud.

(7) When membership ceases such certificate shall become void; should the teacher again become a member, such teacher shall enter the system as a teacher not entitled to prior service credit, except as provided in s. 238.07(12)(c); and provided further that if the teacher should so become a member following the first occurrence of cessation of membership, such certificate shall be valid until the membership next ceases.

(8) Creditable service at retirement on which the retirement allowance of a member shall be based shall consist of the membership services rendered by him since he last became a member, and also, if he has a prior service certificate which is in full force and effect, the service certified on his prior service certificate.

(9) A public school librarian with credit for less than 10 years of public school service in Florida may be permitted to work after age 70 with the approval of his employer and shall be permitted to earn retirement credit for such service in the Teachers' Retirement System.

(10) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4), out-of-state service credit shall be allowed for:

(a) Service rendered as a teacher in American overseas dependent schools conducted by the Armed Forces of the United States for children of citizens of the United States residing in areas outside the continental United States, and

(b) Service rendered as a teacher in federally assisted binational schools serving as demonstration centers for methods and practices employed in the United States, as provided in 22 U.S.C. s. 1448.

(11) A member of the retirement system created by this chapter who has been eligible or becomes eligible to receive workers' compensation payments for an injury or illness occurring during his employment while a member of any state retirement system shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) If the member receives no salary payments for the period of time he receives workers' compensation payments, upon his return to active employment he shall receive full retirement credit for the period for which workers' compensation payments were received. No employee or employer contributions shall be required in order for the member to receive retirement credit for such period. Such credit shall be based on the member's rate of monthly compensation immediately prior to his receiving workers' compensation payments.

(b) If the member receives partial salary for the period of time he receives workers' compensation payments, the required employee contributions shall be deducted from his partial salary each pay period, and, upon his return to active employment, he shall receive full retirement credit for the period for which workers' compensation payments were received. Such credit shall be based on the member's rate of monthly compensation immediately prior to his receiving workers' compensation payments.

(c) If the member is retained in full-pay status in lieu of receiving workers' compensation payments, the required employee contributions shall be deducted from his salary each pay period, and he shall receive retirement credit for such period in the same manner he would have received credit had he not been injured or incapacitated.

238.07 Regular benefits; survivor benefits.—

(1) Any member who attains 70 years of age shall be retired forthwith; provided, however, that with the approval of his employer he may remain in service until the end of the school year following the date on which he attains 70 years of age. If any member retires under the provisions of this subsection, who before his death fails to select one of the optional benefits set forth in s. 238.08, his executors or administrators shall receive the excess of his accumulated contributions at retirement over the total of all annuity payments made to the member.

(2) The provisions for the retirement of a member are as follows:

(a) To retire at the age of 60 upon the basis of a standard of service of 35 years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan A); or

(b) To retire at the age of 55 upon the basis of a standard of service of 35 years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan B); or

(c) To retire at the age of 55 upon the basis of a standard of service of 30 years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan C); or

(d) To retire after 25 years of service upon the basis of a standard of service of 25 years provided the member has reached age 50; provided, further, however, that a member electing to retire under this provision shall not be eligible to receive the benefits allowed by (8) and (11)(f) (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan D); or

(e) To retire:

1. At normal retirement age which shall be age 60 for those persons whose membership date, or last renewal thereof, occurred prior to July 1, 1963, and age 62 for those persons whose membership date, or last renewal thereof, occurred on or after July 1, 1963; or

2. Prior to normal retirement age but at or subsequent to age 55, provided that upon such date the member has completed 10 years of creditable service, which shall be the early retirement age; or

3. Subsequent to normal retirement age, which shall be the delayed retirement age; (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan E).

The manner and time of selecting a plan of retirement are set out elsewhere in this chapter.

(3) Any member who, prior to July 1, 1955, elected to retire under one of plans A, B, C, or D may elect, prior to retirement, to retire under plan E in accordance with the terms hereof. Any person who became a member on or after July 1, 1955, shall retire under plan E, except as provided for under s. 238.31. With respect to plans A, B, C, or D, any member shall have the right at any time to change to a plan of retirement requiring a lower rate of contribution. The Division of Retirement shall also notify the member of the rate of contribution such member must make from and after selecting such plan of retirement. Any member in service may retire upon reaching the age of retirement formerly selected by him, upon his written application to the division setting forth at which time, not more than 90 days subsequent to the execution and filing of such application, it is his desire to retire notwithstanding that during such period of notification he may have separated from service. Upon receipt of such application for retirement the division shall retire such member not more than 90 days thereafter. Before such member may retire he must file with the division his written selection of one of the optional benefits provided in s. 238.08.

(4) Upon service retirement under plans A and B a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to this annuity, of one one-hundred-fortieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of his years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-seventieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(5) Upon service retirement under plan C a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to his annuity of one one-hundred-twentieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-sixtieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(6) Upon service retirement under plan D, a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to his annuity, of one one-hundredth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of his years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(7) Upon service retirement under plan E, a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall be determined as follows:

(a) At normal retirement age: Two percent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service.

(b) At early retirement age: Two percent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service and adjusted for actuarial equivalents based on completed months by which early retirement precedes normal retirement.

(c) At delayed retirement age: Two percent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service.

(8) Any member who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires after 30 years of creditable service shall receive a retirement allowance of not less than $100 per month, provided, however that with respect to plans A, B, or C, any person with less than 30 but with 10 or more years of service shall be entitled to a service retirement allowance which shall be computed on the basis of an average final compensation of $2400 per year and shall receive a retirement allowance which shall be the equivalent of one-sixtieth of said average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service; provided that in no event shall such a member receive a retirement allowance greater than $100 per month.

(9) Any member who has taught, or who teaches in the public free schools of Florida for not less than an aggregate of 10 years and withdraws or has withdrawn from the system, may elect to leave his accumulated contributions in the system or to repay his withdrawn accumulations to the system, and upon reaching retirement age, he shall receive a retirement allowance based on the number of years of service which he taught in the public schools of Florida before retirement, provided, that a person who has lost his membership and later returns to service shall be allowed the privilege of having credit restored for previous service if he returns to full-time teaching service and renders 3 additional years of continuous service.

(10) Any member in service, who has 10 or more years of creditable service, may upon the application of his employer or upon his own application, be retired by the division not less than 30 nor more than 90 days next following the date of filing such application, on a disability retirement allowance; provided that the medical board after a medical examination of such member shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired.

(11) Upon retirement on account of disability, a member shall be paid his service retirement allowance if he is eligible for a service retirement allowance; otherwise, he shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan A or B, he shall receive a pension which, together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds 25 percent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed 25 percent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of 25 percent of his average final compensation; provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-seventieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be credited to the member were his service continued to the minimum age for service retirement.

(c) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan C, he shall receive a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-sixtieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds 25 percent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed 25 percent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of 25 percent of his average final compensation; provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-sixtieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be credited to the member were his service continued to the minimum age for service retirement.

(d) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan D, he shall receive a pension, which together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds 25 percent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed 25 percent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of 25 percent of his average final compensation, provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be creditable to the member were his service continued to the minimum age of service retirement; provided, however that when a member has taught the standard number of years required for retirement under any of the several retirement plans provided by this section and elected by such member, and such member shall retire on account of disability prior to attainment of the minimum required age under the plan elected, then such member so retired shall receive the same benefits as if he had retired on service retirement under the plan elected.

(e) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan E, he shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of 100 percent of the retirement allowance to which he would be entitled if his date of disability retirement were his otherwise normal retirement date; provided, however that the retirement allowance payable upon disability retirement shall not be less than the 25 percent of average final compensation nor, if disability retirement occurs prior to the date on which the member is first eligible for service retirement, shall it be greater than the service retirement allowance to which the member would be entitled if he continued in active service to such date at the same rate of compensation effective on the date of disability retirement.

(f) With respect to plans A, B or C, the average final compensation under this subsection shall be computed on the actual average final compensation, or upon the basis of an average final compensation of $2400 per year, whichever is the greater.

(g) Notwithstanding the minimum disability retirement allowance set out in paragraphs (a) through (f) of this subsection any member who retired prior to July 1, 1957 on account of disability, shall, on and after July 1, 1957, receive as a minimum disability retirement allowance $75 per month, or an annual sum equal to 40 multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service whichever is the greater, and any person who retires on and after July 1, 1957, shall, from the date of his retirement, receive as a minimum disability retirement allowance $75 per month, or an annual sum equal to 40 multiplied by the number of years of creditable service, whichever is the greater.

(12)(a) Once each year during the first 5 years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every 3-year period thereafter, the division may require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained his minimum service retirement age to undergo a medical examination by the medical board or a physician or physicians designated by the medical board, such examination to be made at the place of residence of said beneficiary or other place mutually agreed upon. Should a disability beneficiary, who has not yet attained his minimum service retirement age, refuse to submit to any such medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for 1 year, all his rights in and to his pension shall be forfeited.

(b) Should the medical board report and certify to the division that such disability beneficiary is engaged in or is able to engage in a gainful occupation paying more than the difference between his disability retirement allowance and his average final compensation, and should the division concur in such report, then the amount of his pension shall be reduced to an amount which, together with his annuity and the amount earnable by him, shall equal the amount of his average final compensation. Should his earning capacity later be changed, the amount of his pension may be further modified; provided that the pension so modified shall not exceed the amount of the pension allowable under subsection (11), at the time of retirement, nor an amount which, when added to the amount earnable by the beneficiary, together with his annuity, equals the amount of his average final compensation. A beneficiary restored to active service at a salary less than the average final compensation upon the basis of which he was retired shall not become a member of the retirement system at that time.

(c) Should a disability beneficiary under his minimum service retirement age be at any time in service at a salary equal to or greater than his average final compensation upon the basis of which he was retired, his disability retirement allowance shall cease and he shall again become a member of the retirement system and shall contribute thereafter at the same rate at which he paid prior to disability. Any prior service certificate, on the basis of which his allowance was computed at the time of his disability retirement, shall be restored to full force and effect; and, in addition, upon his subsequent retirement he shall be credited with all his membership service on the basis of which his allowance was computed at the time of his disability retirement.

(13) Should a member cease to be a teacher except by death or by retirement under the provisions of this chapter, he shall be paid the amount of his accumulated contributions. Should a member die before retirement, the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be paid to such person, if any, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the division; otherwise, to his executors or administrators.

(14) Any member who retires on or after July 1, 1954, who at the time of his retirement has not served as a teacher in Florida for 10 years shall not be eligible to receive and shall not be paid any service retirement allowance.

(15) Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires and who has passed his 65th birthday and whose retirement allowance is less than $150 shall have his retirement allowance redetermined and shall be entitled to a service retirement allowance which shall be computed on the basis of an average final compensation of $2400 per year and shall receive a retirement allowance which shall be the equivalent of one-sixtieth of said average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service; provided, that in no event shall such redetermination entitle the member to receive a retirement allowance greater than $150.

(15A)(a) Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires with no less than 10 years of creditable service and who has passed his 65th birthday, may, upon application to the division, have his retirement allowance redetermined and thereupon shall be entitled to a monthly service retirement allowance which shall be equal to $4 multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service which shall be payable monthly during his retirement; provided, that the amount of retirement allowance as determined hereunder, shall be reduced by an amount equal to:

1. Any social security benefits received by the member, and
2. Any social security benefits that the member is eligible to receive by reason of his own right or through his spouse.

(b) No payment shall be made to a member of the Teachers' Retirement System under this act, until the division has determined the social security status of such member.

(c) Eligibility of a member of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be determined under the social security laws and regulations, provided however, that a member shall be considered eligible if he or his spouse has reached 65 years of age and would draw social security if he or his spouse were not engaged in activity that results in his or his spouse receiving income that would make him or her ineligible to receive social security benefits. A member of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be deemed to be eligible for social security benefits if he has this eligibility in his own right or through his spouse.

(d) The division shall review, at least annually, the social security status of all members of the Teachers' Retirement System receiving payment under this act and shall increase or decrease payments to such members as shall be necessary to carry out the intent of this act.

(e) No member of the Teachers' Retirement System shall have his retirement allowance reduced or any of his rights impaired by reason of this act.

(f) This subsection shall take effect on January 1, 1962.

(15B) Any person who was a member of the Teachers' Retirement System prior to December 1, 1970, and who has collected a disability retirement allowance from the Teachers' Retirement System and has returned to active teaching service, shall be deemed to have been on health leave of absence each year between the date of his disability retirement and his return to service and may elect to receive service credit for each year upon payment of the required contributions plus regular interest. However, upon his retirement after June 27, 1971, his monthly retirement allowance shall be reduced by an amount calculated to recover within 10 years the total disability benefits paid to the member by the Teachers' Retirement System while he was retired on disability.

(16)(a) Definitions under survivor benefits are:

1. A dependent is a child, widow, widower or parent of the deceased member who was receiving not less than one-half of his support from the deceased member at the time of the death of such member.

2. A child is a natural or legally adopted child of a member, who:

- a. Is under 18 years of age, or
- b. Is over 18 years of age but not over 22 years of age and is enrolled as a student in an accredited educational institution, or
- c. Is 18 years of age or older and is physically or mentally incapable of self-support, when such mental and physical incapacity occurred prior to such child obtaining the age of 18 years. Such person shall cease to be regarded as a child upon the termination of such physical or mental disability. The determination as to such physical or mental incapability shall be vested in the division.

No person shall be considered a child who has married or, except as provided in subparagraph 2.b. or as to a child who is physically or mentally incapable of self-support as hereinbefore set forth, has become 18 years of age.

3. A parent is a natural parent of a member and includes a lawful spouse of a natural parent.

4. A beneficiary is a person who is entitled to benefits under this subsection by reason of his relation to a deceased member during the lifetime of such member.

(b) In addition to all other benefits to which a member shall, subject to the conditions set out below, be entitled, the beneficiary of such member shall, upon the death of such member, receive the following benefits:

Minimum period of paid service of member in Florida as regular full-time teacher	Beneficiaries of deceased member	Benefits
1. One calendar day	Widow or widower who has care of dependent child or children of deceased member.	$190.00 per month for one child; $250.00 per month if more than one child; maximum benefits $250.00 per month.
2. One calendar day	One or more dependent children if there is no surviving widow or widower.	$190.00 per month per child; maximum benefits $250.00 per month if more than one child.
3. One calendar day	Dependent parents 65 years or older.	For each parent, $100.00 per month for life.
4. One calendar day	Designated beneficiary and, if no designated beneficiary, then the executor or administrator of deceased member.	$500.00 lump sum death benefits payable only once.
5. One calendar day	Dependent widow or widower 50 years of age and less than 65 years of age.	$150.00 per month for life.
6. Ten years	Widow or widower 65 years of age or older.	$175.00 per month for life.
7. Retired member	Designated beneficiary and if no designated beneficiary, then the executor or administrator of deceased retired member.	$500.00 lump sum death benefits payable only once.

Beginning on July 1, 1971, the lump sum death benefit, provided in item 7 above for the retired teacher, shall apply to all present and future retirees of the systems.

(c) The payment of survivor benefits shall begin as of the month immediately following the death of the member except where the beneficiary has not reached the age required to receive benefits under paragraph (b) hereof, in which event the payment of survivor benefits shall begin as of the month immediately following the month in which the beneficiary reaches the required age. Provided that if death occurs during the first 3 years of employment, the payment of survivor benefits shall be reduced by the amount of monthly benefits the member's survivors are entitled to receive under federal social security as either a survivor of the member or as a covered worker under federal social security.

(d) Limitations on rights of beneficiary are:

1. The person named as beneficiary in paragraph (b) shall, in no event, be entitled to receive the benefits set out in such paragraph unless the death of the member under whom such beneficiary claims occurs within the period of time after the member has served in Florida as follows:

Minimum number of years of service in Florida	Period after serving in Florida in which death of member occurs
Three to five	Two years
Six to nine	Five years
Ten or more	Ten years

2. Upon the death of a member, the division shall make a determination of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the deceased member and shall pay survivor benefits to such beneficiary or beneficiaries beginning 1 month immediately following the death of the member except where the beneficiary has not reached the age required to receive benefits under paragraph (b) hereof, in which event the payment of survivor benefits shall begin as of the month immediately following the month in which the beneficiary reaches the required age. When required by the division, the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall file an application for survivor benefits upon forms prescribed by the division.

3. The beneficiaries of a member to receive survivor benefits are fixed by this subsection, and a member may not buy or otherwise change such benefits. He may, however, designate the beneficiary to receive the $500 death benefits. If a member fails to make this designation, the $500 death benefits shall be paid to his executor or administrator.

4. The beneficiary or beneficiaries of a member whose death occurs while he is in service or while he is receiving a disability allowance under subsection (11), shall receive survivor benefits under this subsection determined by the years of service in Florida of the deceased member as set out in paragraph (b) of this subsection. The requirement that the death of a member must occur within a certain period of time after service in Florida as set out in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) shall not apply to a member receiving a disability benefit at the time of his death.

(17) Any person who hereafter elects to receive retirement benefits under s. 112.05, shall not be entitled to the retirement benefits of this chapter except for the refund of his accumulated contributions as provided in subsection (13) of this section; likewise any person who elects to receive retirement benefits under this chapter shall thereby become ineligible to receive retirement benefits under s. 112.05.

238.071 Social security benefits; determination of retirement allowance.—Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System who has heretofore or who hereafter retires and has his retirement allowance redetermined under the provisions of s. 238.07(15A), shall not after July 1, 1969, have the amount of the redetermined retirement allowance reduced because of social security benefits received by the member or his spouse.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-47.

238.072 Special service provisions for extension personnel.—All state and county cooperative extension personnel holding appointments by the United States Department of Agriculture for extension work in agriculture and home economics in this state who are joint representatives of the University of Florida and the United States Department of Agriculture, as provided in s. 121.051(7), who are members of the Teachers' Retirement System, chapter 238, and who are prohibited from transferring to and participating in the Florida Retirement System, chapter 121, may retire with full benefits upon completion of 30 years of creditable service and shall be considered to have attained normal retirement age under this chapter, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. In order to comply with the provisions of s. 14 of Art. X of the State Constitution, any liability accruing to the Florida Retirement System Trust Fund as a result of the provisions of this section shall be paid on an annual basis from the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-169.

238.08 Optional benefits.—A member may elect to receive his benefits under the terms of this chapter according to the provisions of any one of the following options:

(1) Option one. He may elect to receive his benefits in a retirement allowance payable throughout his life, or

(2) Option two. He may elect to receive on retirement the actuarial equivalent (at that time) of his retirement allowance in a reduced retirement allowance payable throughout life, with the provisions that if he dies before he has received in payment of his annuity the amount of his accumulated contributions, as they were at the time of his retirement, the balance shall be paid to such person, if any, as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the division; otherwise, to his executors or administrators.

(3) Option three. He may elect at any time prior to receipt of his or her first monthly installment of retirement compensation, to receive a reduced retirement compensation with the provision that the surviving spouse shall continue to draw such reduced retirement compensation so long as he or she shall live. The amount of such reduced retirement compensation shall be the actuarial equivalent of the amount of such retirement otherwise payable.

(4) Option four. He may elect at any time prior to receipt of his or her first monthly installment of retirement compensation, to receive a reduced retirement compensation with the provision that the surviving spouse shall continue to draw one-half of such reduced retirement compensation so long as he or she shall live. The amount of such reduced retirement compensation shall be the actuarial equivalent of the amount of such retirement otherwise payable.

(5) If a member continues in service beyond the date he is first eligible for service retirement and does not, prior to his death, elect Options three or four, his spouse may, at the option of the spouse, receive either the accumulated contributions of the member at date of death or the reduced retirement compensation to which the beneficiary would have been entitled under Option three, calculated on the assumption that the member retired on his date of death and died immediately subsequent thereto provided that the spouse of any member who died between July 1, 1955 and June 30, 1957, both dates inclusive, is entitled to full benefits under this subsection and further provided that for all persons who become members of the system on or after July 1, 1963, the amount of such retirement allowance otherwise payable to the member at his date of death shall be determined on the basis of his normal retirement age as defined in s. 238.07.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter to the contrary, the following provisions shall apply to any member of the retirement system who has accumulated at least 10 years of service and dies prior to retirement:

(a) If the deceased member's surviving spouse has previously received a refund of the member's accumulated contributions made to the retirement system, such spouse may pay to the Division of Retirement an amount equal to the sum of the amount of the deceased member's contributions previously refunded and regular interest compounded annually on the amount of such refunded contributions from the date of refund to the date of payment to the division, and by so doing be entitled to receive the monthly retirement benefit provided in paragraph (c).

(b) If the deceased member's surviving spouse has not received a refund of the deceased member's accumulated contributions, such spouse shall, upon application to the division within 30 days of the death of the member, receive the monthly retirement benefit provided in paragraph (c).

(c) The monthly benefit payable to the spouse described in paragraph (a) or (b) shall be the amount which would have been payable to the deceased member's spouse, assuming that the member retired on the date of his death and had selected the option in subsection (3), such benefit to be based on the ages of the spouse and member as of the date of death of the member. The benefit shall commence on the first day of the month following the payment of the aforesaid amount to the division, if paragraph (a) is applicable, or on the first day of the month following the receipt of the spouse's application by the division, if paragraph (b) is applicable.

(7) The surviving spouse or other dependent of any member whose employment is terminated by death shall, upon application to the director of the Division of Retirement of the Department of Administration, be permitted to pay the required contributions for any service performed by the member which could have been claimed by the member at the time of his death. Such service shall be added to the creditable service of the member and shall be used in the calculation of any benefits which may be payable to the surviving spouse or other surviving dependent.

238.09 Method of financing.—All of the assets of the retirement system shall be credited, according to the purposes for which they are held, to one of four funds; namely, The Annuity Savings Trust Fund, the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund, the Expense Trust Fund and the Survivors' Benefit Trust Fund.

(1) The Annuity Savings Trust Fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated contributions made from the salaries of members under the provisions of (c) or (f). Contribution to, payments from, the Annuity Savings Trust Fund shall be made as follows:

(a) With respect to plan A, B, C or D, upon the basis of such tables as the Division of Retirement shall adopt, and regular interest, the actuary of the retirement system shall determine for each member the proportion of earnable compensation which, when deducted from each payment of his prospective earnable annual compensation prior to his minimum service retirement age, and accumulated at regular interest until such age, shall be computed to provide at such age:

1. An annuity equal to one one-hundred-fortieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of his years of membership in the case of each member electing to retire under the provisions of plan A or B.

2. An annuity equal to one one-hundred-twentieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of his years of membership service in the case of each member electing to retire under the provisions of plan C.

3. An annuity equal to one one-hundredth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of his years of membership service in the case of each member electing to retire under the provisions of plan D.

In the case of any member who has attained his minimum service retirement age prior to becoming a member, the proportion of salary applicable to such member, with respect to plan A, B, C or D, shall be the proportion computed for the age 1 year younger than his minimum service retirement age.

(b) A member under plan E shall make contribution to the fund of 6 percent of his earnable compensation.

(c) The Division of Retirement shall certify to each employer the proportion of the earnable compensation of each member who is compensated by the employer, and the employer shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member on each and every payroll for each and every payroll period an amount equal to the proportion of the member's earnable compensation so computed. With respect to plan A, B, C or D, the employer shall not make any deduction for annuity purposes from the compensation of a member who has attained the age of 60 years, if such member elects not to contribute.

(d) In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the division may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such payroll period, and it may omit deductions from compensation for any period less than a full payroll period if a teacher was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions, it may modify any deduction required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed one-tenth of 1 percent of the annual salary from which said deduction is to be made.

(e) The deductions provided for herein shall be made, notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided for by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt in full for his salary or compensation; and payment of salary or compensation, less said deductions, shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, except as to the benefits provided by this chapter.

(f) In addition to the deduction from salary, as hereinbefore required, any member may, with respect to plan A, B, C or D, subject to the approval of the division, redeposit in the Annuity Savings Trust Fund, by a single payment or by an increased rate of contribution an amount equal to the total amount which he previously withdrew therefrom, as provided in this chapter, or any part thereof; or any member may deposit in the Annuity Savings Trust Fund, by a single payment or by an increased rate of contribution, amounts for the purchase of an additional annuity, but such additional payments shall not exceed the amount computed to provide, with his prospective retirement allowance, a total retirement allowance of one-half of his prospective average final compensation at his minimum service retirement age. Such additional amounts so deposited shall become a part of his accumulated contributions, except that in the case of disability retirement they shall be treated as excess contributions returnable to the member in cash or as an annuity of equivalent actuarial value and shall not be considered in computing his pension.

(g) A member who elects to retire under plan E shall pay to the Annuity Savings Trust Fund prior to retirement or receive from the Annuity Savings Trust Fund, as the case may be, the difference between what his contributions, with accumulated interest, would have been under plan E and the actual contributions of the member with accumulated interest.

(h) The accumulated contributions of a member returned to him upon withdrawal, or paid as provided in this chapter to his designated beneficiary, or to his executors or administrators in the event of his death, shall be paid from the Annuity Savings Trust Fund.

(i) Upon the retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the Annuity Savings Trust Fund to the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund.

(2) Should a beneficiary, retired on account of disability, again become a member of the retirement system, his accumulated contributions as of the date of retirement not paid as an annuity, shall be transferred from the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund to the Annuity Savings Trust Fund and credited to his individual account in the Annuity Savings Trust Fund.

(3) The Pension Accumulation Trust Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all annuities or benefits in lieu of annuities on retired members and all pensions and other benefits payable from contributions made by the members and by the employers, from which annuities, pensions and benefits in lieu thereof shall be paid. Contributions to, and payments from, the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund, other than as set forth in subsections (2) and (3) herein, shall be made as follows:

(a) On account of each member there shall be paid annually into the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund, as provided for in s. 238.11, on account of the preceding year a certain percentage of his earnable compensation, to be known as the normal contribution, and an additional percentage of his earnable compensation, to be known as the accrued liability contribution. The rates percent of earnable compensation of such contributions shall be fixed on the basis of the liabilities of the retirement system, as shown by actuarial valuation.

(b) On the basis of regular interest and of such mortality and other tables as shall be adopted by the division, the actuary engaged by the division to make each valuation required by this chapter shall, during the period over which the accrued liability contribution is payable, determine, immediately after making such valuation, the uniform and constant percentage of the earnable compensation of the average new entrant, which, if contributed on the basis of his compensation throughout his entire period of service, would be sufficient to provide for the payment of any pension payable by the state on his account. The rate percent so determined shall be known as the normal contribution rate. After the accrued liability contribution has ceased to be payable, the normal contribution rate shall be the rate percent of the earnable compensation of all members, obtained by deducting from the total liabilities of the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund the amount of the funds in hand to the credit of that fund and dividing the remainder by 1 percent of the present value of the prospective future salaries of all members as computed on the basis of the mortality and service tables adopted by the division and on the basis of regular interest. The normal rate of contribution shall be determined and certified to the division by the actuary after each valuation and shall continue in force until a new valuation and certification are made.

(c) Immediately succeeding the first valuation, the actuary engaged by the division shall compute the rate percent of the total earnable compensation of all members which is equivalent to 4 percent of the amount of the total liability for pensions on account of all members and beneficiaries and not dischargeable by the present assets of the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund and by the aforesaid normal contribution if made on account of such members during the remainder of their active service. The rate percent, originally so determined, shall be known as the accrued liability contribution rate.

(d) The total amount payable in each year into the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund shall be not less than the sum of the rates percent known as the normal contribution rate and the accrued liability contribution rate, of the total earnable compensation of all members during the preceding year; provided, however that the amount of each annual accrued liability contribution shall be at least 3 percent greater than the preceding annual accrued liability contribution; and provided that the aggregate payment into the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund shall be sufficient, when combined with the amount then held in the fund, to provide the benefits payable from the fund during the current year.

(e) The accrued liability contribution shall be discontinued as soon as the accumulated reserve in the Pension Accumulation Trust Fund shall equal the present value, as actuarially computed and approved by the division, of the total liability of such fund less the present value, computed on the basis of the normal contribution rate, then in force of the prospective normal contributions to be received on account of persons who are at that time members.

(4) The Expense Trust Fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all moneys contributed for the administrative expenses of the retirement system and from which shall be paid all expenses incurred in connection with the administration and operation of the retirement system. Contribution to the Expense Trust Fund shall be made by transfer from interest earnings on investments in the Annuity Savings Trust Fund. Such transfers shall be regulated by the Legislature pursuant to budgets filed in accordance with the provisions of chapter 216.

(5)(a) The survivors' benefit fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated all reserves for the payment of all survivor benefits provided for in s. 238.07(16), except refund of accumulated contributions. There shall be paid into this fund:

1. All contributions by members based on the rate of twenty-five-hundredths percent of their salary as set out in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

2. All contributions by the state to the Survivors' Benefit Trust Fund.

3. All transfers from other funds as required by this subsection.

(d) A member who makes contributions to the Survivors' Benefit Trust Fund shall not thereby obtain, prior to July 1, 1959, any vested interest or right to the benefits under s. 238.07(16), and these benefits may be altered, changed or repealed by the Legislature at its 1959 session, provided that the beneficiaries of members whose deaths occur prior to July 1, 1959 shall have a vested interest in the benefits accruing to such beneficiaries under s. 238.07(16), and these rights may not be altered, changed nor repealed by the legislature.

(1) The collection of contributions shall be as follows:

(a) Each employer shall cause to be deducted from each and every payment of salary of a member, for each and every payroll period, the contribution payable by such member as provided in this chapter. Commencing July 1, 1967, each employer shall also budget and set aside an amount equal to such deductions, which shall be the employer contribution, except with respect to any nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers for which the employer contribution shall be at least that amount specified in s. 238.09(3)(a); provided that such amount shall be set aside only if the state makes available to the employer, except for any nonprofit professional association or corporation, the additional funds necessary for such employer contributions.

(b) Each employer shall transmit monthly to the Division of Retirement a warrant for the total amount of such deductions. Each employer shall also transmit monthly to the division a warrant for such employer contribution set aside as provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection. The division, after making records of all such warrants, shall transmit them to the Department of Banking and Finance for delivery to the Treasurer of the state who shall collect them.

(c) The state contribution shall be equal to the excess of the contributions specified under s. 238.09, over the amounts the state makes available for employer contributions under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(2) The collection of the state contribution shall be made as follows:

(a) The amounts required to be paid by the state into the Teachers' Retirement System in this chapter shall be provided therefor in the annual general appropriations act. However, in the event a sufficient amount is not included in the annual General Appropriations Act to meet the full amount needed to pay the retirement compensation provided for in this chapter, the additional amount needed for such retirement compensation is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund as approved by the Department of Administration.

(b) The division shall certify one-fourth of the amount so ascertained for each year to the State Comptroller on or before the last day of July, October, January and April of each year. The Comptroller shall, on or before the first day of August, November, February and May of each year, draw his warrant or warrants, which shall be countersigned by the Governor, on the Treasurer of the state for the respective amounts due the several funds of the retirement system. On the receipt of the warrant or warrants of the Comptroller, the Treasurer shall immediately transfer to the several funds of the retirement system the amounts due.

(3) All collection of contributions of nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers as referred to in s. 238.01(4) and (6), shall be made by such association or corporation in the following manner:

(a) On April 1 of each year the division shall certify to any such nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers the amounts which will become due and payable during the ensuing fiscal year to each of the funds of the retirement system to which such contributions are payable as set forth in this law.

(b) The division shall certify one-fourth of the amount so ascertained for each year to the nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers on or before the last day of July, October, January and April of each year. The nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers shall on or before the first day of August, November, February and May of each year draw its check payable to the division for the respective amounts due the several funds of the retirement system. Upon receipt of the check the division shall immediately transfer to the several funds of the retirement system the amounts due, provided, however that the amounts due the several funds of the retirement system from any such association or corporation for creditable service accruing to any such member before July 1, 1947 shall be paid prior to the retirement of any such member.

Upon the employment of any teacher to whom this chapter may apply, he shall be informed by his employer of his duties and obligations in connection with the retirement system as a condition of his employment. Every teacher accepting employment shall be deemed to consent and agree to any deductions from his compensation required in this chapter and to all other provisions of this chapter.

(2) During September of each year, or at such other time as the division shall approve, each employer shall certify to the division the names of all teachers to whom this chapter applies.

(3) Each employer shall, on the first day of each calendar month, or at such less frequent intervals as the division may approve, notify the division of the employment of new teachers, removals, withdrawals and changes in salary of members that have occurred during the preceding month, or the period covered since the last notification.

238.13 Limitation on membership.—

(1) No other provision of law in any other statute which provides wholly or partly at the expense of the state for pensions or for retirement benefits for teachers of the said state, their widows, or other dependents, shall apply to members or beneficiaries of the retirement system established by this chapter, their widows or other dependents. No person who shall become a teacher, as defined herein, after July 1, 1939, shall be eligible to a pension under any statute heretofore enacted.

(2) No person who is fully covered by a compulsory civil service retirement plan shall be a member of the retirement system under this chapter; provided, however, that any person who is presently a member of the retirement system and is also fully covered by a compulsory civil service retirement plan may continue to be a member of the retirement system or at his option may withdraw from such retirement system and thereupon be entitled to receive all of his accumulation in the Annuity Savings Trust Fund together with the interest thereon.

Should any change or error in records result in any member or beneficiary receiving from the retirement system more or less than he would have been entitled to receive had the records been correct, then on discovery of any such error the division shall correct such error, and, as far as practicable, shall adjust the payments in such a manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit, to which such member or beneficiary was correctly entitled, shall be paid.

(1) That any teacher who has retired shall have the right and power to authorize in writing the Division of Retirement to deduct from his monthly retirement allowance money for the payment of the premiums on group insurance for hospital, medical and surgical benefits, under a plan or plans for such benefits approved in writing by the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer of the state, and upon receipt of such request the division shall make the monthly payments as directed; and 238.17 Employees of nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers functioning on a statewide basis; intent.—It is the intent of this section to grant to employees of nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers who are or become members of the Teachers' Retirement System all the rights, privileges and benefits therefrom as are or may be granted to all other members of the Teachers' Retirement System, provided, however, that for other than creditable service as a teacher as defined in s. 238.01(4) rendered to a state, county, municipality or other taxing district by any such employee, the state shall not make any contributions on account of such service.

History.—s. 7, ch. 23864, 1947.

238.171 Monthly allowance; when made.—

(1) Whenever any person has served as a teacher in the public schools of Florida or has served therein as superintendent, or both, for an aggregate period of 20 or more years, and such person is then incapacitated to do and perform any vocational work sufficient to earn a livelihood, such person shall thereafter, so long as the above conditions exist, during the remainder of his life, be entitled to a monthly allowance of $150. However, no person who has ever been eligible to become a member of the Teachers' Retirement System of the state shall be entitled to receive such allowance.

(2) Effective July 1, 1975, whenever any person has served as a teacher in the public schools of Florida, is 70 years of age or older, and is incapacitated to do and perform any vocational work sufficient to earn a livelihood, such person shall thereafter, during the remainder of his life, be entitled to a monthly allowance based on years of service as follows:

(a) An aggregate of 10 years but not more than 15 years, a monthly allowance of $75;

(b) More than 15 years and up to 20 years, a monthly allowance of $100.

No person who has ever been eligible to become a member of the Teachers' Retirement System of the state shall be entitled to receive such allowance. The monthly allowance authorized by this subsection shall begin on July 1, 1975.

(3)(a) On July 1, 1974, the director of the Division of Retirement shall adjust the monthly allowance provided for incapacitated teachers under this section by increasing said allowance by a percentage which shall be equal to the percentage change in the average cost-of-living index, as defined in chapter 121, over the period between April 1, 1967, and March 31, 1973. The percent of increase, as of July 1, 1974, shall be 25.4 percent, which is the average cost-of-living increase percentage from April 1, 1967, through March 31, 1973.

(b) On July 1, 1975, and each July 1 thereafter, the director shall adjust the monthly allowance being paid on said date. The percentage of such adjustment shall be equal to the percentage change in the average cost-of-living index during the preceding 12-month period, April 1 through March 31, ignoring changes in the cost-of-living index which are greater than 3 percent during the preceding fiscal year.

The Comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in payment of such pensions so long as such widow shall remain unmarried and continue to be a resident of the state; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to allow such pension to be paid to any widow where such widow of a deceased pensioner under this section receives a like pension in her own right as a retired school teacher.

240.105 Statement of purpose and mission.—

(1) The Legislature finds it in the public interest to provide a system of higher education which is of the highest possible quality; which enables students of all ages, backgrounds, and levels of income to participate in the search for knowledge and individual development; which stresses undergraduate teaching as its main priority; which offers selected professional, graduate, and research programs with emphasis on state and national needs; which fosters diversity of educational opportunity; which promotes service to the public; which makes effective and efficient use of human and physical resources; which functions cooperatively with other educational institutions and systems; and which promotes internal coordination and the wisest possible use of resources.

(2) The mission of the state system of postsecondary education is to develop human resources, to discover and disseminate knowledge, to extend knowledge and its application beyond the boundaries of its campuses, and to serve and stimulate society by developing in students heightened intellectual, cultural, and humane sensitivities; scientific, professional, and technological expertise; and a sense of purpose. Inherent in this broad mission are methods of instruction, research, extended training, and public service designed to educate people and improve the human condition. Basic to every purpose of the system is the search for truth.

240.115 Articulation agreement; acceleration mechanisms.—

(1) Admission of Associate of Arts degree graduates from Florida community colleges and state universities and the use of acceleration mechanisms, including the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), shall be governed by the articulation agreement, as established by the Department of Education.

(2) The universities, community college boards of trustees, and district school boards are authorized to establish intrainstitutional and interinstitutional programs to maximize this articulation. Should the establishment of these programs necessitate the waiver of existing State Board of Education rules, reallocation of funds, or revision or modification of student fees, each college or university shall submit the proposed articulation program to the State Board of Education for review and approval. The State Board of Education is authorized to waive its rules and make appropriate reallocations, revisions, or modifications in accordance with the above.

(3) The levels of postsecondary education shall collaborate in further developing and providing articulated programs in which students can proceed toward their educational objectives as rapidly as their circumstances permit. Time-shortened educational programs, as well as the use of acceleration mechanisms, shall include, but not be limited to, credit by examination or demonstration of competency, advanced placement, early admissions, and dual enrollment.

(4) Each university in the State University System shall offer, upon request, to all students enrolled for the first time at that university, at the time of enrollment, and make available to all other students, not less than once annually, the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) examinations offered by the college entrance examination board or equivalent examinations in those general subject areas which are required or may be applied toward general education requirements for a baccalaureate degree at that university. A student satisfactorily completing such examinations shall receive full credit for the course the same as if it had been taken, completed, and passed.

240.125 Postsecondary consortiums.—

(1) Community colleges and universities serving the same students in a geographic and service area may establish appropriate interinstitutional mechanisms to achieve cooperative planning and delivery of academic programs and related services, share a high-cost instructional facility and equipment, coordinate credit and noncredit outreach activities, have access to each other's library and media holdings and services, and provide cooperative campus activities and consultative relationships for the discussion and resolution of interinstitutional issues and problems which discourage student access or transfer.

(2) Public community colleges and universities may include independent colleges and universities within their service areas in mutual planning of a comprehensive, complementary, cost-effective array of undergraduate and beginning graduate programs of study to serve that geographic area.

History.—s. 66, ch. 79-222.

240.132 Participation by students or employees in disruptive activities at state institutions of higher learning; penalties.—

(1) Any person who shall accept the privilege extended by the laws of this state of attendance or employment at any state college, state community college, or state university shall, by so attending or working at such institution, be deemed to have given his consent to the policies of that institution, the Board of Regents of the Division of Universities of the Department of Education, and the laws of this state. Such policies shall include prohibition against disruptive activities at state institutions of higher learning.

(2) After it has been determined that a student or employee of a state institution of higher learning has participated in disruptive activities, the following penalties may be imposed against such person:

(a) Immediate termination of contract of such employee of the state institution of higher learning, and thereafter such person shall not be employed by any state public school, state college, state community college, or state university;

(b) Immediate expulsion of such student from the institution of higher learning for a minimum of 2 years.

240.133 Expulsion and discipline of students of the State University System and community colleges.—

(1) Each student in the State University System and each student in a community college is subject to federal and state law, respective county and municipal ordinances, and all rules and regulations of the Board of Regents or board of trustees of the community college.

(2) Violation of these published laws, ordinances, or rules and regulations may subject the violator to appropriate action by the university or community college authorities.

(3) Each president of a university in the State University System and each president of a community college shall have authority, after notice to the student of the charges and after a hearing thereon, to expel, suspend, or otherwise discipline any student who is found to have violated any law, ordinance, or rule or regulation of the Board of Regents or of the board of trustees of the community college.

Failure by the university to perform any act authorized by this paragraph shall not constitute a cause of action against the university or its members, officers, or employees.

History.—s. 17, ch. 79-222.

240.233 Universities; admissions of students.—The university shall govern admissions of students, subject to minimum standards adopted by the Board of Regents.

(1) Each university shall develop academic standards for admission to the university. These standards shall include the requirement that no person shall be admitted, enrolled, or matriculated who has not received a high school diploma or its equivalent, except as provided in s. 240.115(3).

(2) Nonresident students may be admitted to the university upon such terms as the university may establish.

(3) Consideration shall be given to the past actions of any person applying for admission as a student to any state university, either as a new applicant, an applicant for continuation of studies, or a transfer student, when such actions have been found to disrupt or interfere with the orderly conduct, processes, functions, or programs of any other university, college, or community college.

(4) In any application for admission by a student as a citizen of the state, the applicant, if 18 years of age, or, if a minor, his parents or guardian shall make and file with such application a written statement under oath that such applicant is a citizen and resident of the state and entitled, as such, to admission upon the terms and conditions prescribed for citizens and residents of the state.

(5) Rules of the Board of Regents, when approved by the State Board of Education, may require the use of scores on tests of college-level communication and computation skills provided in s. 229.551 as a condition of eligibility for consideration for admission to upper division instructional programs of students from community colleges, including those who have been awarded associate degrees, provided that such requirement extends to students enrolled in lower divisions in the State University System and to transfers from other colleges and universities and provided, further, that any cutoff scores required for eligibility for consideration relate to successful student performance in programs to which the scores apply and are filed with the Articulation Coordinating Committee.

History.—s. 18, ch. 79-222.

240.235 Fees.—

(1) The student activity and service fee shall be collected as a component part of the registration and tuition fees. The student activity and service fees shall be paid into a student activity and service fund at the university and shall be expended for lawful purposes to benefit the student body in general. This shall include, but not be limited to, student publications and grants to duly recognized student organizations, the membership of which is open to all students at the university without regard to race, sex, or religion. The fund shall not benefit activities for which an admission fee is charged to students, except for intercollegiate athletics. The allocation and expenditure of the fund shall be determined by the student government association of the university, except that the president of the university may veto any line item or portion thereof within the budget as determined by the student government association legislative body. The president of the university may reallocate the funds to the health service, intercollegiate athletics, or current bond obligations. Unexpended funds and undisbursed funds remaining at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried over and remain in the student activity and service fund and be available for allocation and expenditure during the next fiscal year.

(2) The university may permit the deferral of registration and tuition fees for those students receiving financial aid from federal or state assistance programs when such aid is delayed in being transmitted to the student through circumstances beyond the control of the student. Failure to make timely application for such aid shall be insufficient reason to receive such deferral.

(a) Veterans and other eligible students receiving benefits under chapter 32, chapter 34, or chapter 35, 38 U.S.C., shall be entitled to one deferment each academic year and an additional deferment each time there is a delay in the receipt of their benefits.

(b) The university is required to enforce the collection of or otherwise settle delinquent accounts.

(3) Any dependent child of a special risk member as defined in s. 121.021(15) shall be entitled to a full waiver of undergraduate fees if the special risk member was killed in the line of duty. This waiver shall apply until the child's 25th birthday. To qualify for this waiver, the child shall be required to meet regular admission requirements.

History.—s. 19, ch. 79-222.

240.237 Student records.—The university may prescribe the content and custody of records and reports which the university may maintain on its students. Such records shall be open to inspection only as provided in s. 228.093 or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

240.239 Associate of Arts degrees; issuance.—

(1) The purpose of this section is to require state universities to present Associate of Arts certificates upon request to qualified students.

(2) Students at state universities may request Associate of Arts certificates if they have successfully completed the minimum requirements for the degree of Associate of Arts (A.A.).

(3) Associate of Arts degrees shall not be granted unless a student has successfully completed a minimum of 60 academic semester hours or the equivalent, with not less than 36 of the semester hours in general education courses such as communications, mathematics, social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences.

240.241 Divisions of sponsored research at state universities.—

(1) Each university, with the approval of the Department of Education, is authorized to create, as it deems advisable, divisions of sponsored research which will serve the function of administration and promotion of the programs of research, including sponsored training programs, of the university at which they are located.

(2) The university shall set such policies to regulate the activities of the divisions of sponsored research as it may consider necessary to effectuate the purposes of this act and to administer the research programs in a manner which assures efficiency and effectiveness, producing the maximum benefit for the educational programs and maximum service to the state.

(3) A division of sponsored research created under the provisions of this act shall be under the supervision of the president of that university, who is authorized to appoint a director; to employ full-time and part-time staff, research personnel, and professional services; to employ on a part-time basis personnel of the university; and to employ temporary employees whose salaries are paid entirely from the permanent sponsored research development fund or from that fund in combination with other nonstate sources, with such positions being exempt from the requirements of the Florida Statutes relating to salaries, except that no such appointment shall be made for a total period of longer than 1 year.

(4) The president of the university where a division of sponsored research is created is authorized to negotiate, enter into, and execute research contracts; to solicit and accept research grants and donations; and to fix and collect fees, other payments, and donations that may accrue by reason thereof.

(5) A division of sponsored research shall be financed from the moneys of a university which are on deposit or received for use in the research or related programs of that particular university. Such moneys shall be deposited by the university in a permanent sponsored research development fund in a depository or depositories approved for the deposit of state funds and shall be accounted for and disbursed subject to regular audit by the Auditor General.

(6) The fund balance on hand in any existing research trust fund in the respective university, at the time a division of sponsored research is created, shall be transferred to a permanent sponsored research development fund established for the university, and thereafter the fund balance of said sponsored research development fund at the end of any fiscal period may be used during any succeeding period for the purposes and in the manner authorized by this act.

(7) Moneys deposited in the permanent sponsored research development fund of a university shall be disbursed in accordance with the terms of the contract, grant, or donation under which they are received. Moneys received for overhead or indirect costs and other moneys not required for the payment of direct costs shall be applied to the cost of operating the division of sponsored research. Any surplus moneys shall be used to support other research programs in any area of the university. Moneys allocated for the salaries of regular university employees shall be transferred to the appropriate fund of a university and shall be paid out by the Comptroller in the same manner as salaries for other university employees. Transportation and per diem expense allowances shall be the same as those provided by law for state employees in s. 112.061.

(8)(a) Each university shall submit to the Board of Regents a report of the activities of each division of sponsored research together with an estimated budget for the next biennium.

(b) Not less than 90 days prior to the convening of each regular session of the Legislature in which an appropriation shall be made, the Board of Regents shall submit to the chairman of the appropriations committee of each house of the Legislature a compiled report, together with a compiled estimated budget for the next biennium. A copy of such report and estimated budget shall be furnished to the State Board of Education and to the Governor, as the chief budget officer of the state.

(9) All purchases of a division of sponsored research shall be made in accordance with the policies and procedures of the university; however, in compliance with policies and procedures established by the university and concurred in by the Department of Education, whenever a director of sponsored research shall certify to the president that, in a particular instance, it is necessary for the efficient or expeditious prosecution of a research project, the purchase of material, supplies, equipment, or services for research purposes shall be exempt from the general purchasing requirement of the Florida Statutes.

(10) The university may authorize the construction, alteration, or remodeling of buildings when the funds used are derived entirely from the sponsored research development fund of a university or from that fund in combination with other nonstate sources, provided that such construction, alteration, or remodeling is for use exclusively in the area of research; it also may authorize the acquisition of real property when the cost is entirely from said funds. Title to all real property shall vest in the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and shall only be transferred or conveyed by it.

(11) The sponsored research programs of the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences and the engineering and industrial experiment station shall continue to be centered at the University of Florida as heretofore provided by law.

(12) The operation of the divisions of sponsored research and the conduct of the sponsored research program are hereby expressly exempted from the provisions of any other laws or portions of laws in conflict herewith and are, subject to the requirements of subsection (9), exempted from the provisions of chapters 215, 216, and 283.

240.243 Required number of classroom teaching hours for university faculty members.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "State funds" means those funds appropriated annually from the General Revenue Fund and Incidental Trust Fund for institutional and research functions and, in the case of a health center, those funds appropriated from the General Revenue Fund and Operations and Maintenance Trust Fund for the same purposes.

(b) "Classroom contact hour" means a regularly scheduled 1-hour period of classroom activity in a course of instruction which has been approved by the university.

(2) Each full-time equivalent teaching faculty member at a university who is paid wholly from state funds shall teach a minimum of 12 classroom contact hours per week at such university. However, any faculty member who is assigned by his departmental chairman or other appropriate university administrator professional responsibilities and duties in furtherance of the mission of the university shall teach a minimum number of classroom contact hours in proportion to 12 classroom hours per week as such especially assigned aforementioned duties and responsibilities bear to 12 classroom contact hours per week. Any full-time faculty member who is paid partly from state funds and partly from other funds or appropriations shall teach a minimum number of classroom contact hours in such proportion to 12 classroom contact hours per week as his salary paid from state funds bears to his total salary. In determining the appropriate hourly weighting of assigned duties other than classroom contact hours, the universities shall develop and apply a formula designed to equate the time required for nonclassroom duties with classroom contact hours. "Full-time equivalent teaching faculty member" shall be interpreted to mean all faculty personnel budgeted in the instruction and research portion of the budget, exclusive of those full-time equivalent positions assigned to research, public service, administrative duties, and academic advising. Full-time administrators, librarians, and counselors shall be exempt from the provisions of this section; and colleges of medicine and law and others which are required for purposes of accreditation to meet national standards prescribed by the American Medical Association, the American Bar Association, or other professional associations shall be exempt from the provisions of this section to the extent that the requirements of this section differ from the requirements of accreditation.

Note.—Former s. 241.73.

240.245 Evaluations of faculty members; report.—

(1) For the purpose of evaluating faculty members, each university shall adopt procedures for the assignment of duties and responsibilities to faculty members. These assigned duties or responsibilities shall be conveyed to each faculty member at the beginning of each academic term, in writing, by his departmental chairman or other appropriate university administrator making the assignment. In evaluating the competencies of a faculty member, primary assessment shall be in terms of his performance of the assigned duties and responsibilities, and such evaluation shall be given adequate consideration for the purpose of salary adjustments, promotions, reemployment, and tenure. A faculty member who is assigned full-time teaching duties as provided by law shall be rewarded with salary adjustments, promotions, reemployment, or tenure for meritorious teaching and other scholarly activities related thereto.

(2) Each university shall ensure that the following policies are implemented:

(a) Flexible criteria for rewarding faculty members, consistent with the university's educational goals and objectives, shall be established, which criteria shall include quality teaching as a major factor in determining salary adjustments, promotions, reemployment, or tenure.

(b) Measures shall be taken to increase the recognition, reinforcements, and rewards given quality teaching. Such measures might include grants for professional development, curriculum improvement, and instructional innovation, as well as awards of varying kinds for meritorious teaching.

(c) The means of identifying and evaluating quality teachers shall be determined in accordance with established guidelines of the university.

240.253 Personnel records.—The university may prescribe the content and custody of limited access records which the university may maintain on its employees. Such records shall be limited to information reflecting evaluations of employee performance and shall be open to inspection only by the employee and by officials of the university who are responsible for supervision of the employee. Except as required for use by the president in the discharge of his official responsibilities, the custodian of limited access employee records may release information from such records only upon authorization, in writing, from the employee or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

240.257 Florida Endowment Trust Fund for Eminent Scholars Act.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Endowment Trust Fund for Eminent Scholars Act."

(2) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The Legislature recognizes that the State University System would be greatly strengthened by the addition of distinguished scholars. It further recognizes that private support as well as state support is preferred in helping to obtain distinguished scholars for the state universities and that private support will help strengthen the commitment of citizens and organizations in promoting excellence throughout all state universities. It is therefore the intent of the Legislature to establish a trust fund to provide the opportunity to each state university to receive and match challenge grants to create endowments for selected eminent scholars to occupy chairs within the university. The associated foundations that serve the universities shall have the responsibility for maintaining and investing their shares of the trust fund and shall solicit and receive gifts from private sources to provide for matching funds to the trust fund challenge grants for the establishment of endowments for chairs within universities.

(3) ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TRUST FUND.—There is established a Trust Fund for Eminent Scholars to be divided into challenge grants to be allocated to and administered by the associated foundation that serves each university. The Legislature shall designate funds to be transferred to the trust fund from the General Revenue Fund.

(4) ALLOCATION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST FUND.—

(a) For the duration of the program, each university shall be eligible to match one-ninth of the funds provided. The amount appropriated to the trust shall be allocated by the Board of Regents to each university on the basis of one $400,000 challenge grant for each $600,000 raised from private sources. If a university chooses to pursue the use of the allocated challenge grant funds, such funds shall be matched on a 1½ to 1 basis. Matching funds shall come from contributions made after July 1, 1979, and pledged for the purposes of the act. To be eligible, such contributions must be in excess of the total average annual level of contributions made to the foundation in the 3 fiscal years prior to July 1, 1979. All funds collected by each foundation as matching funds for the challenge grant shall be added to the trust fund to provide for the establishment of an endowment for the specified university. Once the income from the endowment can be effectively utilized pursuant to subsection (5), the university shall proceed to implement plans for establishing an endowed chair. Any allocated funds which remain unmatched 4 years from the date of appropriation shall revert to the Board of Regents for reallocation. No funds accruing to the New College Foundation of the University of South Florida for its separate endowment program shall qualify for an endowed chair as provided for in this act.

(b) The foundation serving a university shall have the responsibility for the maintenance and investment of its share of the allocated trust fund and for the administration of the program at that university. The governing board of each foundation shall be responsible for soliciting and receiving gifts to be used as matching funds to be deposited and matched with the challenge grants for the establishment of the endowments for the specified university. Funds collected by the foundation as matching funds for the challenge grant shall be placed in the trust fund and credited to the endowment for the specified university. Once an endowment is established and operating, there may be further challenge grants to be matched for the establishment of more chairs. Each foundation shall include in its annual report to the Board of Regents information concerning collection and investment of matching gifts and donations and investment of the trust fund.

(5) ESTABLISHMENT OF CHAIRS.—When the sum of the challenge grant and matching funds reaches $1,000,000, the foundation and the president of the university may recommend to the Board of Regents, for its approval, the establishment of an endowed chair. The Board of Regents must then approve the recommendation, considering the existing programs of the State University System, in order for the chair to be established. The chair, which is then the property of the university, may be named in honor of a donor, benefactor, or honoree of the university, at the option of the foundation.

(6) SELECTION OF EMINENT SCHOLARS.—

(a) The president shall be responsible for the final approval of criteria to be used in the selection process.

(b) Presidents of the universities shall nominate individuals for consideration as candidates, or individuals may apply to the foundation for consideration as candidates. Candidates for the chairs may or may not be currently employed as faculty members of the granting institutions; however, a candidate not so employed must become employed as a faculty member by the granting institution upon acceptance of the chair.

(c) The president of the university shall establish a committee to process each application or nomination. The committee shall consist of at least the following: one member appointed by student government; two faculty members appointed by the president; and four members appointed by the foundation, one of whom shall be an alumnus of the university. The committee shall recommend to the president for his approval one or more eligible candidates.

The president shall select the candidate to be offered the chair. If a candidate is not selected by the president or if the approved candidate does not accept the chair, the selection process shall be repeated.

(d) The proceeds of the endowment may be used as salaries or a supplement for salaries and associated with the holder of the chair's scholarly work.

History.—s. 123, ch. 79-222.

240.261 Disciplinary rules.—

(1) Each university may adopt, by rule, a uniform code of appropriate penalties for violations of rules by students and employees, to be administered by the president of each university. Such penalties, unless otherwise provided by law, may include fines, the withholding of diplomas or transcripts pending compliance with rules or payment of fines, and the imposition of probation, suspension, or dismissal.

(2) The university shall adopt rules for the lawful discipline of any student, faculty member, or member of the administrative staff who intentionally acts to impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of a state university. Said rules may apply to acts conducted on or off campus when relevant to such orderly conduct, processes, and functions.

Copies of such rules shall be posted at the university on public bulletin boards where notices are customarily posted, filed with the city clerk or corresponding municipal or county officer, and made available to any person requesting same. When adopted, said rules shall be enforceable as herein provided. All ordinances of the adjacent municipality relating to traffic which are not in conflict or inconsistent with the traffic rules adopted by the individual university shall extend and be applicable to the grounds of the university. The provisions of chapter 316 shall extend and be applicable to the grounds of the university, and the rules adopted by the individual university shall not conflict with any section of that chapter.

240.266 Payment of fines; jurisdiction and procedures of university traffic authority; campus violation fines.—

(1) A person charged with a university traffic infraction shall elect the option prescribed in paragraph (a) or the option prescribed in paragraph (b). If neither option is exercised within the prescribed time by the person charged with a university traffic infraction, an additional fine or penalty may be assessed, and shall be payable, in accordance with the rules of the university.

(a) The person charged may pay the applicable infraction fine, either by mail or in person, within the time period specified in the rules of the individual university. A schedule of infraction fines applicable to each university shall be adopted by the university.

(b) The person charged may elect to appear before the university traffic authority for administrative determination pursuant to procedures enumerated in the rules of such university.

(2) Each university is authorized to approve the establishment of a university traffic authority to hear violations of traffic rules. In such cases as come before the authority, the university traffic authority shall determine whether the person is guilty or not guilty of the charge. In the case of a finding of guilt, the authority shall, in its discretion, impose an appropriate penalty pursuant to s. 240.265.

(2) The university police are hereby declared to be law enforcement officers of the state and conservators of the peace with the right to arrest, in accordance with the laws of this state, any person for violation of state law or applicable county or city ordinances when such violations occur on any property or facilities which are under the guidance, supervision, regulation, or control of the State University System, except that arrests may be made off campus when hot pursuit originates on campus. Said officers shall have full authority to bear arms in the performance of their duties and to execute search warrants within their territorial jurisdiction. University police, when requested by the sheriff or local police authority, may serve subpoenas or other legal process and may make arrests of persons against whom a warrant has been issued or any charge has been made of violation of federal or state laws or county or city ordinances.

(3) University police shall promptly deliver all persons arrested and charged with a felony to the sheriff of the county within which the university is located, and all persons arrested and charged with misdemeanors shall be delivered to the applicable authority as may be provided by law, but otherwise to the sheriff of the county in which the university is located.

The university shall provide a uniform set of identification credentials for each university police officer.

(5) In performance of any of the powers, duties, and functions authorized by law or this section, university police shall have the same rights, protections, and immunities afforded other peace or law enforcement officers.

240.271 State University System; funding.—

(1) Planned enrollments for each university as accepted or modified by the Legislature and program cost categories shall be the basis for the allocation of appropriated funds to the universities.

(2) In addition to enrollment-based appropriations, categorical programs shall be established in the State University System which are not directly related to student enrollment. Such programs shall be based upon the assigned missions of the institutions and shall include, but not be limited to, research and public service programs. Appropriations by the Legislature and allocations by the board shall be based upon full costs, as determined pursuant to subsection (1), and priorities established by the Legislature.

(3) The Legislature by line item in an appropriations act may identify programs of extraordinary quality for the utilization of state funds to be matched by nonstate and nonfederal sources.

(4) The Board of Regents shall establish a cost-estimating system consistent with the requirements of subsection (1) and shall report as part of its legislative budget request the actual expenditures for the fiscal year ending the previous June 30. The report shall include total expenditures from all sources and shall be in such detail as needed to support the legislative budget request.

(5) If the actual enrollment for any university is less than the planned enrollment by 0 to 5 percent for any fiscal year, and no more than 8 percent less for any biennium, the university shall receive full funding as allocated. If the actual enrollment is less than planned enrollment by more than 5 percent for any fiscal year or more than 8 percent for any biennium, the university's allocation for instruction shall be reduced proportionately to the difference between 5 percent and the actual percentage reduction in enrollment for any fiscal year, or the difference between 8 percent and the actual percentage reduction in enrollment for the biennium, whichever is larger. If actual enrollment exceeds target enrollment, there shall be no increased allocation, and an explanation of the excess shall be provided with the next year's enrollment plan.

(1) Community college boards of trustees are vested with the responsibility to operate their respective community colleges and with such necessary authority as may be needed for the proper operation thereof in accordance with regulations of the state board.

(2) In carrying out this responsibility, the trustees, after considering recommendations submitted by the community college president, shall be authorized to adopt such rules and procedures as are necessary to operate the community college in such a manner as to assure the fulfillment of the responsibilities assigned to the board.

(3) Such rules and procedures for the boards of trustees include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Each board of trustees shall determine and adopt such policies as are deemed necessary by it for the efficient operation and general improvement of the community college.

(b) Each board of trustees shall adopt such rules to supplement those prescribed by the State Board of Education as in its opinion will contribute to the more orderly and efficient operation of the community college and to the provision of educational services to all qualified citizens of the community college district.

(c) Each board of trustees shall adopt such minimum standards consistent with and no less stringent than those of the State Board of Education, including, but not limited to:

1. The prescribing of student performance standards for the award of certificates or degrees.

2. The establishment and discontinuance of program and course offerings; provision for instructional and noninstructional community services, location of classes, and services provided; and dissemination of information concerning such programs and services.

(d) Each board of trustees shall constitute the contracting agent of the community college. It may when acting as a body make contracts, sue, and be sued in the name of the board of trustees. In any suit, a change in personnel of the board shall not abate the suit, which shall proceed as if such change had not taken place.

(e) Each board of trustees shall perform those duties and exercise those responsibilities which are assigned to it by law or by rules of the State Board of Education and in addition thereto those which it may find necessary for the improvement of the community college.

(f) Whenever the Department of Education finds it necessary for the welfare and convenience of any community college to acquire private property for the use of said community college and the same cannot be acquired by agreement satisfactory to the district board of trustees of such community college and the parties interested in, or the owners of, said private property, the said district board of trustees may exercise the right of eminent domain and proceed to condemn the property in the manner provided by chapters 73 and 74.

(g) Each board of trustees may enter into lease-purchase arrangements with private individuals or corporations for necessary grounds and buildings for community college purposes, other than dormitories, or for buildings other than dormitories to be erected for community college purposes. Such arrangements shall be paid from capital outlay and debt service funds as provided by s. 240.359(4), with terms not to exceed 30 years at a stipulated rate. The provisions of such contracts, including building plans, shall be subject to approval by the Department of Education, and no such contract shall be entered into without said approval. The State Board of Education is authorized to promulgate such rules as it deems necessary to implement the provisions of this paragraph.

(h) Each board of trustees may purchase, acquire, receive, hold, own, manage, lease, sell, dispose of, and convey title to real property, 'in the best interests of the college, pursuant to rules adopted by the state board.

(l) Each board of trustees is authorized to develop and produce work products which relate to educational endeavors which are subject to trademark, copyright, or patent statutes. To this end, the board shall consider the relative contribution by the personnel employed in the development of such work products and shall enter into binding agreements with such personnel, organizations, corporations, or government entities, which agreements shall establish the percentage of ownership of such trademarks, copyrights, or patents. Any other law to the contrary

240.343 Sick leave.—Each community college board shall adopt rules whereby any full-time employee who is unable to perform his duties at the college because of illness, or because of illness or death of the employee's father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, child, or other close relative or member of the employee's own household and who consequently has to be absent from work shall be granted leave of absence for sickness by the president or by the president's designated representative. The following provisions shall govern sick leave:

(1) EXTENT OF LEAVE WITH COMPENSATION.—

(a) Each full-time employee shall earn 1 day of sick leave with compensation for each calendar month or major fraction of a calendar month of service, not to exceed 12 days for each fiscal year. Such leave shall be taken only when necessary because of sickness as herein prescribed. Such sick leave shall be cumulative from year to year. Accumulated sick leave may be transferred from another Florida community college, the Florida Department of Education, the State University System, or a Florida district school board, provided that at least one-half of the sick leave accumulated at any time must have been established in the college in which such employee is currently employed.

(b) A board may establish rules and prescribe procedures whereby a full-time employee may, at the beginning date of employment in any year, be credited with 12 days of sick leave with compensation in excess of the number of days the employee has earned. Upon termination of employment, the employee's final compensation shall be adjusted in an amount necessary to ensure that sick leave with compensation shall not exceed the days of earned sick leave as provided herein.

(c) A board may establish rules and prescribe standards to permit a full-time employee to be absent no more than 2 days for personal reasons and 2 days for emergencies. However, such absences for personal reasons and emergencies shall be charged only to accrued sick leave, and leave for personal reasons and emergencies shall be noncumulative.

(d) A board may establish rules to provide terminal pay to a full-time employee on retirement, or to his beneficiary if service is terminated by death, who has attained eligibility for retirement benefits under the Teachers' Retirement System of Florida, Florida Retirement System, or State and County Officers and Employees' Retirement System; however, such terminal pay shall not exceed an amount determined by the daily rate of pay of the employee at retirement or death multiplied by one-half of the total number of accumulated sick leave days credited to the employee or 60 days, whichever is less at the time of retirement or death. If an employee retires and receives terminal pay benefits based on unused sick leave credit, all unused sick leave credit shall become invalid; however, if an employee retires without receiving terminal pay benefits and interrupts retirement to return to employment, his sick leave credit shall be reinstated.

(2) CLAIM MUST BE FILED.—Any full-time employee who finds it necessary to be absent from his duties because of illness as defined in this section shall notify the president or a college official designated by the president, if possible before the opening of college on the day on which the employee must be absent or during the day, except for emergency reasons recognized by the board as valid. Any employee shall, before claiming and receiving compensation for the time absent from his duties while absent because of sick leave as prescribed in this section, make and file a written certificate which shall set forth the day or days absent, that such absence was necessary, and that he is entitled or not entitled to receive pay for such absence in accordance with the provisions of this section. The board may prescribe rules under which the president may require a certificate of illness from a licensed physician or from the county health officer.

(3) COMPENSATION.—Any full-time employee having unused sick leave credit shall receive full-time compensation for the time justifiably absent on sick leave; no compensation may be allowed beyond that provided in subsection (4).

(4) SICK LEAVE POOL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a board may, by rule, based upon the maintenance of reliable and accurate records by the community college showing the amount of sick leave which has been accumulated and is unused by employees in accordance with this section, establish a plan allowing participating full-time employees of the community college to pool sick leave accrued and allowing any sick leave thus pooled to be disbursed to any participating employee who is in need of sick leave in excess of that amount he has personally accrued. Such rules shall include, but not be limited to, the following provisions:

(a) Participation in the sick leave pool shall at all times be voluntary on the part of employees.

(b) Any full-time employee shall be eligible for participation in the sick leave pool after 1 year of employment with the community college, provided that such employee has accrued a minimum amount of unused sick leave, which minimum shall be established by rule.

(c) Any sick leave pooled pursuant to this section shall be removed from the personally accumulated sick leave balance of the employee donating such leave.

(d) Participating employees shall make equal contributions to the sick leave pool. There shall be established a maximum amount of sick leave which may be contributed to the pool by an employee. After the initial contribution which an employee makes upon electing to participate, no further contributions shall be required except as may be necessary to replenish the pool. Any such further contribution shall be equally required of all employees participating in the pool.

(e) Any sick leave time drawn from the pool by a participating employee must be used for said employee's personal illness, accident, or injury.

(f) A participating employee shall not be eligible to use sick leave from the pool until all of his or her sick leave has been depleted. There shall be established a maximum number of days for which an employee may draw sick leave from the sick leave pool.

(g) A participating employee who uses sick leave from the pool shall not be required to recontribute such sick leave to the pool, except as otherwise provided herein.

(h) A participating employee who chooses to no longer participate in the sick leave pool shall not be eligible to withdraw any sick leave already contributed to the pool.

(i) Alleged abuse of the use of the sick leave pool shall be investigated, and, on a finding of wrongdoing, the employee shall repay all of the sick leave credits drawn from the sick leave pool and be subject to such other disciplinary action as determined by the board to be appropriate. Rules adopted for the administration of this program shall provide for the investigation of the use of sick leave utilized by the participating employee in the sick leave pool.

(2) STUDENT FEES.—

(a) Fees may be charged to students attending a community college only as authorized by, and pursuant to, rules of the state board.

(b) The state board shall adopt rules permitting the deferral of registration and tuition fees for those students receiving financial aid from federal or state assistance programs when such aid is delayed in being transmitted to the student through circumstances beyond the control of the student. Failure to make timely application for such aid shall be insufficient reason to receive such deferral.

1. Veterans and other eligible students receiving benefits under chapter 32, chapter 34, or chapter 35, 38 U.S.C., shall be entitled to one deferment each academic year and an additional deferment each time there is a delay in the receipt of their benefits.

2. In adopting such rules, the state board is required to enforce the collection of or otherwise settle delinquent accounts.

3. The state board shall require that each institution within the community college system withdraw all requests for course approval from the Veterans Administration for education programs offered in correctional facilities which are provided through state funding at no cost to the inmate.

(c) Any dependent child of a special risk member as defined in s. 121.021(15) shall be entitled to a full waiver of undergraduate fees if the special risk member was killed in the line of duty. This waiver shall apply until the child's 25th birthday. To qualify for this waiver, the child shall be required to meet regular admission requirements.

240.357 Procedure for determining the transportation density index for community colleges.—

(1) Each board of trustees shall annually, each term, on the dates and in the manner prescribed by the State Board of Education, determine and report to the Department of Education the average number of registered or enrolled students who are transported at public expense to a community college by reason of living 2 miles or more from the college and the average number of students transported at public expense from one center of the college district to another center; however, the mileage limitation shall not apply to transportation of physically handicapped students as authorized under regulations of the State Board of Education. The average number of transported students for the college year shall be the sum of the number transported each term divided by the number of terms.

(2) Each board of trustees shall annually, each term, on the dates and in the manner prescribed by the State Board of Education, determine and report to the Department of Education the one-way route mileage required to transport students to the college for the first time on any day of regularly scheduled classes and the one-way miles on routes between college centers. If a route operates for a fewer number of days than the full college year, the mileage of the route will be computed proportionately less.

(3) A density index for each district shall be computed annually by the Department of Education by dividing the number of transported students as determined by subsection (1) by the bus route mileage as determined in subsection (2). Districts with a density index of 1.10 students per route mile or less will be counted as 1.10 per mile and districts with a density of 5.90 or more students per route mile will be counted as 5.90 per mile.

240.359 Procedure for determining state financial support and annual apportionment of state funds to each community college district.

—The procedure for determining state financial support and the annual apportionment to each community college district authorized to operate a community college under the provisions of s. 240.313 shall be as follows:

(1) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED IN THE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE PROGRAM FUND FOR THE CURRENT OPERATING PROGRAM.—

(a) The Department of Education shall determine annually from an analysis of operating costs, prepared in the manner prescribed by rules of the State Board of Education, the costs per full-time equivalent student served in courses and fields of study offered in community colleges. Such fields of study shall be classified into multilevel cost categories in relation to the average statewide costs and the costs adjusted to the year of apportionment for changes in economic conditions and other factors as prescribed by rules of the State Board of Education.

(b) The allocation of funds for community colleges shall be based on advanced and professional disciplines, occupational disciplines, compensatory programs, and adult elementary and secondary programs. The occupational disciplines shall be further subdivided into technical, skilled and semi-skilled, and supplemental.

(c) The amounts determined by multiplying the cost of each field of study times the full-time equivalent students estimated by the Department of Education shall be submitted to the Executive Office of the Governor with the legislative budget request prior to each regular session of the Legislature.

(d) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules to implement s. 9(d)(8)f., Art. XII of the State Constitution. These rules shall provide for the use of the funds available under s. 9(d)(8)f., Art. XII by an individual community college for operating expense in any fiscal year during which the State Board of Education has determined that all major capital outlay needs have been met. Highest priority for the use of these funds for purposes other than financing approved capital outlay projects shall be for the proper maintenance and repair of existing facilities for projects approved by the State Board of Education. However, in any fiscal year in which funds from this source are authorized for operating expense other than approved maintenance and repair projects, the allocation of community college program funds shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum used for such operating expense for that community college that year, and that amount shall not be released or allocated among the other community colleges that year.

(2) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR CAPITAL OUTLAY AND DEBT SERVICE.—The amount included for capital outlay and debt service shall be as determined and provided in s. 18, Art. XII of the State Constitution of 1885, as adopted by s. 9(d), Art. XII of the 1968 revised State Constitution and State Board of Education rules.

(3) DETERMINING THE APPORTIONMENT FROM STATE FUNDS.—

(a) By December 15 of each year, the Department of Education shall estimate the annual enrollment of each community college for the current fiscal year and for the 6 subsequent fiscal years. These estimates shall be based upon prior years' enrollments, upon the initial fall term enrollments for the current fiscal year for each college, and upon each college's estimated current enrollment and demographic changes in the respective community college districts.

(b) The enrollment as accepted or modified by the Legislature shall be the assigned enrollment and the basis for the allocation of appropriated funds to the Division of Community Colleges by the Legislature and to the individual colleges by the division.

(c) The apportionment to each community college from the community college program fund for current operations shall be based on an assigned full-time equivalent enrollment as determined in paragraphs (a) and (b) and shall consider the cost level of each field of study and such other factors as prescribed by rules of the State Board of Education.

(d) If the actual enrollment for any community college is from 0 to 5 percent or 100 full-time equivalent students, whichever is greater, less than the assigned enrollment for any fiscal year, and no more than 8 percent less for any biennium, the college shall receive full funding as allocated. If the actual enrollment is more than 5 percent below the assigned enrollment for any fiscal year or more than 8 percent for any biennium, the college's allocation for direct instructional cost shall be reduced proportionately to the difference between 5 percent and the actual percentage reduction in enrollment for any fiscal year or the difference between 8 percent and the actual percentage reduction in enrollment for the biennium, whichever is larger. If actual enrollment of a college exceeds the assigned enrollment, there shall be no increased allocation. Any institution not meeting its assigned enrollments within the 5-percent difference shall enroll the elderly in existing courses, at no charge to them, within the 5-percent difference. "Elderly" shall be defined as persons 65 years of age or older. If the course is offered for credit, the elderly may enroll in the course, but shall not receive credit for the course.

(e) No community college shall commit funds for the employment of personnel or resources in excess of those required to continue the same level of support for either the previously approved enrollment or the revised enrollment, whichever is lower.

(f) The apportionment to each community college district for capital outlay and debt service shall be the amount determined in accordance with subsection (2). This amount, less any amount determined as necessary for administrative expense by the State Board of Education and any amount necessary for debt service on bonds issued by the State Board of Education, shall be transmitted to the community college district board of trustees to be expended in a manner prescribed by rules of the State Board of Education.

(g) The total apportionment to each community college district from state funds shall be the total apportionment from the community college program fund for each community college district as determined in paragraph (c) and the amount for capital outlay and debt service as provided in paragraph (f).

(h) Colleges shall seek to maintain an unencumbered fund balance of between 4 and 10 percent of the funds available in the current general fund of the operating budget. If the 10-percent upper level is exceeded for 2 consecutive years, the appropriation to the college in a succeeding fiscal year shall be reduced by the average of the excess of the fund balance over the 10 percent for the 2 years. In exceptional cases, when fund balances greater than 10 percent are necessary for a college, prior approval shall be obtained from the director of the Division of Community Colleges.

(4) EXPENDITURE OF ALLOCATED FUNDS.—Any funds allocated herein to any district for a public community college shall be expended only for the purpose of supporting said college.

(2) The department shall approve such proposal when, in its opinion, the proposal is reasonable and just, the expenditure is necessary, and revenues sufficient to meet the requirements of the loan can reasonably be anticipated.

240.409 State Student Assistance Grant Fund created; eligibility for grants.—

(1) There is hereby created a State Student Assistance Grant Fund to be administered by the Department of Education in accordance with policies and regulations to be established by the department.

(2)(a) Student assistance grants from said fund shall be made only to full-time students who have been bona fide residents of Florida for the preceding 2 years. Provided, a renewal applicant who was in the program prior to June 30, 1978, shall be eligible for a renewal grant for the amount of demonstrated unmet need for educational expenses only, which grant shall not exceed a total of $1,200 per academic year. Such grants shall be awarded for the amount of demonstrated unmet need for tuition and fees only and shall not exceed a total of $1,200 per academic year to any one individual applicant. A demonstrated unmet need of less than $200 shall render the applicant ineligible for a student assistance grant. Recipients of such grants must have been accepted at a state university or community college authorized by Florida law, a nursing diploma school approved by the Florida Board of Nursing, or any Florida college, university, or community college which is accredited by a member of the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation or any Florida institution whose credits are acceptable for transfer to state universities. No student may receive an award for more than the equivalent of 8 semesters or 12 quarters in a period of not more than 6 consecutive years.

(b) The criteria and procedure for establishing standards of eligibility shall be determined by the department, but no person shall be eligible who has not demonstrated high moral character, good citizenship, and dedication to American ideals. The department is directed to establish a rating system upon which to base the approval of grants, and such system shall include a certification of acceptability by the college, university, community college, or nursing diploma school of the applicant's choice and a determination of unmet need based on the use of a nationally recognized system or method of need analysis.

(3) Priority in the awarding of student assistance grants for the first year shall be given to entering first-year freshman students and then to community college transfer students. In any event, priority in the awarding of grants shall be given to those applicants who have demonstrated the most promise for academic success as evidenced by a standardized examination and their record of academic achievement. Renewal grants shall take precedence over new awards in any year in which funds are not sufficient to meet the total need.

(4)(a) Each person awarded a student assistance grant under the terms of this law shall be eligible, upon completion of satisfactory work each year and upon compliance with eligibility standards in subsections (1)-(3) and regulations of the Department of Education, to have his student assistance grant renewed from year to year. A grant renewal period may not exceed 9 quarters or the equivalent semesters or trimesters in a period not to exceed 5 years or until graduation or termination of full-time attendance, whichever comes earlier.

(b) In the event that a student assistance grant recipient transfers from one accredited Florida college, university, community college, or nursing diploma school to another, his grant shall be transferable upon approval of the department. When approved by the department, the amount of the unmet need shall be recalculated for the new institution in accordance with subsections (1)-(3) and shall be adjusted accordingly.

(5) Payment of student assistance grants shall be transmitted to the president of the college, university, community college, or nursing diploma school which the recipient is attending or to his representative. Should any recipient terminate his enrollment for any reason during the academic year, the unused portion of the grant, as determined by rules and regulations of the Department of Education, shall be refunded within 60 days to the department for the purposes of this section by the president of the Florida accredited college, university, community college, or nursing diploma school or by his representative.

(6) From the nursing scholarship loans available to be awarded in any year, the Department of Education shall have authority to designate on the basis of existing and projected need a specific number of such scholarships to be awarded only to recipients who pledge their services to a state institution or agency. If at the time of graduation or completion of training it is determined that the services of recipients of such scholarship loans shall not be needed by a state institution or agency, the Department of Education may accept in lieu thereof service rendered to a county or municipal institution or agency. Recipients of such scholarship funds who pledge their services to a state institution or agency shall do so at the regular rate of pay and periods of time. (1) There is hereby created a Student Financial Aid Fund to be administered by the State Department of Education in accordance with policies and regulations to be established by the department.

(2) The department shall have as its purposes relating to loans and scholarships the coordination of state financial aid programs and the planning, development, and continuous evaluation of a comprehensive and long-range program of financial aid for Florida students. In the performance of its responsibilities the department must make a comprehensive study of the needs of Florida students and the provisions of existing institutional, state, and federal programs of student financial aid. The department is authorized to employ such consultants or professional assistants as may be necessary to conduct comprehensive studies. The department shall systematically collect information on all financial aid available from private or governmental sources to students of Florida for pursuit of studies at Florida institutions of higher learning. Information on financial aid shall be made available by the department upon request and shall be periodically distributed to superintendents who shall in turn distribute such information to all junior and senior high school principals in their districts.

(3) There is hereby appropriated to the use of the said department the sum of $500,000 for carrying out the purposes of this act during the 1963-65 biennium. Said sum shall be maintained by the State Treasurer in a permanent, special trust fund, to be expended upon vouchers approved by the department and submitted to the Comptroller, for payment. Any unexpended balance therein at the end of any biennium shall remain therein and be available for carrying out the purposes of this law.

(4) Scholarship loans from said fund, as determined by the department, shall be made only to full-time students in good academic and conduct standing who can demonstrate financial need. Said loans shall be made only to students who are citizens of the United States, or who are in the United States for other than a temporary purpose with the intent to become a permanent resident thereof, and who have been bona fide residents of Florida for the preceding 3 years. Priority shall be given to applicants who have demonstrated the most promise for academic success as evidenced by a standardized examination or their record of academic achievement. Such loans shall be granted only for unmet financial need for educational expenses and shall not exceed a total of $1,800 per academic year to any one individual applicant. Recipients of such loans may attend any institution of higher learning in Florida, either private or public, which is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools or whose credits are acceptable for transfer to state universities in Florida or professional nursing diploma schools.

(5)(a) The criteria and procedure for establishing standards of eligibility shall be as the same are determined by the department, but no person shall be eligible who has not demonstrated high moral character, good citizenship, and dedication to American ideals. The department is directed to establish a rating system upon which to base the approval of loans, and such system shall include a certification of acceptability by the university, college, community college, or professional nursing diploma school of the applicant's choice. The individual recipient shall be selected by the department on the basis of criteria established by the department as provided in this section.

(b) Each person who receives a scholarship loan as herein provided shall execute, as principal, a promissory note, under seal, which shall be endorsed by his parent or guardian or by some other responsible citizen, as surety, and shall deliver said note to the president of the institution he is attending or to his representative. The Department of Education may require collateral or waive endorsement requirements under rules and regulations which shall be adopted by the Department of Education. Each note shall be made payable to the state for the amount of the quarter or semester payment and shall bear interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum beginning 6 months from the date of graduation or termination of full-time college attendance, whichever comes earlier; interest on the note or notes executed by each scholarship loan recipient who elects to transfer from any public or private community college in Florida to any public or private college or university in Florida which is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools or whose credits are acceptable for transfer to state universities in Florida shall be deferred until 6 months following graduation with the bachelor's degree or termination of full-time college attendance, whichever comes earlier. The president shall transmit said note to the Department of Education along with his requisition for funds. Each person awarded a scholarship loan under the terms of this law shall be eligible, upon completion of satisfactory work each year and compliance with subsection (4) and regulations of the Department of Education, to have his scholarship loan renewed from year to year. A university student renewal period may not exceed 12 quarters or the equivalent semesters or trimesters in a period not to exceed 6 consecutive years or until receipt of the bachelor's degree or termination of full-time college attendance, whichever comes earlier. A community college student renewal period may not exceed 6 quarters or the equivalent semesters or trimesters in a period not to exceed 4 years or until receipt of associate's degree or termination of full-time community college attendance, whichever comes earlier. A professional nursing diploma school student renewal period may not exceed 9 quarters or the equivalent semesters or trimesters in a period not to exceed 4 years or until receipt of professional nursing diploma or termination of full-time professional nursing diploma school attendance, whichever comes earlier.

(6) The department shall be authorized to receive and administer grants and donations from any source and in its discretion to establish criteria, select recipients and award scholarships and loans from such funds and to fix the interest rates and terms of repayment thereof.

(7)(a) Each person who executes a note for a scholarship loan under the provisions of this law shall begin repayment of the principal and interest no later than 6 months following graduation with the bachelor's degree or termination of full-time attendance, whichever comes earlier. The monthly installment shall be at a rate which will satisfy the loan in not more than 10 years or at the rate of $25 per month, whichever is greater. Repayment may be waived in the event of his death or permanent total disability. Repayment may be temporarily waived by the Department of Education for military service, full-time graduate study, or temporary total disability.

(b) If it becomes necessary, the Department of Education shall make every effort to enforce the collection of the principal and interest on all uncanceled and unpaid notes and shall deposit said sum to the loan trust fund. Any expense incurred by the Department of Education in enforcing collection of any such scholarship loan notes shall be borne by the signer of the note and the endorser thereof and shall be added to the amount of the principal of said note or notes.

(8) No loans authorized by subsections (4) and (5) shall be made after June 30, 1975, except to students who received such loans prior to June 30, 1975, and who continue their eligibility as defined by this section. To the extent that they are not required for purposes of the Student Financial Aid Trust Fund, moneys deposited in the trust fund shall be used to support a program of short-term loans to students who have applied for a Florida-insured student loan but who have not received such loan by the first day of registration of the school term for which the insured loan applies. Only students attending state universities or public community colleges will be eligible for the short-term loans authorized by this section. Of the moneys available for this purpose, a maximum of $1,000,000 may be used each year. One-half of the funds shall be allocated to each institution in the same proportion as its total amount of Florida-insured student loans for the preceding year is to the total amount of Florida-insured student loans for all state universities and public community colleges for that year, and one-half of the funds shall be allocated proportionally according to enrollment. However, each eligible institution shall receive a minimum allocation of $1,000. It is further provided that no loan authorized by this section shall exceed the amount of disbursement to be made to the student by the forthcoming insured loan. The Department of Education is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations for this program as are necessary for its efficient and orderly administration and to assess a fixed, nonrebatable service charge equal to 50 cents on each $100, or major fraction thereof, loaned to students participating in the short-term loan program.

These funds shall be paid into the Student Financial Aid Trust Fund, to be maintained in a separate account therein and administered by the Department of Education under the provisions of this act. The fees provided for by this section shall be adjusted from time to time, as necessary, to comply with the debt service coverage requirements of the student loan revenue bonds issued pursuant to s. 240.441. If the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services and the Commissioner of Education determine that such fees are no longer required as security for revenue bonds issued pursuant to ss. 240.439-240.463, moneys previously collected pursuant to this section which are held in escrow, after administrative expenses have been met and up to $150,000 has been used to establish a financial aid data processing system for the State University System incorporating the necessary features to meet the needs of all nine universi-

243.151 Lease agreements; land, facilities.—

(1) Each university is authorized to negotiate and enter into agreements to lease land under its jurisdiction to individuals or corporations for the purpose of erecting thereon facilities and accommodations necessary and desirable to serve the needs and purposes of the university, as determined by the systemwide master plan adopted by the Board of Regents. Such agreement will be for a term not in excess of 40 years and shall include as a part of the consideration provisions for the eventual ownership of the completed facilities by the university. The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund upon request of the university shall lease any such property to the university for sublease as heretofore provided.

Note.—Subsection (2) is published in the text as amended by s. 116, ch. 79-222, an act extensively revising the law relating to postsecondary education. Subsection (2) was also amended by s. 1, ch. 79-216, in a conflicting sense, to read as follows:

(2) The Board of Regents, upon recommendation of the respective university president, is authorized to enter into lease agreements whereby income-producing buildings, improvements, and facilities are leased to the Board of Regents for a period of time specified in such agreement. The Board of Regents is authorized to use any trust funds, available and not otherwise obligated, for the purpose of paying rent to the owner should income from student housing facilities not be sufficient in any payment period. The trust funds actually used for payment of rent shall be replaced as soon as possible to the extent that income from student housing facilities exceeds the amount necessary for such payment. Trust funds described herein shall be restricted to auxiliary trust funds and such student activity and service fees as established by the Board of Regents and approved by the Legislature pursuant to ss. 240.062 and 240.0951.

This note is intended to call attention to the apparent conflict pending resolution by further act of the Legislature. Note also that ss. 240.062 and 240.0951, which are referred to in this amendment, were repealed by s. 121, ch. 79-222.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-345.

243.19 Findings and declaration of necessity.—It is declared that for the benefit of the people of the state, the increase of their commerce, welfare, and prosperity, and the improvement of their health and living conditions, it is essential that this and future generations of youth be given the fullest opportunity to learn and to develop their intellectual and mental capacities; that it is essential that institutions for higher education within each county in the state be provided with appropriate additional means to assist such youth in achieving the required levels of learning and development of their intellectual and mental capacities and that it is the purpose of part II of this chapter to provide a measure of assistance and an alternate method to enable institutions of higher education in each county of this state to provide the facilities and structures which are sorely needed to accomplish the purposes of this part. The necessity in the public interest of the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

243.21 Creation of educational facilities authorities.—

(1) In each county there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the ".....County Educational Facilities Authority." Each of said authorities is constituted as a public instrumentality and the exercise by an authority of the powers conferred by this part shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function. Each of said authorities shall not transact any business or exercise any power hereunder until and unless the commission by proper ordinance or resolution shall declare that there is a need for an authority to function in such county. The determination as to whether there is such need for an authority to function

(a) May be made by the commission on its own motion, or

(b) Shall be made by the commission upon filing of a petition signed by 25 residents of the county asserting that there is need for an authority to function in such county and requesting that the commission so declare.

(2) The commission may adopt the ordinance or resolution declaring that there is need for an educational facilities authority in the county if it shall find that the youth of the county do not have the fullest opportunity to learn and to develop their intellectual and mental capacities because there is a shortage of educational facilities or projects at the institutions for higher education located within the county.

(3) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of an ordinance or resolution by the commission declaring the need for the authority. Such ordinance or resolution shall be sufficient if it declares that there is such a need for an authority in the county. A copy of such ordinance or resolution duly certified by the clerk shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action or proceeding.

(4) The aforementioned ordinance or resolution shall designate five persons as members of the authority created for said county. One of such members shall be a trustee, director, officer, or employee of an institution for higher education if there be such an institution located in such county. Of the members first appointed, one shall serve for 1 year, one for 2 years, one for 3 years, one for 4 years, and one for 5 years, and in each case until his successor is appointed and has qualified. Thereafter, the commission shall appoint for terms of 5 years each a member or members to succeed those whose terms expire. The commission shall fill any vacancy for an unexpired term. A member of the authority shall be eligible for reappointment. Any member of the authority may be removed by the commission for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty. Each member of the authority before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe the oath or affirmation required by the State Constitution. A record of each such oath shall be filed in the office of the Department of State and with the clerk.

(5) The authority shall annually elect one of its members as chairman and one as vice chairman, and shall also appoint an executive director who shall not be a member of the authority and who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority and receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the authority.

(6) The executive director shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the authority and of the minute book or journal of the authority and of its official seal. He may cause copies to be made of all minutes and other records and documents of the authority and may give certificates under the official seal of the authority to the effect that such copies are true copies, and all persons dealing with the authority may rely upon such certificates.

(7) Three members of the authority shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the authority shall be necessary for any action taken by an authority; provided, however, any action may be taken by an authority with the unanimous consent of all of the members of an authority. No vacancy in the membership of the authority shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the authority. Any action taken by the authority under the provisions of this part may be authorized by resolution at any regular or special meeting, and each such resolution shall take effect immediately and need not be published or posted.

(8) The members of the authority shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties hereunder but each such member shall be paid his necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the performance of such duties.

(9) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, it shall not be or constitute a conflict of interest for a trustee, director, officer, or employee of an institution for higher education to serve as a member of the authority.

History.—s. 5, ch. 69-345.

243.23 Payment of expenses.—All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this part shall be payable solely from funds provided under the authority of this part, and no liability or obligation shall be incurred by an authority hereunder beyond the extent to which moneys shall have been provided under the provisions of this part.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-345.

243.24 Acquisition of real property.—The authority is authorized and empowered, directly or by and through a participating institution for higher education as its agent, to acquire by purchase solely from funds provided under the authority of this part, or by gift or devise, such lands, structures, property, real or personal, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, and other interests in lands, including lands lying under water and riparian rights, which are located within or without the state as it may deem necessary or convenient for the construction or operation of a project, upon such terms and at such prices as may be considered by it to be reasonable and can be agreed upon between it and the owner thereof, and to take title thereto in the name of the authority or in the name of a participating institution for higher education as its agent.

243.25 Conveyance of title or interest to participating institutions.—When the principal of and interest on revenue bonds of the authority issued to finance the cost of a particular project or projects at a participating institution for higher education, including any revenue refunding bonds issued to refund and refinance such revenue bonds, have been fully paid and retired or when adequate provision has been made fully to pay and retire the same, and all other conditions of the resolution or trust agreement authorizing and securing the same have been satisfied and the lien of such resolution or trust agreement has been released in accordance with the provisions thereof, the authority shall promptly do such things and execute such deeds and conveyances as are necessary and required to convey title to such project or projects to such participating institution for higher education, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, all to the extent that title to such project or projects shall not, at the time, then be vested in such participating institution for higher education.

History.—s. 8, ch. 69-345.

243.26 Notes of authority.—The authority is authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable notes for any corporate purpose and renew from time to time any notes by the issuance of new notes, whether the notes to be renewed have or have not matured. The authority may issue notes partly to renew notes or to discharge other obligations then outstanding and partly for any other purpose. The notes may be authorized, sold, executed and delivered in the same manner as bonds. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing notes of the authority or any issue thereof may contain any provisions which the authority is authorized to include in any resolution or resolutions authorizing revenue bonds of the authority or any issue thereof, and the authority may include in any notes any terms, covenants or conditions which it is authorized to include in any bonds. All such notes shall be payable solely from the revenues of the authority, subject only to any contractual rights of the holders of any of its notes or other obligations then outstanding.

History.—s. 9, ch. 69-345.

243.27 Revenue bonds.—

(1) The authority is authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable revenue bonds for any corporate purpose. In anticipation of the sale of such revenue bonds the authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew the same from time to time, but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed 5 years from the date of issue of the original note. Such notes shall be paid from any revenues of the authority available therefor and not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of sale of the revenue bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the revenue bonds. Such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which a bond resolution of the authority may contain.

(2) The revenue bonds and notes of every issue shall be payable solely out of revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular revenue bonds or notes pledging any particular revenues. Notwithstanding that revenue bonds and notes may be payable from a special fund, they shall be and be deemed to be for all purposes negotiable instruments, subject only to the provisions of the revenue bonds and notes for registration.

(3) The revenue bonds may be issued as serial bonds or as term bonds, or the authority, in its discretion, may issue bonds of both types. The revenue bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the members of the authority and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times not exceeding 50 years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding 7½ percent per annum, be payable at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The revenue bonds or notes may be sold at public or private sale for such price or prices as the authority shall determine. Pending preparation of the definitive bonds, the authority may issue interim receipts or certificates which shall be exchanged for such definitive bonds.

(4) Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any revenue bonds or any issue of revenue bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the revenue bonds to be authorized, as to:

(a) Pledging of all or any part of the revenues of a project or any revenue-producing contract or contracts made by the authority with any individual, partnership, corporation or association or other body, public or private, to secure the payment of the revenue bonds or of any particular issue of revenue bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist.

(b) The rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues.

(c) The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof.

(d) Limitations on the right of the authority or its agent to restrict and regulate the use of the project.

(e) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of revenue bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the revenue bonds or any issue of the revenue bonds.

(f) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding bonds.

(g) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.

(h) Limitations on the amount of moneys derived from the project to be expended for operating, administrative, or other expenses of the authority.

(i) The acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of such holders in the event of a default.

(j) The mortgaging of a project and the site therefor for the purpose of securing the bondholders.

(5) Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the revenue bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the revenue bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(6) The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase its bonds or notes. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-345; s. 23, ch. 73-302; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

243.28 Security of bondholders.—In the discretion of the authority any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the authority and a corporate trustee or trustees, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state. Such trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of such revenue bonds may pledge or assign the revenues to be received or proceeds of any contract or contracts pledged and may convey or mortgage the project or any portion thereof. Such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such revenue bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including particularly such provisions as have hereinabove been specifically authorized to be included in any resolution or resolutions of the authority authorizing revenue bonds thereof. Any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues or other moneys may furnish such indemnifying bonds or pledge such securities as may be required by the authority. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee or trustees, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement or resolution may contain such other provisions as the authority may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of such trust agreement or resolution may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of a project.

History.—s. 11, ch. 69-345.

243.29 Payment of bonds.—Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the state or of the county or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any such county, but shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from revenues. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the State of Florida nor the authority shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from revenues of the project or the portion thereof for which they are issued and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or of any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds. The issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of this part shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

243.30 Rents, rates and charges.—

(1) The authority is authorized to fix, revise, charge and collect rates, rents, fees and charges for the use of and for the services furnished or to be furnished by each project and to contract with any person, partnership, association or corporation, or other body, public or private, in respect thereof. Such rates, rents, fees and charges shall be fixed and adjusted in respect of the aggregate of rates, rents, fees and charges from such project so as to provide funds sufficient with other revenues, if any:

(a) To pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the project and each and every portion thereof, to the extent that the payment of such cost has not otherwise been adequately provided for.

(b) To pay the principal of and the interest on outstanding revenue bonds of the authority issued in respect of such project as the same shall become due and payable.

(c) To create and maintain reserves required or provided for in any resolution authorizing, or trust agreement securing, such revenue bonds of the authority.

Such rates, rents, fees and charges shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any department, commission, board, body, bureau or agency of this state other than the authority.

(2) A sufficient amount of the revenues derived in respect of a project, except such part of such revenues as may be necessary to pay the cost of maintenance, repair and operation and to provide reserves and for renewals, replacements, extensions, enlargements and improvements as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds of the authority or in the trust agreement securing the same, shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or trust agreement in a sinking or other similar fund which is hereby pledged to, and charged with, the payment of the principal of and the interest on such revenue bonds as the same shall become due, and the redemption price or the purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as therein provided. Such pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; the rates, rents, fees and charges and other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any trust agreement by which a pledge is created need be filed or recorded except in the records of the authority.

(3) The use and disposition of moneys to the credit of such sinking or other similar fund shall be subject to the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or of such trust agreement. Except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or such trust agreement, such sinking or other similar fund shall be a fund for all such revenue bonds issued to finance projects at a particular institution for higher education without distinction or priority of one over another; provided the authority in any such resolution or trust agreement may provide that such sinking or other similar fund shall be the fund for a particular project at an institution for higher education and for the revenue bonds issued to finance a particular project and may, additionally, permit and provide for the issuance of revenue bonds having a subordinate lien in respect of the security herein authorized to other revenue bonds of the authority and, in such case, the authority may create separate sinking or other similar funds in respect of such subordinate lien bonds.

243.31 Trust funds.—All moneys received pursuant to the authority of this part, whether as proceeds from the sale of bonds or as revenues, shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this part. Any officer with whom, or any bank or trust company with which, such moneys shall be deposited shall act as trustee of such moneys and shall hold and apply the same for the purposes hereof, subject to such regulations as this act and the resolution authorizing the bonds of any issue or the trust agreement securing such bonds may provide.

243.33 Tax exemption.—The exercise of the powers granted by this part will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of this state, for the increase of their commerce, welfare and prosperity, and for the improvement of their health and living conditions, and as the operation and maintenance of a project by the authority or its agent will constitute the performance of an essential public function, neither the authority nor its agent shall be required to pay any taxes or assessments upon or in respect of a project or any property acquired or used by the authority or its agents under the provisions of this part or upon the income therefrom, and any bonds issued under the provisions of this part, their transfer, and the income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state, the county and by the municipalities and other political subdivisions in the state. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 16, ch. 69-345; s. 7, ch. 73-327.

243.34 Refunding bonds.—

(1) The authority is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance of revenue bonds of the authority for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds of the authority then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the earliest or subsequent date of redemption, purchase or maturity of such revenue bonds, and, if deemed advisable by the authority, for the additional purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of constructing and acquiring additions, improvements, extensions or enlargements of a project or any portion thereof.

(2) The proceeds of any such revenue bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding revenue bonds may, in the discretion of the authority, be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of such outstanding revenue bonds either on their earliest or any subsequent redemption date or upon the purchase or at the maturity thereof and may, pending such application, be placed in escrow to be applied to such purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption on such date as may be determined by the authority.

(3) Any such escrowed proceeds, pending such use, may be invested and reinvested in direct obligations of the United States of America, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by direct obligations of the United States, maturing at such time or times as shall be appropriate to assure the prompt payment, as to principal, interest and redemption premium, if any, of the outstanding revenue bonds to be so refunded. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on any such investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding revenue bonds to be so refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of such proceeds and interest, income and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investments thereof may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner.

(4) The portion of the proceeds of any such revenue bonds issued for the additional purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of constructing and acquiring additions, improvements, extensions or enlargements of a project may be invested and reinvested in direct obligations of the United States, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by direct obligations of the United States, maturing not later than the time or times when such proceeds will be needed for the purpose of paying all or any part of such cost. The interest, income and profits, if any, earned or realized on such investment may be applied to the payment of all or any part of such cost or may be used by the authority in any lawful manner.

(5) All such revenue bonds shall be subject to the provisions of this part in the same manner and to the same extent as other revenue bonds issued pursuant to this part.

History.—s. 17, ch. 69-345.

243.35 Legal investment.—Bonds issued by the authority under the provisions of this part are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-345.

243.36 Reports.—Within the first 90 days of each calendar year, the authority shall make a report to the governing body of the county of its activities for the preceding calendar year. Each such report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement covering its operations during such year. The authority shall cause an audit of its books and accounts to be made at least once each year by certified public accountants and the cost thereof shall be paid by the authority from funds available to it pursuant to this part.

PART I SOUTHERN REGIONAL COMPACT (ss. 244.01-244.03)

SOUTHERN REGIONAL COMPACT

- 244.01 Regional education; state policy.
- 244.02 Regional compact.
- 244.03 Copies to other states approving.

244.01 Regional education; state policy.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to promote the development and maintenance of regional education services and facilities in the Southern States in the professional, technological, scientific, literary and other fields so as to provide greater educational advantages for the citizens of the state and the citizens in the several states in said region; and it is found and determined by the Legislature of the state that greater educational advantages and facilities for the citizens of the state in certain phases of the professional, technological, scientific, literary and other fields in education can best be accomplished by the development and maintenance of regional educational services and facilities, under the plan embodied in "The Regional Pact" hereinafter adopted; and this law shall be liberally construed to accomplish such purposes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 25017, 1949.

244.02 Regional compact.—The compact entered into by the state and other Southern States by and through their respective governors on February 8, 1948, as amended, relative to the development and maintenance of regional education services and schools in the Southern States in the professional, technological, scientific, literary and other fields so as to promote greater educational facilities for the citizens of the several states who reside in said region, a copy of said compact, as amended, being as follows:

THE REGIONAL COMPACT

WHEREAS, The States who are parties hereto have during the past several years conducted careful investigation looking toward the establishment and maintenance of jointly owned and operated regional educational institutions in the Southern States in the professional, technological, scientific, literary, and other fields, so as to provide greater educational advantages and facilities for the citizens of the several states who reside within such region; and

WHEREAS, Meharry Medical College of Nashville, Tennessee, has proposed that its lands, buildings, equipment, and the net income from its endowment be turned over to the Southern States, or to an agency acting in their behalf, to be operated as a regional institution for medical, dental and nursing education upon terms and conditions to be hereafter agreed upon between the Southern States and Meharry Medical College, which proposal, because of the present financial condition of the institution, has been approved by the said states who are parties hereto; and

WHEREAS, the said states desire to enter into a compact with each other providing for the planning and establishment of regional educational facilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements, covenants and obligations assumed by the respective states who are parties hereto (hereinafter referred to as "states"), the said several states do hereby form a geographical district or region consisting of the areas lying within the boundaries of the contracting states which, for the purposes of this compact, shall constitute an area for regional education supported by public funds derived from taxation by the constituent states and derived from other sources for the establishment, acquisition, operation and maintenance of regional educational schools and institutions for the benefit of citizens of the respective states residing within the region so established as may be determined from time to time in accordance with the terms and provisions of this compact.

The states do further hereby establish and create a joint agency which shall be known as the Board of Control for Southern Regional Education (hereinafter referred to as the "board"), the members of which board shall consist of the governor of each state, ex officio, and four additional citizens of each state to be appointed by the governor thereof, at least one of whom shall be selected from the field of education, and at least one of whom shall be a member of the legislature of that state. The governor shall continue as a member of the board during his tenure of office as governor of the state, but the members of the board appointed by the governor shall hold office for a period of four years except that in the original appointments one board member so appointed by the governor shall be designated at the time of his appointment to serve an initial term of two years, one board member to serve an initial term of three years, and the remaining board member to serve the full term of four years, but thereafter the successor of each appointed board member shall serve the full term of four years. Vacancies on the board caused by death, resignation, refusal or inability to serve, shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term. The officers of the board shall be a chairman, a vice chairman, a secretary, a treasurer, and such additional officers as may be created by the board from time to time. The board shall meet annually and officers shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. The board shall have the right to formulate and establish bylaws not inconsistent with the provisions of this compact to govern its own actions in the performance of the duties delegated to it including the right to create and appoint an executive committee and a finance committee with such powers and authority as the board may delegate to them from time to time. The board may, within its discretion, elect as its chairman a person who is not a member of the board, provided such person resides within a signatory state, and upon such election such person shall become a member of the board with all the rights and privileges of such membership. This paragraph as amended in 1957 shall be effective when eight or more of the states party to the compact have given legislative approval to the amendment.

It shall be the duty of the board to submit plans and recommendations to the states from time to time for their approval and adoption by appropriate legislative action for the development, establishment, acquisition, operation and maintenance of educational schools and institutions within the geographical limits of the regional area of the states, of such character and type and for such educational purposes, professional, technological, scientific, literary, or otherwise, as they may deem and determine to be proper, necessary or advisable. Title to all such educational institutions when so established by appropriate legislative actions of the states and to all properties and facilities used in connection therewith shall be vested in said board as the agency of and for the use and benefit of the said states and the citizens thereof, and all such educational institutions shall be operated, maintained and financed in the manner herein set out, subject to any provisions or limitations which may be contained in the legislative acts of the states authorizing the creation, establishment and operation of such educational institutions.

In addition to the power and authority heretofore granted, the board shall have the power to enter into such agreements or arrangements with any of the states and with educational institutions or agencies, as may be required in the judgment of the board, to provide adequate services and facilities for the graduate, professional, and technical education for the benefit of the citizens of the respective states residing within the region, and such additional and general power and authority as may be vested in the board from time to time by legislative enactment of the said states.

Any two or more states who are parties of this compact shall have the right to enter into supplemental agreements providing for the establishment, financing and operation of regional educational institutions for the benefit of citizens residing within an area which constitutes a portion of the general region herein created, such institutions to be financed exclusively by such states and to be controlled exclusively by the members of the board representing such states provided such agreement is submitted to and approved by the board prior to the establishment of such institutions.

Each state agrees that, when authorized by the legislature, it will from time to time make available and pay over to said board such funds as may be required for the establishment, acquisition, operation and maintenance of such regional educational institutions as may be authorized by the states under the terms of this compact, the contribution of each state at all times to be in the proportion that its population bears to the total combined population of the states who are parties hereto as shown from time to time by the most recent official published report of the bureau of the census of the United States of America; or upon such other basis as may be agreed upon.

This compact shall not take effect or be binding upon any state unless and until it shall be approved by proper legislative action of as many as six or more of the states whose governors have subscribed hereto within a period of eighteen months from the date hereof. When and if six or more states shall have given legislative approval to this compact within said eighteen months period, it shall be and become binding upon such six or more states sixty days after the date of legislative approval by the sixth state and the governors of such six or more states shall forthwith name the members of the board from their states as hereinabove set out, and the board shall then meet on call of the governor of any state approving this compact, at which time the board shall elect officers, adopt bylaws, appoint committees and otherwise fully organize. Other states whose names are subscribed hereto shall thereafter become parties hereto upon approval of this compact by legislative action within two years from the date hereof, upon such conditions as may be agreed upon at the time. Provided, however, that with respect to any state whose constitution may require amendment in order to permit legislative approval of the compact, such state or states shall become parties hereto upon approval of this compact by legislative action within seven years from the date hereof, upon such conditions as may be agreed upon at the time.

After becoming effective this compact shall thereafter continue without limitation of time; provided, however, that it may be terminated at any time by unanimous action of the states and provided further that any state may withdraw from this compact if such withdrawal is approved by its legislature, such withdrawal to become effective two years after written notice thereof to the board accompanied by a certified copy of the requisite legislative action, but such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations hereunder accruing up to the effective date of such withdrawal. Any state so withdrawing shall ipso facto cease to have any claim to or ownership of any of the property held or vested in the board or to any of the funds of the board held under the terms of this compact.

If any state shall at any time become in default in the performance of any of its obligations assumed herein or with respect to any obligation imposed upon said state as authorized by and in compliance with the terms and provisions of this compact, all rights, privileges and benefits of such defaulting state, its members on the board and its citizens shall ipso facto be and become suspended from and after the date of such default. Unless such default shall be remedied and made good within a period of one year immediately following the date of such default this compact may be terminated with respect to such defaulting state by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members of the board (exclusive of the members representing the state in default), from and after which time such state shall cease to be a party to this compact and shall have no further claim to or ownership of any of the property held by or vested in the board or to any of the funds of the board held under the terms of this compact, but such termination shall in no manner release such defaulting state from any accrued obligation or otherwise affect this compact or the rights, duties, privileges or obligations of the remaining states thereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this compact has been approved and signed by governors of the several states, subject to the approval of their respective legislatures in the manner hereinabove set out, as of the 8th day of February, 1948.

PART II

NATIONAL COMPACT

- 244.06 Member jurisdictions.
- 244.07 Florida Education Council.
- 244.08 Commission bylaws.

244.06 Member jurisdictions.—The compact for education is entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein and enacted into law in the following form:

COMPACT FOR EDUCATION

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE AND POLICY.

A. It is the purpose of this compact to:

1. Establish and maintain close cooperation and understanding among executive, legislative, professional educational and lay leadership on a nationwide basis at the state and local levels.

2. Provide a forum for the discussion, development, crystallization and recommendation of public policy alternatives in the field of education.

3. Provide a clearinghouse of information on matters relating to educational problems and how they are being met in different places throughout the nation, so that the executive and legislative branches of state government and of local communities may have ready access to the experience and record of the entire country, and so that both lay and professional groups in the field of education may have additional avenues for the sharing of experience and the interchange of ideas in the formation of public policy in education.

4. Facilitate the improvement of state and local educational systems so that all of them will be able to meet adequate and desirable goals in a society which requires continuous qualitative and quantitative advance in educational opportunities, methods and facilities.

B. It is the policy of this compact to encourage and promote local and state initiative in the development, maintenance, improvement and administration of educational systems and institutions in a manner which will accord with the needs and advantages of diversity among localities and states.

C. The party states recognize that each of them has an interest in the quality and quantity of education furnished in each of the other states, as well as in the excellence of its own educational systems and institutions, because of the highly mobile character of individuals within the nation, and because the products and services contributing to the health, welfare and economic advancement of each state are supplied in significant part by persons educated in other states.

ARTICLE II

STATE DEFINED.—

As used in this compact, "state" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III

THE COMMISSION.—

A. The Education Commission of the States, hereinafter called "the commission," is hereby established. The commission shall consist of seven members representing each party state. One of such members representing Florida shall be the governor; two shall be members of the state senate appointed by the president; two shall be members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker; and two shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor. The guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the commission shall be that the members, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the state government, higher education, the state education system, local education, lay and professional, public and non-public educational leadership. Of those appointees, one shall be the head of a state agency or institution, designated by the governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the commission representing the party states, there may be not to exceed ten nonvoting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations of professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

B. The members of the commission shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners are present. The commission shall meet at least once a year. In its bylaws, and subject to such directions and limitations as may be contained therein, the commission may delegate the exercise of any of its powers to the steering committee or the executive director, except for the power to approve budgets or requests for appropriations, the power to make policy recommendations pursuant to Article IV and adoption of the annual report pursuant to Article III, J.

C. The commission shall have a seal.

D. The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, who shall be a governor, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall provide for the appointment of an executive director. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and, together with the treasurer and such other personnel as the commission may deem appropriate, shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director shall be secretary.

E. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director, subject to the approval of the steering committee, shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel. The commission in its bylaws shall provide for the personnel policies and programs of the commission.

F. The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party jurisdiction, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party jurisdictions or their subdivisions.

G. The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency, or from any person, firm, association, foundation, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission pursuant to this paragraph or services borrowed pursuant to paragraph F of this Article shall be reported in the annual report of the commission. Such report shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, grant, or services borrowed, and the identity of the donor or lender.

H. The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

I. The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

J. The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS.—

In addition to authority conferred on the commission by other provisions of the compact, the commission shall have authority to:

1. Collect, correlate, analyze and interpret information and data concerning educational needs and resources.

2. Encourage and foster research in all aspects of education, but with special reference to the desirable scope of instruction, organization, administration, and instructional methods and standards employed or suitable for employment in public educational systems.

3. Develop proposals for adequate financing of education as a whole and at each of its many levels.

4. Conduct or participate in research of the types referred to in this article in any instance where the commission finds that such research is necessary for the advancement of the purposes and policies of this compact, utilizing fully the resources of national associations, regional compact organizations for higher education, and other agencies and institutions, both public and private.

5. Formulate suggested policies and plans for the improvement of public education as a whole, or for any segment thereof, and make recommendations with respect thereto available to the appropriate governmental units, agencies and public officials.

6. Do such other things as may be necessary or incidental to the administration of any of its authority or functions pursuant to this compact.

COOPERATION WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.—

A. If the laws of the United States specifically so provide, or if administrative provision is made therefor within the federal government, the United States may be represented on the commission by not to exceed ten representatives. Any such representative or representatives of the United States shall be appointed and serve in such manner as may be provided by or pursuant to federal law, and may be drawn from any one or more branches of the federal government, but no such representative shall have a vote on the commission.

B. The commission may provide information and make recommendations to any executive or legislative agency or officer of the federal government concerning the common educational policies of the states, and may advise with any such agencies or officers concerning any matter of mutual interest.

ARTICLE VI

COMMITTEES.—

A. To assist in the expeditious conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall elect a steering committee of thirty-two members which, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall be constituted and function as provided in the bylaws of the commission. One-fourth of the voting membership of the steering committee shall consist of governors, one-fourth shall consist of legislators, and the remainder shall consist of other members of the commission. A federal representative on the commission may serve with the steering committee, but without vote. The voting members of the steering committee shall serve for terms of two years, except that members elected to the first steering committee of the commission shall be elected as follows: sixteen for one year and sixteen for two years. The chairman, vice chairman, and treasurer of the commission shall be members of the steering committee and, anything in this paragraph to the contrary notwithstanding, shall serve during their continuance in these offices. Vacancies in the steering committee shall not affect its authority to act, but the commission at its next regularly ensuing meeting following the occurrence of any vacancy shall fill it for the unexpired term. No person shall serve more than two terms as a member of the steering committee; provided that service for a partial term of one year or less shall not be counted toward the two term limitations.

B. The commission may establish advisory and technical committees composed of state, local, and federal officials, and private persons to advise it with respect to any one or more of its functions. Any advisory or technical committee may, on request of the states concerned, be established to consider any matter of special concern to two or more of the party states.

C. The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

ARTICLE VII

FINANCE.—

A. The commission shall advise the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state of its budget and estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states.

B. The total amount of appropriation requests under any budget shall be apportioned among the party states. In making such apportionment, the commission shall devise and employ a formula which takes equitable account of the populations and per capita income levels of the party states.

C. The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party states. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it pursuant to Article III, G of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring an obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it pursuant to Article III, G thereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

D. The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established by its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant, and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

E. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

F. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VIII

ELIGIBLE PARTIES; ENTRY INTO AND WITHDRAWAL.—

A. This compact shall have as eligible parties all states, territories, and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In respect of any such jurisdiction not having a governor, the term "governor," as used in this compact, shall mean the closest equivalent official of such jurisdiction.

B. Any state or other eligible jurisdiction may enter into this compact and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same; provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least ten eligible party jurisdictions shall be required.

C. Adoption of the compact may be either by enactment thereof or by adherence thereto by the governor; provided that in the absence of enactment, adherence by the governor shall be sufficient to make his state a party only until December 31, 1967. During any period when a state is participating in this compact through gubernatorial action, the governor shall appoint those persons who, in addition to himself, shall serve as the members of the commission from his state, and shall provide to the commission an equitable share of the financial support of the commission from any source available to him.

D. Except for a withdrawal effective on December 31, 1967, in accordance with paragraph C of this article, any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY.—

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-344.

244.07 Florida Education Council.—There is hereby established the Florida Education Council, composed of the members of the Education Commission of the States representing this state, and six other persons appointed by the Governor. Initial appointments shall be staggered so that, after the initial appointments have been made, one-third of the membership is appointed annually. The maximum length of any appointment shall be 3 years. In addition, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall each appoint two members who shall serve 2-year terms. These four persons shall not be members of the Legislature and shall not derive a majority of their incomes from educational or education-related fields. The ten persons shall broadly represent the people of Florida. The chairman shall be designated by the Governor from among council members. The council shall meet on the call of its chairman or at the request of a majority of its members, but in any event the council shall meet at least two times each year. The council may consider any matter relating to the Education Commission of the States and state issues on which Florida may receive technical assistance from the Education Commission of the States. The activities of the council shall be supported through existing resources of the Department of Education.

PART III

COMPACT ON QUALIFICATIONS OF EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL

- 244.09 Interstate agreement on qualifications of educational personnel.
- 244.10 Commissioner designated official.
- 244.11 Copies of contracts with other states; depository.

244.09 Interstate agreement on qualifications of educational personnel.—The interstate agreement on qualifications of educational personnel is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I PURPOSE, FINDINGS, AND POLICY

1. The states party to this agreement, desiring by common action to improve their respective school systems by utilizing the teacher or other professional educational person wherever educated, declare that it is the policy of each of them, on the basis of cooperation with one another, to take advantage of the preparation and experience of such persons wherever gained, thereby serving the best interests of society, of education, and of the teaching profession. It is the purpose of this agreement to provide for the development and execution of such programs of cooperation as will facilitate the movement of teachers and other professional educational personnel among the states party to it, and to authorize specific interstate educational personnel contracts to achieve that end.

2. The party states find that included in the large movement of population among all sections of the nation are many qualified educational personnel who move for family and other personal reasons but who are hindered in using their professional skill and experience in their new locations. Variations from state to state in requirements for qualifying educational personnel discourage such personnel from taking the steps necessary to qualify in other states. As a consequence, a significant number of professionally prepared and experienced educators is lost to our school systems. Facilitating the employment of qualified educational personnel, without reference to their states of origin, can increase the available educational resources. Participation in this compact can increase the availability of educational manpower.

ARTICLE II DEFINITIONS

As used in this agreement and contracts made pursuant to it, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Educational personnel" means persons who must meet requirements pursuant to state law as a condition of employment in educational programs.

2. "Designated state official" means the education official of a state selected by that state to negotiate and enter into, on behalf of this state, contracts pursuant to this agreement.

3. "Accept," or any variant thereof, means to recognize and give effect to one or more determinations of another state relating to the qualifications of educational personnel in lieu of making or requiring a like determination that would otherwise be required by or pursuant to the laws of a receiving state.

4. "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States; the district of Columbia; or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

5. "Originating state" means a state and the subdivision thereof, if any, whose determination that certain educational personnel are qualified to be employed for specific duties in schools is acceptable in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to Article III.

6. "Receiving state" means a state and the subdivisions thereof which accept educational personnel in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to Article III.

ARTICLE III INTERSTATE EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL CONTRACTS

1. The designated state official of a party state may make one or more contracts on behalf of his state with one or more other party states providing for the acceptance of educational personnel. Any such contract for the period of its duration shall be applicable to and binding on the states whose designated state officials enter into it, and the subdivisions of those states, with the same force and effect as if incorporated in this agreement. A designated state official may enter into a contract pursuant to this article only with states in which he finds that there are programs of education, certification standards or other acceptable qualifications that assure preparation or qualification of educational personnel on a basis sufficiently comparable, even though not identical to that prevailing in his own state.

2. Any such contract shall provide for:

(a) Its duration.

(b) The criteria to be applied by an originating state in qualifying educational personnel for acceptance by a receiving state.

(c) Such waivers, substitutions, and conditional acceptances as shall aid the practical effectuation of the contract without sacrifice of basic educational standards.

(d) Any other necessary matters.

3. No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall be for a term longer than five years but any such contract may be renewed for like or lesser periods.

4. Any contract dealing with acceptance of educational personnel on the basis of their having completed an educational program shall specify the earliest date or dates on which originating state approval of the program or programs involved can have occurred. No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall require acceptance by a receiving state or any persons qualified because of successful completion of a program prior to January 1, 1954.

5. The certification or other acceptance of a person who has been accepted pursuant to the terms of a contract shall not be revoked or otherwise impaired because the contract has expired or been terminated.

However, any certificate or other qualifying document may be revoked or suspended on any ground which would be sufficient for revocation or suspension of a certificate or other qualifying document initially granted or approved in the receiving state.

6. A contract committee composed of the designated state officials of the contracting states or their representatives shall keep the contract under continuous review, study means of improving its administration, and report no less frequently than once a year to the heads of the appropriate education agencies of the contracting states.

ARTICLE IV APPROVED AND ACCEPTED PROGRAMS

1. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to repeal or otherwise modify any law or regulation of a party state relating to the approval of programs of educational preparation having effect solely on the qualification of educational personnel within that state.

2. To the extent that contracts made pursuant to this agreement deal with the educational requirements for the proper qualification of educational personnel, acceptance of a program of educational preparation shall be in accordance with such procedures and requirements as may be provided in the applicable contract.

ARTICLE V INTERSTATE COOPERATION

The party states agree that:

1. They will, so far as practicable, prefer the making of multilateral contracts pursuant to Article III of this agreement.

2. They will facilitate and strengthen cooperation in interstate certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification and for this purpose shall cooperate with agencies, organizations, and associations interested in certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification.

ARTICLE VI AGREEMENT EVALUATION

The designated state officials of any party states may meet from time to time as a group to evaluate progress under the agreement, and to formulate recommendations for changes.

ARTICLE VII OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prevent or inhibit other arrangements or practices of any party state or states to facilitate the interchange of educational personnel.

ARTICLE VIII EFFECT AND WITHDRAWAL

1. This agreement shall become effective when enacted into law by two states. Thereafter it shall become effective as to any state upon its enactment of this agreement.

2. Any party state may withdraw from this agreement by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states.

3. No withdrawal shall relieve the withdrawing state of any obligation imposed upon it by a contract to which it is a party. The duration of contracts and the methods and conditions of withdrawal therefrom shall be those specified in their terms.

ARTICLE IX CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-340.

244.10 Commissioner designated official.—

For the purposes of the agreement set forth in Article IX, the "designated state official" for this state shall be the Commissioner of Education. The Commissioner of Education shall enter into contracts pursuant to Article III of the agreement only with the approval of the specific texts thereof by the State Board of Education.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-340.

244.11 Copies of contracts with other states; depository.—Two copies of all contracts made on behalf of this state pursuant to the agreement set forth in Article IX shall be kept on file in the office of the Commissioner of Education and in the office of the Department of State. The Department of Education shall publish all such contracts in convenient form.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-340; ss. 10, 15, 35, ch. 69-106.

246.011 Purpose.—

²(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage privately supported higher education and to protect the integrity of degrees and diplomas conferred by privately supported educational institutions. This chapter shall provide for the protection of the health, education, welfare, and morals of the citizens of Florida and shall facilitate and promote the acquisition of a minimum satisfactory education by all the citizens of this state. Presently existing in this state are many fine nonpublic colleges, but there are some nonpublic colleges which do not generally offer those educational opportunities which the citizens of this state deem essential. The latter type of college also fails to contribute to the ultimate health, education, welfare, and morals of the citizens of Florida. It is in the interest of, and essential to, the public health, education, welfare, and morals that the state create the means whereby all nonpublic colleges as defined in this chapter shall satisfactorily meet minimum educational standards.

(2) A common practice in our society is to use diplomas and degrees for many purposes. Some of these purposes are for employers to judge the qualifications of prospective employees; for public and nonpublic professional groups, educational agencies, governmental agencies, and educational institutions to determine the qualifications for admission to, and continuation of, educational and occupational goals, professional or occupational affiliations; and public and professional assessment of the extent of competency of individuals engaged in a wide range of activities within our society.

(3) Because of the common use of diplomas and degrees, the minimum legal requirements as provided by this chapter for the establishment and operation of nonpublic colleges will protect the individual student from deceptive, fraudulent, or substandard education; protect the nonpublic institutions; and protect the citizens of this state holding diplomas or degrees.

(4) Nothing contained herein is intended to regulate the stated purpose of a nonpublic college or to restrict any religious instruction or training in a nonpublic college.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-128; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 6, 10, 16, ch. 79-385.

246.021 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "College" means any educational facility maintained or conducted by any person, association, partnership, corporation, or trust and operating as an institute, community college, college, university, or entity of whatever kind which furnishes or offers to furnish a degree as defined herein or which furnishes or offers to furnish instruction leading toward, or prerequisite to, an academic degree beyond the secondary level and which requires that, in order to obtain a degree or diploma, the recipient thereof satisfactorily completes appropriate courses or classes or laboratory or research study in person or by correspondence. (a) Colleges provided, operated, and supported by the State of Florida or its political subdivisions or the Federal Government.

(f) Colleges that offer instruction of an avocational or recreational nature that does not lead to an occupational objective. However, no degree or diploma as hereinafter defined shall be awarded.

(6) "Diploma" means a certificate, transcript, report, document, title of designation, mark, appellation, series of letters, numbers, or words which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisite of an academic degree which may be used for any purpose whatsoever.

(7) "Degree" means any academic or honorary title of designation, mark, appellation, series of letters, numbers, or words, such as, but not limited to, bachelors, masters, doctorate, or fellow, which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or for a recognized title conferred for meritorious recognition and associate degree awarded by a community college or other institution in liberal arts which may be used for any purpose whatsoever.

(8) "Board" means the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

Note.—Section 16, ch. 79-385, provides that if ch. 231 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-385 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

(1) There shall be established in the Department of Education a State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities. This board shall include nine members appointed by the Governor as follows:

(a) Five educators selected from private community colleges, colleges, or universities in this state.

(b) Two educators selected from publicly supported community colleges, colleges, or universities.

246.201 Legislative intent.—

(1) Sections 246.201-246.231 shall provide for the protection of the health, education, and welfare of the citizens of Florida and shall facilitate and promote the acquisition of a minimum satisfactory vocational, technical, trade, and business education by all the citizens of this state. There are presently many fine nonpublic schools existing in this state, but there are some nonpublic schools which do not generally offer those educational opportunities which the citizens of Florida deem essential. The latter type of school also fails to contribute to the ultimate health, education, and welfare of the citizens of Florida. It shall be in the interest of, and essential to, the public health and welfare that the state create the means whereby all independent postsecondary vocational, technical, trade, and business schools as defined in s. 246.203(1) shall satisfactorily meet minimum educational standards.

(2) A common practice in our society is to use diplomas and degrees for many purposes. Some of these purposes are: for employers to judge the qualifications of prospective employees; for public and nonpublic professional groups, vocational groups, educational agencies, governmental agencies, and educational institutions to determine the qualifications for admission to, and continuation of, educational goals, occupational goals, professional affiliations, or occupational affiliations; and for public and professional assessment of the extent of competency of individuals engaged in a wide range of activities within our society.

(3) Because of the common use of diplomas and degrees, the minimum legal requirements provided by ss. 246.201-246.231 for the establishment and operation of independent postsecondary vocational, technical, trade, and business schools shall protect the individual student from deceptive, fraudulent, or substandard education; protect such independent postsecondary vocational, technical, trade, and business schools; and protect the citizens of Florida holding diplomas or degrees.

(4) Nothing contained herein is intended in any way, nor shall be construed, to regulate the stated purpose of an independent postsecondary vocational, technical, trade, and business school or to restrict any religious instruction or training in a nonpublic school. Any school or business regulated by the state or approved, certified, or regulated by the Federal Aviation Administration is hereby expressly exempt from ss. 246.201-246.231. Nonprofit schools, owned, controlled, operated, and conducted by religious, denominational, eleemosynary, or similar public institutions exempt from property taxation under the laws of this state shall be exempt from the provisions of ss. 246.201-246.231. However, such schools may choose to apply for a license hereunder, and, upon approval and issuance thereof, such schools shall be subject to ss. 246.201-246.231.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date. Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

(2) When not in the active service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, camp or other place, division, brigade, group, regiment or separate battalion may appoint special courts-martial for his command; but such special courts-martial may in any case, be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed advisable. Special courts-martial may try any person subject to military law, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States or of the state; and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such special courts-martial shall not exceed $100.

(3) When not in active service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, group, separate battalion, company or similar type unit, may appoint for such place or command a summary court to consist of one officer who may administer oaths and try the enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and violations of the laws governing such organizations; and said court when satisfied of the guilt of such soldier or soldiers may impose a fine not to exceed $25 for any single offense; to sentence to confinement, provided that such sentence to confinement shall not exceed 1 day for each dollar of fine authorized to be imposed; or may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowance. The proceedings of such summary court shall be informal; the minutes thereof shall be made and preserved, and in all respects shall be as far as practicable, identical with proceedings of similar courts of the Army of the United States.

250.36 Mandates and process.—

(1) Military courts may issue all process and mandates, including writs and warrants necessary and proper to carry into full effect the powers vested in said courts. Such mandates and process may be directed to the sheriff of any county, and shall be in such form as may, from time to time, be prescribed and published by the adjutant general in the rules and regulations issued by him under this chapter. All officers to whom such mandates and process are directed shall execute the same and make returns of their acts thereunder, according to the requirements of the form of process. Any sheriff or other officer who shall neglect or refuse to perform the duty enjoined upon him by this chapter shall be subject to the same liabilities, penalties and punishments as are prescribed by the law for neglect or refusal to perform any other duty of his office.

(2) When not in the active service of the United States, presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers of the Florida National Guard may issue warrants, directed to the sheriff of any county in the state, directing him to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever any such accused shall have disobeyed an order in writing delivered to him in person or mailed to his last known address from the convening authority to appear before such courts, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order; issue subpoena duces tecum and enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers; and sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer as provided in actions before civil courts.

(3) When a sentence of confinement is imposed by any court-martial of the Florida National Guard, the reviewing authority whose approval makes effective the sentence imposed by the court-martial, shall issue his warrant directing the sheriff of the appropriate county to take the delinquent into custody and confine him in the jail of such county for the period specified in the sentence of the court. Any sheriff receiving such warrant shall promptly execute the same by taking the delinquent into custody and causing him to be confined in said jail. The sheriff or jailor in charge of any county jail shall receive any person committed for confinement in such jail under proper process from a court-martial, and provide for the care, subsistence, and safekeeping of such prisoner just as he would a prisoner properly committed for custody under the sentence of any civil court.

(4) All sums of money collected through fines imposed by a general, or special, or summary court of the Florida National Guard shall at once be paid over by the officer collecting the fine to the commanding officer of the organization to which the delinquent belongs, and will be taken up by the latter

250.39 Penalty for contempt.—Any person who shall be guilty of disorderly, contemptuous or indecorous language or expression to or before any military court, or any member of such court, in open court, tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due its authority, or who shall commit any breach of the peace, or make any noises or other disturbances, directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, may be committed by warrant under the hand of the president of the court to the jail of the county in which said court shall sit, there to remain without bail in confinement for a time to be limited, not exceeding 3 days.

250.40 Armory Board; armories, how obtained.—

(1) The Armory Board of the state shall consist of the Governor, the adjutant general, the state quartermaster, the general officers of the line, regimental commanders, group commander, and senior air commander in the active National Guard of the state. This board is charged with the supervision and control of all military buildings and real property within the state applied to military uses.

(2) The term of each member of the Armory Board shall be the period during which he possesses the qualifications for such membership under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The members of the Armory Board shall perform the duties imposed upon them by the provisions of this chapter without any special compensation for their services; members of the Armory Board shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061, and be paid from the appropriation for the expenses of the Florida National Guard.

(4) It shall be the duty of the Armory Board to consider and approve the plans for or of all armories and other buildings before such buildings shall be rented, constructed or otherwise acquired for military uses by the state.

(5) Since our national military policy as enunciated in the National Defense Act recognized the National Guard as an important and necessary component of the Army of the United States, and as the defense of the country is a joint responsibility of all political divisions and subdivisions thereof, and since the National Guard is a citizen force by reason of its militia status, it is considered equitable that the expense of the maintenance of the National Guard be not only shared by the state with the Federal Government, but that it should properly be shared also by the counties, cities and other subdivisions of the state. As the federal government is providing liberally for the equipment and training of the National Guard and the state for its administration and management, an equitable division of the responsibility of maintenance would leave with the communities in which units of the National Guard are established the duty of supplying the necessary personnel and adequate housing for the organization.

(6) In order to provide for the cooperative support of the National Guard, and that armories may be provided which will furnish suitable training facilities and adequate storage accommodations for all arms, equipment and other military property, the Armory Board shall have authority to receive from counties, municipalities and other sources, donations of land and contributions of money to aid in providing, improving and maintaining an arsenal, armories, campsites, target ranges, and other facilities, throughout the state, and any property so donated, shall be held as other property for the use of the state and such counties and municipalities are hereby authorized and empowered to make such donations of lands by deed or long-term leases and contributions of moneys for the purposes herein set forth, and to issue bonds or certificates of indebtedness to provide funds for such purposes; and boards of county commissioners are hereby authorized to levy taxes, not to exceed 1 mill, to provide funds for the construction of armories or for the retirement of such bonds or certificates of indebtedness issued to provide funds for the construction of armories.

(7) Counties and municipalities are hereby authorized to construct armories upon state-owned land which may be made available for such purpose by action of the Armory Board.

(8) Counties and municipalities are also authorized to grant to the State Armory Board, for military uses, by deed or long-term leases, property that may have been acquired, or buildings that may have been constructed by them, for use as armories and rifle ranges.

(9) Whenever it may become necessary in the public interest to acquire private property in order to provide necessary land for campgrounds, rifle ranges or armories for the Organized Militia of the state, and the same cannot be acquired by agreement satisfactory to the Armory Board and the parties interested in, or the owners of, such private property, the armory board is hereby authorized and empowered to exercise the right of eminent domain, and to proceed to condemn such property in the manner provided by law. Any suit or action brought by the Armory Board to condemn property, as provided for under this section, shall be brought in the name of the Armory Board, and it shall be the duty of the Department of Legal Affairs of the state to conduct the proceedings for and to act as the counsel of the said board in such matters.

(10) The county commissioners, or municipal authorities, may, in their discretion, appropriate a sufficient sum not otherwise appropriated, to pay the necessary expenses of any unit of the Organized Militia of the state located in their respective counties or municipalities, to be accounted for to the adjutant general by the organization receiving such appropriation as other military funds.

250.41 Armory defined; control and management of state military properties; annual report of Armory Board.—

(1) The term "armory," as used in this chapter, shall be understood to mean a building used primarily for the housing and training of troops, and no building will be used for those purposes, or for storing of arms and other military property, that is not under full control and supervision of the properly constituted military authorities.

(2) The Armory Board shall also constitute a board for the general management and control of all armories when established, and may adopt and prescribe rules for their government and management. All United States and state military property must be kept therein, and the commanders of troops using the armories will be held responsible for the safekeeping and proper care of such property and its protection against misappropriation or loss. Armories, while occupied and in use by troops, shall be considered military posts, and be under exclusive control and jurisdiction of the officer commanding the post.

(3) The Armory Board shall also be charged with the supervision and management of any permanent campsite, target range or ranges, which are now or may hereafter become the property of the state; or which, being the property of the United States, may be provided to the state to be used for military purposes; such board may provide for the maintenance and proper equipment of the same from any funds which may be available for that purpose. Any and all moneys accruing to the Armory Board from the operation and management of properties hereinabove mentioned are hereby appropriated for the maintenance of state properties under control of the Armory Board.

(4) The Armory Board shall make a report annually of the proceedings incident to the location and management of armories, respectively, and also as to the management of other property entrusted to its care, and with a detailed account of all disbursements; which report shall be filed in the office of the adjutant general, and shall be printed in the report of his department.

252.32 Policy and purpose.—

(1) Because of the existing and continuing possibility of the occurrence of disasters or emergencies of unprecedented size and destructiveness resulting from enemy attack, sabotage, or other hostile action or from natural or man-made causes; in order to ensure that preparations of this state will be adequate to deal with, reduce vulnerability to, and recover from, such disasters and emergencies; generally to provide for the common defense and to protect the public peace, health, and safety; and to preserve the lives and property of the people of the state, it is hereby found and declared to be necessary:

(a) To create a state disaster emergency agency to be known as the "Division of Disaster Preparedness," to authorize the creation of local organizations for disaster preparedness in the political subdivisions of the state, and to authorize cooperation with the Federal Government and the governments of other states.

(b) To confer upon the Governor, the "Division of Disaster Preparedness, and the governing body of each political subdivision of the state the emergency powers provided herein.

(c) To provide for the rendering of mutual aid among the political subdivisions of the state, with other states, and with the Federal Government with respect to carrying out all civil defense functions and responsibilities.

(d) To authorize the establishment of such organizations and the development and employment of such measures as are necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of this act.

(e) To provide the means to assist in the prevention of disasters caused or aggravated by inadequate planning for, and regulation of, public and private facilities and land use.

(2) It is further declared to be the purpose of this act and the policy of the state that all civil defense functions of the state be coordinated to the maximum extent with comparable functions of the Federal Government, including its various departments, agencies of other states and localities, and private agencies of every type, to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of the nation's manpower, resources, and facilities for dealing with any disaster or emergency that may occur.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

Note.—See s. 47, ch. 79-190, which changed the name of the Division of Disaster Preparedness to the Division of Public Safety Planning and Assistance. cf.—s. 255.042 Shelter in public buildings.

252.33 Limitations.—Nothing in this act shall be construed to:

(1) Interfere with the course or conduct of a labor dispute, except that actions otherwise authorized by this act or other laws may be taken when necessary to forestall or mitigate imminent or existing danger to public health or safety.

(2) Interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs; but any communications facility or organization, including, but not limited to, radio and television stations, wire services, and newspapers, may be required to transmit or print public service messages furnishing information or instructions in connection with a disaster emergency.

(3) Affect the jurisdiction or responsibilities of police forces, firefighting forces, units of the Armed Forces of the United States, or any personnel thereof, when on active duty; but state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans shall place reliance upon the forces available for performance of functions related to disaster emergencies.

(4) Limit, modify, or abridge the authority of the Governor to proclaim martial law or exercise any other powers vested in him under the constitution, statutes, or common law of this state independent of, or in conjunction with, any provisions of this act.

252.36 The Governor; disaster emergencies.—

(1) The Governor is responsible for meeting the dangers presented to this state and its people by disasters. The Governor may issue executive orders, proclamations, and regulations and amend or rescind them. Executive orders, proclamations, and regulations shall have the force and effect of law.

(2) A disaster emergency shall be declared by executive order or proclamation of the Governor if he finds a disaster has occurred or that the occurrence or the threat thereof is imminent. The state of disaster emergency shall continue until the Governor finds that the threat or danger has been dealt with to the extent that the emergency conditions no longer exist and terminates the state of disaster emergency by executive order or proclamation, but no state of disaster emergency may continue for longer than 30 days unless renewed by the Governor. The Legislature by concurrent resolution may terminate a state of disaster emergency at any time. Thereupon, the Governor shall issue an executive order or proclamation ending the state of disaster emergency. All executive orders or proclamations issued under this section shall indicate the nature of the disaster, the area or areas threatened, and the conditions which have brought it about or which make possible termination of the state of disaster emergency. An executive order or proclamation shall be promptly disseminated by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Department of State and in the offices of the county commissioners in the counties to which it applies.

(3) An executive order or proclamation of a state of disaster emergency shall activate the disaster response and recovery aspects of the state, local, and interjurisdictional disaster emergency plans applicable to the political subdivision or area in question and be authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plan or plans apply and for use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, and materials and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this chapter or any other provision of law relating to disaster emergencies.

(4) During the continuance of a state of disaster emergency, the Governor is commander in chief of the organized and unorganized militia and of all other forces available for emergency duty. To the greatest extent practicable, the Governor shall delegate or assign command authority by prior arrangement embodied in appropriate executive orders or regulations, but nothing herein restricts his authority to do so by orders issued at the time of the disaster emergency.

(5) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, he may:

(a) Suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for conduct of state business or the orders, rules, and regulations of any state agency, if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule, or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency.

(b) Utilize all available resources of the state government and of each political subdivision of the state, as reasonably necessary to cope with the disaster emergency.

(c) Transfer the direction, personnel, or functions of state departments and agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.

(d) Subject to any applicable requirements for compensation under s. 252.43, commandeer or utilize any private property if he finds this necessary to cope with the disaster emergency.

(e) Direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the state if he deems this action necessary for the preservation of life or other disaster mitigation, response, or recovery.

(f) Prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation.

(g) Control ingress and egress to and from a disaster area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.

(h) Suspend or limit the sale, dispensing, or transportation of alcoholic beverages, firearms, explosives, and combustibles.

(i) Make provision for the availability and use of temporary emergency housing.

(j) Take effective measures for limiting or suspending lighting devices and appliances, gas and water mains, electric power distribution, and all other utility services in the general public interest.

(k) Take measures concerning the conduct of civilians, the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrian and vehicular traffic prior to, during, and subsequent to drills and actual or threatened disasters, the calling of public meetings and gatherings, and the evacuation and reception of civilian population, as provided in the civil defense plan of the state and political subdivisions thereof.

(l) Authorize the use of forces already mobilized as the result of an executive order, regulation, or proclamation to assist the private citizens of the state in clean-up and recovery operations during disaster emergencies when proper permission to enter onto or into private property has been obtained from the property owner. The provisions of s. 768.28(9) shall apply to this paragraph.

(6) The Governor shall take such action and give such direction to state and local law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this act and with the orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto.

(7) The Governor shall employ such measures and give such directions to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or local boards of health as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this act or with the findings or recommendations of such agency of health by reason of conditions arising from disasters or threats of disaster.

(8) The Governor shall delegate emergency responsibilities to the officers and agencies of the state and of the political subdivisions thereof prior to a disaster or threat of a disaster and shall utilize the services and facilities of existing officers and agencies of the state and of the political subdivisions thereof, including their personnel and other resources, as the primary civil defense forces of the state, and all such officers and agencies shall cooperate with and extend their services and facilities to the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness, as it may require.

(9) The Governor and the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness shall establish agencies and offices and appoint executive, professional, technical, clerical, and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out provisions of this act, including, with due consideration to the recommendations of local authorities, full-time state and area directors.

(10) The Governor shall formulate and execute plans and regulations for the control of traffic in order to provide for the rapid and safe movement or evacuation over public highways and streets of people, troops, or vehicles and materials for national defense or for use in any defense industry and may coordinate the activities of the departments or agencies of the state and the political subdivisions thereof concerned directly or indirectly with public highways and streets in a manner which will best effectuate such plans.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285; s. 1, ch. 77-47; s. 4, ch. 79-12.

Note.—See s. 47, ch. 79-190, which changed the name of the Division of Disaster Preparedness to the Division of Public Safety Planning and Assistance.

252.37 Financing.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature and declared to be the policy of the state that funds to meet disaster emergencies shall always be available.

(2) It is the legislative intent that the first recourse shall be to funds regularly appropriated to state and local agencies. If the Governor finds that the demands placed upon these funds in coping with a particular disaster are unreasonably great, he may make funds available by transferring and expending moneys appropriated for other purposes or out of any unappropriated surplus funds.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the Governor's authority to apply for, administer, and expend any grants, gifts, or payments in aid of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, or recovery.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.38 Local disaster agencies.—

(1) Safeguarding the life and property of its citizens is an innate responsibility of the governing body of each political subdivision of the state.

(2) In order to provide effective and orderly governmental control and coordination of emergency operations in disasters and emergencies within the scope of this act, each county within this state shall be within the jurisdiction of, and served by, the division. Except as otherwise provided in this act each local disaster agency shall have jurisdiction over and serve an entire county. The board of county commissioners of each county of the state, or the legally constituted governing body of any combined county-city government, is hereby authorized and directed to establish and maintain such a local disaster preparedness agency in accordance with, and in support of, the state civil defense plan and program.

(3) Each local disaster preparedness agency created and established pursuant to the provisions of this act shall have a director who shall be appointed, and have his annual salary fixed, by the board of county commissioners of the county or the governing body of a city or town, as appropriate. However, no person shall be appointed or reappointed as a director unless such person shall first have been approved for such appointment by the director of the division. Each local director shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of such local organization, subject only to the direction and control of the governing body of the political subdivision and of the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness. The local director shall coordinate the activities, services, and programs for civil defense within his county and shall maintain liaison with other local organizations for civil defense and the state.

(4) Each local disaster agency shall perform civil defense functions within the territorial limits of the political subdivision within which it is organized and, in addition, shall conduct such functions outside of such territorial limits as may be required pursuant to the provisions of this act and in accordance with state and county civil defense plans.

(5) The governing body of each political subdivision of this state authorized pursuant to this act to create and establish a local disaster agency is further authorized to create a disaster advisory council for advice and counsel on matters pertaining to civil defense.

(6) In carrying out the provisions of this act, each political subdivision shall have the power and authority:

(a) To appropriate and expend funds; make contracts; obtain and distribute equipment, materials, and supplies for civil defense purposes; provide for the health and safety of persons and property, including emergency assistance to the victims of any disaster; and direct and coordinate the development of civil defense plans and programs in accordance with the policies and plans set by the federal and state disaster agencies.

(b) To appoint, employ, remove, or provide, with or without compensation, coordinators, rescue teams, fire and police personnel, and other disaster preparedness workers.

(c) To establish, as necessary, a primary, and one or more secondary, emergency operating centers to provide continuity of government and direction and control of emergency operations.

(d) To assign and make available for duty the offices and agencies of the subdivision, including their employees, property, or equipment relating to firefighting, engineering, rescue, health, medical and related services, police, transportation, construction, and similar items or services for civil defense purposes as the primary civil defense forces of the subdivision for employment within or outside the political limits of the subdivision.

(e) In the event of a disaster emergency, to waive procedures and formalities otherwise required by law pertaining to:

1. The performance of public work.
2. The entering into of contracts.

3. The incurring of obligations.
4. The employment of permanent and temporary workers.
5. The utilization of volunteer workers.
6. The rental of equipment.
7. The purchase and distribution, with or without compensation, of supplies, materials, and facilities.
8. The appropriation and expenditure of public funds.

(7) If the Governor finds that two or more adjoining counties would be better served by an interjurisdictional arrangement than by maintaining separate disaster agencies and services, he may delineate by executive order or regulation an interjurisdictional area adequate to plan for, prevent, or respond to disaster in that area and direct steps to be taken as necessary, including the creation of an interjurisdictional relationship, a joint disaster emergency plan, a provision for mutual aid, or an area organization for emergency planning and services. A finding of the Governor pursuant to this subsection shall be based on one or more factors related to the difficulty of maintaining an efficient and effective disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery system on a unijurisdictional basis, such as:

- (a) Small or sparse population.
- (b) Limitations on public financial resources severe enough to make maintenance of a separate disaster agency and services unreasonably burdensome.
- (c) Unusual vulnerability to disaster as evidenced by a past history of disasters, topographical features, drainage characteristics, disaster potential, and presence of disaster-prone facilities or operations.
- (d) The interrelated character of the counties in a multicounty area.
- (e) Other relevant conditions or circumstances.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—See s. 47, ch. 79-190, which changed the name of the Division of Disaster Preparedness to the Division of Public Safety Planning and Assistance.

252.39 Local services.—

(1) Whenever the employees of any political subdivision are rendering outside aid pursuant to the authority contained in s. 252.38, such employees shall have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the political subdivisions in which they are normally employed.

(2) The political subdivision in which any equipment is used pursuant to this section shall be liable for any loss or damage thereto and shall pay any expense incurred in the operation and maintenance thereof. No claim for such loss, damage, or expense shall be allowed unless, within 60 days after the same is sustained or incurred, an itemized notice of such claim under oath is served by mail or otherwise upon the chief fiscal officer of such political subdivision where the equipment was used. The political subdivision which is aided pursuant to this section shall also pay and reimburse the political subdivision furnishing such aid for compensation paid to employees furnished under this section during the time of the rendition of such aid and shall defray the actual traveling and maintenance expenses of such employees while they are rendering such aid. Such reimbursement shall include any amounts paid or due for compensation due to personal injury or death while such employees are engaged in rendering such aid. The term "employee" as used in this section shall mean, and the provisions of this section shall apply with equal effect to, paid, volunteer, and auxiliary employees and civil defense workers.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.40 Mutual-aid arrangements.—

(1) The governing body of each political subdivision of the state is authorized to develop and enter into, through the division, mutual-aid agreements with other public entities and private agencies within the state for reciprocal civil defense aid and assistance in case of disasters too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such agreements shall be consistent with the state civil defense plan and program, and in time of emergency it shall be the duty of each local disaster preparedness agency to render assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual-aid agreements to the fullest possible extent.

(2) The Governor may enter into a compact with any state if he finds that joint action with that state is desirable in meeting common intergovernmental problems of emergency disaster planning, prevention, response, and recovery.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.41 Civil defense support forces.—

(1) The division is authorized to provide, within or without the state, support from available personnel, equipment, and other resources of state agencies and the political subdivisions of the state, as may be necessary to reinforce civil defense organizations in stricken areas. Such support shall be rendered with due consideration of the plans of the Federal Government, this state, the other states, and of the criticality of the existing situation. Civil defense support forces shall be called to duty upon orders of the division and shall perform functions in any part of the state or, upon the conditions specified in this section, in other states.

(2) Personnel of civil defense support forces while on duty, whether within or without the state, shall:

(a) If they are employees of the state, have the powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities, and receive the compensation, incidental to their employment.

(b) If they are employees of a political subdivision of the state, whether serving within or without such political subdivision, have the powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities, and receive the compensation, incidental to their employment.

(c) If they are not employees of the state or a political subdivision thereof, they shall be entitled to the same rights and immunities as are provided by law for the employees of this state and to such compensation as may be fixed by the division. All personnel of civil defense support forces shall, while on duty, be subject to the operational control of the authority in charge of civil defense activities in the area in which they are serving and shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses to the extent of funds available.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.42 Government equipment, services, and facilities.—In the event of any disaster, the division may make available any equipment, services, or facilities owned or organized by the state or its political subdivisions for use in the affected area upon request of the duly constituted authority of the area affected or upon the request of any recognized and accredited relief agency through such duly constituted authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.43 Compensation.—

(1) Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be owed only to the extent that a claimant may not be deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation and only to the extent that such taking exceeds the legal responsibility of a claimant to render such services or make such property so available.

(2) Compensation owed for personal services shall be only such as may be fixed by the division.

(3) Compensation for property shall be owed only if the property was commandeered or otherwise used in coping with a disaster emergency and its use or destruction was ordered by the Governor or a member of the disaster emergency forces of this state.

(4) Any person claiming compensation for the use, damage, loss, or destruction of property under this act shall file a claim therefor with the division in the form and manner that the division provides.

(5) Unless the amount of compensation owed on account of property damaged, lost, or destroyed is agreed between the claimant and the division, the amount of compensation shall be calculated in the same manner as compensation due for a taking of property pursuant to the condemnation laws of this state.

(6) Nothing in this section applies to or authorizes compensation for the destruction or damaging of standing timber or other property in order to provide a firebreak or damage resulting from the release of waters or the breach of impoundments in order to reduce pressure or other danger from actual or threatened flood or applies to or authorizes compensation beyond the extent of funds available for such compensation.

252.44 Disaster prevention.—

(1) In addition to disaster prevention measures as included in the state and local disaster plans, the governor shall consider on a continuing basis steps that could be taken to prevent or reduce the harmful consequences of disasters. At his direction and pursuant to any other authority and competence they have, state agencies, including, but not limited to, those charged with responsibilities in connection with flood plain management, stream encroachment and flow regulation, weather modification, fire prevention and control, air quality, public works, land use and land-use planning, and construction standards, shall make studies of disaster prevention related matters. The Governor, from time to time, shall make such recommendations to the Legislature, local governments, and other appropriate public and private entities as may facilitate measures for prevention or reduction of the harmful consequences of disasters.

(2) The appropriate state agencies, in conjunction with the division, shall keep land uses and construction of structures and other facilities under continuing study and identify areas which are particularly susceptible to severe land shifting, subsidence, flood, or other catastrophic occurrence, man-made or natural. The studies under this subsection shall concentrate on means of reducing or avoiding the dangers caused by these occurrences or the consequences thereof.

(3) If the division believes, on the basis of the studies or other competent evidence, that an area is susceptible to a disaster of catastrophic proportions without adequate warning, that existing building standards and land-use controls in that area are inadequate and could add substantially to the magnitude of the disaster, and that changes in zoning regulations, other land-use regulations, or building requirements are essential in order to further the purposes of this section, it shall specify the essential changes to the Governor. If the Governor upon review of the recommendation finds after public hearing that changes are essential, he shall so recommend to the agencies or local governments with jurisdiction over the area and subject matter. If no action or insufficient action pursuant to his recommendations is taken within the time specified by the Governor, he shall so inform the Legislature and request legislative action appropriate to mitigate the impact of disaster.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-285.

252.45 Lease or loan of state property; transfer of state personnel.—Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law:

(1) Whenever the Governor deems it to be in the public interest, he may:

(a) Authorize any department or agency of the state to lease or lend, on such terms and conditions as it may deem necessary to promote the public welfare and protect the interests of the state, any real or personal property of the state government to the President, the heads of the Armed Forces, or the Civil Defense Agency of the United States.

(b) Enter into a contract on behalf of the state for the lease or loan to any political subdivision of the state, on such terms and conditions as he may deem necessary to promote the public welfare and protect the interests of the state, of any real or personal property of the state government or the temporary transfer or employment of personnel of the state government to or by any political subdivision of the state.

(2) The governing body of each political subdivision of the state may:

(a) Enter into such contract or lease with the state, accept any such loan, or employ such personnel, and such political subdivision may equip, maintain, utilize, and operate any such property and employ necessary personnel therefor in accordance with the purposes for which such contract is executed.

(b) Do all things and perform any and all acts which it may deem necessary to effectuate the purpose for which such contract was entered into.

(2) All orders, rules, and regulations promulgated by the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness or any political subdivision or other agency authorized by this act to make orders, rules, and regulations shall have full force and effect of law after adoption in accordance with the provisions of chapter 120 in the event of issuance by the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness or any state agency, or, if promulgated by a political subdivision of the state or agency thereof, when filed in the office of the clerk or recorder of the political subdivision or agency promulgating the same. All existing laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or any order, rule, or regulation issued under the authority of this act, shall be suspended during the period of time and to the extent that such conflict exists.

(3) In order to attain uniformity so far as practicable throughout the country in measures taken to aid civil defense, all action taken under this act and all orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto shall be taken or made with due consideration of the orders, rules, regulations, actions, recommendations, and requests of federal authorities relevant thereto and, to the extent permitted by law, shall be consistent with such orders, rules, regulations, actions, recommendations, and requests.

executive officer or governing body of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the state or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the state or such political subdivision and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

(2) Whenever any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the state or to any political subdivision thereof services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant or loan for the purpose of civil defense, the state, acting through the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness, or such political subdivision, acting through its governing body or a local organization for civil defense, may accept such offer and, upon such acceptance, the 'Division of Disaster Preparedness or governing body of a political subdivision may authorize any officer of the state or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the state or such political subdivision and subject to the terms of the offer.

253.02 Board of trustees; powers and duties.—

(1) For the purpose of assuring the proper application of the Land Acquisition Trust Fund for the purposes of this chapter, the land provided for in ss. 253.01 and 253.03, and all the funds arising from the sale thereof, after paying the necessary expense of selection, management and sale, are irrevocably vested in a board of seven trustees, to wit: The Governor, the Secretary of State, the Attorney General, the Comptroller, the State Treasurer, the Commissioner of Education, the Commissioner of Agriculture and their successors in office, to hold the same in trust for the uses and purposes provided in this chapter, with the power to sell and transfer said lands to the purchasers and receive payment for the same, and invest the surplus moneys arising therefrom, from time to time, in stocks of the United States, stocks of the several states, or the internal improvement bonds issued under the provisions of law; also, the surplus interest accruing from such investments. 253.023 Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund established; purpose.—

(1) It is the policy of the state that the citizens of this state shall be assured the availability of public lands on which to recreate. In recognition of this policy, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide such public lands for the people residing in urban and metropolitan areas of the state as well as those residing in less populated, rural areas; it is the further intent of the Legislature, with regard to the lands described in paragraph (3)(b), that a high priority be given to the acquisition of such lands in or near counties exhibiting the greatest concentration of population.

(2) There is established within the Department of Natural Resources the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund, to be used as a nonlapsing, revolving fund exclusively for the purposes of this section. To the fund shall be credited 50 percent of the total moneys collected from the excise tax on the severance of:

(a) Oil, such moneys to be taken from the first oil tax provided in s. 211.02(1)(a);

(b) Gas, such moneys to be taken from the first gas tax provided in s. 211.02(1)(c);

(c) Solid minerals other than phosphate rock, such moneys to comprise that portion of the tax paid into the State Treasury in accordance with s. 211.31(1)(a); and

(d) Phosphate rock, such moneys to be taken from that portion of the tax paid into the State Treasury in accordance with s. 211.31(3)(a).

The Department of Revenue, upon compilation of each month's receipts of the severance tax, shall credit the amount provided in this section to the fund, commencing with the funds collected in October 1979. If the moneys credited to the fund at any time during the fiscal year or the balance of the fund at the end of the fiscal year exceeds $3 million for fiscal year 1979-1980 or 1980-1981, in either case, the excess shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund. If the moneys credited to the fund at any time during the fiscal year or the balance of the fund at the end of the fiscal year exceeds $20 million for fiscal year 1981-1982 or any fiscal year thereafter, in either case the excess shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

(3) The Governor and Cabinet, sitting as the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, may allocate moneys from the fund in any 1 year to acquire the fee or any lesser interest in land in each of the following categories and proportions:

(a) Up to 70 percent of such moneys for any interest in lands qualified for purchase as environmentally endangered lands as defined in 's. 259.03(2), or

(b) Up to 70 percent of such moneys for any interest in lands which the board of trustees determines should be acquired in the public interest for the following purposes:

1. For use and protection as natural floodplain, marsh, or estuary, if the protection and conservation of such lands is necessary to enhance or protect water quality or quantity or to protect fish or wildlife habitat which cannot otherwise be accomplished through local and state regulatory programs;

2. For use as state parks, recreation areas, public beaches, state forests, wilderness areas, or wildlife management areas;

3. For restoration of altered ecosystems to correct environmental damage that has already occurred; or

4. For preservation of significant archaeological or historical sites.

(4) Moneys in the fund not needed to meet obligations incurred under this section shall be deposited with the Treasurer to the credit of the fund and may be invested in the manner provided by law. Interest received on such investments shall be credited to the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund.

(5) The board of trustees may enter into any contract necessary to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(6) Prior to or concurrent with the acquisition under this section of any interest in lands, the board of trustees shall designate an agency or agencies to manage such lands and shall make a preliminary determination as to the extent and nature of public use for which the lands will be available.

(7) Lands shall be acquired under this section in accordance with acquisition procedures for state lands provided for in s. 253.025.

(8) Agencies designated to manage lands under this section shall develop and adopt, with the approval of the board of trustees, individual management plans for each project designed to conserve and protect such lands and their associated natural resources.

(9) The board of trustees may allocate, in any year, an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the moneys credited to the fund in that year, such allocation to be used for maintenance and management of any lands acquired pursuant to this section.

(10) All lands managed under this section shall be open for public use and enjoyment to the extent the board of trustees find compatible with the conservation and protection of public lands. Such public use may include, upon approval of the board of trustees, fishing, hunting, camping, hiking, nature study, swimming, boating, and canoeing.

History.—s. 8, ch. 79-255.

Note.—This cross reference was changed by the editors from "s. 259.03(1)" to conform to the renumbering of subsections within s. 259.03 by s. 13, ch. 79-255. Subsection (2) defines "state capital projects for environmentally endangered lands."

253.025 Acquisition of state lands.—

(1) Neither the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund nor its duly authorized agent shall commit the state, through any instrument of negotiated contract or agreement for purchase, to the purchase of lands with or without appurtenances unless the provisions of this section have been fully complied with. Prior to any state agency initiating any land acquisition, the title to which land is to vest in the board of trustees, such agency shall coordinate with the Division of State Lands to determine the availability of existing state-owned lands in the area and the public purpose for which the acquisition is being proposed. Once the state agency has determined and established the public purpose for an acquisition and the unavailability of existing suitable state-owned lands, the state agency may proceed to acquire such lands by employing all available statutory authority for acquisition. Land acquisition procedures provided for in this section are for voluntary, negotiated acquisitions.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term "negotiations" shall not include preliminary contacts with the property owner to determine the availability of the property, existing appraisal data, existing abstracts, and surveys.

(3) Prior to approval by the board of trustees of any final agreement for purchase, evidence of marketable title shall be provided by the landowner. Such evidence of marketability shall be in the form of title insurance or an abstract of title with a title opinion.

(4) Prior to negotiations with the parcel owner, an appraisal of the parcel shall be required as follows:

(a) Each parcel to be acquired shall have at least one appraisal. Two appraisals are required when the value of the first appraisal exceeds $100,000. However, when the value of either appraisal exceeds $100,000 and the parcel appraisal is of a peculiar or complex nature, a third appraisal shall be obtained.

(b) Appraisal fees shall be paid by the agency proposing the acquisition. The board of trustees shall approve qualified fee appraisal organizations which shall include, but not be limited to, the American Institute, Society of Real Estate Appraisers, American Society of Appraisers, Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers, and National Association of Independent Fee Appraisers. The Division of State Lands shall maintain a current list of all fee appraisers who are members of the professional organizations approved by the board of trustees and who desire to conduct appraisals under contract for the division. The list of qualified fee appraisers shall contain information relative to the fee appraiser's qualifications, location of practice, business reputation, and areas of specialization, if any. An agency proposing an acquisition shall select fee appraisers from this list. When the Division of State Lands determines that the need for an appraisal exists, it shall publish notice of such need in the general area of the proposed land acquisition that an assignment is available and specify the substantive requirements of the appraisal and when it must be completed. If at least three qualified fee appraisers on the current list are not located within the general area, the notice shall be published statewide. When the division has received three responses to the notice from qualified fee appraisers, it shall evaluate the various proposals submitted and, based upon all pertinent factors including quoted completion date, anticipated fees, appraiser's expertise, and previous appraisals, it shall select the required number of qualified appraisers. Each fee appraiser selected to appraise a particular parcel shall, prior to contracting with the agency, submit to that agency an affidavit substantiating that he has no vested or fiduciary interest in such parcel.

(c) After the contract between the agency and the fee appraiser is signed, the agency shall transmit to the fee appraiser all pertinent title information developed pursuant to subsection (3); a specification of the rights to be acquired; a list of items, if any, considered to be noncompensable; minimum appraisal requirements that apply; required appraisal forms; and a certified survey which meets the minimum requirements for upland parcels established by the Florida Society of Professional Land Surveyors and the Florida Land Title Association and which accurately portrays to the greatest extent practical the condition of the parcel as it currently exists. However, in cases where a survey cannot be practically completed or where the cost of the survey will be prohibitive relative to the expected value of the parcel, the requirement for such certified survey may, in part or in whole, be waived by the board of trustees any time prior to submission of the agreement for purchase to the division. The fee appraiser and the review appraiser for the agency shall not act in any way that may be construed as negotiating with the property owner. Appraisal reports shall be confidential, for use by the agency and the board of trustees, until such time as both reports, if two appraisals are required, are accepted by the agency. Prior to acceptance, the agency shall submit a copy of such report to the Division of State Lands. The division shall review such report in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of appraisal review. With respect to proposed purchases in excess of $100,000, this review shall include a general field inspection of the subject property by the review appraiser. The review appraiser may reject an appraisal report following a desk review, but is prohibited from approving an appraisal report in excess of $100,000 without a field review. This review shall include a check for comparable sales which may have been omitted by the fee appraiser. Prior to acceptance of an appraisal report, the review appraiser shall request the appropriate local property appraiser's comments on the value of the proposed acquisition. Any questions of applicability of laws affecting an appraisal shall be addressed by the legal office of the agency.

(d) Techniques and methods used by a fee appraiser shall be consistent with generally accepted appraisal standards. If the fee appraiser uses comparable sales in determining value, he shall thoroughly describe each such sale including date of sale, legal description, present use, highest and best use, the official record book and page where the transaction is recorded, the grantor and grantee, purchase price, terms and conditions of the sale, and when and with whom verified. The fee appraiser shall consider any enhanced value to adjoining property of the landowner whose land is being considered for acquisition and which may occur as a proximate result of the proposed acquisition.

(e) The appraisal report must document and adequately support the fee appraiser's estimate of conclusion as to value. The report shall include a description of the location, size, shape, topography, access, highway frontage, and present zoning of the property. The availability of utilities, if any, and a detailed description of any appurtenances shall also be included. Further, the appraisal report shall contain the sales history of the parcel for the prior 10 years. Such sales history shall include all parties and considerations with the amount of consideration verified, if possible, and the amount of assessed value of the parcel.

(f) If the divergencies as to conclusions of values between two appraisals for the same parcel are greater than 20 percent of the lower value, a third appraisal shall be required.

(g) The board of trustees shall not consider an appraisal acquired by a seller, or any part thereof, in determining value.

(5)(a) Negotiations for land acquisition between a landowner or his designated agent and a state agency, title to whose land is held by the board of trustees, shall not be commenced prior to completion of the appraisal report pursuant to subsection (4).

(b) When the owner is represented by an agent or broker, negotiations shall not be initiated or continued until a written statement verifying such agent's or broker's legal or fiduciary relationship with the owner is on file with the agency.

(c) Upon the initiation of negotiations, the state agency shall inform the owner in writing that all agreements for purchase are subject to approval by the board of trustees.

(d) All offers or counter-offers shall be in writing and shall be available for examination by the board of trustees. No offer by a state agency shall exceed the value for that parcel as determined pursuant to a single appraisal or the average of two appraisals if such are required. If three appraisals are required, the offer shall not exceed the average of the two closest appraisals. All offers by the agency, including the final offer, shall be reviewed by the legal counsel of the agency. Final offers shall be in the form of an agreement for purchase and shall be signed and attested to by the owner and the representative of the agency. Before the agency signs the agreement for purchase, the provisions of s. 286.23 shall be complied with. Within 10 days after the signing of the agreement for purchase, the state agency shall furnish the Division of State Lands with the original of the agreement for purchase along with copies of the disclosure notice, evidence of marketability, the appraisal report, the fee appraiser's affidavit, a statement that the inventory of existing state-owned lands was examined and contained no available suitable land in the area, and a statement outlining the public purpose for which the acquisition is being made and the statutory authority therefor.

(e) Within 45 days of receipt by the Division of State Lands of the agreement for purchase and the required documentation, the board of trustees shall either reject or approve the agreement. Approved agreements for purchase shall be binding on both parties. Agreements disapproved shall be returned to the agency, along with a statement as to the deficiencies of the agreement or the supporting documentation. Agreements for purchase disapproved by the board of trustees may be resubmitted when such deficiencies have been corrected.

(6) No dedication, gift, grant, or bequest of lands and appurtenances shall be accepted by the board of trustees until the receiving state agency receives sufficient evidence of marketability of title. The board of trustees shall not accept by dedication, gift, grant, or bequest any lands and appurtenances that are determined as being owned by the state either in fee or by virtue of the state's sovereignty or which are so encumbered so as to preclude use of such land and appurtenances for any reasonable public purpose. The state shall not be required to appraise the value of such donated lands and appurtenances as a condition of receipt.

(7) Any conveyance to the board of trustees of fee title shall be made by no less than a special warranty deed. The title to lands acquired pursuant to this section shall vest in the board of trustees as provided in s. 253.031. All such lands, title to which is vested in the board pursuant to this section, shall be administered pursuant to the provisions of s. 253.03.

(8) The Auditor General shall conduct performance postaudits of all acquisitions and divestitures within 60 days following the board's final approval of land acquisitions under this section and shall submit an audit report to the board of trustees, President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and their designees, except that the Auditor General may at his discretion not postaudit those acquisitions and divestitures involving sums of less than $100,000.

(9) The board of trustees and all affected agencies shall adopt and may modify or repeal such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, including rules governing the terms and conditions of land purchases. When multiple landowners are involved in an acquisition, such rules shall address the procedures to be followed in obtaining written option agreements so that the interests of the state are fully protected.

tax-exempt status under the Constitution or laws of the state.

(6) Commencing September 1, 1967, all land held in the name of the state or any of its boards, departments, agencies or commissions shall be deemed to be vested in the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund for the use and benefit of the state. By October 1, 1967, any board, commission, department or agency holding title to any state lands used for public purpose shall execute all instruments necessary to transfer such title to the said Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund for the use and benefit of the state, except lands which reverted to the state under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, commonly known and referred to as the "Murphy Act."

(7) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is hereby authorized and directed to administer all state-owned lands and shall be responsible for the creation of an overall and comprehensive plan of development concerning the acquisition, management, and disposition of state-owned lands so as to insure maximum benefit and use. The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this act as herein set forth.

(8)(a) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall maintain an annual inventory of all publicly owned lands within the state. Such inventory shall include all lands owned by any unit of state government or local government; by the federal government, to the greatest extent possible; and by any other public entity. The board shall submit a copy of the inventory to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives on or before March 1 of each year.

(b) In addition to any other parcel data available, the inventory shall include a legal description or proper reference thereto, the number of acres or square feet within the boundaries, and the assessed value of all publicly owned uplands. To the greatest extent practical, the legal description or proper reference thereto and the number of acres or square feet shall be determined for all publicly owned submerged lands. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "submerged lands" means publicly owned lands below the ordinary high-water mark of freshwaters and below the mean high-water line of salt waters extending seaward to the outer jurisdiction of the state. The Department of Revenue shall furnish annual, current, property assessments for tax-exempt public lands to the board to be used in compiling the assessed value portion of the inventory.

(c) State agencies or bodies, including the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, the Armory Board, water management districts, water control districts, navigation districts, and authorities, which hold title to real property shall, by December 31 of each year, submit a list of their respective holdings to the board. The Department of Revenue shall furnish the board, by December 31 of each year, from data it has obtained pursuant to the requirements of chapter 195, a compilation of all tax-exempt public lands within the state, listed by county. The Department of Revenue and the board shall use common or cross-indexed parcel numbers to facilitate data comparisons. To the greatest extent possible, the board shall attempt, at the county level, to record and report discrepancies between information supplied by the Department of Revenue and by other state agencies or bodies. The board shall include a listing of all major unresolved discrepancies in the annual inventory submitted to the Legislature.

(9) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall be responsible for the acquisition and disposal of federal lands and buildings which are declared surplus or excess. The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall establish regular procedures to assure that state and local agencies are made aware of the availability of federal lands and buildings.

(10) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and the State of Florida through any of its agencies are hereby prohibited from levying any charge, by whatever name known or attaching any lien, on any and all materials dredged from state-sovereignty tidal lands or submerged bottom lands or on the lands constituting the spoil areas on which such dredged materials are placed, except as otherwise provided for in this subsection, when such materials are dredged by or on behalf of the United States or the local sponsors of active federal navigation projects in the pursuance of the improvement, construction, maintenance, and operation of such projects or by a public body authorized to operate a public port facility (all such parties referred to herein shall hereafter be called "public body") in pursuance of the improvement, construction, maintenance, and operation of such facility, including any public transfer and terminal facilities, which actions are hereby declared to be for a public purpose. "Local sponsor" shall mean the local agency designated pursuant to an Act of Congress to assume a portion of the navigation project costs and duties. Active federal navigation projects are those congressionally approved projects which are being performed by the Corps of Engineers, United States Army, or maintained by the local sponsors.

1. The United States Army Corps of Engineers shall first have certified that no public lands are available within a reasonable distance of the dredging site, and

2. The public body shall have published notice of its intention to utilize certain private lands for the deposit of materials in a newspaper published and having general circulation in the appropriate county at least three times within a 60-day period prior to the date of the scheduled deposit of any such material, and therein advised the general public of the opportunity to bid on the purchase of such materials for deposit on the purchaser's designated site, provided any such deposit shall be at no increased cost to the public body. Such notice shall state the terms, location, and conditions for receipt of bids and shall state that the public body shall accept the highest responsible bid. All bids shall be submitted to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund. All moneys obtained from such purchases of materials shall be remitted forthwith to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund. Compliance with this subsection shall vest, without any obligation, full title to the said materials in the owner of the land where deposited.

(b) When public lands on which are deposited materials dredged from state-sovereignty tidal or submerged bottom lands by the public body, are sold or leased for a period in excess of 20 years, which term shall include any options to a private party, 50 percent of any remuneration received shall forthwith be remitted to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and the balance shall be retained by the public body owning the land.

(c) Any materials which have been dredged from state-sovereignty tidal or submerged bottom lands by the public body and deposited on public lands may be removed by the public body to private lands or interests only after due advertisement for bids, which shall mean a notice published at least three times within a 60-day period in a newspaper published and having general circulation in the appropriate county. The purchase price submitted by the highest responsible bidder shall be remitted to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund. If no bid is received, the public body shall have the right to fully convey title to, and dispose of, any such material on its land, with no requirement of payment to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(d) Nothing in this subsection shall affect any preexisting contract or permit to engage in dredging of materials from state-sovereignty tidal and submerged bottom lands, nor shall it be construed to void any preexisting agreement or lien against the lands upon which dredged materials have been placed or to have any retroactive effect.

(11) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may adopt rules to provide for the assessment and collection of reasonable fees, commensurate with the actual cost to the board, for disclaimers, easements, exchanges, gifts, leases, releases, or sales of any interest in lands or any applications therefor and for reproduction of documents.

253.111 Notice to board of county commissioners before sale.—

The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of the state shall not sell or convey any land to which they hold title unless and until they shall afford an opportunity to the county in which such land is situated to receive such land for public purposes on the following terms and conditions:

(1) If an application is filed with the board requesting that they sell certain land to which they hold title and the board shall decide to sell such land or if the board shall, without such application, decide to sell such land, the board shall, before consideration of any private offers, notify the board of county commissioners of the county in which such land is situated that such land is available to such county. Such notification shall be given by registered mail, return receipt requested.

(2) The board of county commissioners of the county in which such land is situated shall, within 90 days after receipt of such notification from the board, determine by resolution whether or not it proposes to devote such land to public parks, public beaches, public fishing piers, public boat ramps, public dockage facilities, or other public purposes, hereinafter referred to generally as public purposes.

(3) If the board of county commissioners shall determine that it proposes to devote such land in perpetuity to public purposes, it shall adopt a resolution specifying such determination and setting forth:

(a) The specific public purpose or purposes to which it proposes to devote such land;

(b) A tentative plan of development for such land;

(c) A tentative time schedule of development, which tentative time schedule shall set a date of commencement of development not later than 2 years after the date of such resolution and a date of conclusion of development not later than 4 years after the date of such resolution.

A certified copy of such resolution shall be furnished to the board within such 90-day period by registered mail, return receipt requested.

(4) If the board of county commissioners determines that it does not propose to devote such land to public purposes, it shall notify the board of such determination by sending, immediately after adoption, a certified copy of the resolution so specifying to the board by registered mail, return receipt requested. If the board of county commissioners shall fail to act as provided in subsection (3) within the 90-day period, such failure shall constitute a determination that it does not propose to devote such land to public purposes.

(5) If the board receives within the 90-day period the certified copy of the resolution provided in subsection (3), the board shall forthwith convey to the county such land upon such terms and conditions and at such price as the board shall determine (but in no case at a price higher than such property would be disposed of under any other provision of this chapter), but subject to a reverter to the board if such land shall not be devoted to the public purpose or purposes specified in such resolution in substantial accordance with the plan of development and the time schedule for development set forth in such resolution and shall not be devoted in perpetuity to some public purpose.

(6)(a) If the board of county commissioners shall determine that it does not propose to devote the land to public purposes, the board may dispose of the property as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(b) It shall not be a violation of the reverter clause of any deed from the board to a county under this section if the county shall in fact use the property for a public purpose other than that specified in the resolution provided in subsection (3) or not in substantial accordance with the plan of development and time schedule set forth in such resolution if the board shall by appropriate resolution approve such change or such failure to act in substantial accordance with the plan of development or time schedule.

(c) Nothing in this section shall restrict any right otherwise granted to the board by this chapter to convey land to which they hold title to the state or any department, office, authority, board, bureau, commission, institution, court, tribunal, agency, or other instrumentality of or under the state. The word "land" as used in this act means all lands vested in the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(7) If any riparian owner shall exist with respect to any land to be sold by the board, such riparian owner shall have a right to secure such land, which right shall be prior in interest to the right in the county created by this section, provided that such riparian owner shall be required to pay for such land upon such prices, terms, and conditions as determined by the trustees. Such riparian owner may waive this prior right, in which case this section shall apply.

(1) After receiving an application in compliance with such forms as may be required by this chapter requesting the board to sell, exchange, or lease any land to which it holds title, the board shall give notice of the application by publication in a newspaper published in the county in which the lands are located not less than once a week for 3 consecutive weeks and mail copies of such notice by certified or registered mail to each owner of land lying within 1,000 feet of the land proposed to be leased, sold, or exchanged, addressed to such owner as his name and address appears on the latest county tax assessment roll.

(2) If no written objections are filed within 30 days after the date of first publication of the notice, and if the board finds that the proposed lease, sale, or exchange is not incompatible with the public interest, the board has authority to consummate the contract. However, failure to mail the notice to all landowners as set out in subsection (1) shall not invalidate the conveyance.

(3) If written objections are filed, the board shall consider the same in determining whether or not to consummate the contract. Any required hearing shall be held in the county in which the lands are located. If the lands are located in more than one county, the required hearing may be held in any county in which the lands lie. Timely notice of such hearing shall be given by at least one publication in a newspaper published in the county in which the lands are located and by certified or registered mail to each owner of land lying within 1,000 feet of the land proposed to be leased, sold, or exchanged, addressed to such owner as his name and address appears on the latest county tax assessment roll, in addition to any notice required by chapter 120.

(4) This section shall not apply to the release of any reservations contained in Murphy Act deeds or board of trustees' deeds; to any conveyance of land lying landward of the line of mean high water, the area of which is less than 1 acre in size; to any lands covered by the provisions of ss. 253.12(6) and 253.129; or to the lease of any land acquired under the provisions of chapter 375, when the land is being leased to a state agency or political subdivision of the state.

253.12 Title to tidal lands vested in state.—

(1) Except submerged lands heretofore conveyed by deed or statute, the title to all sovereignty tidal and submerged bottom lands, including all islands, sandbars, shallow banks, and small islands made by the process of dredging any channel by the United States Government and similar or other islands, sandbars, and shallow banks located in the navigable waters, and including all coastal and intracoastal waters of the state and all submerged lands owned by the state by right of its sovereignty in navigable freshwater lakes, rivers and streams, is vested in the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund. For purposes of fixing bulkhead lines, restrictions on filling land and dredging beyond bulkhead lines, and permits required for filling and dredging, the board shall exercise the same authority over submerged lands owned by the state by right of its sovereignty in navigable freshwater lakes, rivers, and streams as it does over submerged lands otherwise defined in this subsection. Submerged lands owned by the state by right of its sovereignty in navigable meandered freshwater lakes shall be administered in accordance with the provisions of s. 253.151, and the provisions of s. 253.151 shall be controlling when in conflict with other statutory provisions.

(2)(a) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may sell and convey such islands and submerged lands if determined by the board to be in the public interest, upon such prices, terms, and conditions as it sees fit. However, prior to consummating any such sale, the board shall determine to what extent the sale of such islands or submerged lands and their ownership by private persons or the conveyance of such islands or submerged lands to political subdivisions or public agencies would interfere with the conservation of fish, marine and other wildlife, or other natural resources, including beaches and shores, and would result in destruction of oyster beds, clam beds, or marine productivity, including, but not limited to, destruction of marine habitats, grass flats suitable as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, and established marine soils suitable for producing plant growth of a type useful as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, and if so, in what respect and to what extent, and it shall consider any other factors affecting the public interests.

(b) In addition to the requirements in paragraph (a), the board shall not sell or convey any interest in such islands and submerged lands to any applicant who does not, at the time of making application for purchase or conveyance, also have before the board:

2. An application for approval of a fill permit issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and

3. A permit or application for a permit to dredge fill material from beneath the navigable waters of the state, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, in the event the applicant intends to secure such fill material. However, such islands or submerged lands may be sold or conveyed to an applicant who does not have such an application for a permit to dredge or fill lands before the board, upon the condition that the sale or conveyance to such an applicant shall contain a restrictive covenant prohibiting dredging, except for navigation purposes, or filling of such islands or submerged lands. The board shall reserve the authority to waive such restrictive covenant when such waiver is in the public interest, pursuant to such terms and conditions as the board may impose.

(3) After receiving application in compliance with such forms as may be required to show clearly what is intended to be accomplished in any proposed development of said lands and the manner in which said development will be accomplished, and after making the determination required by subsection (2)(a), the board shall give notice by publication in a newspaper published in the county in which such islands or submerged lands are located, not less than once a week for 3 consecutive weeks and mail copies of such notice by certified or registered mail to each riparian owner of upland lying within 1,000 feet of the island or submerged land proposed to be conveyed, addressed to such owner as his name and address appear upon the latest county tax assessment roll, in order that any persons who have objections to the sale or conveyance may have the opportunity to present the same. If no objections are filed within 30 days after the date of first publication of the aforesaid notice, the board has authority to consummate such sale or conveyance except as hereinafter provided. However, failure to mail the notice herein provided to such riparian upland owners shall not invalidate such sale or conveyance or the title or interest conveyed by the board pursuant thereto.

(4) If objections are filed, the board shall proceed to determine the merits of the objections. The report required by subsection (7) shall be made part of the record and duly considered at any hearing. If it appears that the sale of such islands and submerged lands and their ownership by private persons or the conveyance of such islands or submerged lands to political subdivisions or public agencies would:

(a) Be contrary to the public interest;

(b) Interfere with the lawful rights granted riparian owners;

(c) Be, or result in, a serious impediment to navigation;

(d) Interfere with the conservation of fish, marine, and wildlife or other natural resources, including beaches and shores, to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interest;

(e) Result in the destruction of oyster beds, clam beds, or marine productivity, including, but not limited to, destruction of natural marine habitats, grass flats suitable as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, and established marine soils suitable for producing plant growth of a type useful as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interest, the board shall withdraw the said lands from sale. Prior to making the determinations above required, the board may consider any other factors affecting the public interest. Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, lands defined herein lying between the ordinary mean high waterline and any bulkhead line established hereunder shall be sold only to the upland riparian owner and to no other person, firm, or corporation; and such sale to said upland riparian owner shall be made pursuant to the provisions herein.

(5)(a) When any state agency or county, city, or other political subdivision extends or adds to existing lands or islands bordering on or being in the navigable waters, as defined in this section, of the state by filling in or causing to be filled in or by draining or causing to be drained such waters, the board may, upon application therefor, convey to the riparian owner or owners of the upland so extended or added to so much of such extended or added land as is not required exclusively for a municipal, county, state, or other public purpose. The board may, however, require a deposit to accompany such application of a sum sufficient to cover the actual cost and expenses of processing such application and preparing instruments of conveyance.

(b) Neither this subsection nor any other provision of this chapter shall be construed to permit any state agency or county, city, or other political subdivision to construct islands or extend or add to existing lands or islands bordering on or being in the navigable waters as defined herein or drain such waters for a municipal, county, state or other public purpose unless such agency is the riparian upland owner or holds the consent in writing of the riparian upland owner consenting to such construction or extension or drainage operation. For the purposes of this subsection, "riparian upland owners" shall be defined as those persons owning upland property abutting those portions of the waters to be filled or drained, which are within 1,000 feet outboard of said riparian upland, but not more than one-half the distance to the opposite upland, if any, and within the extensions of the side boundary lines thereof, when said side boundary lines are extended in the direction of the channel along an alignment which would be required to distribute equitably the submerged land between the upland and the channel. However, nothing herein shall be construed to deny or limit any state agency or county, city, or other political subdivision from exercising the right of eminent domain to the extent and for the purposes authorized by law in connection with such construction, extension, or drainage projects; and nothing herein shall be construed to have application in those instances when the board is authorized by law to establish an erosion control line to implement an authorized beach nourishment, replenishment, or erosion-control project.

(6) Where any person, state agency, county, city, or other political subdivision prior to June 11, 1957, extended or added to existing lands or islands bordering on or being in the navigable waters as defined in this section by filling in or causing to be filled in such lands, the board shall upon application therefor convey said land so filled to the riparian owner or owners of the upland so extended or added to. The consideration for such conveyance shall be the appraised value of said lands as they existed prior to such filling.

(7)(a) In order to assist it in making the determination required by subsection (2)(a), the board shall require that a biological survey and an ecological study of the lands or interests therein proposed to be sold or conveyed pursuant to any particular application be made, and, when determined by the Department of Natural Resources to be necessary, that a hydrographic survey be made. All such surveys and studies shall be made by or under the direction of the Department of Natural Resources, which shall make a report of all such surveys and studies to the board together with its recommendations. The board may adopt regulations requiring that the cost of making any such survey and report be paid by the applicant for purchase of such lands, requiring a deposit by the applicant sufficient to insure such payment, and providing procedures to be followed in applying for and obtaining such survey and report.

(b) If, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2)(b), the surveys and study required by paragraph (a) above have already been made, the provisions of this section shall not operate to require an applicant to pay for any additional surveys or studies within 3 years prior to the issuance of such permit.

(8) All conveyances of sovereignty lands or fill material therein heretofore made by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of Florida subsequent to the enactment of chapter 6451, Acts of 1913, chapter 7304, Acts of 1917 and chapter 57-362, as amended, are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated in all respects.

253.121 Conveyances of such lands heretofore made, ratified, confirmed, and validated.

All conveyances of sovereignty lands heretofore made by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund subsequent to the enactment of chapter 6451 (June 5, 1913), 6960 (June 2, 1915) and 7304 (May 21, 1917), Acts of 1913, 1915 and 1917, respectively, where advertisement therefor was published in the county of sale but not in the county seat, are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated in all respects, including all defects subject to ratification, confirmation and validation by the Legislature. Said conveyances shall be deemed valid notwithstanding defects in the publication of newspaper notices and the publication of such newspaper notices in newspapers not published at the county seat of the county in which the lands are located.

253.1221 Bulkhead lines; reestablishment.—All bulkhead lines heretofore established pursuant to former s. 253.122 are hereby established at the line of mean high water or ordinary high water. There shall be no filling waterward of the line of mean high water or ordinary high water except upon compliance with this chapter.

History.—s. 7, ch. 75-22.

253.123 Restrictions on filling land and dredging.—

(1) No private person, firm or corporation shall construct islands or add to or extend existing lands or islands bordering on or being in the navigable waters of the state as defined in s. 253.12(1) by pumping sand, rock or earth from such waters or by any other means without first complying with ²s. 253.122; provided, nothing herein contained shall relate to artificially created navigable waters.

(2) The removal of sand, rock or earth from the navigable waters of the state as defined in s. 253.12 and the submerged bottoms thereof by dredging, pumping, digging, or any other means shall not be permitted except in the following instances:

(a) For the construction, improvement or maintenance of navigation channels and drainage and water-control facilities;

(b) For the construction of trenches for the burial or installation of water, sewer, gas, oil, gasoline, fuel, electric, telegraph or telephone lines, cables or mains;

(c) For the operation of sand transfer plants; and

(d) For other purposes when, but only when, the board of trustees has determined, after consideration of a biological survey and an ecological study and a hydrographic survey, if such hydrographic survey is required by the board, made by or under the supervision of the ¹Department of Natural Resources of the area from which such sand, rock or earth is proposed to be removed, that such surveys and study show that such removal will not interfere with the conservation of fish, marine and wildlife or other natural resources, to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interest, and will not result in the destruction of oyster beds, clam beds, or marine productivity, including, but not limited to, destruction of natural marine habitats, grass flats suitable as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, and established marine soils suitable for producing plant growth of a type useful as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life or natural shoreline processes to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interests.

(3)(a) Works authorized under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) shall only be undertaken after receipt of a permit from the board of trustees, which permit shall be granted after consideration of a biological or ecological study, unless waived by the affirmative vote of at least five of the seven members of the board of trustees, upon a showing of the public interest which will be served by such works.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (d) of subsection (2) shall not be construed to eliminate the requirement of obtaining a permit for the removal of sand, rock or earth from any part of the navigable waters of the state as defined in s. 253.12, and the submerged bottoms thereof from the appropriate authority as elsewhere in this chapter or otherwise by law provided.

(4) Neither the sale and conveyance of islands and lands by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund under the provisions of s. 253.12 nor the establishment of a ²bulkhead line or lines by the appropriate authority under the provisions of s. 253.122, nor the granting of a construction permit under the provisions of s. 253.124 shall operate to vest any right whatsoever in the grantee, upland owner, or construction permit holder to remove sand, rock or earth from the navigable waters of the state as defined in s. 253.12, and the submerged bottoms thereof, unless a construction permit issued pursuant to the provisions of s. 253.124, and of this section specifically permits such removal.

253.124 Application for filling land.—

(1) Any private person, firm or corporation desiring to construct islands or add to or extend existing lands or islands located in the unincorporated area of any county bordering on or in the navigable waters of the state, as defined in s. 253.12, by pumping sand, rock or earth from such waters or by any other means shall make application in writing to the board of county commissioners of the county wherein such construction is desired for a permit authorizing such person, firm or corporation to engage in such construction; provided, that where it is desired to construct islands or add to or extend existing lands or islands within the territory of any municipality such application for a construction or fill permit shall be made to the governing body of such municipality.

(2) In each instance the written application herein provided for shall be accompanied by a plan or drawing showing the proposed construction and the manner in which said construction will be accomplished and also the area from which any fill material is to be dredged if the proposed construction is intended to be created from dredged material. In the event the board of county commissioners or other authorized body shall find that such proposed extension or filling of land or such proposed dredging is not violative of any statute, zoning law, ordinance, or other restrictions which may be applicable thereto, that no harmful obstruction to or alteration of the natural flow of the navigable water, as defined in s. 253.12, within such area will arise from the proposed construction, that no harmful or increased erosion, shoaling of channels or stagnant areas of water will be created thereby, and that no material injury or monetary damage to adjoining land will accrue therefrom, the same shall be granted to the applicant, subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, who shall have the power to approve, reject or issue; provided, however, that prior to the issuance of such permit, the board of county commissioners or other authorized body shall determine whether the granting of such permit and the construction to be done pursuant thereto would interfere with the conservation of fish, marine and wildlife or other natural resources to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interest, and whether the destruction of oyster beds, clam beds, or marine productivity, including, but not limited to, destruction of natural marine habitats, grass flats suitable as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, including established marine soils suitable for producing plant growth of a type useful as nursery or feeding grounds for marine life, will result therefrom to such an extent as to be contrary to the public interest. The board shall also consider any other factors affecting the public interests.

(3) No construction permit shall be issued or approved until the board of county commissioners or other authorized body shall have obtained, at the expense of the applicant, a biological survey, an ecological study, and, where deemed necessary by the ¹Department of Natural Resources, a hydrographic survey of the area within which such construction and dredging is proposed, each by or under the supervision of the ¹Department of Natural Resources and shall have in hand the report and findings thereof. The report shall be read into the record and duly considered at the same meeting at which the board of county commissioners or other authorized body takes final action on the application for permit. ²Such surveys and studies may not be required if the proposed construction or dredging is wholly shoreward of a previously established bulkhead line which was fixed after consideration by the bulkhead authority of a biological survey and ecological study previously made by the ¹Department of Natural Resources or under its supervision in connection with the fixing of such line or if the proposed construction or dredging is wholly within lands or islands heretofore purchased from the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund under s. 253.12 and in the consummation of such sale the board had before it a biological survey made by or under the supervision of the ¹Department of Natural Resources.

(4) No construction permit issued under chapters 253 and 403 shall authorize work for a period of time in excess of 5 years. After approval and issuance of such permit, said 5-year period shall commence upon receipt by the applicant of all governmental authorizations, local, state, and federal, including such license, permit, or variance from the Department of Environmental Regulation under chapter 403 as may be required for completion of the proposed work. The Department of Environmental Regulation may grant permits for periods of time of less than 5 years, depending upon the size and scope of the construction. The department may revoke such construction permit if the applicant fails to use due diligence in obtaining such required governmental authorizations. Such time may be extended for additional periods of up to 3 years by the board for good cause, upon showing that all due efforts and diligence toward completion of said work have been made. Before such time may be extended, the studies required by s. 253.123 shall be brought up to date to assist the board in determining if such extension of time would not be contrary to the public interest. The construction permit herein provided for may be revoked by the board for noncompliance with, or violation of, its terms.

(5)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), any person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) Any person who violates this section by creating or causing to be created an illegal fill is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Each day in which such a violation continues, subsequent to the initial citation, shall constitute a separate offense.

(6) The board shall have the authority to direct the abutting upland owner to remove any fill created in violation of this section, either on behalf of itself or on behalf of itself and the Department of Natural Resources. In the event that the abutting upland owner does not remove said fill as directed, the board may remove it at its own expense and the costs thereof shall become a lien upon the property of said abutting upland owner; provided, that the board may, if it chooses, allow said fill to remain as state-owned land, and may employ a surveyor to determine the boundary between such state land and that of the previous abutting upland owner. The amount of the cost of such survey shall become a lien upon the property of the previous abutting upland owner. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant the board authority to direct an upland owner to adjust, alter or remove silt, fill or other solid material which has accumulated or been deposited seaward of his property through no action on his part.

(7)(a) The board shall in no case issue an "after the fact" construction permit to any applicant authorizing construction regulated by this section subsequent to the time it has occurred, unless, upon consideration of a report by the ¹Department of Natural Resources, the board finds that the exercise of any other remedy or penalty available to it, either as provided by subsection (6) or otherwise by law or by rule or regulation adopted by the board would be more damaging to the environment or the marine resources sought to be protected by this chapter than would be the granting of such permit.

(b) The granting of such an "after the fact" construction permit shall not absolve any applicant from the provisions of subsection (5) of this section.

(8) Any riparian upland owner of land bordering on or in the navigable waters of the state who desires to repair, rebuild, replace, or reconstruct coastal structures in the nature of seawalls, revetments, retaining walls, bulkheads, or other similar protective structures installed upon his riparian upland, or who desires to restore such uplands after damage by avulsion or by artificially induced erosion, shall, before undertaking such project, obtain a permit for such work from the board of county commissioners or other authorized body or from the governing body of a municipality if the work proposed shall be within the territory of such municipality. Such a permit shall be subject to the approval of the board of trustees and shall not be valid without such approval. ²The riparian owner making application for such a permit may not be required to comply with s. 253.122. A biological survey and ecological study may not be required if the proposed work lies at no greater distance than 25 feet into the waters where such work is proposed from the existing and established line of mean high water or existing coastal structure. A permit issued under the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to allow construction of coastal structures or restoration of lands that may be subject to the provisions of chapter 161. In an emergency threatening damage to life or public property, the Department of Transportation will be permitted temporarily to repair, reconstruct, rebuild, or replace any structures or roadways on the state-maintained transportation system, subject to immediate notification of the executive director of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and his subsequent review and approval.

(9)(a) The written application herein provided for shall indicate whether the applicant holds title to the submerged land or islands upon which he seeks permission to dredge or fill lands and whether he is a riparian owner with respect to such submerged lands or islands. If the applicant does not hold title to such lands and is not a riparian owner with respect to such lands and his application so indicates, the board of county commissioners shall, upon receipt of the application, be on notice that the applicant intends to apply to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund for purchase of such lands, and the provisions of s. 253.111(2)-(5) shall become operative.

(b) If as a result of the provisions of paragraph (a) above, the provisions of s. 253.111(2)-(5) become operative and the board of county commissioners determines that it does not propose to devote the land to public outdoor recreational purposes, the board of county commissioners shall proceed to consider the application for permission to dredge or fill land.

Note.—See s. 26, ch. 75-22, which repealed s. 253.122, relating to the power to fix bulkhead lines, and s. 7(3), ch. 75-22 (s. 253.1221), which reestablished all previously established bulkhead lines at the line of mean high water or ordinary high water.

253.1241 Studies by Department of Natural Resources.—The Department of Natural Resources shall have a period of 90 days, after application therefor, in which to make the studies and surveys required by ss. 253.12, 253.123 and 253.124. The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and other governing bodies required by said sections to obtain such studies and surveys shall request them from the Department of Natural Resources within 30 days after the receipt of an application for sale, setting of a bulkhead line, or a dredge or fill permit as the case may be.

253.125 Permit; filing fee and cost.—The board of county commissioners or governing body of any municipality shall assess such filing fees and costs as may be necessary for the filing, processing and issuance of such construction permit as provided for herein.

History.—s. 5, ch. 57-362.

253.1252 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this chapter or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this chapter or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-161.

253.126 Legislative intent.—The limitations and restrictions imposed by this chapter as amended by chapter 67-393 upon the construction of islands or the extension or addition to existing lands or islands bordering on or being in the navigable waters, as defined in s. 253.12, shall apply to the state, its agencies and all political subdivisions and governmental units. No other general or special act shall operate to grant exceptions to this section unless this section is specifically repealed thereby.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the Department of Environmental Regulation may authorize, by rule, the Department of Transportation to perform any activity covered by this chapter, upon certification by the agency that it will meet all requirements imposed by statute, rule, or standard for environmental control and protection as such statute, rule, or standard applies to a governmental program. To this end, the department may accept such certification of compliance for programs of the agency, conduct investigations for compliance, and, if a violation is found to exist, take all necessary enforcement action pertaining thereto, including, but not limited to, the revocation of certification. The authorization shall be by rule of the department, shall be limited to the maintenance, repair, or replacement of existing structures, and shall be conditioned upon compliance by the agency with specific guidelines or requirements which are set forth in the formal acceptance and deemed necessary by the department to assure future compliance with this chapter and applicable department rules. Failure of the agency to comply with any provision of the written acceptance shall constitute grounds for its revocation by the department.

(2) The provisions of chapter 120 shall be accorded any person where substantial interests will be affected by an activity proposed to be conducted by such agency pursuant to its certification and the department's acceptance. If a proceeding is conducted pursuant to s. 120.57, the department may intervene as a party. Should a hearing officer of the Division of Administrative Hearings of the Department of Administration submit a recommended order pursuant to s. 120.57, the Department of Environmental Regulation shall issue a final department order

253.14 Rights of riparian owners; board of trustees to defend suit.—

(1) It is expressly provided that nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to deprive any private riparian owner from bringing an injunction suit in equity against the sale provided for in s. 253.12 on the ground that he would be thereby deprived of his riparian rights granted to him by law; provided, that such suit must be commenced within 30 days after the board of trustees shall have overruled the objections of such owner to such proposed sale.

(2) In case suit is brought by any private owner to enjoin such sale, it shall be in the discretion of the board of trustees to defend such suit or to withdraw said lands from sale.

253.151 Navigable meandered freshwater lakes.—

(1) The submerged lands located under navigable meandered freshwater lakes shall be considered as a separate class of sovereignty lands. Such separate class of sovereignty lands shall not be construed to be of the same character as tidal lands, streams, watercourses, or rivers or as lakes attached to tidal waters by means of navigable watercourses, but, rather, shall be administered in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(b) "Boundary line" means the line which separates the sovereignty lands of the state from those of a riparian upland owner. Such boundary line shall be described in terms of elevation above mean sea level of the state as indicated on the bench mark of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey nearest the respective navigable meandered freshwater lake.

(c) "Elevation" means the distance above mean sea level as established by official United States Coast and Geodetic Survey bench marks.

(d) "Usufructuary right" means the temporary right of using the land lakeward of the boundary line to the existing waterline. The term shall not be construed to convey to any riparian owner the right to erect permanent structures of any type upon sovereignty lands without the express consent of the board.

(e) "Commercial operation" means the operation of any facility located on submerged land in navigable meandered freshwater lakes for the purpose of earning a profit from such operations.

(3) The boundary line shall be established by, or under the supervision of, the board by use of one or more of the following procedures:

(a) Where physical evidence exists indicating the actual water's edge of any navigable meandered freshwater lake as of the date such body came under the jurisdiction of the state, regardless of where the water's edge exists on the date of the determination of the boundary line, the water's edge as evidenced on the former date shall be deemed the boundary line.

(b) Where sufficient physical evidence cannot be found, or in conjunction with such physical evidence as may exist, affidavits of local, longtime residents attesting to the average levels of such lakes shall be used. Such affidavits shall not be used unless they can be dated back to a period of time at least 25 years prior to July 1, 1970.

(c) Where gauging stations have been installed and continuous data at lake water elevations have been obtained therefrom for a period of no less than 10 consecutive years, such data may be used for ascertaining the boundary line at such lake.

(d) Actual onsite examination of the terrain (landward and lakeward of the existing waterline) and of plant life, including upland and aquatic, by qualified personnel and the other physical indications of present and past waterlines which shall be deemed reasonable may be used in determining the boundary line. This investigation may include public hearings, as well as examination of existing docks, structures, and other physical evidence which may properly be construed as germane to the location of the boundary line.

(4) The boundary line elevation shall be placed in the public records of the county or counties in which the navigable meandered freshwater lake is situated. A suitable monument shall be placed in or on such lake as a permanent point of reference so that all interested persons may be able to determine the physical boundary line by proper survey and projection onto the shoreline.

(5) The riparian owner shall have the usufructuary right over lands lakeward of the boundary line down to the existing waterline, but such riparian owner shall not deny the use of the water above the established boundary line to any other owner or to the general public so long as such public does not come onto the land above the existing waterline. A riparian owner shall have the right of ingress and egress to and from the water for purposes of boating, swimming, fishing, skiing, and similar activities and shall:

(a) Be granted the privilege of clearing the aquatic vegetation, except woody plants of a diameter greater than 2 inches, measured at the base, out in the water to the extent necessary to enable him to use the public waters reasonably for boating, swimming, skiing, fishing, and similar activities. If an area greater than one-fifth of an acre is to be cleared within a period of 3 months, a permit must be applied for and granted by the board.

(b) Be permitted to fill to combat erosion. However, in no case shall this section be construed to grant a riparian owner the right to add on land out into the main body of the water in such a manner as to constitute an encroachment upon the sovereignty submerged bottoms to gain more property or to restrict others from reasonable use of the water. A permit from the board shall be necessary for such fill projects to combat erosion.

(c) Be granted usufructuary right in any strip of land which may be exposed due to natural recession of the waters, between the boundary line and the existing waterline.

(6) Any authorized dock, boathouse, or other structure, erected under permit, shall be for the sole use and control of the riparian owner.

(7) Nothing contained in this section or s. 253.12(1) shall be construed as affecting privately owned lakes, streams, watercourses, or submerged lands.

(8) The board shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-97; s. 23, ch. 78-95.

253.21 Board of trustees may surrender certain lands to the United States and receive indemnity.—Whenever it may appear that any of the swamplands, granted by the United States to this state by Act of Congress approved September 28, 1850, entitled "An Act to enable the State of Arkansas and other states to reclaim the swamplands within their limits," have been sold or located, the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may surrender to the United States the right, title and claim of the state to said lands, and receive from the United States, in lieu thereof, such reclamation as may be due.

253.29 Board of trustees to refund money paid where title to land fails.—Any person having heretofore, or who may hereafter purchase in good faith and for value, any lands in the state from the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of the state, and which title has failed by reason of the fact that the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund had no title or right to convey the same, the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall refund to said party the sums of money so paid for said lands without interest thereon upon due proof being made.

are defined in s. 253.36, the board may cause a survey of the same to be made, which survey shall be connected with the surveys of the United States Government, or other surveys adjoining such lands, as far as may be practicable, and shall be made in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Department of the Interior for making federal surveys. When such surveys have been completed and, with the plats thereof, have been filed in the office of the said board, the board may proceed to sell and convey the said lands so surveyed in the same manner that other swamp and overflowed lands are sold and disposed of; provided, that in making sales of such land the board shall give first right to purchase to any adjacent owner thereof who desires to complete or square up any fractional section now owned by him or to any person who has settled on, or preempted the same, in amounts not exceeding 80 acres; and, provided further, that any and all other such lands as are covered hereby shall be sold by the board to bona fide settlers in amounts not exceeding 80 acres to each settler.

253.38 Riparian rights not affected.—Nothing in ss. 253.36 and 253.37 shall be construed as in anywise affecting the riparian rights now or heretofore existing under the laws of this state; but it is expressly provided that the provisions of said sections shall apply only to such lands as the Department of the Interior has declined to convey to the state, or which have become permanently reclaimed; and in making sales thereof, the board of trustees may provide for a complete system of reclamation as part of the consideration thereof, or contract for such permanent reclamation in the manner it deems advisable.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-369.

253.47 Board of trustees may lease, sell, etc., bottoms of bays, lagoons, straits, etc., owned by state, for petroleum purposes.—The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of the state may lease for royalties or for other agreed compensation, or sell and otherwise dispose of the right to drill wells for the discovery and the production of petroleum and natural gas in the bottoms, owned by the state in its sovereign capacity, of the bays, lagoons, straits, sounds, gulf, streams and lakes within the state; provided, that such leases or sales shall not confer upon the person acquiring the same the right to enter upon any private property of another, nor the right to drill any well or otherwise place permanent or stationary obstruction in such waters or upon such bottoms within one-quarter of 1 mile of the shoreline of the lands of any upland owner, without first having the written consent of such upland owner so to do. The leases and sales so made shall convey to the lessee or vendee the rights of ingress and egress to, from, and over the bottoms leased or acquired, and the right to construct and maintain on and over such leased or acquired bottoms, in such manner as not to obstruct transportation, any structures, tanks, docks, stations and other equipment, as may be required for the proper development of such leases and the purposes for which the same are made.

cf.—s. 270.13 Disposition of money derived from leases.

253.51 Oil and gas leases on state lands by the board of trustees.—The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is hereby authorized and empowered to negotiate, sell, and convey leasehold estates in and to lands the title to which is vested in any state board, department or agency thereof or lands the title to which is vested in the state with its control and management in any such board, department or agency, for the purpose of the development thereof, and the production therefrom, of oil and gas, to any person, firm, corporation or association authorized to do business in the state, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties, not inconsistent with law and the provisions of the chapter.

253.511 Reports by lessees of oil and mineral rights, state lands.—

(1) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall require from each lessee of public land under s. 253.45, s. 253.47 or s. 253.51 an annual notarized report as to the status of operations on the land under lease. Such report shall include the number of holes drilled, the dates of drilling, the depth of drilling, and the results of the operation. Reports of mining operations shall also include the number of cubic yards mined. The notarized report of both mining or drilling operations shall include a financial report of moneys paid over to the state, if any. The board may require reasonable additional information, as may be necessary, for a better understanding of the operation under lease; provided, that this shall not be construed as authorizing the board to require any lessee to divulge information relating to its work product, trade secrets, or methods of operation not commonly shared with a leasing agency. Failure to submit the report required by this section within 90 days following the anniversary date of the respective lease may be grounds for revoking and setting aside any lease as to which such report should have been made.

(2) The report required by this section may be introduced in evidence in behalf of the state or any agency thereof in any court proceeding as prima facie evidence of the information contained therein.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-236; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.512 Applicants for lease of gas, oil, or mineral rights; report as to lease holdings.—

Each applicant for a lease concerning oil, gas, or mineral exploitation or exploration in the state shall submit to the agency of the state issuing the lease a certified statement as to any lease holdings regarding oil, gas, or minerals the applicant has which were granted by the same or any other agency of the state. Such statement shall also include the number and identification of such leases issued and the state agency which issued the lease or leases.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-237.

253.52 Placing oil and gas leases on market by board.—Whenever in the opinion of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund there shall be a demand for the purchase of oil and gas leases on any area, tract, or parcel of the land so owned, controlled, or managed, by any state board, department, or agency, then the board shall place such oil and gas lease or leases on the market in such blocks, tracts, or parcels as it may designate. The lease or leases shall only be made after notice by publication thereof has been made not less than once a week for 4 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in Leon County, and in a similar newspaper for a similar period of time published in the vicinity of the lands offered to be leased, the last publication in both newspapers to be not less than 5 days in advance of the sale date. Such notice shall be to the effect that a lease or leases will be offered for sale at such date and time as may be named in said notice and shall describe the land upon which such lease, or leases, will be offered. Before any lease of any block, tract, or parcel of land, submerged, or unsubmerged, within a radius of 3 miles of the boundaries of any incorporated city, or town, or within such radius of any bathing beach, or beaches, outside thereof, such board, department, or agency, shall through one or more of its members hold a public hearing, after notice thereof by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published at least 1 week prior to said hearing in the vicinity of the land, or lands, offered to be leased, of the offer to lease the same, calling upon all interested persons to attend said hearing where they would be given the opportunity to be heard, all of which shall be considered by the board prior to the execution of any lease or leases to said land, and the board may withdraw said land, or any part thereof, from the market, and refuse to execute such lease or leases if after such hearing, or otherwise, it considers such execution contrary to the public welfare. Before advertising any land for lease the form of the lease or leases to be offered for sale, not inconsistent with law, or the provisions of this section, shall be prescribed by the board and a copy, or copies, thereof, shall be available to the general public at the office of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and the advertisements of such sale shall so state.

253.53 Sealed bids required.—All lands subject to this law shall be leased upon sealed bids. All bids shall be directed to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund. The board shall determine in advance the amount of royalty, never less than one-eighth in kind, or in value, and a definite rental, increasing annually after the first 2 years, upon lands not developed for oil or gas, or upon which no well has been commenced in good faith to secure production in paying quantities of gas or oil. The board may, in its discretion, incorporate within the terms of any lease provisions for pooling or unitizing the leased premises, in whole or in part, with other lands or leases; and provisions for payments that may be made in lieu of royalty on wells which have been completed as gas wells and are capable of producing gas in paying quantities but are shut in pending development of a satisfactory market outlet, provided this shut-in period pending development of a satisfactory market outlet shall not exceed 48 months from the date of completion of such gas well or wells as herein described, if the lease is not being otherwise maintained by drilling or reworking or by production, which, if made, shall operate to cause the lease to be considered as producing in paying quantities for all purposes thereof. In addition to such fixed charges for said lease, there shall be a cash consideration. The bids shall be for this cash consideration, offered for said lease, in addition to such fixed charges for royalty, rental, and payments in lieu of royalty, and shall be payable upon acceptance of said bid. All bids shall be accompanied by a cashier's check, or certified check, for the amount of such cash consideration and shall be payable to the state board, department, or agency which holds title to or controls the land offered for lease. No bid filed subsequent to the date and hour of sale specified in the advertisement of sale shall be considered.

253.54 Competitive bidding.—On the date and at the hour specified in the advertisement of sale, the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall at a public meeting, open and consider any and all bids submitted prior to such date and hour for the leasing of the land, or lands, so advertised, and, in the discretion of the board, award the lease to the highest and best bidder submitting a bid therefor; provided, that if, in the judgment of the board, the bids submitted do not represent the fair value of such lease, or leases, or the execution of same is contrary to the public welfare, or the responsibility of the bidder offering the highest amount has not been established to its satisfaction, or for any other reason, it may in its discretion reject said bids, give notice and call for new or other bids, or withdraw said land from the market. If several distinct blocks, parcels, or tracts of land can be separately considered, then, and in that event, the board may so consider them, but, if they cannot be so considered, then the rejection for any cause of the highest and best bid shall result in the rejection of all bids.

253.55 Limitation on term of lease.—

(1) Subject to the further provisions hereof, each lease shall be for a primary term prescribed by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund not to exceed 10 years from the date of the lease, and shall provide that such lease, upon which operations are being carried on in good faith and in a workmanlike and diligent manner with no cessation of more than 30 consecutive days, or oil or gas is being produced therefrom in paying quantities, shall remain in force and effect. The lease shall provide that if, after production is obtained therefrom, such production should cease, the lease may be maintained, if it is within the primary term, by commencing or resuming the payment of rentals or commencing operations for drilling or reworking said land, in good faith and in a workmanlike and diligent manner, on or before the rental payment date next ensuing after the expiration of 60 days, or, if it be after the expiration of the primary term, the lease may be maintained in force and effect by commencing and continuing operations for drilling or reworking said land for the development and production of oil or gas on or before 60 days after the cessation of production and prosecuting same with diligence and in a workmanlike manner with no cessation for more than 30 consecutive days, and if such operations within a reasonable time thereafter result in the production of oil or gas from such leased land in paying quantities, the lease shall remain in effect thereafter as long as oil or gas is produced therefrom in paying quantities. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to permit the automatic renewal of a lease by option after the expiration of the primary term, nor to permit the continuance of any lease except in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Each lease shall provide for its termination in the absence of drilling or reworking operations or production of oil or gas therefrom in paying quantities.

(3) Every such lease executed by the board of trustees shall require the lessee and his assigns to commence and complete operations for the drilling of at least one test well on the lands leased within the first two and one-half year period of the term of such lease and to commence and complete operations for the drilling of at least one additional well in each succeeding two and one-half-year period of the term of said lease, until the total number of wells drilled shall equal one-half the number of sections of land embraced in the lease, and, after commencing such operations, to prosecute same in good faith, and with reasonable diligence and in a workmanlike manner, to discover and to develop said land for the production of oil and gas, until such well is completed or abandoned. The lessee and his assigns, at the time the drilling of each well is commenced, shall file with the lessor a written declaration describing the two sections of land to which such well shall apply. If no well shall be commenced and continued to completion with reasonable diligence and in a workmanlike manner, to discover and develop said land for the production of oil and gas, until such well is completed or abandoned, within the first two and one-half year period of the term of such lease, the entire lease shall be void. If no additional well shall be commenced and continued to completion with reasonable diligence and in a workmanlike manner, to discover and develop said land for the production of oil and gas, until such well is completed, or abandoned, then such lease at the end of such applicable two and one-half year period of the term of such lease shall become forfeited and void as to all of the land covered by said lease except that upon which wells have been drilled in accordance with the provisions of this law.

History.—s. 5, ch. 22824, 1945; s. 1, ch. 69-238; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 6, ch. 69-369.

253.56 Responsibility of bidder.—Before the acceptance of any bid for such lease the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall establish to its satisfaction the responsibility of the bidder. And no lease shall be assigned in whole, or in part, nor any land covered thereby, until and except the board shall approve and consent to such assignment, and such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

History.—s. 6, ch. 22824, 1945; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 69-369.

253.57 Royalties.—The state's royalties, a part of the consideration of every lease, shall be computed after deducting any oil or gas reasonably used for the production hereof.

History.—s. 7, ch. 22824, 1945.

253.571 Surety or property bond required of lessee prior to commencement of drilling.—The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund shall require a surety or property bond from each lessee of public land prior to the time such lessee mines, drills or extracts in any manner, petroleum, petroleum products, gas, sulphur, or any other mineral from such land. The surety bond shall be from a surety company authorized to do business in the state. The bond shall serve as security and is to be forfeited to the board to pay for any damages caused by mining or drilling operations of the lessee. In the case of operations planned in the waters of the state or under other particular circumstances which, by their nature warrant greater security in view of possible damages, the board shall give special consideration to the extent of such possible damages and shall set the amount of an adequate and sufficient bond accordingly. For the purposes of this section damages shall include, but not be limited to, air and water pollution, destruction of wildlife or marine productivity and any other damage which impairs the health and general welfare of the citizens of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-367; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.58 Manner of drilling.—All wells in this law referred to required in the several periods of said lease to be drilled, shall be drilled in an efficient, diligent, and workmanlike manner, and in accordance with the best practice, to a depth of 6,000 feet before the abandonment thereof, unless oil or gas has been found in paying quantities at a lesser depth.

History.—s. 8, ch. 22824, 1945.

253.60 Conflicting laws.—The development of the lands leased by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund for the production of oil and gas therefrom shall be in accord with the laws of Florida relating to conservation and control and, if herein is found any conflict with those laws, such laws relating to conservation and control shall prevail.

History.—s. 10, ch. 22824, 1945; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 8, ch. 69-369.

253.61 Lands not subject to lease.—

(1) Regardless of anything to the contrary contained in this law in any previous section or part thereof, no board or agency mentioned therein or the state shall have the power or authority to sell, execute or enter into any lease of the type covered by this law relating to any of the following lands, submerged or unsubmerged, except under the circumstances and conditions as hereinafter set out in this section, to wit:

(a) No lease of the type covered by this law shall be granted, sold or executed covering such lands within the corporate limits of any municipality unless the governing authority of the municipality shall have first duly consented to the granting or sale of such lease by resolution.

(b) No lease of the type covered by this law shall be granted, sold or executed covering any such lands in the tidal waters of the state, abutting on or immediately adjacent to the corporate limits of a municipality or within 3 miles of such corporate limits extending from the line of mean high tide into such waters, unless the governing authority of the municipality shall have first duly consented to the granting or sale of such lease by resolution.

(c) No lease of the type covered by this law shall be granted, sold or executed covering such lands on any improved beach, located outside of an incorporated town or municipality, or covering such lands in the tidal waters of the state abutting on or immediately adjacent to any improved beach, or within 3 miles of an improved beach extending from the line of mean high tide into such tidal waters, unless the county commissioners of the county in which such beach is located shall have first duly consented to the granting or sale of such lease by resolution.

(2) For the purposes of this section and law an improved beach, situated outside of the corporate limits of any municipality or town, shall be and is hereby defined to be any beach adjacent to or abutting upon the tidal waters of the state and having not less than ten hotels, apartment buildings, residences or other structures, used for residential purposes, on or to any given miles of such beach.

History.—s. 11, ch. 22824, 1945.

253.62 Board of trustees authorized to convey certain lands without reservation.—

(1) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund in making exchanges of land under ss. 253.42 and 253.43, is hereby authorized in its discretion to convey said land without reservations of oil and gas or of phosphate and other minerals required by s. 270.11, where deeds to lands received in exchange convey title in fee simple without such reservations or to determine the part or parts to be reserved and the part or parts to be conveyed, so as to facilitate exchange on a basis as nearly equal as may be.

(2) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is further authorized in its discretion to convey land to the United States free from reservations for oil, gas, phosphate and other minerals, provided agreement satisfactory to the board be effectuated with the United States whereby, in the event oil, gas, phosphate or other minerals are ever produced from said land, said board shall receive the customary royalty therefrom. In any conveyance heretofore made to the United States for national park or related purpose subsequent to June 30, 1943, which contained such reservations, said board shall have authority to convey said reservations subject to the conditions hereof in respect to customary royalty.

(3) The authority to convey, granted in subsection (2), shall apply to the conveyance of lands by the board of trustees to the United States for the establishment of the Biscayne National Monument, as defined by Pub. L. No. 90-606 of the United States, and the board is authorized to convey public lands to the United States for the establishment of the Biscayne National Monument. All acts and actions of the board of trustees and all agreements between the board and the United States Government regarding the conveyance of any state lands to the United States for the establishment of the Biscayne National Monument are hereby ratified, confirmed, and validated. For the purposes of the conveyance authorized by this subsection, no provision of this chapter shall apply, and the board of trustees shall not be required, prior to such conveyance, to comply with any conditions precedent to sale of lands set out in this chapter, nor shall the board be required to reserve oil, gas, phosphate, or other mineral rights, or enter into an agreement for royalties, if any, if same are produced from said lands. However, the waiver herein shall not apply to the requirements of this chapter relating to the setting of bulkhead lines and to dredging and filling.

(4) The legislative intent embodied in this section is to authorize the board of trustees to convey or obligate itself to convey the herein referred to state-owned lands in accordance with the provisions of Pub. L. No. 90-606. Upon certification to the board by the United States Government that all private lands intended to be acquired have been acquired and that owners of private property who have not donated or otherwise conveyed their lands have been paid therefor, the conveyance herein authorized shall become absolute. Nothing herein shall alter the right of the United States Government to immediate possession of said state-owned lands.

253.66 Change in bulkhead lines, Pinellas County.—

(1) As soon as a county bulkhead line as provided in s. 253.122 has been fixed by the water and navigation control authority of Pinellas County around the mainland of the county and the offshore islands therein, and the bulkhead line has been formally approved by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of the state, all in accordance with the provisions of s. 253.122, no further change in said bulkhead line shall be made notwithstanding the provisions of s. 253.122(5).

(2) It is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature that subsection (1) is necessary for the protection of navigable waters in Pinellas County and the fish, wildlife and natural resources therein.

Note.—See s. 26, ch. 75-22, which repealed s. 253.122, relating to the power to fix bulkhead lines, and s. 7(3), ch. 75-22 (s. 253.1221), which reestablished all previously established bulkhead lines at the line of mean high water or ordinary high water.

253.665 Grant of easements, licenses, leases, etc.—

(1) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of this state is authorized and empowered to grant unto riparian owners as herein defined, their heirs, successors and assigns, perpetual easements and easements, licenses and leases for specified terms of years, permitting such riparian owners, their heirs, successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate structures and facilities on, in and under the bed of any navigable stream or any river owned in whole or in part by the state, for the purpose of providing water of a suitable quality for industrial, domestic or other use; provided, however, any instrument granting such easement, lease or license may contain provisions to the effect that such structures and facilities shall be so constructed as not to obstruct the channel of the stream or river or unreasonably interfere with navigation, commerce or fishing thereon.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term "riparian owners" shall include the owners of uplands bounded by either the high- or low-water mark of any stream or river and shall include lessees and licensees of any such owners or grantees in easements from such owners of such uplands or river bottoms. The term "channel" shall mean the marked, buoyed, or artificially dredged channel, if any, and if none, shall mean a space equal to 20 percent of the average width of the river or stream at the point concerned which furnishes uninterruptedly, through its course, the deepest water at mean low water.

(3) This section is cumulative and shall not restrict or limit any title, right, interest or privilege of any riparian owner under the common law.

253.67 Definitions.—As used in ss. 253.67-253.75:

(1) "Aquaculture" means the cultivation of animal and plant life in a water environment.

(2) "Water column" means the vertical extent of water, including the surface thereof, above a designated area of submerged bottom land.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Natural Resources.

(4) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 25, 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.68 Authority to lease submerged land and water column.—

To the extent that it is not contrary to the public interest, and subject to limitations contained in ss. 253.67-253.75, the board of trustees may lease submerged lands to which it has title for the conduct of aquaculture activities and grant exclusive use of the bottom and the water column to the extent required by such activities. Such leases may authorize use of the submerged land and water column for either commercial or experimental purposes. However no lease shall be granted by the board when there is filed with it a resolution of objection adopted by a majority of the county commission of a county within whose boundaries, if the same were extended to the extent of the interest of the state, the proposed leased area would lie. Said resolution shall be filed with the board of trustees within 30 days of the date of the first publication of notice as required by s. 253.70. Prior to the granting of any such leases, the board shall establish and publish a list of guidelines to be followed when considering applications for lease. Such guidelines shall be designed to protect the public's interest in submerged lands and the publicly owned water column.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.69 Application to lease submerged land and water column.—

Any applicant desiring to lease a portion of the submerged lands of this state for the purpose of conducting aquaculture activities shall file with the board a written application in such form as it may prescribe, setting forth the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant.

(2) A reasonably concise description of the location and amount of submerged land desired and either:

(a) Attaching a map or plat of a survey of such lands; or

(b) Enclosing a sum sufficient to defray the cost of such a survey as estimated by the department.

(3) A description of the aquaculture activities to be conducted, including a specification whether such activities are to be experimental or commercial and an assessment of the current capability of the applicant to carry on such activities.

(4) Such other information as the board of trustees may by regulation require.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 25, 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.70 Public notice and hearings.—

(1) Upon receiving an application under this act that satisfactorily sets forth the information required by s. 253.69, the board shall give notice of the application by publication in a newspaper published in the county in which the submerged lands are located not less than once a week for 3 consecutive weeks and mail copies of such notice by certified or registered mail to each riparian owner of upland lying within 1,000 feet of the submerged land proposed to be leased, addressed to such owner as his name and address appears on the latest county tax assessment roll.

(2) If no written objections are filed within 30 days after the date of first publication of the notice and if the board finds that the proposed lease is not incompatible with the public interest, the board has authority to consummate the lease contract as hereinafter provided. However, failure to mail the notice to the riparian upland owners shall not invalidate such lease.

(3) If written objections are filed, the board shall proceed to determine the same. Any required hearing shall be held in the county from which the application was received. Timely notice of such hearing shall be given by at least one publication in a newspaper published in the county in which the submerged lands are located and by certified or registered mail to each riparian owner of upland lying within 1,000 feet of the submerged land proposed to be leased, addressed to such owner as his name and address appears on the latest county tax assessment roll, in addition to any other notice required by law.

cf.—s. 1.01 "Registered mail" defined to include certified mail.

253.71 The lease contract.—When the board has determined that the proposed lease is not incompatible with the public interest and that the applicant has demonstrated his capacity to perform the operations upon which the application is based, it may proceed to consummate a lease contract having the following features in addition to others deemed desirable by the board:

(1) TERM.—The maximum initial terms shall be 10 years. Leases shall be renewable for successive terms up to the same maximum upon agreement of the parties. However, before renewing the term of any lease, the board shall invite objections by following the publication procedures of s. 253.70.

(2) RENTAL FEES.—

(a) The lease contract shall specify such amount of rental per acre of leased bottom as may be agreed to by the parties and shall take the form of:

1. Fixed rental to be paid throughout the term of the lease; or

2. A basic rental charge which will be supplemented by royalties after the productivity of the aquaculture enterprise has been established.

(b) In setting the amount of the rental charge or royalties the board shall consider such factors as the probable rates of productivity and the marketability and value of the product of the enterprise.

(c) All leases shall stipulate for the payment of the annual rental in advance on or before January 1. Failure of the lessee to pay such rent within 30 days of such date shall constitute ground for cancellation of the lease and forfeiture to the state of all works, improvements, and animal and plant life in and upon the leased land and water column.

(3) MAXIMUM AREA TO BE LEASED.—The board shall not lease a larger area of submerged land to any single lessee than has been demonstrated to be within his capacity to utilize efficiently and consistent with the public interest. However, the board may hold a reasonable area of adjacent bottom land in reserve for the time when a holder of an experimental lease will begin operation under a commercial lease. Successful conduct of aquaculture activities on an experimental basis may be accepted as a demonstration of capacity to conduct such operations on a commercial basis.

(4) PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS; BOND.—Failure of the lessee to perform substantially the aquaculture activities for which the lease was granted shall constitute ground for cancellation of the lease and forfeiture to the state of all the works, improvements, and animal and plant life in and upon the leased land and water column. In addition, the board shall require execution of a bond in an amount and with a surety satisfactory to it and conditioned upon the active pursuit of the aquaculture activities specified in the lease.

(5) DISPOSITION OF IMPROVEMENTS AT TERMINATION OF CONTRACT.—Each contract entered into under this act shall stipulate the disposition of improvements and assets upon the leased lands and waters, including animal and plant life resulting from aquaculture activities.

(6) ASSIGNABILITY OF LEASES.—Leases granted under this act shall be assignable in whole or in part with the approval of the board.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.72 Marking of leased areas; restrictions on public use.—

(1) The board shall require all lessees to stake off and mark the areas under lease by appropriate ranges, monuments, stakes, buoys, and fences, so placed as not to interfere unnecessarily with navigation and other traditional uses of the surface. All lessees shall cause the area under lease and the names of the lessees to be shown by signs appropriately placed pursuant to regulations of the board.

(2) Except to the extent necessary to permit the effective development of the species of animal or plant life being cultivated by the lessee, the public shall be provided with means of reasonable ingress and egress to and from the leased area for traditional water activities such as boating, swimming, and fishing. All limitations upon the use by the public of the areas under lease that are authorized by the terms of the lease shall be clearly posted by the lessee pursuant to regulations by the board. Any person willfully violating posted restrictions shall be guilty of a misdeemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 154, ch. 71-136.

253.73 Rules and regulations; ss. 253.67-253.75.—Subject to the requirements of chapter 120, the board may adopt rules and regulations necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of ss. 253.67-253.75.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

253.74 Penalties.—

(1) Any person who conducts aquaculture activities in excess of those authorized by lease agreement with the board or who conducts such activities on state-owned submerged lands without having previously leased the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to imprisonment for not more than 6 months or fine of not more than $1,000, or both. In addition to such fine and imprisonment, all works, improvements, animal and plant life involved in the project, may be forfeited to the state.

(2) Any person who is found by the Department of Natural Resources or the Department of Environmental Regulation to have violated the provisions of chapter 403 shall be subject to having his lease of state-owned submerged lands canceled.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 25-27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 10, ch. 79-65.

253.75 Studies and recommendations by the Department of Natural Resources and the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission; designation of recommended traditional and other use zones; supervision of aquaculture operations.—

(1) Prior to the granting of any lease under this act, the board shall request a recommendation by the Department of Natural Resources, when the application relates to tidal bottoms, and by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, when the application relates to bottom land covered by fresh water. Such recommendations shall be based on such factors as an assessment of the probable effect of the proposed leasing arrangement on the lawful rights of riparian owners, navigation, commercial and sport fishing, and the conservation of fish or other wildlife or other natural resources, including beaches and shores.

(2) The Department and the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission shall both have the following responsibilities with respect to submerged land and water column falling within their respective jurisdictions:

(a) To undertake, or cause to be undertaken, the studies and surveys necessary to support their respective recommendations to the board;

(b) To institute procedures for supervising the aquaculture activities of lessees holding under this act and reporting thereon from time to time to the board; and

(c) To designate in advance areas of submerged land and water column owned by the state for which they recommend reservation for uses that may possibly be inconsistent with the conduct of aquaculture activities. Such uses shall include, but not be limited to, recreational, commercial and sport fishing and other traditional uses, exploration for petroleum and other minerals, and scientific instrumentation. The existence of such designated areas shall be considered by the board in granting leases under this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-46; ss. 25, 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

¹Note.—See s. 11, ch. 75-22, which transfers all powers of the Department of Natural Resources relating to permits, licenses, and exemptions to the Department of Environmental Regulation.

253.76 Appeals; proceedings.—The Governor and Cabinet sitting as the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and as the owners of state lands are vested with the authority to hear and decide appeals of decisions of the Department of Environmental Regulation under this chapter. Notice of such appeal shall be filed with the Governor and Cabinet within 15 days of such decision. The hearing shall be appellate in nature; however, the Governor and Cabinet may, at their discretion, take additional testimony. Such hearings shall be completed and a decision rendered within 60 days of receipt of the appeal. Hearings shall be in accordance with provisions of chapter 120.

History.—s. 5, ch. 75-22; s. 11, ch. 79-65.

253.763 Judicial review relating to permits and licenses.—

(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agency" means any official, officer, commission, authority, council, committee, department, division, bureau, board, section, or other unit or entity of state government.

(b) "Permit" means any permit or license required by this chapter.

(2) Any person substantially affected by a final action of any agency with respect to a permit may seek review within 90 days of the rendering of such decision and request monetary damages and other relief in the circuit court in the judicial circuit in which the affected property is located; however, circuit court review shall be confined solely to determining whether final agency action is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation. Review of final agency action for the purpose of determining whether the action is in accordance with existing statutes or rules and based on competent substantial evidence shall proceed in accordance with chapter 120.

(3) If the court determines the decision reviewed is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation, the court shall remand the matter to the agency which shall, within a reasonable time:

(a) Agree to issue the permit;

(b) Agree to pay appropriate monetary damages; however, in determining the amount of compensation to be paid, consideration shall be given by the court to any enhancement to the value of the land attributable to governmental action; or

(c) Agree to modify its decision to avoid an unreasonable exercise of police power.

(4) The agency shall submit a statement of its agreed-upon action to the court in the form of a proposed order. If the action is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court shall enter its final order approving the proposed order. If the agency fails to submit a proposed order within a reasonable time not to exceed 90 days which specifies an action that is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court may order the agency to perform any of the alternatives specified in subsection (3).

(5) The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to the agency or substantially affected person, whichever prevails.

(6) The provisions of this section are cumulative and shall not be deemed to abrogate any other remedies provided by law.

(1) No department, including any division, bureau, section, or other subdivision thereof, or any other agency of the state possessing regulatory powers involving the issuance of permits shall issue any permit, license, or other evidence of authority involving the use of sovereignty or other lands of the state, title to which is vested in the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund or the Department of Natural Resources under chapter 253, until the applicant for such permit, license, or other evidence of permission shall have received from the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund the required lease, license, easement, or other form of consent authorizing the proposed use and exhibited it to such agency or department or subdivision thereof having regulatory power to permit such use.

(2) This act shall not apply to any permit, license, or other form of consent to take the regulated action which was issued and outstanding on June 23, 1976.

253.781 Authority to convey state-owned lands in the Ocklawaha River and Valley to the Federal Government for inclusion in Ocala National Forest.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to conserve and protect the natural resources and scenic beauty of the Ocklawaha River and Valley bounding the Ocala National Forest in Putnam and Marion Counties. It is the finding of the Legislature that said Ocklawaha River and Valley bounding the Ocala National Forest are areas containing and having a significant impact upon environmental and recreational resources of statewide importance and that public ownership of and access to such areas are necessary and desirable to protect the health, welfare, safety, and quality of life of the residents of this state and to implement s. 7, Art. II of the State Constitution. It is further the finding of the Legislature that ownership and control of the said lands by the Federal Government as part of the Ocala National Forest will properly protect and conserve the natural resources and scenic beauty of Florida, enhance recreational opportunities, and be in the public interest.

(2) The Department of Natural Resources is authorized and directed to transfer ownership of all lands or interests in lands owned by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, including all fee and less-than-fee interests in lands previously owned by the Canal Authority, contained within the extended boundary of the Ocala National Forest as shown on the map dated July 1978 on file with the Chief of the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, Washington, District of Columbia, and available to the public in the office of the appropriate United States regional forester, forest supervisor, or forest ranger and in the office of the Department of Natural Resources, to the United States Department of Agriculture for the purpose of inclusion in the Ocala National Forest. The Department of Natural Resources shall make such conveyance for payment of no less than the fair market value for such lands as authorized by the head of the Department of Natural Resources. Any conveyance by the Department of Natural Resources to the United States Department of Agriculture or other federal department or agency shall include the lands which comprise the Rodman Dam and Rodman Reservoir, also known as Lake Ocklawaha, only if the Governor and Cabinet, as the head of the Department of Natural Resources, shall determine that such conveyance is consistent with the conclusions of the land management plan required herein. If such plan shall provide for the continued use and maintenance of the Lake Ocklawaha lands for recreational and scientific purposes, any deed conveying such lands shall contain appropriate restrictions assuring such continued use.

(3) The Governor and Cabinet as the head of the Department of Natural Resources are empowered and authorized to acquire by purchase, exchange of other state lands, or the exercise of the power of eminent domain the fee title to lands acquired in less-than-fee title along the canal route within the area described in subsection (2). The Legislature finds that such exercise of the power of eminent domain to accomplish the purposes of this section is necessary and for a public purpose. Such power of eminent domain shall be exercised pursuant to the provisions of chapter 73.

(4) Lands transferred pursuant to this section by the Department of Natural Resources may reserve existing road rights-of-way.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-167.

Note.—Effective only upon deauthorization of the Cross Florida Barge Canal Project by the United States Congress, on the effective date of such deauthorization by the United States Congress.

253.782 Retention of state-owned lands in and around Lake Rousseau and the Cross Florida Barge Canal right-of-way from Lake Rousseau west to the Withlacoochee River.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to conserve, protect, and maintain the natural resources, recreational values, and water management capabilities of Lake Rousseau and the Withlacoochee River. It is the finding of the Legislature that said lands and waters are areas containing and having a significant impact on environmental and recreational resources of statewide importance and that public ownership of and access to such areas are necessary and desirable to protect the health, welfare, safety, and quality of life of the residents of this state and to implement s. 7, Art. II of the State Constitution. It is further the finding of the Legislature that retention of ownership and control of said lands by the state will properly protect and conserve the natural resources of Florida, enhance recreational opportunities, and be in the public interest.

(2) The Department of Natural Resources is authorized and directed to retain ownership of and maintain all lands or interests in land owned by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund including all fee and less-than-fee interests in lands previously owned by the Canal Authority in Lake Rousseau and the Cross Florida Barge Canal right-of-way from Lake Rousseau at U.S. Highway 41 west to and including the Withlacoochee River.

(3) The Governor and Cabinet as head of the Department of Natural Resources are empowered, authorized, and directed to acquire by purchase, exchange of other state lands, or the exercise of the power of eminent domain the fee title to any less-than-fee title interest in land owned by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, including interests previously owned by the Canal Authority, as described in subsection (2). The Legislature finds that such exercise of the power of eminent domain to accomplish the purposes of this section is necessary and for a public purpose. Such power of eminent domain shall be exercised pursuant to the provisions of chapter 73.

(4) The Department of Natural Resources shall recommend to the Governor and Cabinet the establishment of an interagency advisory committee to report to the department regarding restoration and management of the Withlacoochee River, with special emphasis on control of saltwater intrusion.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-167.

Note.—Effective only upon deauthorization of the Cross Florida Barge Canal Project by the United States Congress, on the effective date of such deauthorization by the United States Congress.

253.783 Additional powers and duties of the Department of Natural Resources.—

(1) The Department of Natural Resources shall make no further expenditures for the purpose of acquiring land for constructing, operating, or promoting a canal across the peninsula of Florida connecting the waters of the Atlantic Ocean with the waters of the Gulf of Mexico via the St. Johns River.

(2) It is declared to be in the public interest that the department shall do and is hereby authorized to do any and all things and incur and pay from the Cross Florida Barge Canal Trust Fund, for the public purposes described herein, any and all expenses necessary, convenient, and proper to:

(a) Develop a management plan to be submitted to the Legislature no later than 1 year from the effective date of this act for the retention or disposition of lands acquired for the Cross Florida Barge Canal and not disposed of by this act, which plan shall reflect a consideration of alternatives for disposition of all lands in fee or less than fee owned by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, including those previously owned by the Canal Authority and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, from the western boundary of the expanded Ocala National Forest west to U.S. Highway 41, the Cross Florida Barge Canal right-of-way from the Withlacoochee River west to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the eastern boundary of the expanded Ocala National Forest, as depicted by the map referred to in s. 253.781(2), east to the St. Johns River. Such alternatives for disposition will include possible retention by any interested state agency for specific public purposes and a declaration of lands not to be retained as surplus lands to be disposed of pursuant to paragraph (d), paragraph (e), or paragraph (f). The management plan shall also address any remedial measures necessary to correct any environmental or economic damage caused by works constructed as a part of or as a result of the uncompleted sections of the Cross Florida Barge Canal.

(b) Develop a management plan for the lands comprising the Rodman Dam and Rodman Reservoir, also known as Lake Ocklawaha, identifying the recreational and scientific management options which are most environmentally desirable and cost-effective. Such management plan shall contain a specific determination regarding the continued maintenance of the Rodman Dam and Reservoir (Lake Ocklawaha) or the drainage of the reservoir and restoration of the area to its former natural state, as the case may be.

(c) Operate and maintain existing lands and interests in lands, appurtenances, structures, and facilities until further disposition is directed by the Legislature pursuant to the management plan.

(d) Offer any land declared surplus, at current appraised value, to only the original owner from whom the Canal Authority of the State of Florida or the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers acquired the land but not to his heirs or assigns or any other person. The department shall offer and is authorized to reconvey, for no consideration, any donated land declared surplus to only the original donor or his heirs but not his assigns or any other person. These offers shall be made by public advertisement in not less than three newspapers of general circulation within the area of the canal route, one of which shall be a newspaper in the county where the lands declared surplus are located. These offers shall be valid for 1 calendar year from the date the management plan is adopted by the Legislature.

(e) Extend the second right of refusal to counties in which the surplus land lies for acquisition for specific public purposes with any such sale price at current appraised value charged against the dollar figure, including interest, of the repayment to be made to that county.

(f) Offer surplus lands not purchased or transferred under paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) to the highest bidder at public sale. Such surplus lands and the public sale shall be described and advertised in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the lands are located not less than 14 calendar days prior to the date on which the public sale is to be held. The current appraised value of such surplus lands will be the minimum acceptable bid.

(g) Refund to the counties of the Cross Florida Canal Navigation District funds derived from the conveyance of lands of the project to the Federal Government or any agency thereof, pursuant to s. 253.781, and from the sales of surplus lands pursuant to this section. Such refunds shall be in proportion to the ad valorem tax share paid to the Cross Florida Canal Navigation District by the respective counties. Refunds to the counties shall include interest on the amounts from the time of their payment by the counties to the date of repayment pursuant to this act. Interest to be refunded to the counties shall be compounded annually at the following rates: 1937-1950, 4 percent; 1951-1960, 5 percent; 1961-1970, 6 percent; 1971-1975, 7 percent; 1976-refund date, 8 percent. In computing interest, amounts already repaid to the counties shall not be subject to further assessments of interest. Any partial repayments provided to the counties under this act shall be considered as contributing to the total repayment owed to the counties. Should the funds generated by conveyance to the Federal Government and sales of surplus lands be more than sufficient to repay said counties in accordance with this section, such excess funds shall be deposited in the Cross Florida Barge Canal Trust Fund. In no case shall general revenue funds be used to repay interest owed to the counties.

(h) Establish an advisory committee to report to the department regarding the development of the management plan. This committee shall be composed of one representative from each of the following: Department of Natural Resources, Department of Environmental Regulation, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, Department of Transportation, ²Department of Administration-Division of State Planning, Southwest Florida Water Management District, St. Johns Water Management District, Duval County, Clay County, Putnam County, Marion County, Levy County, and Citrus County, and it shall also be composed of four members of the public at large appointed by the Governor and Cabinet. The department shall conduct public hearings to receive comments and recommendations as to the disposition of lands under the management plan.

(i) Carry out the purposes of this act.

(3) The department shall seek and utilize federal funds and enter into agreements with the Federal Government or any agency thereof to effectuate the purposes of this act.

²Note.—Effective only upon deauthorization of the Cross Florida Barge Canal Project by the United States Congress, on the effective date of such deauthorization by the United States Congress.

³Note.—See s. 2, ch. 79-190, which abolished the Division of State Planning and transferred the bulk of its powers, duties, and functions to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1253.784 Contracts.—The Department of Natural Resources shall have the power and authority to enter into any and all contracts necessary or convenient to the exercise of any of the powers granted to the department by this act. The department is authorized to assign, transfer, and convey to the United States, or to any appropriate agency thereof, such assets, franchises, and property, or interests therein, of the department, including lands, easements, and rights-of-way acquired by the state, and to accept moneys for the same as may be necessary or convenient to the exercise of such powers consistent with this act. The department is authorized to receive by dedication, grant, or transfer any fee or less-than-fee lands owned by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. The department is authorized to enter into agreements with the Federal Government for restoration of areas or receipt of funds for restoration of areas in and around Lake Rousseau, the Cross Florida Barge Canal right-of-way from Lake Rousseau to the Withlacoochee River, the Withlacoochee River, and the Cross Florida Barge Canal right-of-way from the eastern boundary of the expanded Ocala National Forest to the St. Johns River.

¹History.—s. 6, ch. 79-167.

²Note.—Effective only upon deauthorization of the Cross Florida Barge Canal Project by the United States Congress, on the effective date of such deauthorization by the United States Congress.

1253.785 Liberal construction of act.—It is intended that the provisions of this act shall be liberally construed for accomplishing the work authorized and provided for or intended to be provided for by this act, and when strict construction would result in the defeat of the accomplishment of any part of the work authorized by this act, and a liberal construction would permit or assist in the accomplishment thereof, the liberal construction shall be chosen.

¹History.—s. 10, ch. 79-167.

²Note.—Effective only upon deauthorization of the Cross Florida Barge Canal Project by the United States Congress, on the effective date of such deauthorization by the United States Congress.

ed by the United States from each of said forests, so that such distribution, when made, will include for each county the amount due each county, based upon the receipts for the particular forest, and the acreage in the particular county in which such forest is located; and said Comptroller shall issue a warrant on the State Treasurer in each case, payable to each of said counties, and the amount so apportioned to each county shall be applied by such counties, equally divided between the district school fund and the general road fund of said counties.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to proceeds received from insurance carried by a lessee of a donated building which was under lease at the time of donation and is not to be replaced. 255.04 Preference to home industries in building public buildings.—Every official board in the state, whether of the state, a county or municipality, which may be charged with the duty of erecting or constructing any public administrative or institutional building, shall give preference, in the purchase of material and in letting contracts for the construction of such building, to materialmen, contractors, builders, architects and laborers, who reside within the state, whenever such material can be purchased or the services of such materialmen, contractors, builders, architects and laborers, can be employed, at no greater expense than that which would obtain if such purchase was made, or contract let, or such employment given, to a person residing beyond the limits of the state; provided, however, that this section in no way prohibits the right of the said official boards to compare quality of materials proposed for purchase and to compare qualifications,

255.042 Shelter in public buildings.—

(1) It shall be the policy of the state that fallout protection be incorporated to the fullest practical extent in all public buildings of the state and its political subdivisions, which would have a floor area capable of sheltering 100 or more persons in order to provide protection against radiation hazards for the greatest number of persons, including employees of state and local government, in the event of nuclear attack.

(2) Every officer, department, board, agency or commission of the state, or of the political subdivisions thereof, responsible for the preparation of, or contracting for, plans and specifications for new public buildings, or for the substantial modification of or additions to existing public buildings, may require that the architect, architect-engineer firm, or other person or persons involved in the design of such buildings, provide a minimum protection factor of 40-to-1 or such protection as is possible within available funds in such design, or provide for consideration at the same time as the basic plan, alternate plans affording this protection.

(3) The Department of Community Affairs shall, in those cases where the architect-engineer firm does not possess the specialized training required for the inclusion of fallout protection in building design and, upon request from the architect-engineer concerned or the responsible state or local agency, provide, at no cost to the architect-engineer or agency, professional development service to increase fallout protection through shelter slanting and cost-reduction techniques.

(4) Nothing in this act shall be construed as establishing a mandatory requirement for the incorporation of fallout shelter in the construction, modification of, or addition to the public buildings concerned. It is mandatory, however, that the incorporation of such protection be given every consideration through acceptable shelter slanting and cost-reduction techniques. The responsible state or local official shall determine whether cost, or other related factors, precludes or makes impracticable the incorporation of fallout shelter in public buildings. Further, the Department of Community Affairs may waive the requirement for consideration of shelter in those cases where presently available shelter spaces equal or exceed the requirements of the area concerned.

(5) Nothing in this act shall apply to school buildings erected by the school board.

Those works of art acquired shall be displayed for viewing in public areas in the interior or on the grounds or exterior of the building and not in private offices or areas with limited public access.

(2) The Department of General Services shall, in consultation with the Fine Arts Council, determine any construction projects which may be exempt from the provisions of this section and shall determine the amount to be made available for purchase of works of art for each project. Payments therefor shall be made from funds appropriated for fixed capital outlay according to law.

(3) The selection and commissioning of artists or craftsmen, the reviewing of design, and the acceptance of works of art shall be the responsibility of the Fine Arts Council.

(4) This section shall not apply to any funds for the construction of public buildings if the funds were appropriated prior to July 1, 1979.

(1) Any person entering into a formal contract with the state or any county, city, or political subdivision thereof, or other public authority, for the construction of any public building, for the prosecution and completion of any public work, or for repairs upon any public building or public work shall be required, before commencing the work, to execute a payment and performance bond with a surety insurer authorized to do business in this state as surety. Such bond shall be conditioned that the contractor perform the contract in the time and manner prescribed in the contract and promptly make payments to all persons who are defined in s. 713.01, whose claims derive directly or indirectly from the prosecution of the work provided for in the contract. Any claimant may apply to the governmental entity having charge of the work for copies of the contract and bond and shall thereupon be furnished with a certified copy of the contract and bond. The claimant shall have a right of action against the contractor and surety for the amount due him. Such action shall not involve the public authority in any expense. However, at the discretion of the director of the Department of General Services when such work is done for the state, or at the discretion of the official or board awarding such contract when such work is done for any county, city, political subdivision, or public authority, any person entering into such a contract which is for $25,000 or less may be exempted from executing the [payment and performance bond].

(2) A claimant, except a laborer, who is not in privity with the contractor and who has not received payment for his labor, materials, or supplies shall, within 45 days after beginning to furnish labor, materials, or supplies for the prosecution of the work, furnish the contractor with a notice that he intends to look to the bond for protection. A claimant who is not in privity with the contractor and who has not received payment for his labor, materials, or supplies shall, within 90 days after performance of the labor or after complete delivery of the materials or supplies, deliver to the contractor and to the surety written notice of the performance of the labor or delivery of the materials or supplies and of the non-payment. No action for the labor, materials, or supplies may be instituted against the contractor or the surety unless both notices have been given. No action shall be instituted against the contractor or the surety on the bond after 1 year from the performance of the labor or completion of delivery of the materials or supplies.
